

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTION.

This Hymn Book is the result of an agreement between ALEXANDER CAMPBELL—the former proprietor of the Christian Hymn Book—and the Christian brotherhood at large, as represented in the American Christian Missionary Society. At the annual meeting of the Society, in 1864, an overture was made by Mr. Campbell, of the copy-right of the Christian Hymn Book, to be held by certain brethren, in trust, on two conditions : 1. That a committee be mutually agreed on, by himself and the Society, to revise and enlarge the book, or as to meet the general wishes of the brotherhood of Disciples : 2. That the profits arising from the sale of the book be given to the A. C. M. S. This overture was accepted, and the Committee of Revision was immediately appointed. That Committee, having fulfilled their task, now present the fruit of their labors to the public.

It will be seen that, while the former book was made the basis of this, the work of revision and enlargement has been made as thorough as possible. Still, comparatively few hymns have been expunged. After making as complete an exploration as our time would allow, of the realms of Christian Hymnology, we were more than ever convinced of the value of the labor, judgment, and taste, displayed in the compilation of the book we have so long used and cherished. We have met with no book of equal size, that possesses equal merit. The principal changes we have made, are :—

1.—A new classification of subjects—increasing the facility of reference to hymns on the various subjects of song.

2.—An unbroken series of numbers to the hymns, which, while it necessitates the abolition of the formal distinction between Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, enables us to avoid the confusion that constantly grew out of the three series of numbers, which the former classification required

THEOLOGICAL LIBRARY
CAMBRIDGE MASS

INTRODUCTION.

- 3.—The numbering of the stanzas of every hymn, reference, when any stanza is omitted in singing.
- 4.—An arrangement of meters, under every heading.
- 5.—A greatly enlarged number and variety of hymns, suited to the diversified wants of personal, social, and devotion.

We take pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to numerous brethren, for counsel and assistance; especially to Elder WILLIAM BAXTER, whose collected material and contributions have been cheerfully placed at our disposal.

While we have admitted a few original hymns expressly for this work, the additions have been made from the old authors, or from the new resources furnished by the living authors of our own and other lands. We believe that the work is brought fully up to the resource demands of the present time.

Knowing that in Christian families, the Hymn Book is generally the most popular book of sacred poetry, and seldom, the sole resource of the family in that department, we have felt the importance of a large variety of the lyrical productions that our language affords. We have done what our time and means would allow, toward that end. We hope that it may minister to the comfort, strengthen the purity of the Church of God; throw over many a stumbling stone, and many a weary pilgrim-path, the sweet rays of heavenly song; and give fresh encouragement to the cultivation of all pious sentiments and emotions, alike in the closet, the family, the prayer-meeting, and the public assembly.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

1 The works and the word of God. L. M.
 Psalm 19.

Psalm 19.

THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord!
In every star thy wisdom shines;
But when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days, thy power confess;
But the blest volume thou hast writ
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest
Till through the world thy truth has run ;
Till Christ has all the nations blest
That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of Righteousness! arise;
Bless the dark world with heavenly light.
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

Thy noblest wonders here we view,
 In souls renewed, and sins forgiven;
 Lord! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
 And make thy word my guide to heaven.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

2 Divine love displayed, etc. L. M.

TO thee my heart, Eternal King!
Would now its thankful tribute bring,
To thee its humble homage raise,
In songs of ardent, grateful praise.

- 2 All nature shows thy boundless love,
In worlds below and worlds above;
But in thy blessed word I trace
The richer glories of thy grace.
- 3 There what delightful truths are given;
There Jesus shows the way to heaven;
His name salutes my listening ear,
Revives my heart, and checks my fear.
- 4 There Jesus bids our sorrows cease,
And gives the laboring conscience peace;
Raises our grateful feelings high,
And points to mansions in the sky.
- 5 For love like this, O, may our song
Through endless years thy praise prolong;
And distant climes thy name adore,
Till time and nature are no more!

3 Nature and revelation. L. M.

THE starry firmament on high,
And all the glories of the sky,
Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord,
So brightly as thy written word.

- 2 The hopes that holy word supplies,
Its truths divine and precepts wise—
In each a heavenly beam I see,
And every beam conducts to thee.
- 3 Almighty Lord! the sun shall fail,
The moon forget her nightly tale,
And deepest silence hush on high
The radiant chorus of the sky—

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

4 But fixed for everlasting years,
Unmoved amid the wreck of spheres,
Thy word shall shine in cloudless day
When heaven and earth have passed away.

4 Strength and peace from the divine word. L. M.

THERE is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God;
Life, love, and joy still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.

2 That sacred stream, thy holy word,
Supports our faith, our fear controls;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

5 The Scriptures our light and guide. L. M.

WHEN Israel through the desert passed,
A fiery pillar went before,
To guide them through the dreary waste,
And lessen the fatigues they bore.

2 Such is thy glorious word, O God;
'T is for our light and guidance given;
It sheds a luster all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heaven.

3 It fills the soul with sweet delight,
And quickens its inactive powers;
It sets our wandering footsteps right,
Displays thy love, and kindles ours.

4 Its promises rejoice our hearts;
Its doctrine is divinely true;
Knowledge and pleasure it imparts;
It comforts and instructs us too.

5 Ye favored lands, who have this word!
Ye saints, who feel its saving power!
Unite your tongues to praise the Lord,
And his distinguished grace adore.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

- 6 Their words to the end of the world. L. M.
Psalm 19 : 4.

UPON the gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more divine.

- 2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.

- 3 More glorious still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world;—

- 4 Flow to restore, but not destroy;
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mist away.

- 7 Hold fast the form of sound words. L. M.
2 Tim. 1 : 13.

GOD'S law demands one living faith,
Not a gaunt crowd of lifeless creeds;
Its warrant is a firm "God saith;"
Its claim, not words, but loving deeds.

- 2 Yet, Lord, forgive; thy simple law
Grows tarnished in our earthly grasp;
Pure in itself, without a flaw,
It dims in our too worldly clasp.

- 3 We handle it with unwashed hands;
We stain it with unhallowed breath;
We gloss it with device of man's,
And hide thine image underneath.

- 4 Forgive the sacrilege, and take
From off our souls th' unworthy stain;
And show us, for thy Son's dear sake,
Thy pure and perfect law again.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

8 The entrance of thy word giveth light. L. P. M.
Psalm 119 : 130.

Psalm 119 : 130.

I LOVE the volume of thy word;
What light and joy those leaves afford
To souls benighted and distressed!
Thy precepts guide my doubtful way,
Thy fear forbids my feet to stray,
Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

2 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering eyes,
And warn me where my danger lies;
But 't is thy blessed gospel, Lord,
That makes my guilty conscience clean,
Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
And gives a free, but large reward.

3 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
My God, forgive my secret faults,
And from presumptuous sins restrain;
Accept my poor attempts of praise,
That I have read thy book of grace,
And book of nature, not in vain.

9 Thy word is a lamp. C. M.
 Psalm 119: 105.

Psalm 119: 105.

HOW precious is the book divine,
By inspiration giv'n!
Bright as a lamp its precepts shine,
To guide our souls to heav'n.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

- 2 The hand that gave it still supplies
His gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise—
They rise, but never set.
- 3 Let everlasting thanks be thine
For such a bright display,
As makes the world of darkness shine
With beams of heav'nly day.
- 4 My soul rejoices to pursue
The paths of truth and love,
Till glory breaks upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

12 Thy law is my delight. C. M.
Psalm 119 : 174.

- LORD, I have made thy word my choice,
My lasting heritage;
There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
My warmest thoughts engage.
- 2 I'll read the histories of thy love,
And keep thy laws in sight;
While through the promises I rove,
With ever fresh delight.
- 3 'Tis a broad land, of wealth unknown,
Where springs of life arise.
Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
And hidden glory lies.
- 4 The best relief that mourners have;
It makes our sorrows blest;
Our fairest hope beyond the grave,
And our eternal rest.

13 Revelation welcomed. C. M.

- HAIL, sacred truth! whose piercing rays,
Dispel the shades of night,
Diffusing o'er a sinful world,
The healing beams of light.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

2 Thy word, O Lord, with friend y and,
Restores our wandering feet,
Converts the sorrows of the mind,
To joys divinely sweet.

3 O, send thy light and truth abroad,
In all their radiant blaze;
And bid th' admiring world adore
The glories of thy grace.

14 O, how I love thy law. C. M.
Psalm 119 : 97.

O, HOW I love thy holy law!
'Tis daily my delight;
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.

2 I wake before the dawn of day,
To meditate thy word;
My soul with longing melts away,
To hear thy gospel, Lord.

3 How doth thy word my heart engage,
How well employ my tongue;
And in my tiresome pilgrimage,
Yields me a heaven y song.

4 When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.

15 Wherewithal shall a young man, etc. C. M.
Psalm 119 : 9.

HOW shall the young secure their hearts
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

2 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day,
And through the dangers of the night
A lamp to lead our way.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

3 Thy precepts make us truly wise;
We hate the sinner's road;
We hate our own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, O God.

4 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

16 Word of the everlasting God. C. M.

LAMP of our feet! whereby we trace
Our path when wont to stray;
Stream from the fount of heavenly grace!
Brook by the traveler's way!

2 Bread of our souls! whereon we feed!
True manna from on high!
Our guide and chart! wherein we read
Of realms beyond the sky.

3 Pillar of fire through watches dark,
And radiant cloud by day!
When waves would whelm our tossing bark,
Our anchor and our stay!

4 Word of the everlasting God!
Will of his glorious Son!
Without thee how could earth be trod,
Or heaven itself be won?

17 Quicken me according to thy word. O M.
Psalm 119: 25.

O LORD, thy precepts I survey;
I keep thy law in sight,
Through all the business of the day,
To form my actions right.

2 My heart in midnight silence cries,
"How sweet thy comforts be!"
My thoughts in holy wonder rise,
And bring their thanks to thee.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

- 1 Mine to chide me when I rove;
Mine to show a Saviour's love;
Mine thou art to guide and guard;
Mine to punish or reward;
- 3 Mine to comfort in distress,
Suffering in this wilderness;
Mine to show, by living faith,
Man can triumph over death;
- 4 Mine to tell of joys to come,
And the rebel sinner's doom:
O thou holy book divine!
Precious treasure, thou art mine!

21 Book of grace. 8s 7 & 4

BOOK of grace, and book of glory!
Gift of God to age and youth;
Wondrous in thy sacred story,
Bright, bright with truth.

- 2 Book of love! in accents tender,
Speaking unto such as we;
May it teach us, Lord, to render
All, all to thee.
- 3 Book of hope! the spirit sighing,
Consolation finds in thee;
As it hears the Saviour crying—
"Come, come to me."
- 4 Book of life! when we reposing,
Bid farewell to friends we love,
Give us for the life then closing,

22 The word more precious than gold. P. M.

PRECIOUS Bible! what a treasure
Does the word of God afford!
All I want for life or pleasure,
Food and med'cine, shield and sword:

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

- Let the world account me poor,
Having this I need no more.
- 2 Food to which the world's a stranger,
Here my hungry soul enjoys;
Of excess there is no danger,
Though it fills, it never cloy:
On a dying Christ I feed,
He is meat and drink indeed!
- 3 When my faith is faint and sickly,
Or when Satan wounds my mind,
Cordials to revive me quickly,
Healing med'cines here I find:
To the promises I flee,
Each affords a remedy.
- 4 In the hour of dark temptation,
Satan can not make me yield;
For the word of consolation
Is to me a mighty shield:
While the scripture truths are sure,
From his malice I'm secure.
- 5 Vain his threats to overcome me,
When I take the Spirit's sword;
Then, with ease, I drive him from me;
Satan trembles at the word:
'T is a sword for conquest made,
Keen the edge, and strong the blade.
- 6 Shall I envy, then, the miser,
Doating on his golden store?
Sure I am, or should be, wiser;
I am rich, 't is he is poor:
Jesus gives me in his word,
Food and med'cine, shield and sword!

23 The family Bible. 12's & 11's

HOW painfully pleasing the fond recollection
Of youthful connections and innocent joy,
When bless'd with parental advice and affection,
Surrounded with mercies—with peace from on hi

GOD, HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

I still view the chairs of my father and mother,
The seats of their offspring as ranged on each hand;
And that richest of books, which excell'd ev'ry other,
The family Bible that lay on the stand:
The old-fashion'd Bible, the dear, blest Bible,
The family Bible that lay on the stand.

2 That Bible, the volume of God's inspiration,
At morn and at ev'ning could yield us delight;
And the pray'r of our sire was a sweet invocation
For mercy by day and for safety thro' night;
Our hymn of thanksgiving with harmony swelling,
All warm from the heart of the family band,
Has rais'd us from earth to that rapturous dwelling
Describ'd in the Bible that lay on the stand:
The old-fashion'd Bible, the dear, blest Bible,
The family Bible that lay on the stand.

3 Ye scenes of tranquillity long have we parted,
My hopes almost gone and my parents no more,
In sorrow and sadness I live broken-hearted,
And wander unknown on a far-distant shore;
Yet how can I doubt a dear Saviour's protection,
Forgetful of gifts from his bountiful hand!
O let me with patience receive his correction,
And think of the Bible that lay on the stand:
The old-fashion'd Bible, the dear, blest Bible,
The family Bible that lay on the stand.

GOD: HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

24

Great is the Lord.

L. M.

PRAISE ye the Lord! 't is good to raise
Our hearts and voices in His praise:
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight.

2 Great is the Lord! and great his might,
And all his glories infinite:
His wisdom vast, and knows no bound,
A deep where all our thoughts are drown'd.

3 He loves the meek, rewards the just,
Humbles the wicked in the dust,
Melts and subdues the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.

GOD,

- 4 His saints are precious in his sight;
He views his children wth delight;
He sees their hope, he knows their fear,
Approves, and loves his image there

25 Eternity of God. L. M

ERE mountains reared their forms sublime,
Or heaven and earth in order stood,
Before the birth of ancient time,
From everlasting thou art God.

- 2 A thousand ages, in their flight,
With thee are as a fleeting day;
Past, present, future, to thy sight
At once their various scenes display.
- 3 But our brief life's a shadowy dream,
A passing thought, that soon is o'er,
That fades with morning's earliest beam,
And fills the musing mind no more.
- 4 To us, O Lord, the wisdom give
Each passing moment so to spend,
That we at length with thee may live,
Where life and bliss shall never end.

26 "How unsearchable are thy judgments." L. M.
Rom. 11 : 33.

LORD, my weak thought in vain would climb
To search the starry vault profound:
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.

- 2 But weaker, et that thought must prove
To search thy great eternal plan,—
Thy sovereign counsels, born of love
Long ages ere the world began.
- 3 When my dim reason would demand
Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
By some vast deep I seem to stand,
Whose secrets I must ask in vain.

HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

5 Be this my joy, that evermore
Thou rulest all things at thy will:
Thy sovereign wisdom I adore,
And calmly, sweetly, trust thee still.

27 Omnipresence of God. L. M

FATHER of spirits, nature's God!
Our inmost thoughts are known to thee:
Thou, Lord, canst hear each idle word,
And every private action see.

2 Could we, on morning's swiftest wings,
Pursue our flight through trackless air,
Or dive beneath deep ocean's springs,
Thy presence still would meet us there.

3 In vain may guilt attempt to fly,
Concealed beneath the pall of night;
One glance from thy all-piercing eye
Can kindle darkness into light.

4 Search thou our hearts, and there destroy
Each evil thought, each secret sin,
And fit us for those realms of joy,
Where naught impure shall enter in.

28 The Lord reigneth. L. M
Psalm 96: 10.

JEHOVAH reigns; his throne is high;
His robes are light and majesty;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe;
His justice guards his holy law;
His love reveals a smiling face;
His truth and promise seal the grace.

GOD,

- 3 Throught all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs;
His power is sovereign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of his will.
- 4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my father and my friend?
Then let my songs with angels' join:
Heav'n is secure, if God be mine.

29

Psalm 100.

L. M.

- WITH one consent let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise:
Glad homage pay, with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise:
- 2 Convinc'd that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock that he vouchsafes to feed.
- O! enter, then, his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press;
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.
- 4 For he's the Lord, supremely good,
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

30

Of him are all things.

L. M.

Rom. 11: 36.

- O SOURCE divine, and life of all,
The fount of being's wondrous sea!
Thy depth would every heart appall,
That saw not love supreme in thee.
- 2 We shrink before thy vast abyss,
Where worlds on worlds eternal brood;
We know thee truly but in this—
That thou bestowest all our good.

HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

- 3 And so, 'mid boundless time and space,
O grant us still in thee to dwell,
And through the ceaseless web to trace
Thy presence working all things well!

31 In him we live and move. L. M.
Acts 17: 28.

UNCHANGEABLE, all-perfect Lord!
Essential life's unbounded sea!
What lives and moves, lives by thy word;
It lives and moves and is, from thee!
Whate'er in earth, or sea, or sky,
Or shuns, or meets, the wandering thought,
Escapes, or strikes, the searching eye,
By thee was to existence brought.

- 2 High is thy power above all high;
Whate'er thy will decrees is done;
Thy wisdom, holiness and might
Can by no finite mind be known.
What our dim eyes could never see,
Is plain and naked in thy sight;
What thickest darkness veils, to thee
Shines clearly as the morning light.

- 3 Thine, Lord, is holiness, alone:
Justice and truth before thee stand:
Yet, nearer to thy sacred throne,
Love ever dwells at thy right hand.
And to thy love and ceaseless care,
Father! this light, this breath, we owe;
And all we have, and all we are,
From thee, great source of life! doth flow

32 The all-seeing God. L. M.

LORD, thou hast searched and seen me thro':
Thine eye commands with piercing view
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh with all their powers.

God,

- 2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak
Ere from my opening lips they break.
- 3 Within thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find thy hand:
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.
- 4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
What large extent! what lofty height!
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

33

Psalm 139.

L. M.

- LORD, thou hast formed mine every part.
Mine inmost thought is known to thee;
Each word, each feeling of my heart,
Thine ear doth hear, thine eye doth see.
- 2 Though I should seek the shades of night,
And hide myself in guilty fear,
To thee the darkness seems as light,
The midnight as the noonday clear.
- 3 The heavens, the earth, the sea, the sky,
All own thee ever present there;
Where'er I turn, thou still art nigh,
Thy Spirit dwelling everywhere.
- 4 O may that Spirit, ever blest,
Upon my soul in radiance shine,
Till, welcomed to eternal rest,
I taste thy presence, Lord divine!
- 34 God praised in all his works. L. M. 6 lines.
THOU art, O Lord, the boundless source,
Whence all our thousand blessings flow
And nature, through her endless course,
Proclaims thy love to all below;

HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

While all above join in the strain
Of ceaseless praises to thy name.

- 2 The sun on golden chariot rides,
And sends to earth his rays of light;
While darkness from his brightness hides,
And vanishes from human sight;
This sunlight, when it comes to earth,
Declares thy goodness gave it birth.
- 3 The moon and stars, that rule at night,
And smile upon this world of wrong,
Bear on each trembling chord of light
The notes of this sweet, sacred song:
"Thou, Lord, did'st make all things that
All are the creatures of thy love." [move;
- 4 Then help my poor, unworthy heart
To join aloud in nature's praise;
And may my song, in every part,
Proclaim the wonders of thy ways;
And when I reach the heavenly plains,
I'll sing thy love in nobler strains.

35 Lord, thou hast searched me, etc. C. M.
Psalms 139 : 1.

LORD, all I am is known to thee;
In vain my soul would try
To shun thy presence, or to flee
The notice of thine eye.

- 2 Thy all-observing eye surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
The secrets of my breast.
- 3 My thoughts lie open to thee, Lord,
Before they're form'd within,
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
Thou knowest all I mean.

GOD,

- 4 O let thine arms surround me still,
And like a bulwark prove,
To guard my soul from ev'ry ill,
Secur'd by sov'reign love.

36

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

C. M.

- (O) GOD, we praise thee, and confess
That thou the only Lord
And everlasting Father art,
By all the earth adored.
- 2 To thee all angels cry aloud,
To thee the powers on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim
Continually do cry,
- 3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
Whom heavenly hosts obey;
The world is with the glory filled
Of thy majestic sway.
- 4 The apostles' glorious company,
The prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.
- 5 The holy Church, throughout the world,
O Lord, confesses thee.
That thou th' eternal Father art
Of boundless majesty.

His praise endureth forever.

C. M.

Psalm 111: 10.

- SONGS of immortal praise belong
To my Almighty God;
He has my heart, and He my tongue,
To spread his name abroad.
- 2 How great the works his hand has wrought;
How glorious in our sight;
And men in every age have sought
His wonders with delight.

HIS BEING AND PERFECTIONS.

How most exact is nature's frame,
How wise the Eternal Mind;
His counsels never change the scheme
That his first thoughts designed.
When he redeemed his chosen sons,
He fixed his covenant sure;
The orders that his lips pronounce
To endless years endure.

18 O God, my heart is fixed. C. M.
 Psalm 57: 7.

O GOD! my heart is fully bent
To magnify thy name;
My tongue, with cheerful songs of praise,
Shall celebrate thy fame.

2 Be thou, O God! exalted high
Above the starry frame;
And let the world, with one consent,
Confess thy glorious name.

19 The Infinite One. C. M.

GREAT God! how infinite art thou,
What worthless worms are we;
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.

Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Ere seas or stars were made;
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.

Our lives through various scenes are drawn,
And vexed with trifling cares;
While thine eternal thoughts move on
Thine undisturbed affairs.

Great God! how infinite art thou,
What worthless worms are we;
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.

GOD,

40

He is with the rebus.

Psalm 7 : 9.

C. M.

GREAT God! thy penetrating eye
Pervades my inmost pow'rs;
With awe profound my wond'ring soul
Falls prostrate and adores.

2 To be encompass'd round with God,
The Holy and the Just,
Arm'd with omnipotence to save.
Or crush me to the dust,—

3 O how tremendous is the thought!
Deep may it be impress'd,
And may thy Spirit firmly grave
This truth within my breast.

4 Begirt with thee, my fearless soul
The gloomy vale shall tread;
And thou wilt bind th' immortal crown
Of glory on my head.

The Lord is great.

11's & 8's.

THE Lord is great! ye hosts of heaven, adore
And ye who tread this earthly ball; [him,
In holy songs rejoice aloud before him,
And shout his praise who made you all.

2 The Lord is great; his majesty how glorious!
Resound his praise from shore to shore;
O'er sin, and death, and hell, now made victo-
He rules and reigns for evermore. [rious,

3 The Lord is great; his mercy how abound-
Ye angels, strike your golden chords; [ing!
O praise our God, with voice and harp resound
The King of kings and Lord of lords. [ing

IN CREATION.

42 The Love of God. C. P. M.

MY God! Thy boundless love I praise;
How bright on high its glories blaze!
How sweetly bloom below!
It streams from thine eternal throne;
Through heaven its joys forever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.

2 'T is love that paints the purple morn,
And bids the clouds, in air upborne,
Their genial drops distill;
In every vernal beam it glows,
And breathes in every gale that blows,
And glides in every rill.

3 But in thy word I see it shine
With grace and glories more divine,
Proclaiming sins forgiven;
There, Faith, bright cherub, points the way
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.

4 Then let the love, that makes me blest,
With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
And ardent gratitude;
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To Thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good.

GOD IN CREATION.

43 The heavens declare the glory of God. L. M.
Psalm 19: 1.

THE spacio is firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heav'ns, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.

- 14 He is clothed with majesty. L. M.
Psalm 93: 1.

2 But ere this spacious world was made,
Or had its first foundation laid,
His throne eternal ages stood,
Himself the ever-living God.

3 For ever shall his throne endure;
His promise stands for ever sure;
And everlasting holiness
Becomes the dwellings of his grace.

IN CREATION.

15 All thy works praise thee L. M.
 Psalm 145: 10.

NATURE, with all her powers, shall sing
 God the Creator, and the King;
 Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas,
 Deny the tribute of their praise.

2 Begin to make his glories known,
 Ye seraphs, who sit near his throne;
 Tune high your harps, and spread the sound
 To the creation's utmost bound.

3 Thus let our flaming zeal employ
 Our loftiest thoughts, and loudest songs;
 Nations, pronounce with warmest joy
 Hosanna, from ten thousand tongues.

4 Yet, mighty God, our feeble frame
 Attempts in vain to reach thy name;
 The strongest notes that angels raise
 Faint in the worship and the praise.

46 Thy saints shall bless thee. L. M.
 Psalm 145: 10.

GREATEST of beings, source of life;
 Sov'reign of air, and earth, and sea!
 All nature feels thy pow'r, and all
 A silent homage pay to thee.

2 Wak'd by thy hand, the morning sun
 Pours forth to thee its earlier rays,
 And spreads thy glories as it climbs;
 While raptur'd worlds look up and praise.

3 The moon, to the deep shades of night,
 Speaks the mild luster of thy name;
 While all the stars, that cheer the scene,
 Thee, the great Lord of light, proclaim.

4 And groves, and vales, and rocks and hills,
 And ev'ry flower, and ev'ry tree,
 Ten thousand creatures, warm with life,
 Have each a grateful song for thee.

GOD,

- 5 But man was form'd to rise to heav'n;
And, blest with reason's clearer light,
He views his Maker through his works,
And glows with rapture at the sight.
6 Nor can the thousand songs that rise,
Whether from air, or earth, or sea,
So well repeat Jehovah's praise,
Or raise such sacred harmony.

PART FIRST.

47 A hymn of praise. L. M.

- SING to the Lord with cheerful voice;
From realm to realm the notes shall sound,
And heaven's exulting sons rejoice
To bear the full hosanna round.
2 When, starting from the shades of night,
Obedient, Lord, to thy behest,
The sun arrayed his limbs in light
And earth her virgin beauty drest;
3 Thy praise transported nature sung
In pealing chorus loud and far;
The echoing vault with rapture rung,
And shouted every morning star.
4 When, bending from his native sky,
The Lord of life in mercy came,
And laid his bright effulgence by,
To bear on earth a human name;
5 The song, by cherub voices raised,
Rolled through the dark blue depths ab
And Israel's shepherds heard amazed
The seraph notes of peace and love.

PART SECOND.

AND shall not man the concert join,
For whom this bright creation rose
For whom the fires of morning shine
And eve's still lamps, that woo rep

IN CREATION.

- 1 And shall not he the chorus swell,
Whose form the incarnate Godhead wore,
Whose guilt, whose fears, whose triumph tell
How deep the wounds his Saviour bore?
- 2 Long as yon glittering arch shall bend,
Long as yon orbs in glory roll,
Long as the streams of life descend
To cheer with hope the fainting soul,
- 3 Thy praise shall fill each grateful voice,
Shall bid the song of rapture sound:
And heaven's exulting sons rejoice
To bear the full hosanna round.

48 Praise of God peculiarly due from man. L. M.

- THERE seems a voice in every gale,
A tongue in every opening flower,
Which tells, O Lord! the wondrous tale
Of thy indulgence, love, and power.
- 2 The birds that rise on soaring wing
Appear to hymn their Maker's praise,
And all the mingling sounds of spring
To thee a general pæan raise.
 - 3 And shall my voice, great God, alone
Be mute 'midst nature's loud acclaim?
No; let my heart with answering tone
Breathe forth in praise thy holy name.
 - 4 And nature's debt is small to mine;
Thou bad'st her being bounded be,
But—matchless proof of love divine—
Thou gav'st immortal life to me.

49 God, the fountain of being, etc. L. M. 6 lines

THOU art, O God, the life and light
Of all the wondrous world we see;
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from thee;

GOD,

Where'er we turn, thy glories shine.
And all things fair and bright are thine.

- 2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze,
Through opening vistas, into heaven—
Those hues that mark the sun's decline,
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are thine.
- 3 When night, with wings of starry gloom,
O'ershadows all the earth and skies,
Like some dark, beauteous bird, whose plume
Is sparkling with unnumbered dyes—
That sacred gloom, those fires divine,
So grand, so countless, Lord, are thine.
- 4 When youthful spring around us breathes,
Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh;
And every flower that summer wreathes
Is born beneath thy kindling eye;
Where'er we turn, thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are thine.

50 God seen in all his works. C. M

I SING th' almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.

- 2 I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.
- 3 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word
And then pronounced them good.

IN CREATION.

- 4 Lord! how thy wonders are displayed;
Where'er I turn my eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!
- 5 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from thy throne.
- 6 Creatures that borrow life from thee
Are subject to thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee
But God is present there.

51 Bless the Lord, all his works. C. M.
Psalm 103: 22.

- PRAISE ye the Lord, immortal choir!
In heavenly heights above,
With harp, and voice, and soul of fire,
Burning with perfect love.
- 2 Shine to his glory, worlds of light!
Ye million suns of space;
Ye moon and glittering stars of night,
Running your mystic race.
- 3 Shout to Jehovah, surging main!
In deep eternal roar;
Let wave to wave resound the strain,
And shore reply to shore.
- 4 Storm, lightning, thunder, hail, and snow
Wild winds that keep his word,
With the old mountains far below,
Unite to bless the Lord.
- 5 And round the wide world let it roll,
Whilst man shall lead it on;
Join, every ransomed human soul,
In glorious unison.

GOD,

52

God seen in his works.

J. M.

THERE'S not a tint that paints the rose
Or decks the lily fair,
Or streaks the humblest flower that blows
But God has placed it there.

2 There's not a star whose twinkling light
Illumes the distant earth,
And cheers the solemn gloom of night
But goodness gave it birth.

3 There's not a cloud whose dew distill
Upon the parching clod,
And clothe with verdure vale and hill,
That is not sent by God.

4 There's not a place in earth's vast round,
In ocean deep, or air,
Where skill and wisdom are not found;
For God is ev'rywhere.

5 Around, beneath, below, above,
Wherever space extends,
There heaven displays its boundless love,
And pow'r with goodness blends.

53

Praise him in the firmament of his power. C. M.

Psalm 150: 1.

BEGIN my soul the lofty strain,
In solemn accents sing
A sacred hymn of grateful praise
To heaven's almighty King.

2 Ye curling fountains, as ye roll
Your silver waves along,
Whisper to all your verdant shores
The subject of my song.

3 Retain it long, ye echoing rocks,
The sacred sound retain,
And from your hollow winding caves
Return it oft again.

IN CREATION.

- 4 Bear it, ye winds, on all your wings,
To distant climes away,
And round the wide-extended world
The lofty theme convey.
- 5 Take the glad burden of his name,
Ye clouds, as you arise,
Whether to deck the golden morn
Or shade the ev'ning skies.
- 6 Whilst we, with sacred rapture fir'd,
The great Creator sing,
And utter consecrated lays
To heaven's eternal King.

54 The hymn of the seasons. C. M. D.

- THE heavenly spheres to thee, O God,
Attune their evening hymn;
All-wise, all-holy, thou art praised
In song of seraphim.
- Unnumbered systems, suns, and worlds,
Unite to worship thee,
While thy majestic greatness fills
Space, time, eternity.
- 2 Nature, a temple worthy thee,
Beams with thy light and love;
Whose flowers so sweetly bloom below
Whose stars rejoice above;
Whose altars are the mountain-cliffs
That rise along the shore;
Whose anthems, the sublime accord
Of storm and ocean roar.
- 3 Her song of gratitude is sung
By spring's awakening hours;
Her summer offers at thy shrine
Its earliest, loveliest flowers;

GOD,

Her autumn brings its golden fruits,
In glorious luxury given;
While winter's silver lights reflect
Thy brightness back to heaven.

55 The ineffable glory of God. C. H. M.

SINCE o'er thy footstool here below
Such radiant gems are strewn,
O, what magnificence must glow,
Great God, about thy throne!
So brilliant here these drops of light—
There the full ocean rolls, how bright!

2 If night's blue curtain of the sky—
With thousand stars inwrought,
Hung like a royal canopy
With glittering diamonds fraught—
Be, Lord, thy temple's outer vail.
What splendor at the shrine must dwell!

3 The dazzling sun at noonday hour—
Forth from his flaming vase
Flinging o'er earth the golden shower
Till vale and mountain blaze—
But shows, O Lord, one beam of thine;
What, then, the day where thou dost shine!

4 O, how shall these dim eyes endure
That noon of living rays!
Or how our spirits, so impure,
Upon thy glory gaze!
Anoint, O Lord, anoint our sight,
And fit us for that world of light.

56 The Lord Jehovah reigns S. M.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
Let all the nations fear;
Let sinners tremble at his throne,
And saints be humble there.

IN CREATION.

- 2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns;
 Let earth adore its Lord;
 Bright cherubs his attendants wait,
 Swift to fulfill his word.
- 3 In Zion stands his throne;
 His honors are divine;
 His church shall make his wonders known,
 For there his glories shine.
- 4 How holy is his name!
 How fearful is his praise!
 Justice, and truth, and judgment join
 In all the works of grace.

57

Jehovah reigns.

S. P. M.

THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
 And royal state maintains,
 His head with awful glories crowned;
 Arrayed in robes of light,
 Begirt with sovereign might,
 And rays of majesty around.

2 Upheld by thy commands,
 The world securely stands,
 And skies and stars obey thy word:
 Thy throne was fixed on high
 Before the starry sky:
 Eternal is thy kingdom, Lord!

3 Thy promises are true;
 Thy grace is ever new;
 There fixed, thy church shall ne'er remove:
 Thy saints, with holy fear,
 Shall in thy courts appear,
 And sing thine everlasting love.

GOD,

58 Let every thing that hath breath praise th' Lord. 7's.
Psalm 150.

PRAISE the Lord, his glories show,
Saints within his courts below.
Angels round his throne above,
All that see and share his love!

2 Earth to heaven, and heaven to earth,
Tell his wonders, sing his worth;
Age to age, and shore to shore,
Praise him, praise him, evermore!

3 Praise the Lord, his mercies trace;
Praise his providence and grace—
All that he for man hath done,
All he sends us through his Son.

4 Strings and voices, hands and hearts,
In the concert bear your parts:
All that breathe, your Lord adore;
Praise him, praise him, evermore!

59 Source of being, source of light. 7's. double

SOURCE of being, source of light,
With unfading beauties bright;
Thee, when morning greets the skies,
Blushing sweet with humid eyes;
Thee, when soft declining day
Sinks, in purple waves away;
Thee, O Parent, will I sing,
To thy feet my tribute bring!

1 Yonder azure vault on high,
Yonder blue, low, liquid sky;
Earth, on its firm basis placed,
And with circling waves embraced;
All-creating power confess,
All their mighty Maker bless;
Shaking nature with thy nod,
Earth and heaven confess their God.

IN CREATION.

2 Father, King, whose heaven'y face
Shines serene upon our race;
Mindful of thy guardian care,
Slow to punish, prone to spare;
We thy majesty adore,
We thy well-known aid implore;
Not in vain thy aid we call,
Nothing want, for thou art all!

60 All the earth doth worship thee. 7s.

GOD eternal, Lord of all!
Lowly at thy feet we fall.
All the earth doth worship thee,
We amid the throng would be.

2 All the holy angels cry,
Hail, thrice holy, God Most High.
Glorified Apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise.

61 God is love. 7s. 6 lines.
1 John 4: 8.

EARTH, with her ten thousand flowers,
Air, with all its beams and showers,
Ocean's infinite expanse,
Heaven's resplendent countenance;
All around, and all above,
Hath this record—God is love.

2 Sounds among the vales and fells,
In the woods and by the rills,
Of the breeze and of the bird,
By the gentle murmur stirr'd;
All these songs, beneath, above,
Have one burden—God is love.

3 All the hopes and fears that start
From the fountain of the heart;

GOD,

All the quiet bliss that lies
In our human sympathies;
These are voices from above,
Sweetly whispering—God is love

GOD IN PROVIDENCE.

62

Grace and glory.

L. M.

THE Almighty reigns exalted high
O'er all the earth, o'er all the sky;
Though clouds and darkness veil his feet,
His dwelling is the mercy-seat.

2 O ye that love his holy name,
Hate every work of sin and shame;
He guards the souls of all his friends,
And from the snares of hell defends.

3 Immortal light and joys unknown
Are for the saints in darkness sown;
Those glorious seeds shall spring and rise,
And the bright harvest bless our eyes.

4 Rejoice, ye righteous, and record
The sacred honors of the Lord;
None but the soul that feels his grace
Can triumph in his holiness.

God in all.

L. M.

THERE'S nothing bright, above, below,
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow,
But in its light my soul can see [glow,
Some features of the Deity.

2 There's nothing dark below, above,
But in its gloom I trace thy love,
And meekly wait the moment when
Thy touch shall make all bright again.

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 3 The light, the dark, where'er I look,
Shall be one pure and shining book,
Where I may read, in words of flame,
The glories of Thy wondrous name.

64 Be thou exalted, O my God. J. M.

MY God, in whom are all the springs
Of boundless love and grace unknown.
Hide me beneath thy spreading wings,
Till the dark cloud is overblown.

- 2 Up to the heavens I send my cry,
The Lord will my desires perform;
He sends his angels from the sky,
And saves me from the threatening storm.
- 3 My heart is fixed: my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name;
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise,
My tongue, the glory of my frame.
- 4 High o'er earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.
- 5 Be thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

65 Unchanging trust. J. M.

NO change of time shall ever shock
My firm affection, Lord, to thee;
For thou hast always been my rock,
A fortress and defense to me

- 2 Thou my deliv'rer art, my God;
My trust is in thy mighty pow'r;
Thou art my shield from foes abroad—
At home my safeguard and my tow'r.

GOD,

3 To thee I will address my pray'r,
To whom all praise I justly owe;
So shall I, by thy watchful care,
Be guarded from my treach'rous foe.

66 God ever near. L. M.

- O LOVE divine, that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee is cast each earth-born care,
We smile at pain while thou art near!
- 2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, thou art near:
- 3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, thou art near!
- 4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O love divine, forever dear,
Content to suffer while we know,
Living and dying, thou art near!

67 Contentment. L. M.

Phil. 4: 11.

- O LORD, how full of sweet content
My years of pilgrimage are spent!
Where'er I dwell, I dwell with thee,
In heaven, in earth or on the sea.
- 2 To me remains nor place nor time;
My country is in every clime:
I can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.
- 3 While place I seek or place I shun,
The soul finds happiness in none;
But with my God to guide my way
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

IN PROVIDENCE.

4 Could I be cast where thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot;
But regions none remote I call,
Seet re of finding God in all.

68 Thy will be done. L. M. 6 lines.

HE sendeth sun, he sendeth shower;
Alike they 're needful for the flower;
And joys and tears alike are sent
To give the soul fit nourishment:
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done!

2 Can loving children e'er reprove
With murmurers whom they trust and love?
Creator, I would ever be
A trusting, loving child to thee:
As comes to me, or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done!

3 O ne'er will I at life repine!
Enough that thou hast made it mine;
When falls the shadow cold of death,
I yet will sing, with parting breath—
As comes to me or shade or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done!

69 The wisdom of God. L. M.

WAIT, O my soul, thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals.
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and sea,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

GOD,

- 4 Wait then, my soul, submissive wait,
Prostrate before his awful seat;
And, 'midst the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

70

Psalm 23. L. M. 6 lines

- THE Lord my pasture shall prepare;
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye:
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.
- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountains pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
His bounty shall my pains beguile;
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With lively greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.
- 4 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord! art with me still;
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dismal shade.

71

Who is like unto thee, O Israel? L. M.
Deut. 33: 21.

- WITH Israel's God, who can compare?
Or who, like Israel, happy are?
O, people saved by the Lord,
He is our shield and great reward!

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 2 Upheld by everlasting arms,
 We are secure from foes and harms;
 In vain their plots, and false their boasts—
 Our refuge is the Lord of hosts!

72

Psalm 146.

L. P. M.

- I'LL praise my Maker while I've breath,
 And when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler pow'rs:
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
 While life and thought and being last,
 And immortality endures.
- 3 Happy the man whose hopes rely
 On Israel's God: he made the sky,
 And earth, and seas, with all their train.
 His truth forever stands secure:
 He saves th' oppress'd, he feeds the poor,
 And none shall find his promise vain.
- 3 The Lord pours eyesight on the blind:
 The Lord supports the fainting mind,
 He sends the lab'ring conscience peace:
 He helps the stranger in distress,
 The widow and the fatherless,
 And grants the pris'ner sweet release.
- 4 I'll praise him while he gives me breath,
 And when my voice is lost in death,
 Praise shall employ my nobler pow'rs:
 My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
 While life, and thought, and being last,
 And immortality endures.

73

God of Bethel.

C. M.

Gen. 28: 19-22.

O GOD of Bethel, by whose hand
 Thy people still are fed;
 Who through this weary pilgrimage
 Hast all our fathers led—

GOD,

2 Our vows, our pray'rs we now present
Before thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers, be the God
Of their succeeding race.

3 Through each succeeding path of life,
Our wand'ring footsteps guide;
Give us each day our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

4 O spread thy cov'ring wings around,
Till all our wand'rings cease,
And at our Father's lov'd abode
Our souls arrive in peace.

74 God the trust of his saints. C. M.

O THOU my light, my life, my joy,
My glory and my all!
Unsent by thee, no good can come,
Nor evil can befall.

2 Such are thy schemes of providence,
And methods of thy grace,
That I may safely trust in thee
Through all this wilderness.

3 'Tis thine outstretch'd and pow'rful arm
Upholds me in the way;
And thy rich bounty well supplies
The wants of ev'ry day.

4 For such compassion, O my God:
Ten thousand thanks are due;
For such compassion I esteem
Ten thousand thanks too few.

75 Our dwelling place in all generations. C. M.
Psalm 90.

O UR God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 2 Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
- 4 A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.
- 5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
- 6 Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

76 The goodness of God. C. M

SWEET is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In songs of glory sing.

- 2 God reigns on high, but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies;
Through the whole earth his bounty shines,
And every want supplies.
- 3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food,
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouths with good.

GOD,

- 4 How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word
To cheer the souls he loves.
- 5 Creatures, with all their endless race,
Thy power and praise proclaim;
But saints that taste thy richer grace
Delight to bless thy name.

77 Your heavenly Father feedeth them. C. 1
Matt. 6: 25-34.

- () WHY despond in life's dark vale?
Why sink to fears a prey?
Th' almighty power can never fail,
His love can ne'er decay.
- 2 Behold the birds that wing the air,
Nor sow nor reap the grain:
Yet God, with all a father's care,
Relieves when they complain.
- 3 Behold the lilies of the field:
They toil nor labor know;
Yet royal robes to theirs must yield,
In beauty's richest glow.
- 4 That God who hears the raven's cry,
Who decks the lily's form,
Will surely all your wants supply,
And shield you in the storm.
- 5 Seek first his kingdom's grace to share
Its righteousness pursue:
And all that needs your earthly care
He will bestow on you.

78 Gratitude. C. 1

WHEN all thy mercies, O my God,
My rising soul surveys,
Transported with the view I'm lost
In wonder, love, and praise.

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 When in the slippery paths of youth
With heedless steps I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.
- 4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ,
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
That tastes those gifts with joy.
- 5 Through every period of my life
Thy goodness I'll pursue;
And after death, in distant worlds,
The glorious theme renew.
- 6 Through all eternity, to thee
A joyful song I'll raise;
But O! eternity 's too short
To utter all thy praise!
- 79 Thy judgments are a great deep. C. M.
Psalm 36 : 6.

GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps on the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his gracious will.
- 3 You fearful saints, fresh courage take
The clouds you so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

GOD,

- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding ev'ry hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flow'r.
- 6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain:
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

80 My God, how wonderful thou art. C. M.

- MY God, how wonderful thou art,
Thy majesty how bright!
How glorious is thy mercy seat,
In depths of burning light!
- 2 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord,
Almighty as thou art;
For thou hast stooped to ask of me
The love of my poor heart.
- 3 No earthly father loves like thee,
No mother half so mild
Bears and forbears, as thou hast done
With me, thy sinful child.
- 4 My God, how wonderful thou art,
Thou everlasting Friend!
On thee I stay my trusting heart,
Till faith in vision end.

81 The God of my life. C. M.

- FATHER of mercies! God of love!
My Father and my God!
I'll sing the honors of thy name,
And spread thy praise abroad.

IN PROVIDENCE.

2 In every period of my life
Thy thoughts of love appear;
Thy mercies gild each transient scene,
And crown each passing year.

3 In all thy mercies, may my soul
A Father's bounty see;
Nor let the gifts thy grace bestows
Estrange my heart from thee.

4 Teach me, in times of deep distress,
To own thy hand, O God!
And in submissive silence learn
The lessons of thy rod.

5 Then may I close my eyes in death,
Redeemed from anxious fear:
For death itself, my God, is life,
If thou be with me there.

82

In the winds.

C. M.

Is. 27; 2.

GREAT Ruler of all nature's frame,
We own thy power divine;
We hear thy breath in every storm,
For all the winds are thine.

2 Wide as they sweep their sounding way,
They work thy sovereign will;
And, awed by thy majestic voice,
Confusion shall be still.

3 Thy mercy tempers every blast
To them that seek thy face,
And mingles with the tempest's roar,
The whispers of thy grace.

4 These gentle whispers let me hear,
Till all the tumult cease;
And gales of paradise shall lull
My weary soul to peace.

GOD,

83 His tender mercies are over all his works. C M
Psalm 145 : 9.

THY goodness, Lord, our souls confess;
Thy goodness we adore;—
A spring whose blessings never fail;
A sea without a shore.

2 Sun, moon, and stars thy love attest
In ev'ry golden ray;
Love draws the curtains of the night,
And love brings back the day.

3 Thy bounty ev'ry season crowns
With all the bliss it yields,
With joyful clusters loads the vines,
With strength'ning grain the fields.

4 But chiefly thy compassion, Lord,
Is in the gospel seen;
There, like a sun, thy mercy shines,
Without a cloud between.

5 There, pardon, peace, and holy joy,
Through Jesus' name are given;
He on the cross was lifted high,
That we might reign in heaven.

84 Seeing him who is invisible. C. M. 6 lines

BEYOND, beyond that boundless sea,
Above that dome of sky,
Further than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high:
Yet dear the awful thought to me,
That thou, my God, art nigh:—

2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
Feels after thee in vain,
Thee in these works of power to find,
Or to thy seat attain.

Thy messenger, the stormy wind;
Thy path, the trackless main:

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 3 These speak of thee with loud acclaim;
 They thunder forth thy praise,
 The glorious honor of thy name,
 The wonders of thy ways:
 But thou art not in tempest-flame,
 Nor in the noontide blaze.
- 4 We hear thy voice when thunders roll
 Through the wide fields of air;
 The waves obey thy dread control;
 But still, thou art not there:
 Where shall I find him, O my soul!
 Who yet is every where?
- 5 O! not in circling depth or height,
 But in the conscious breast,
 Present to faith, though veiled from sight;
 There doth his Spirit rest:
 O, come, thou Presence infinite!
 And make thy creature blest.

85

Just and true are thy ways.
Rev. 15: 3.

C. M.

- SINCE all the varying scenes of time
 God's watchful eye surveys,
 O, who so wise to choose our lot,
 Or to appoint our ways!
- 2 Good when he gives,—supremely good,—
 Nor less when he denies;
 E'en crosses, from his sov'reign hand,
 Are blessings in disguise.
- 3 Why should we doubt a Father's love
 So constant and so kind?
 To his unerring, gracious will
 Be every wish resign'd.

GOD,

86

God is love.

1 John 4: 8

C.

I CAN not always trace the way
Where thou, almighty One, dost move;
But I can always, always say,
That God is love.

2 When fear her chilling mantle flings
O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
As to her native home, upsprings;
For God is love.

3 When myst'ry clouds my darkened path,
I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove;
In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love.

4 O may this truth my heart employ,
And every gloomy thought remove;
It fills my soul with boundless joy,
That God is love!

87

Thou hast taught me from my youth.

C.

Psalm 71.

ALMIGHTY Father of mankind!
On thee my hopes remain;
And when the day of trouble comes,
I shall not trust in vain.

2 In early years, thou wast my guide,
And of my youth the friend;
And, as my days began with thee,
With thee my days shall end.

3 I know the Power in whom I trust,
The arm on which I lean;
He will my Saviour ever be,
Who has my Saviour been.

4 Thou wilt not cast me off, when age
And evil days descend;
Thou wilt not leave me in despair,
To mourn my latter end.

IN PROVIDENCE.

5 Therefore, in life I'll trust in thee;
In death I will adore;
And after death will sing thy praise,
When time shall be no more.

88

All things are yours.

1 Cor. 3: 21.

C. M.

SINCE God is mine, then present things
And things to come are mine;
Yea, Christ, his word, and Spirit, too,
And glory all divine.

2 Since he is mine, then from his love,
He every trouble sends;
All things are working for my good,
And bliss his rod attends.

3 Since he is mine, I need not fear
The rage of earth and hell;
He will support my feeble power,
Their utmost force repel.

4 Since he is mine, let friends forsake,
Let wealth and honors flee:
Sure, he who giveth me himself,
Is more than these to me.

5 Since he is mine, I'll boldly pass
Through death's dark, lonely vale;
He is my comfort and my stay,
When heart and flesh shall fail.

6 And now, O Lord, since thou art mine
What can I wish beside?
My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

89

Providence.

C. M.

LET the whole race of creatures lie
In dust before the Lord!
Whate'er his pow'rful hand has form'd,
He governs with a word.

GOD,

- 2 Ten thousand ages ere the skies
Were into motion brought,
All the long years and worlds to come,
Stood present to his thought.
- 3 There's not a sparrow, or a worm,
O'erlook'd in his decrees:
He raises monarchs to a throne,
Or sinks with equal ease.
- 4 If light attend the course I go,
'T is he provides the rays;
And 't is his hand that hides the sun,
If darkness cloud my days.
- 5 Trusting his wisdom and his love,
I would not wish to know
What, in the book of his decrees,
Awaits me here below.
- 6 Be this alone my fervent pray'r:
Whate'er my lot may be,
Or joys or sorrows—may they form
My soul for heav'n and thee!

90

Majesty of God.
Psalms 18.

C. M.

- THE Lord descended from above
And bowed the heavens most high,
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.
- 2 On cherubim and seraphim
Full royally he rode;
And on the wings of mighty winds,
Came flying all abroad.
- 3 He sat serene upon the floods,
Their fury to restrain;
And he, as sovereign Lord and King,
For evermore shall reign.

IN PROVIDENCE.

11

Now we know in part.

1 Cor. 13 : 12.

S. M.

THY way is in the sea;
Thy paths we can not trace;
Nor solve, O Lord! the mystery
Of thy unbounded grace.

2 Here the dark vails of sense
Our captive souls surround;
Mysterious deeps of providence
Our wond'ring thoughts confound.

3 As through a glass we see
The wonders of thy love;
How little do we know of thee,
Or of the joys above.

4 In part we know thy will,
And bless thee for the sight;
Soon will thy love the rest reveal
In glory's clearer light.

5 With joy shall we survey
Thy providence and grace;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

92

He careth for you.

1 Pet. 5 : 7.

S. M.

HOW gentle God's commands!
How kind his precepts are!
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust his constant care.

2 His bounty will provide,
His saints securely dwell;
That hand which bears creation up
Shall guard his children well.

3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind?
O, seek your heavenly Father's throne,
And peace and comfort find.

602,

- 4 His goodness stands approved,
Unchanged from day to day;
I'll drop my burden at his feet,
And bear a song away.

93

Praise for mercies.

S. M.

- O BLESS the Lord, my soul!
Let all within me join,
And add my tongue to bless his name
Whose favors are divine.
- 2 O bless the Lord, my soul!
Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.
- 3 'Tis he forgives thy sins;
'Tis he relieves thy pain;
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And gives thee strength again.
- 4 He crowns thy life with love,
When rescued from the grave,
He, that redeem'd our souls from death,
Hath boundless power to save.
- 5 He fills the poor with good;
He gives the suff'ers rest.
The Lord hath justice for the proud,
And mercy for the oppress'd.
- 6 His wondrous works and ways
He made by Moses known;
But sent the world his truth and grace
By his beloved Son.

94

Psalms 23.

S. M.

- THE Lord my shepherd is;
I shall be well supplied:
Since he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want beside?

IN PROVIDENCE.

- 2 He leads me to the place
Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.
- 3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me, in his own right way,
For his most holy name.
- 4 While he affords his aid,
I can not yield to fear;
Tho' I should walk thro' death's dark shade,
My shepherd's wish me there.

95

His mercy endureth forever.

S. M.

Psalm xvi.

- MY soul, repeat his praise
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
 - 3 His power subdues our sins,
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.
 - 4 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel:
He knows our feeble frame.
 - 5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

GOD,

- 6 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

96

The fountain.

S. M.

GOD is the fountain whence
Ten thousand blessings flow;
To him my life, my health, and friends,
And every good, I owe.

- 2 The comforts he affords
Are neither few nor small;
He is the source of fresh delights,
My portion and my all.
- 3 He fills my heart with joy,
My lips attunes for praise;
And to his glory I'll devote
The remnant of my days.

97

Psalm 136.

7's.

- LET us with a joyful mind
Praise the Lord, for he is kind;
For his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
Let us sound his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God
Who by wisdom did create
Heaven's expanse and all its state;
- 2 Did the solid earth ordain
How to rise above the main;
Who, by his commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light;
Caused the golden-tress'd sun
All the day his course to run;
And the moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright.

IN PROVIDENCE.

3 All his creatures God doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need,
Let us therefore warble forth
His high majesty and worth.
He his mansion hath on high,
'Bove the reach of mortal eye;
And his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

18

Thou art my hiding place.

P. M.

Psalm 32: 1.

TO thee, O God! to thee,
With lowly heart I bend;
Lord, to my prayer attend,
And haste to succor me.
Thou never-failing friend!
For seas of trouble o'er me roll,
And whelm with tears my sinking soul.

On thee, O God! on thee,
With humble hope I'll lean:
Thou who hast ever been

A hiding place to me
In many a troubled scene;
Whose heart with love and mercy fraught
Back to the fold thy wand'rer brought.

19

The elder brother.

8's & 7's.

YES, for me, for me he careth
With a brother's tender care;
Yes, with me, with me he shareth
Every burden, every fear.
2 Yes, o'er me, o'er me he watcheth,
Ceaseless watcheth, night and day
Yes, ev'n me, ev'n me he snatcheth
From the perils of the way.
3 Yes, for me he standeth pleading,
At the mercy-seat above;
Ever for me interceding,
Constant in un tiring love

699,

- 4 Yes, in me abroad he sheddeth
Joy's unearthly, love and light;
And to cover me he spreadeth
His paternal wing of might.
- 5 Yes, in me, in me he dwelleth;
I in him, and he in me!
And my empty soul he filleth,
Here and through eternity.
- 6 Thus I wait for his returning,
Singing all the way to heaven:
Such the joyful song of morning
Such the tranquil song of even.

100

Jehovah's fire.

Gen. 22: 14.

101

- THOUGH troubles assail, and dangers affright,
Though friends should all fail, and foes all unite,
Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
The scripture assures us, The Lord will provide.
- 2 The birds without barn or storehouse are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread:
His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 't is written, The Lord will provide.
 - 3 We may, like the ships, by tempests be tossed
On perilous deeps, but can not be lost:
Though Satan enrages the wind and the tide,
The promise engages, The Lord will provide.
 - 4 His call we obey, like Abrah'm of old,
Not knowing our way, but faith makes us bold;
For though we are strangers, we have a good guide,
And trust, in all dangers, The Lord will provide.
 - 5 No strength of our own, or goodness, we claim;
But since we have known the Saviour's great name.
In this our strong tower for safety we hide—
The Lord is our power—The Lord will provide.
 - 6 When life sinks apace, and death is in view,
The word of his grace shall comfort us through;
Not fearing or doubting, with Christ on our side,
We hope to die shouting, The Lord will provide.

IN PROVIDENCE.

191 Praise the King of heaven. 8's & 7's.

PRAISE, my soul, the King of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like me his praise should sing?
Praise him! praise him!
Praise the everlasting King!

2 Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him, still the same for ever;
Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
Praise him! praise him!
Glorious in his faithfulness!

3 Father-like he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes;
Praise him! praise him!
Widely as his mercy flows!

4 Angels, help us to adore him:
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him;
Dwellers all in time and space,
Praise him! praise him!
Praise with us the God of grace!

102 God glorious. 10's & 11's

O WORSHIP the King all-glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love—
Our shield and defender, the ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendor and girded with praise.

2 O tell of his might, and sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy, space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

GOD,

- 4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail,
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Preserver, and Friend.
- 5 O Father Almighty, how faithful thy love!
While angels delight to hymn thee above,
The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
With true adoration shall lip to thy praise.

103

Psalm 23.

11

- THE Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know;
I feed in green pastures, safe folded I rest;
He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow,
Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppress
- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray
Since thou art my guardian, no evil I fear;
Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay;
No harm can befall, with my comforter near.
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread;
With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er;
With perfume and oil thou anointest my head;
O what shall I ask of thy providence more?
- 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God!
Still follow my steps till I meet thee above;
I seek, by the path which my forefathers trod,
Through the land of their sojourn, thy kingdom of love

104

Fear not, little flock. 9s. 6s. &
Luke 12: 32.

YES! our shepherd leads with gentle hand
Through the dark pilgrim-land,
His flock, so dearly bought,
So long and fondly sought.
Hallelujah!

- 2 When in clouds and mist the weak ones stray
He shows again the way,
And points to them afar
A bright and guiding star.
Hallelujah!

IN REDEMPTION.

- 3 Tenderly he watches from on high
 With an unwearied eye;
 He comforts and sustains,
 In all their fears and pains.
Hallelujah!
- 4 Through the parch'd, dreary desert he will
 To the green fountain-side: [guide]
 Through the dark, stormy night,
 To a calm land of light.
Hallelujah!
- 5 Yes! his "little flock" are ne'er forgot;
 His mercy changes not:
 Our home is safe above,
 Within his arms of love.
Hallelujah!

IN REDEMPTION.

105 God only wise. L. M.

- A WAKE, my tongue; thy tribute bring
 To him who gave thee power to sing;
 Praise him who is all praise above,
 The source of wisdom and of love.
- 2 How vast his knowledge! how profound!
 A depth where all our thoughts are drowned!
 The stars he numbers, and their names
 He gives to all those heav'nly flames.
- 3 Through each bright world above, behold
 Ten thousand thousand charms unfold;
 Earth, air, and mighty seas combine
 To speak his wisdom all divine.
- 4 But in redemption, O, what grace!
 Its wonders, O, what thought can trace!
 Here, wisdom shines forever bright;
 Praise him, my soul, with sweet delight.

GOD,

106

Grace.

L. M.

MY God, how excellent thy grace!
Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

2 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord,
And in thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in thy word.

107

Creation and redemption.

L. M.

GIVE to our God immortal praise;
Mercy and truth are all his ways:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

2 Give to the Lord of lords renown,
The King of kings with glory crown:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When lords and kings are known no more.

3 He built the earth, he spread the sky,
And fixed the starry lights on high:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

4 He fills the sun with morning light,
He bids the moon direct the night:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When suns and moons shall shine no more.

5 He sent his Son with power to save
From guilt and darkness, and the grave:
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

6 Through this vain world he guides our feet,
And leads us to his heavenly seat:
His mercies ever shall endure,
When this vain world shall be no more.

IN REDEMPTION.

108

The reconciliation.

L. M.

O LOVE, beyond conception great,
That form'd the vast, stupendous plan,
Where all divine perfections meet
To reconcile rebellious man.

2 There wisdom shines in fullest blaze,
And justice all her right maintains—
Astonish'd angels stoop to gaze,
While mercy o'er the guilty reigns.

3 Yes, mercy reigns, and justice too;
In Christ they both harmonious meet;
He paid to justice all her due;
And now he fills the mercy seat.

109

What is man?

L. M.

Psalm 8.

LORD, what is man! Extremes how wide
In this mysterious nature join!
The flesh to worms and dust allied,
The soul immortal and divine.

2 Divine at first, a holy flame
Kindled by heaven's inspiring breath;
Till sin, with pow'r prevailing, came;
Then follow'd darkness, shaine, and death.

3 But Jesus, O amazing grace!
Assum'd our nature as his own,
Obey'd and suffer'd in our place,
Then took it with him to his throne.

4 Now what is man, when grace reveals
The virtue of a Saviour's blood?
Again a life divine he feels,
Despises earth and walks with God!

5 And what, in yonder realms above,
Is ransom'd man ordain'd to be!
With honor, holiness, and love
No seraph more ador'd than he.

GOD,

- 6 Nearest the throne, and first in song,
Man shall his hallelujahs raise;
While wond'ring angels round him throng
And swell the chorus of his praise.

110 Love—that passeth knowledge. L. M.

O LOVE of God, how strong and true!
Eternal and yet ever new;
Above all price, and still unbought,
Beyond all knowledge and all thought.

- 2 O wide embracing, wondrous love,
We read thee in the sky above,
We read thee in the earth below,
In seas that swell and streams that flow.

- 3 We read thee best in him who came
To bear for us the cross of shame;
Sent by the Father from on high,
Our life to live, our death to die.

- 4 O love of God, our shield and stay,
Through all the perils of our way;
Eternal love, in thee we rest,
For ever safe, for ever blest.

111 Nature and grace. C. M.

FATHER! how wide thy glory shines!
How high thy wonders rise!
Known through the earth by thousand signs,
By thousand through the skies.

- 2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power,
Their motions speak thy skill;
And on the wings of every hour
We read thy patience still.

- 3 But when we view thy strange design
To save rebellious worms,
Where justice and compassion join
In their divinest forms,

IN REDEMPTION.

Our thoughts are lost in rev'rent awe,
We love and we adore;
The brightest angel never saw
So much of God before.

Here the whole Deity is known
But thought can never trace
Which of the glories brighter shine,
The justice, or the grace.

Now the full glories of the Lamb
Adorn the heavenly plains:
Bright seraph's learn Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains.

O! may I bear some humble part
In that immortal song;
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

12 Heaven and earth are full of his glory. O. M.

ETERNAL Wisdom, thee we praise;
Thee all thy creatures sing;
While with thy name, rocks, hills, and seas,
And heaven's high palace, ring.

Thy hand, how wide it spread the sky!
How glorious to behold!
Ting'd with a blue of heav'nly dye,
And deck'd with sparkling gold.

Almighty pow'r, and equal skill,
Shine through the worlds abroad,
Our soul with vast amazement fill,
And speak the builder, God.

But still, the wonders of thy grace
Our warmer passions move;
Here we behold our Saviour's face,
And here adore his love.

GOD,

113

God is love.

O. M.

COME, ye that know and fear the Lord!
And raise your souls above;
Let every heart and voice accord
To sing that—God is love.

2 This precious truth his word declares,
And all his mercies prove;
While Christ, th' atoning Lamb, appears,
To show that—God is love.

3 Behold his loving-kindness waits
For those who from him rove,
And calls for mercy reach their hearts,
To teach them—God is love.

4 O! may we all, while here below,
This best of blessings prove;
Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
Shall shout that—God is love.

114

No joy without God.

C. M.

Psalm 73.

GOD! my supporter and my hope,
My help for ever near,
Thine arm of mercy held me up
When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord! shall guide my feet
Through this dark wilderness;
Thy hand conduct me near thy seat,
To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven without my God,
'T would be no joy to me;
And while this earth is my abode
I long for none but thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
And flesh and heart should faint?
God is my soul's eternal rock,
The strength of every saint.

IN REDEMPTION.

115

Jehovah my strength. 8's, 7's & 4's.

GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land:
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy pow'ful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open thou the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar,
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliv'rer,
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid the swelling stream divide;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

116

God is light and love. 8's & 7's.

GOD is love; his mercy brightens
All the path in which we move;
Bliss he grants, and we he lightens;
God is light, and God is love.

2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Worlds decay and ages move;
But his mercy waneth never:
God is light, and God is love.

3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth,
His unchanging goodness proves;
From the cloud his brightness streameth
God is light, and God is love.

4 He our earthly cares entwineth
With his comforts from above;
Everywhere his glory shineth;
God is light, and God is love.

CHRIST,

THE NATIVITY.

Like 2: 11.

L. M.

WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still,
And silence slept on Zion's hill, [night,
When Bethlehem's shepherds, through the Watched o'er their flocks by starry light—

- 2 Hark! from the midnight hills around,
A voice of more than mortal sound,
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.
- 3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came;
High heaven with songs of triumph rung,
While thus they struck their harps and sung
- 4 "O Zion, lift thy raptured eye;
The long-expected hour is nigh;
The joys of nature rise again;
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.
- 5 "See, Mercy, from her golden urn,
Pours a rich stream to them that mourn;
Behold, she binds with tender care,
The bleeding bosom of despair.
- 6 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart;
Bids Satan and his host depart;
Again the day-star gilds the gloom,
Again the bowers of Eden bloom."

118

Genesis 3: 15.

L. M.

BEHOLD the woman's promis'd seed!
Behold the great Messiah come!
Behold the Prophets all agreed
To give him the superior room!

- 2 Abrah'm, the saint, rejoic'd of old,
When visions of the Lord he saw;
Moses, the man of God, foretold
This great fulfiller of his law.

THE NATIVITY.

- 3 The types bore witness to his name,
Obtain'd their chief design, and ceas'd—
The incense and the bleeding lamb,
The ark, the altar, and the priest.
- 4 Predictions in abundance join
To pour their witness on his head:
Jesus, we bow before thy throne,
And own thee as the promis'd seed.

HYMN FOR CHRISTMAS.

119 Glory to God—good will to men. P. M.

- IN hymns of praise, eternal God,
When thy creating hand
Stretch'd the blue arch of heaven abroad,
And meted sea and land,
The morning stars together sung,
And shouts of joy from angels rung.
- 2 Than earth's prime hour, more joyous far
Was the eventful morn,
When the bright beam of Bethlehem's star
Announc'd a Saviour born!
Then sweeter strains from heaven began,
"Glory to God—good will to man."
- 3 Babe of the manger! can it be?
Art thou the Son of God?
Shall subject nations bow the knee,
And kings obey thy nod?
Shall thrones and monarchs prostrate fall
Before the tenant of a stall?
- 4 'Tis he! the hymning seraphs cry,
While hov'ring drawn to earth;
'Tis he! the shepherds' songs reply;
Hail! hail! Immanuel's birth:
The rod of peace those hands shall bear,
That brow a crown of glory wear!

THE CHRIST, PART

- 5 'Tis he! the eastern sages sing,
And spread their golden hoard;
'Tis he! the hills of Zion ring,
Hosanna to the Lord!
The Prince of long prophetic years
To-day in Bethlehem appears!

120

Song of the angels.

C. M. I

- IT came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold:
"Peace to the earth, good will to men
From heaven's all-gracious King:"
The world in solemn stillness lay
To hear the angels sing.
- 2 Still through the cloven skies they come
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.
- 3 Yet with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And men, at war with men, hear not
The love-song which they bring:
O! hush the noise, ye men of strife,
And hear the angels sing!
- 4 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toll along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow;

THE NATIVITY.

Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O! rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing!

- 5 For lo! the days are hast'ning on,
By prophet-bards foretold.
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendor fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

121

Mortals, awake.

C. M.

MORTALS! awake, with angels join,
And chant the solemn lay;
Love, joy, and gratitude combine
To hail the auspicious day.

- 2 In heav'n the rapt'rous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And swept the sounding lyre.
- 3 The theme, the song, the joy was new
To each angelic tongue;
Swift through the realms of light it flew,
And loud the echo rung.
- 4 Down through the portals of the sky
The pealing anthem ran,
And angels flew with eager joy
To bear the news to man.
- 5 Hark! the cherubic armies shout,
And glory leads the song,
Peace and salvation swell the note
Of all the heav'nly throng.

CHRIST,

- 6 With joy the chorus we'll repeat,
"Glory to God on high!
Good will and peace are now complete—
Jesus was born to die!"
- 7 Hail, Prince of life! fit rever hail!
Redeemer—brother—friend!
Though earth, and time, and life shall fail,
Thy praise shall never end.

122 Isaiah 9: 6. C. M.

- TO us a child of hope is born,
To us a Son is given;
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
Him, all the hosts of heaven.
- 2 His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
For evermore adored,
The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
The great and mighty Lord.
- 3 His power, increasing, still shall spread;
His reign no end shall know;
Justice shall guard his throne above,
And peace abound below.

123 The day-spring from on high. C. M

- CALM on the listening ear of night,
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains.
- 2 Celestial choirs, from courts above,
Shed sacred glories there,
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.
- 3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply;
And greet, from all the'r holy heights,
The day-spring from on high.

THE NATIVITY.

- 4 O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm.
And Sharon waves, in solemn praise,
Her silent groves of palm.
- 5 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring—
"Peace to the earth, good will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."
- 6 Light on thy hills, Jerusalem!
The Saviour now is born!
And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains
Breaks the first Advent morn.

124

The Advent.

C. M.

- HARK, the glad sound! the Saviour
The Saviour promised long! [comes!
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
- 2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And on the eyeballs of the blind
To pour celestial day.
- 4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And with the treasures of his grace
To enrich the humble poor.
- 5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
The welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

CHRIST,

125

Joy to the world.

O M.

- J OY to the world; the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.
- 2 Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and
Repeat the sounding joy. [plains,
- 3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.
- 4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

126

Christ is born in Bethlehem.

7a.

Luke 2.

- HARK! the herald angels sing,
"Glory to the new-born King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
God and sinners reconciled."
- 2 Joyful, all ye nations, rise;
Join the triumphs of the skies;
With th' angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
- 3 See, he lays his glory by;
Born that man no more may die;
Born to raise the sons of earth;
Born to give them second birth.
- 4 Vailed in flesh the Godhead see!
Hail, th' incarnate Deity!
Pleased as man with man to dwell,
Jesus, our Immanuel!

THE NATIVITY.

- 5 Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
 Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
 Light and life to all he brings,
 Ris'n with healing in his wings.
- 6 Let us then with angels sing,
 "Glory to the new-born King!—
 Peace on earth, and mercy mild;
 God and sinners reconciled!"

127

The Wonderful.

7a.

- BRIGHT and joyful was the morn
 When to us a child was born;
 From the highest realms of heaven
 Unto us a Son was given.
- 2 On his shoulder he shall bear
 Pow'r and majesty—and wear
 On his vesture and his thigh
 Names most awful—names most high.
- 3 Wonderful in counsel he,
 Christ th' incarnate Deity;
 Sire of ages ne'er to cease,
 King of kings, and Prince of Peace.
- 4 Come and worship at his feet,
 Yield to him the homage meet;
 From his manger to his throne,
 Homage due to God alone.

128

Watchman, what of the night!

7a.

Isaiah 21 : 11.

- WATCHMAN, tell us of the night
 What its signs of promise are.
 Traveler, o'er yon mountain's height
 See that glory-beaming star!
- 2 Watchman, does its beauteous ray
 Aught of joy or hope foretell?
 Traveler, yes: it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.

CHRIST,

- 3 Watchman, tell us of the night:
Higher yet that star ascends.
Traveler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.
- 4 Watchman, will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler, ages are its own:
See! it bursts o'er all the earth!
- 5 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
- 6 Watchman, let thy wandering cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Traveler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God is come!

129

A Bethlehem hymn.

78

- HE has come! the Christ of God;—
Left for us his glad abode;
Stooping from his throne of bliss,
To this darksome wilderness.
- 2 He has come; the Prince of Peace;—
Come to bid our sorrows cease;
Come to scatter, with his light,
All the shadows of our night.
- 3 He the mighty King has come!
Making this poor earth his home;
Come to bear sin's heavy load;—
Son of David, Son of God.
- 4 He has come, whose name of grace
Speaks deliv'rance to our race;
Left for us his glad abode;
Son of Mary, Son of God!

THE NATIVITY.

- 5 Unto us a child is born!
 Ne'er has earth beheld a morn
 Numbered in the morns of time,
 Half so glorious in its prime.
- 6 Unto us a Son is given!
 He has come from God's own heav'n;
 Bringing with him from above,
 Holy peace and holy love.

30 7s.
Immanuel.

- GOD with us! O glorious name!
 Let it shine in endless fame;
 God and man in Christ unite—
 O mysterious depth and height!
- 2 God with us! amazing love
 Brought him from his courts above;
 Now, ye saints, his grace admire,
 Swell the song with holy fire.
- 3 God with us! O wondrous grace!
 Let us see him face to face;
 That we may Immanuel sing,
 As we ought, our God and King.

31 P. M.
Silent night.

- SILENT night! hallowed night!
 Land and deep silent sleep;
 Softly glitters bright Bethlehem's star,
 Beck'ning Israel's eye from afar
 Where the Saviour is born.
- 2 Silent night! hallowed night!
 On the plain wakes the strain,
 Sung by heavenly harbingers bright,
 Fraught with tidings of boundless delight:
 Christ the Saviour has come.

CHRIST,

- 3 Silent night! hallowed night!
Earth, awake, silence break,
High your anthems of melody raise,
Heaven and earth in full chorus of praise
Peace for ever shall reign.

132

Good tidings of great joy.
Luke 2.

H 1

- HARK! hark! the notes of joy
Roll o'er the heavenly plains,
And seraphs find employ
For their sublimest strains:
Some new delight in heaven is known;
Loud sound the harps around the throne.

- 2 Hark! hark! the son of David draws nigh,
The joyful host descends;
The Lord forsakes the sky,
To earth his footsteps bends:
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

- 3 Bear, bear the tidings round!
Let every mortal know
What love in God is found,
What pity he can show:
Ye winds that blow, ye waves that roll,
Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

- 4 Strike, strike the harps again,
To great Immanuel's name!
Arise, ye sons of men,
And all his grace proclaim:
Angels and men, wake every string,
'Tis God the Saviour's praise we sing!

133 Shepherds hail the wondrous stranger 7s. & 5

- SHEPHERDS! hail the wondrous stranger,
Now to Beth'lem speed your way;
Lo! in yonder humble manger,
Christ, the Lord is born to-day.

THE NATIVITY.

2 Bright the star of your salvat.on,
 Pointing to his rude abode;
 Rapturous news for every nation:
 Now, behold the Son of God.

3 Love eternal moved the Saviour;
 Thus to lay his radiance by;
 Blessings on the Lamb forever;
 Glory be to God on high.

134

Chorus of the Angels.
Luke 2: 14.

8s. & 7s

HARK! what joyful notes are swelling
 On the quiet midnight air!
 'T is the voice of angels telling
 Jesus comes our sins to bear!
 Now, the music, in its gladness,
 Breaks, and swells, and glides along!
 Now, earth, waking from her sadness,
 Joins the chorus of the song!
 Glory in the highest heaven!
 Peace on earth, good will to man
 Let all praise to God be given,
 For Redemption's glorious plan!

2 See all darkness disappearing,
 As the Star begins to rise!
 Sin and Death stand, trembling, fearing,
 As the light falls on their eyes;
 Now, again, the earth rejoices,
 Satan's powerful kingdom shakes,
 As, from all the heavenly voices,
 Louder still, the chorus breaks!—
 Glory in the highest heaven! etc.

3 Rise and shine, Star of salvation!
 Spread thy beams o'er all the earth,
 Till each distant land and nation
 Owns and speaks thy matchless worth!

CHRIST,

Till all tongues, thy praises singing,
Shall thy mighty wonders tell,
Till all heav'n with joy is ringing,
As our hearts the chorus swell:—
Glory in the highest heaven! etc.

- 4 When our days on earth are ended,
And we rise to worlds above,
Then, our songs shall all be blended
In one song of pard'ning love!
Then we'll tell the wond'rous story,
And our blesséd Lord adore!
In our home of bliss and glory
We shall sing for ever more!—
Glory in the highest heaven!
Sound aloud the joyful strain!
Glory to the Lamb be given,
Who for sinners once was slain !

135 Hark ! what mean those holy voices. 8s. & 7s.

HARK! what mean those holy voices,
Sweetly sounding through the skies?
Lo! th' angelic host rejoices;
Heavenly hallelujahs rise.

- 2 Hear them tell the wond'rous story,
Hear them chant in hymns of joy—
“Glory to the highest, glory!
Glory be to God most high!
- 3 “Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found;
Souls redeemed, and sins forgiven!”
Loud our golden harps shall sound.
- 4 “Christ is born, the great Anointed;
Heaven and earth his praises sing!
O receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King!

THE NATIVITY.

- b "Haste, ye mortals, to adore him ·
 Learn his name, and taste his joy;
 Till in heaven ye sing before him—
 'Glory be to God most high!'"

136 Christ, the Saviour, born. 8s. & 7a.

HAILE, thou long expected Jesus!
 Born to set thy people free;
 From our sins and fears release us,
 Let us find our rest in thee.

2 Israel's strength and consolation,
 Hope of all the saints, thou art;
 Long-desired of every nation,
 Joy of every waiting heart.

3 Born, thy people to deliver,—
 Born a child, yet Christ our King,—
 Born to reign in us for ever,—
 Now thy gracious kingdom bring.

4 By thine own eternal Spirit,
 Rule in all our hearts alone;
 By thine all-sufficient merit,
 Raise us to thy glorious throne.

137 Come and worship. 8s. 7s. & 4a

ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
 Wing your flight o'er all the earth,
 Ye who sang creation's story,
 Now proclaim Messiah's birth;
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.

2 Shepherds, in the field abiding,
 Watching o'er your flocks by night,
 God with man is now residing,
 Yonder shines the infant-light;
 Come and worship,
 Worship Christ, the new-born King.

CHRIST,

- 3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen his natal star;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.
- 4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly, the Lord descending,
In his temple shall appear;
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

138 Hail the blest morn. 11s & 1

HAIL the blest morn! when the great Mediator
Down from the regions of glory descends!
Shepherds, go worship the babe in the manger;
Lo! for your guide the bright angel attends!

CHORUS.

Brightest and best of the sons of the mornin'
Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thy aid
Star of the East, the horizon adorning.
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore him in slumbers reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all!
- 3 Say, shall we yield him in costly devotion,
Odors of Eden, and off'rings divine;
Gems from the mountain, and pearls from the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer earth's richest oblation,
Vainly with gold would his favor secure;
Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor!

139 Hallelujah to the Lamb. 1

FROM the regions of love, lo! an angel descended,
And told the strange news how the babe was attend;
Go, shepherds, and visit the wonderful stranger;
See yonder bright star!—there's your Lord in a manger!

CHORUS.

*Hallelujah to the Lamb who has purchased our part
We'll praise him again when we pass over Jordan!*

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

- 2 Glad tidings I bring unto you and each nation !
Glad tidings of joy—now behold your salvation ;
Then suddenly multitudes raise their glad voices,
And shout hallelujahs, while heaven rejoices !
- 3 Now glory to God in the highest be given,
All glory to God is re-echoed from heaven ;
Around the whole earth let us tell the glad story,
And sing of his love, his salvation, and glory.
- 4 O Jesus ! ride on, thy kingdom is glorious :
Over sin, death, and hell, thou'lt make us victorious !
Thy banner unfurl—let the nations surrender,
And own thee their Saviour, their Lord and Defender !

140 Glory to God in the highest. P. M

HARK! from the world on high
Glory to God!
Now swells along the sky
Glory to God!
Songs, like sweet notes of praise,
Pour forth in rapturous lays,
As all the voices raise
Glory to God!

- 2 Hear how the angels sing
Glory to God!
Through all the heavens ring
Glory to God!
Now, let each heart on earth
Sing of the Saviour's birth,
Telling his matchless worth,
Glory to God!

CHRIST, LIFE AND MINISTRY.

141 His teaching. J. M.

HOW sweetly flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and gladness filled the place!

CHRIST,

- 2 From heaven he came, of heav'n he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unvailing an immortal day.
- 3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home;
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest:"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

142

His baptism. L. M. 6 lines.

- IN Jordan's tide the Baptist stands,
Immersing the repenting Jews;
The Son of God the rite demands,
Nor dares the holy man refuse:
Jesus descends beneath the wave,
The emblem of his future grave!
- 2 Wonder, ye heavens! your Maker lies
In deeps concealed from human view;
Ye saints, behold him sink and rise;
A fit example this for you:
The sacred record, while you read,
Calls you to imitate the deed.
- 3 But, lo! from yonder op'ning skies,
What beams of dazzling glory spread!
Dove-like the Holy Spirit flies,
And lights on the Redeemer's head:
Amaz'd they see the power divine
Around the Saviour's temples shine.
- 4 But, hark! my soul, hark, and adore!
What sounds are those that roll along
Not loud, like Sinai's awful roar;
But soft and sweet as Gabriel's song:
"This is my well-belov'd Son,
I see well-pleased what he hath done."

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

- 5 Thus the eternal Father spoke,
 Who shakes creation with a nod,
 Through parting skies the accents broke,
 And bid us hear the Son of God.
 O hear the awful word to-day;
 Hear, all ye nations, and obey!

143

His holy life.

L. M.

- AND is the gospel peace and love?
 Such let our conversation be:
 The serpent blended with the dove—
 Wisdom and meek simplicity.
- 2 Whene'er the angry passions rise,
 And tempt our thoughts or tongues to
 On Jesus let us fix our eyes, [strife,
 Bright pattern of the Christian life.
- 3 O how benevolent and kind!
 How mild! how ready to forgive!
 Be his the temper of our mind,
 And his the rules by which we live.
- 4 To do his heav'nly Father's will
 Was his employment and delight;
 Humility, and love, and zeal,
 Shone through his life divinely bright.
- 5 Dispensing good where'er he came,
 The labors of his life were love—
 O! if we love the Saviour's name,
 Let his divine example move.
- 6 But ah! how blind, how weak we are!
 How frail, how apt to turn aside!
 Lord, we depend upon thy care;
 O may thy Spirit be our guide!
- 7 Thy fair example may we trace,
 To teach us what we ought to be
 Make us, by thy transforming grace,
 Lord Jesus, daily more like thee.

CHRIST,

144 The meekness and gentleness of Christ. L. M.

2 Cor. 10: 1.

HOW beauteous were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine;
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 O, who like thee—so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
O, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 O, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?

4 The bending angels stooped to see
The lisping infant clasp thy knee,
And smile, as in a father's eye,
Upon thy mild divinity.

5 And death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

6 O, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe;
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God!

145 His miracles. L. M.

BEHOLD the blind their sight receive!
Behold the dead awake and live!
The dumb speak wonders, and the lame
Leap like the hart, and bless his name!

2 Thus doth the Holy Spirit own
And seal the mission of the Son;
The Father vindicates his cause,
While he hangs bleeding on the cross.

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

- 3 He lies : the heav'ns in mourning stood ;
 He rises by the power of God :
 Behold the Lord ascending high,
 No more to bleed, no more to die !
- 4 Hence and for ever from my heart
 I bid my doubts and fears depart ;
 And to those hands my soul resign,
 Which bear credentials so divine.

146

His example.

L. M.

- MY dear Redeemer and my Lord,
 I read my duty in thy word ;
 But in thy life the law appears
 Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
 Such deference to thy Father's will,
 Such love, and meekness so divine ;
 I would transcribe and make them mine.
- 3 Gold mountains and the midnight air
 Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer ;
 The desert thy temptations knew,
 Thy conflict and thy vict'ry too.
- 4 Be thou my pattern ; make me bear
 More of thy gracious image here ;
 Then God the judge shall own my name
 Among the foll'wers of the Lamb.

147

He so loved the world.

L. M.

John 3 : 16.

- NOT to condemn the sons of men,
 Did Christ, the Son of God, appear ;
 No weapons in his hands are seen,
 No flaming sword, nor thunder there.
- 2 Such was the pity of our God,
 He loved the race of man so well,
 He sent his Son to bear our load
 Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

CHRIST,

Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live.
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.

148 His poverty. 8s, 6s & 8s.

As much have I of worldly good
As e'er my Master had;
I diet on as dainty food,
And am as richly clad,
Though plain my garb, though scant my
As Mary's Son and nature's Lord. [hoard,

2 The manger was his infant bed,
His home the mountain cave;
He had not where to lay his head—
He borrow'd e'en his grave;
Earth yielded him no resting-spot;
Her Maker, but she knew him not.

3 As much the world's good-will I share,
Its favors and applause,
As he whose blessed name I bear,
Hated without a cause;
Despis'd, rejected, mock'd by pride.
Betray'd, forsaken, crucified.

4 Why should I court my Master's foe?
Why should I fear its frown?
Why should I seek for rest below?
Or sigh for brief renown?
A pilgrim to a better land,
An heir of joy at God's right hand.

149 He went about doing good. C.
Acts 10: 38.

BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine;
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

- 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.
- 3 'Midst keen reproach, and cruel scorn,
Patient and meek he stood;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life;
He labored for their good.
- 4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned, he bowed, and said,
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"
- 5 Be Christ our pattern and our guide;
His image may we bear;
O, may we tread his holy steps,
His joy and glory share!

150

The man of sorrows.

C. M.

- A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blessed Saviour passed;
A mourner all his life was he,
A dying Lamb at last.
- 2 That tender heart which felt for all,
For us its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave!
 - 3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed his brow with thorn?
 - 4 No: facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like him, obedient still,
We homeward press, through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

CHRIST,

151

Mighty to save.

C. M.

THE winds were howling o'er the deep;
Each wave a watery hill;
The Saviour wakened from his sleep.
He spake, and all was still.

2 The madman in a tomb had made
His mansion of despair:
Wo to the traveler who strayed,
With heedless footsteps, there.

3 He met that glance so thrilling sweet,
He heard those accents mild;
And melting at Messiah's feet,
Wept like a weaned child.

4 O, madder than the raving man!
O, deafer than the sea!
How long the time since Christ began
To call in vain to me!

5 Yet could I hear him once again,
As I have heard of old,
Methinks he should not call in vain
His wanderer to the fold.

152

His unsearchable riches.

C. P. M.

O COULD I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine;
I'd soar, and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel, while he sings
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine;
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect heavenly dress,
My soul shall ever shine.

CHRIST,

- 2 The bright and spotless Heir of endless glory,
 Wept o'er the woes of those he came to save;
 And angels wondered, when they heard the story,
 That he who conquered death, wept o'er the grave;
 For 't was not when his lonely watch he kept
 In dark Gethsemane, that "Jesus wept."
3 But with the friends he loved, whose hope had perished
 The Saviour stood, while through his bosom rushed
 A tide of sympathy for those he cherished,
 And from his eyes the burning tear-drops gushed;
 And bending o'er the tomb where Lazarus slept,
 In agony of spirit, "Jesus wept."
4 Lo! Jesus' power the sleep of death hath broken,
 And wiped the tear from sorrow's drooping eye!
 Lock up, ye mourners, hear what he hath spoken:
 "He that believes on me shall never die."
 Through faith and love your spirits shall be kept;
 Hope brighter grew on earth when "Jesus wept."

155 He made himself of no reputation. C. M. D Phil. 2 : 7.

- HE came not with his heavenly crown,
 His scepter clad with power;
 His coming was in feebleness,
 The infant of an hour;
 An humble manger cradled, first,
 The Virgin's holy birth,
 And lowing herds surrounded there
 The Lord of heaven and earth.
2 He came, not in his robe of wrath,
 With arm outstretched to slay;
 But on the darkling paths of earth,
 To pour celestial day;
 To guide in peace the wandering feet,
 The broken heart to bind,
 And bear upon the painful cross,
 The sins of human kind.
3 And thou hast borne them, Saviour meek
 And therefore unto thee,
 In humbleness and gratitude,
 Our hearts shall offered be;

LIFE AND MINISTRY.

Our contrite hearts, an offering, Lord,
Which thou wilt not despise,
Our souls, our bodies, all be thine,
A living sacrifice!

56

Jesus wept. 8s & 7s peculiar.

JESUS wept! those tears are over,
But his heart is still the same:
Kinsman, Friend, and Elder Brother,
Is his everlasting name.
Saviour, who can love like thee?
Gracious one of Bethany!

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus—
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Truly, none can feel like thee,
Weeping one of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory
He can mark each mourner's tear—
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany!

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same shall ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Living one of Bethany!

CHRIST,

CHRIST, SUFFERINGS.

157

Christ the sufferer.

L. 1

O SUFFERING Friend of human kind!
How, as the fatal hour drew near,
Came thronging on thy holy mind
The images of grief and fear!

2 Gethsemane's sad midnight scene,
The faithless friends, th' exulting foes,
The thorny crown, the insult keen,
The scourge, the cross, before thee rose.

3 Did not thy spirit shrink dismayed,
As the dark vision o'er it came;
And, though in sinless strength arrayed,
Turn, shuddering, from the death of sham

4 Onward, like thee, through scorn and dread
May we our Father's call obey,
Steadfast thy path of duty tread,
And rise, through death, to endless day.

158

Led as a lamb to the slaughter.

L. 1

THE morning dawns upon the place
Where Jesus spent the night in prayer
Through yielding glooms behold his face!
Nor form, nor comeliness is there.

2 Brought forth to judgment, now he stands
Arraigned, condemned, at Pilate's bar;
Here, spurned by fierce prætorian hands,
There, mocked by Herod's men of war.

3 He bears their buffeting and scorn—
Mock-homage of the lip, the knee—
The purple robe, the crown of thorn—
The scourge, the nail, th' accursed tree.

4 No guile within his mouth is found;
He neither threatens nor complains;
Meek as a lamb for slaughter bound,
Dumb, 'mid his murderers he remains.

SUFFERINGS.

- 5 But hark, he prays: 't is for his foes.
 And speaks: 't is comfort to his friends;
 Answers: and paradise bestows;
 He bows his head: the conflict ends.

159 The midnight agony. L. M

- 'T IS midnight; and on Olive's brow
 The star is dimm'd that lately shone
 'T is midnight; in the garden now,
 The suffering Saviour prays alone.
- 2 'T is midnight; and, from all remov'd,
 The Saviour wrestles lone, with fears;
 E'en that disciple whom he lov'd
 Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
- 3 'T is midnight; and for others' guilt
 The man of sorrows weeps in blood;
 Yet he that hath in anguish knelt
 Is not forsaken by his God.
- 4 'T is midnight; from the heavenly plains
 Is borne the song that angels know;
 Unheard by mortals are the strains
 That sweetly soothe the Saviour's wo.

160 The bitter cup. C. M.

- DARK was the night, and cold the ground
 On which the Lord was laid:
 His sweat like drops of blood ran down;
 In agony he pray'd,—
- 2 "Father, remove this bitter cup,
 If such thy sacred will;
 If not, content to drink it up,
 Thy pleasure I fulfill."
- 3 Go to the garden, sinner; see
 Those precious drops that flow;
 The heavy load he bore for thee;
 For thee he lies so low.

CHRIST,

- 4 Then learn of him the cross to bear,
Thy Father's will obey;
And, when temptations press thee near,
Awake to watch and pray.

161 He beheld the city, and wept over it. S. M.
Luke 19: 41.

DID Christ o'er sinners weep,
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let tears of penitential grief
Flow forth from ev'ry eye.

- 2 The Son of God in tears,
The wond'ring angels see;
Be thou astonish'd, O my soul,
He shed those tears for thee.

- 3 He wept that we might weep,
Each sin demands a tear,
In heav'n alone no sin is found
And there's no weeping there.

162 His example in suffering. 7s.

GO to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's power;
You: Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with him one bitter hour:
Turn not from his griefs away;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.

- 2 Follow to the judgment-hall:
View the Lord of life arraigned;
O, the wormwood and the gall!
O, the pangs his soul sustained!
Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of him to bear the cross.

- 3 Calv'ry's mournful mountain climb;
There, admiring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time.
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finished," hear him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

SUFFERINGS.

63

Christ in the garden.

6s & 5s.

- NIGHT with ebony pinion,
 Brooded o'er the vale;
 All around was silent,
 Save the night-wind's wail;
 When Christ the man of sorrows,
 In tears, and sweat, and blood,
 Prostrate in the garden,
 Raised his voice to God.
- 2 Smitten for offenses
 Which were not his own,
 He, for our transgressions,
 Had to weep alone.
 No friend with words to comfort,
 Nor hand to help, was there.
 When the meek and lowly,
 Humbly bowed in prayer.
- 3 Abba, Father, Father!
 If indeed it may,
 Let this cup of anguish,
 Pass from me, I pray.
 Yet, if it must be suffered,
 By me, thine only Son,
 Abba, Father, Father,
 Let thy will be done.

164

Gethsemane.

P. M

- BEYOND where Cedron's waters flow,
 Behold the suffering Saviour go
 To sad Gethsemane;
 His countenance is all divine,
 Yet grief appears in every line.
- 2 He bows beneath the sins of men;
 He cries to God, and cries again,
 In sad Gethsemane;
 He lifts his mournful eyes above—
 "My Father, can this cup remove?"

CHRIST,

- 3 With gentle resignation still,
He yielded to his Father's will
In sad Gethsemane;
"Behold me here, thine only Son;
And, Father, let thy will be done."
- 4 The Father heard; and angels, there,
Sustained the Son of God in prayer,
In sad Gethsemane:
He drank the dreadful cup of pain—
Then rose to life and joy again.
- 5 When storms of sorrow round us sweep,
And scenes of anguish make us weep,
To sad Gethsemane
We'll look, and see the Saviour there,
And humbly bow, like him, in prayer.

165 Agony in the garden. C. H. M

- HE knelt; the Saviour knelt and prayed,
When but his Father's eye
Looked, through the lonely garden shade,
On that dread agony;
The Lord of high and heavenly birth
Was bowed with sorrow unto death.
- 2 The sun went down in fearful hour;
The heavens might well grow dim,
When this mortality had power
Thus to o'ershadow him;
That he who came to save might know
The very depths of human wo.
- 3 He knew them all,—the doubt, the strife,
The faint, perplexing dread;
The mists that hang o'er parting life
All darkened round his head;
And the Deliverer knelt to pray:
Yet passed it not, that cup, away.

SUFFERINGS.

- It passed not, though the stormy wave
Had sunk beneath his tread;
It passed not, though to him the grave
Had yielded up its dead;
But there was sent him, from on high,
A gift of strength, for man to die.
And was his mortal hour beset
With anguish and dismay?
How may we meet our conflict yet
In the dark, narrow way?
How, but through him that path who trod:
"Save, or we perish, Son of God."

66.

Betrayal.

S. H. M.

- A MONG the mountain trees,
The winds were whispering low,
And night's ten thousand harmonies
Were harmonies of wo;
A voice of grief was on the gale,
It came from Cedron's gloomy vale.
2 It was the Saviour's prayer
That on the silence broke,
Imploring strength from heav'n to bear
The sin-avenging stroke,
As in Gethsemane he knelt,
And pangs unknown his bosom felt.
3 The fitful starlight shone
In dim and misty gleams,
Deep was his agonizing groan,
And large the vital streams
That trickled to the dewy sod,
While Jesus raised his voice to God.
4 The chosen three that staid,
Their nightly watch to keep,
Left him through sorrows deep to wade,
And gave themselves to sleep:

CHRIST,

Meekly and sad he pray'd alone;
Strangely forgotten by his own.

- 5 Along the streamlet's banks
The reckless traitor came,
And heavy on his bosom sank
The load of guilt and shame,
Yet unto them that waited nigh
He gavethe Lamb of God to die.
- 6 Among the mountain trees
The winds were whispering low,
And night's ten thousand harmonies
Were harmonies of wo;
For cruel voices fill'd the gale
That came from Cedron's gloomy vale.

167 Thou sweet gliding Cedron. 118

THOU sweet gliding Cedron, by thy silver stream
Our Saviour would linger in moonlight's soft beam:
And by thy bright waters till midnight would stay,
And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.

CHORUS.

Come saints, and adore him; come bow at his feet;
O give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
Let joyful hosannas uncensing arise,
And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

- 2 How damp were the vapors that fell on his head,
How hard was his pillow, how humble his bed;
The angels beholding, amaz'd at the sight.
Attended their Master with solen n delight.
- 3 O garden of Olives! thou dear honor'd spot,
The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot
The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
The triumph o' sorrow, the triumph of love!

THE CRUCIFIXION.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

168

The bitter cry.

L M

- FROM Calvary a cry was heard—
A bitter and heart-rending cry:
My Saviour! every mournful word
Bespeaks thy soul's deep agony.
- 2 A horror of great darkness fell
On thee, thou spotless, holy One!
And all the swarming hosts of hell
Conspired to tempt God's only Son.
- 3 The scourge, the thorns, the deep disgrace—
These thou could'st bear, nor once repine;
But when Jehovah veiled his face,
Unutterable pangs were thine.
- 4 Let the dumb world its silence break;
Let pealing anthems rend the sky;
Awake, my sluggish soul, awake!
He died, that we might never die.
- 5 Lord! on thy cross I fix mine eye;
If e'er I lose its strong control,
O! let that dying, piercing cry,
Melt and reclaim my wandering soul.

169

Looking to the cross.

L. M.

- O LORD! when faith with fixed eyes
Beholds thy wond'rous sacrifice,
Love rises to an ardent flame,
And we all other hope disclaim.
- 2 With cold affections who can see
The thorns, the scourge, the nails, the tree,
The flowing tears and crimson sweat,
The bleeding hands, and head, and feet?
- 3 Jesus, what millions of our race
Have been the triumphs of thy grace!
And millions more to thee shall fly,
And on thy sacrifice rely.

CHRIST,

- 4 The sorrow, shame, and death were thine,
And all the stores of wrath divine!
Ours are the pardon, life, and bliss;
What love can be compar'd to this!

170

Herein is love!

L. M.

1 John 4: 10

HAVE we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff, and Jews deride?
Ah! look, how patiently he hangs—
Jesus, our Love, is crucified!

- 2 What was thy crime, my dearest Lord?
By earth, by heaven, thou hast been tied
And guilty found of too much love;
Jesus, our Love, is crucified!
- 3 Found guilty of excess of love,
It was thine own sweet will that tied
Thee tighter far than helpless nails;
Jesus, our Love, is crucified!
- 5 O break, O break, hard heart of mine!
Thy weak self-love and guilty pride
His Pilate and his Judas were;
Jesus, our Love, is crucified!

171

Behold the Man!

L. M.

BEHOLD the Man! how glorious he!
Before his foes he stands unawed,
And, without wrong or blasphemy,
He claims equality with God.

- 2 Behold the Man! by all condemn'd,
Assaulted by a host of foes;
His person and his claims condemn'd
A Man of suffering and of woes.
- 3 Behold the Man! he stands alone,
His foes are ready to devour;
Not one of all his friends will own
Their Master in this trying hour.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

- 4 Behold the Man! though scorn'd below,
He bears the greatest name above;
The angels at his footstool bow,
And all his royal claims approve.

172

Darkness and light.

L. M.

- HE dies, the friend of sinners dies!
Lo! Salem's daughters weep around!
A solemn darkness veils the skies,
A sudden trembling shakes the ground.
- 2 Here's love and grief beyond degree;
The Lord of glory dies for men!
But, lo! what sudden joys we see!
Jesus the dead revives again!
- 3 The rising Lord forsakes the tomb!
(The tomb in vain forbids his rise!)
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies!
- 4 Break off your tears, you saints, and tell
How high our great deliv'rer reigns;
Sing how he spoil'd the hosts of hell,
And led the monster Death in chains.
- 5 Say, "Live for ever, wond'rous King!
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask the monster, "Where's thy sting?
And where's thy vict'ry, boasting grave?"

173

His condescension.

C. M.

- AND did the holy and the just,
The Sov'reign of the skies,
Stoop down to wretchedness and dust
That guilty man might rise!
- 2 Yes, the Redeemer left his throne,
His radiant throne on high;
Surpassing mercy! love unknown!
To suffer, bleed, and die.

CHRIST,

3 He took the dying rebel's place,
And suffer'd in our stead;
For sinful man—O wond'rous grace!
For sinful man he bled!

4 O Lord! what heav'nly wonders dwell
In thy most precious blood?
By this are sinners sav'd from hell,
And rebels brought to God.

C. M

.74 He conquered when he fell.

WE sing the Saviour's wond'rous death—
He conquer'd when he fell:
'T is finish'd, said his dying breath,
And shook the gates of hell.

2 'T is finish'd, our Immanuel cries,
The dreadful work is done;
Hence shall his sov'reign throne arise,
His kingdom is begun.

3 His cross a sure foundation laid
For glory and renown,
When through the regions of the dead
He pass'd to reach the crown.

4 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
His praises to record;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
To your victorious Lord.

5 Bright angels, strike your loudest str!
Your sweetest voices raise;
Let heav'n and all created things
Sound our Immanuel's praise!

175 They nailed him to the cross.

BEHOLD the Saviour of mankind
Nailed to the shameful tree!
How vast the love that him inclined
To bleed and die for me.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

- 2 Hark! how he groans, while nature shakes,
And earth's strong pillars bend!
The temple's vail asunder breaks,
The solid marbles rend.
- 3 'T is finished! now the ransom's paid,
"Receive my soul!" he cries:
See—how he bows his sacred head!
He bows his head, and dies!
- 4 But soon from death he'll rise again,
And in full glory shine;
O Lamb of God! was ever pain—
Was ever love like thine?

176

The dying penitent.

C. M.

- AS on the cross the Saviour hung,
And groan'd, and bled, and died,
He look'd with pity on a wretch
That languish'd by his side.
- 2 The dying thief in Jesus saw
A majesty divine;
While scoffing Jews around him stood,
And ask'd him for a sign!
- 3 The kingdom, Lord, is thine, he said;
'T is thine o'er men to reign:
Thy wond'rous works thy lordship prove;
These pains thy love proclaim:
- 4 Honors divine await thee soon,
A scepter and a crown:
With shame thy foes shall yet behold
Thee seated on a throne
- 5 Then, gracious Lord, remember me!
Is not forgiveness thine?
My crimes have brought me to thy side—
Thy love brought thee to mine!

CHRIST,

- 6 His prayer the dying Jesus hears,
And instantly replies,
To-day your parting soul shall be
With me in paradise.

177 Surely he hath borne our griefs. 7s & 6s
Is. 53: 4.

- O SACRED head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down—
O sacred brow, surrounded
With thorns, thine only crown:
Once on a throne of glory,
Adorned with light divine,
Now all despised and gory,
I joy to call thee mine.
- 2 On me, as thou art dying,
O, turn thy pitying eye;
To thee for mercy crying,
Before thy cross I lie.
Thine, thine the bitter passion;
Thy pain is all for me;
Mine, mine the deep transgression;
My sins are all on thee.
- 3 What language can I borrow
To praise thee, heav'nly Friend,
For all this dying sorrow,
Of all my woes the end?
O, can I leave thee ever?
Then do not thou leave me;
Lord, let me never, never
Outlive my love to thee.
- 4 Be near when I am dying;
Then close beside me stand;
Let me, while faint and sighing,
Lean calmly on thy hand:
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From thee shall never move,
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely—in thy love.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

178

It is finished. 8s, 7s & 4s
John 19: 30.

HARK! the voice of love and mercy
Sounds aloud from Calvary;
See! it rends the rocks asunder,
Shakes the earth, and veils the sky!
It is finish'd!

Hear the dying Saviour cry.

2 It is finish'd! O what pleasure
Do these precious words afford!
Heav'nly blessings without measure
Flow to us from Christ the Lord;
It is finish'd!

Saints, the dying words record.

3 Finish'd all the types and shadows
Of the ceremonial law!
Finish'd all that God had promis'd:
Death and hell no more shall awe:
It is finish'd!

Saints, from this your comfort draw.

4 Tune your harps anew, you seraphs,
Join to sing the pleasing theme;
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
Hallelujah!

Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

179

Behold the Lamb of God. 8s & 6s.
John 1: 20.

THE Son of Man they did betray;
He was condemn'd, and led away,
Think, O my soul, on that dread day,
Look on Mount Calvary:
Behold him, lamb-like, led along
Surrounded by a wicked throng,
Accus'd by ev'ry lying tongue,
And then the Lamb of God they hung
Upon the shameful tree.

CHRIST,

- 2 Now, hung between the earth and skies,
Behold! in agony he dies;
O sinners, hear his mournful cries,
Come, see his tort'ring pain!
The morning sun withdrew his light;
Blush'd, and refus'd to view the sight,
The azure cloth'd in robes of night.
Al! nature mourn'd, and stood affright,
When Christ the Lord was slain.
- 3 All glory be to God on high,
Who reigns enthron'd above the sky;
Who sent his Son to bleed and die;
Glory to him be giv'n:
While heav'n above his praise resounds,
O Zion, sing—his grace abounds;
I hope to shout eternal rounds,
In flaming love that knows no bounds,
When glorified in heav'n.

BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

180 He rose—according to the Scriptures. L. 1
1 Cor. 15 : 4.

- WHEN we the sacred grave survey,
In which the Saviour deign'd to lie,
We see fulfill'd what prophets say,
And all the pow'r of death defy.
- 2 This empty tomb shall now proclaim
How weak the bands of conquer'd death
Sure pledge that all who trust his name
Shall rise and draw immortal breath.
- 3 Our surety freed declares us free,
For whose offenses he was seized :
In his release our own we see,
And joy to see Jehovah pleas'd.

HIS BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

- 4 Jesus, once number'd with the dead,
Unseals his eyes to sleep no more;
And ever lives their cause to plead,
For whom the pains of death he bore.
- 5 Then, though in dust we lay our head,
Yet, gracious God, thou wilt not leave
Our flesh for ever with the dead,
Nor lose thy children in the grave!

181 The joy that was set before him. L. M.
Heb. 12 : 2.

- NOW for a song of lofty praise
To great Jehovah's only Son;
Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays,
And tell the wonders he hath done.
- 2 Sing how he left the worlds of light,
And those bright robes he wore above:
How swift and joyful was his flight,
On wings of everlasting love!
- 3 Deep in the shades of gloomy death,
Th' almighty Captive pris'ner lay;
Th' almighty Captive left the earth,
And rose to everlasting day.
- 4 Among a thousand harps and songs,
Jesus, the Lord, exalted reigns:
His sacred name fills all their tongues,
And echoes through the heav'nly plains.

182 He hath begotten us to a lively hope. C. M.
1 Peter 1 : 3.

- BLESS'D be the everlasting God,
The Father of our Lord;
Be his abounding mercy prais'd,
His majesty ador'd.
- 2 When from the dead he rais'd his Son,
And call'd him to the sky,
He gave our souls a lively hope
That they should never die.

CHRIST,

- 3 What though the first man's sin requir
Our flesh to see the dust;
Yet, as the Lord our Saviour rose,
So all his foll'wers must.
- 4 There's an inheritance divine,
Reserv'd against that day;
'Tis uncorrupted, undefil'd,
And can not fade away!
- 5 Saints by the pow'r of God are kept,
Till the salvation come;
We walk by faith as strangers here,
Till Christ shall take us home.

183 Now is Christ risen from the dead. C.
1 Cor. 15 : 20

- BLEST morning! whose young dawn
Beheld our rising Lord; [r
That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave his dark abode.
- 2 In the cold prison of a tomb
The great Redeemer lay,
Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, th' appointed day.
- 3 Hell and the grave unite their force
To hold our Lord. in vain;
The sleeping Conqueror arose,
And burst their feeble chain.
- 4 To thy great name, almighty Lor',
These sacred hours we pay;
And loud hosannas shall proclaim
The triumph of the day.
- 5 Salvation and immortal praise
To our victorious King!
Let heaven, and earth, and rocks, and sea
With glad hosannas ring.

HIS BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

184

The foretken sepulcher.

C. M.

YE humble souls that seek the Lord,
Chase all your fears away;
And bow with reverence down, to see
The place where Jesus lay.

2 Thus low the Lord of life was brought;
Such wonders love can do!
Thus cold in death that bosom lay,
Which throbb'd and bled for you.

3 If ye have wept at yonder cross,
And still your sorrows rise.
Stoop down and view the vanquished grave,
Then wipe your weeping eyes.

4 But dry your tears. and tune your songs,
The Saviour lives again;
Not all the bolts and bars of death
The Conqueror could detain.

5 High o'er the angelic band he rears
His once dishonored head;
And through unnumbered years he reigns,
Who dwelt among the dead.

185

The Resurrection, and the Life.

C. M.

HOSANNA to the Prince of light,
That clothed himself in the clay,
Entered the iron gates of death,
And tore the bars away,

2 Death is no more the king of dread,
Since our Immanuel rose;
He took the tyrant's sting away,
And spoiled our hellish foes.

3 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
To reach his blest abode;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
To our incarnate God.

CHRIST,

- 4 Bright angels, strike your loudest string
Your sweetest voices raise;
Let heaven and all created things
Sound our Immanuel's praise.

186

The Lord is risen.

C. H. 1

- HOW calm and beautiful the morn
That gilds the sacred tomb
Where once the Crucified was borne,
And veiled in midnight gloom!
Oh! weep no more the Saviour slain;
The Lord is risen—he lives again.
- 2 Ye mourning saints! dry every tear
For your departed Lord;
“Behold the place—he is not here;”
The tomb is all unbarred:
The gates of death were closed in vain
The Lord is risen—he lives again.
- 3 Now cheerful to the house of prayer
Your early footsteps bend,
The Saviour will himself be there,
Your advocate and friend:
Once by the law your hopes were slain,
But now in Christ ye live again.
- 4 How tranquil now the rising day!
’T is Jesus still appears.
A risen Lord to chase away
Your unbelieving fears:
O! weep no more your comforts slain,
The Lord is risen—he lives again.
- 5 And when the shades of evening fall,
When life’s last hour draws nigh,—
If Jesus shine upon the soul,
How blissful then to die:
Since he has risen who once was slain,
Ye die in Christ to live again.

HIS BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

Redemption completed.

S. M.

- “THE Lord is risen indeed!
Then is his work performed;
The mighty captive now is freed,
And death, our foe, disarmed.
- 2 “The Lord is risen indeed!”
He lives to die no more;
He lives, his people’s cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.
- 3 “The Lord is risen indeed!”
The grave has lost his prey:
With him is risen the ransomed seed,
To reign in endless day.
- 4 “The Lord is risen indeed!”—
Attending angels! hear;
Up to the courts of heaven, with speed,
The joyful tidings bear.
- 5 Then wake your golden lyres,
And strike each cheerful chord;
Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs!
To sing our risen Lord.

Thou reigning Son of God

H. M.

- YES, the Redeemer rose:
The Saviour left the dead,
And o’er his hellish foes
High raised his conqu’ring head •
In wild dismay,
The guards around
Fall to the ground,
And sink away.
- 2 Lo! the angelic bands
In full assembly meet,
To wait his high commands,
And worship at his feet:

CHRIST,

Joyful they come,
And wing their way
From realms of day
To Jesus' tomb.

3 Then back to heav'n they fly,
The joyful news to bear;
Hark! as they soar on high
What music fills the air:
Their anthems say,
Jesus who bled
Has left the dead—
He rose to-day!

4 You mortals, catch the sound,
Redeem'd by him from hell,
And send the echo round
The globe on which you dwell
Transported cry,
Jesus who bled
Has left the dead
No more to die!

5 All hail! triumphant Lord,
Who sav'd us by thy blood;
Wide be thy name ador'd,
Thou reigning Son of God!
With thee we rise,
With thee we reign,
And kingdoms gain
Beyond the skies.

189

The stone rolled away.

ANGELS! roll the rock away;
Death! yield up thy mighty prey
See! the Saviour leaves the tomb,
Glowing with immortal bloom.

HIS BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

- 2 Hark! the wondering angels raise
Louder notes of joyful praise;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Echo with the blissful sound.
- 3 Now, ye saints! lift up your eyes,
See him high in glory rise!
Ranks of angels, on the road,
Hail him—the incarnate God.
- 4 Heaven unfolds its portals wide,
See the Conqueror through them ride!
King of glory! mount thy throne,—
Boundless empire is thine own.
- 5 Praise him, ye celestial choirs!
Tune, and sweep your golden lyres;
Raise, O earth! your noblest songs,
From ten thousand thousand tongues

Christ, the first fruits.

7a.

- CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day!
Sons of men and angels say:
Raise your joys and triumphs high;
Sing, ye heavens! thou, earth, reply!
- 2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won:
Lo! our sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo! he sets in blood no more.
 - 3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal—
Christ hath burst the gates of hell:
Death in vain forbids his rise,
Christ hath opened Paradise.
 - 4 Lives again our glorious King!
Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
Once he died, our souls to save:
Where's thy vict'ry, boasting Grave?

CHRIST,

5 Soar we now where Christ hath led,
Following our exalted Head:
Made like him, like him we rise,
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!

6 King of glory. Fount of bliss,
Everlasting life is this:—
Thee to know, thy power to prove,
Thus to sing, and thus to love.

191

The Resurrection.

MORNING breaks upon the tomb,
Jesus scatters all its gloom;
Day of triumph through the skies,—
See the glorious Saviour rise!

2 Ye, who are of death afraid,
Triumph in the scattered shade;
Drive your anxious cares away;
See the place where Jesus lay!

3 Christian! dry your flowing tears,
Chase your unbelieving fears;
Look on his deserted grave;
Doubt no more his power to save.

Mary at the tomb.

MARY to the Saviour's tomb,
Hasted at the early dawn;
Spice she brought, and sweet perfume,
But the Lord she loved had gone:
For awhile she ling'ring stood,
Fill'd with sorrow and surprise:
Trembling, while a crystal flood
Issued from her weeping eyes.

2 Jesus, who is always near,
Though too often unperceived,
Came her drooping heart to cheer,
Kindly asking why she grieved:

HIS BURIAL AND RESURRECTION.

Though at first she knew him not,
When he call'd her by her name,
She her heavy griefs forgot,
For she found him still the same.

And her sorrows quickly fled,
When she heard his welcome voice;
Christ had risen from the dead,
Now he bids her heart rejoice:
What a change his word can make,
Turning darkness into day;
You who weep for Jesus' sake,
He will wipe your tears away.

He hath abolished death

2 Tim. 1; 10.

THE angels that watch'd round the tomb
Where low the Redeemer was laid,
When deep in mortality's gloom
He hid for a season his head;

That veil'd their fair face while he slept,
And ceas'd their sweet harps to employ,
Have witness'd his rising, and swept
The chords with the triumphs of joy.

O saints, who once languish'd below,
But long since have enter'd your rest,
Want to be glorified too,
To lean on Immanuel's breast.

The grave in which Jesus was laid
Has buried my guilt and my fears;
And while I contemplate its shade,
The light of his presence appears.

Sweet is the season of rest,
When life's weary journey is done!
No blush that spreads over its west,
The last ling'ring ray of its sun!

CHRIST,

- 6 Though dreary the empire of night,
I soon shall emerge from its gloom,
And see immortality's light
Arise on the shades of the tomb.
- 7 Then welcome the last rending sighs,
When these aching heartstrings shall break;
When death shall extinguish these eyes,
And moisten with dew the pale cheek.
- 8 No terror the prospect begets,
I am not mortality's slave,
The sunbeam of life, as it sets,
Paints a rainbow of peace on the grave.

The darkness is passed, etc.

1 John 2: 8.

- BEHOLD, the bright morning appears,
And Jesus revives from the grave;
His rising removes all our fears,
And shows him almighty to save.
- 2 How strong were his tears and his cries,
The worth of his blood, how divine!
How perfect was his sacrifice,
Who rose though he suffered for sin.
- 3 The man that was crownéd with thorns,
The man that on Calvary died,
The man that bore scourging and scorns,
Whom sinners agreed to deride—
- 4 Now blesséd for ever is made,
And life has rewardéd his pain,
Now glory has crownéd his head;
Heav'n sings of the Lamb that was slain.
- 5 Believing, we share in his joy;
By faith, we partake in his rest;
With this we can cheerfully die,
For with him we hope to be blest.

Lift up your heads, ye gates.

L. M.

Psalm 24 : 7.

OUR Lord is risen from the dead,
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The pow'rs of hell are captive led,
Dragg'd to the portals of the sky.

2 There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay;
Lift up your heads, you heav'nly gates!
You everlasting doors, give way!

3 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the radiant scene!
He claims those mansions as his right—
Receive the King of glory in!

4 Who is the King of glory?—Who?
The Lord, who all his foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew,
And Jesus is the conqu'ror's name.

5 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
Lift up your heads, you heav'nly gates!
You everlasting doors, give way!

6 Who is the King of glory?—Who?
The Lord, of boundless might possess'd,
The King of saints and angels too,
Lord over all, for ever blest.

196 The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. L, M

Psalm 24.

LIFT up your heads, ye gates! and wide
Your everlasting doors display:
Ye angel-guards, like flumes divide,
And give the King of glory way.

2 Who is the King of glory?—he,
The Lord omnipotent to save;
Whose own right arm, in victory,
Led captive death, and spoiled the grave.

CHRIST.

- 3 Lift up your heads, ye gates ! and high
Your everlasting portals heave ;
Welcome the King of glory nigh :
Him must the heaven of heavens receive.
- 4 Who is the King of glory—who ?
The Lord of hosts ; behold his name !
The kingdom, power, and honor cue,
Yield him, ye saints, with glad acclaim !

Psaln 24.

C. M.

LIFT up your stately heads ye doors,
With hasty reverence rise,
Ye everlasting doors that guard
The passage to the skies.

CHORUS.—For see, for see
The King of glory comes,
The King of glory comes
Along the eternal road.

- 2 Swift from your golden hinges leap,
Your barriers roll away,
And throw your blazing portals wide,
And burst the gates of day.

Received up into glory.

1 Tim. 3: 16.

C. M.

TRIUMPHANT, Christ ascends on high,
The glorious work complete ;
Sin, death, and hell, now vanquished lie,
Beneath his awful feet.

- 2 There, with eternal glory crowned,
The Lord, the Conqueror reigns ;
His praise the heavenly choirs resound,
In their immortal strains.
- 3 Amid the splendors of his throne,
Unchanging love appears ;
The names he purchased for his own
Still on his heart he bears.

See none, my hope renues ;
neath thy cross I fall.
Lord, my Life, my Sacrifice,
Saviour, and my All.

God is gone up with a shout.

Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,—
Thou Lamb once slain!

THE ASCENSION.

- 3 Enter, incarnate God!
 No feet but thine have trod
 The serpent down:
 Blow the full trumpets, blow!
 Wider yon portals throw!
 Saviour, triumphant, go
 And take thy crown!
- 4 Lion of Judah—Hail!—
 And let thy name prevail
 From age to age:
 Lord of the rolling years—
 Claim for thine own the spheres,
 For thou hast bought with tears
 Thy heritage.

Psaln 45.

7s, 6s & 7s.

- BURST, ye emerald gates, and bring
 To my raptured vision
 All the ecstatic joys that spring
 Round the bright elysian;
 Lo! we lift our longing eyes,
 Break, ye intervening skies!
 Sons of righteousness, arise,
 Ope the gates of Paradise.
- 2 Floods of everlasting light
 Freely flash before him;
 Myriads, with supreme delight,
 Instantly adore him;
 Angelic trumps resound his fame;
 Lutes of lucid gold proclaim
 All the music of his name;
 Heaven resounding with the theme.
- 4 Hark! the thrilling symphonies
 Seem, methinks, to seize us;
 Join we too the holy lays—
 Jesus, Jesus, Jesus!

CHRIST,

Sweetest sound in seraph's song,
Sweetest note on mortal tongue,
Sweetest carol ever sung—
Jesus, Jesus, flow along.

THE CORONATION.

203

A I'll hail the power of Jesus' name
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Crown him, you martyrs of our Go
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod.
And crown him Lord of all.

3 You chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail him who saves you by his grace
And crown him Lord of all.

4 You Gentile sinners, ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Babes, men, and sires, who know him
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above,
And crown him Lord of all.

6 Let ev'ry kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

7 O that with yonder sacred throng
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

THE CORONATION.

Sit thou at my right hand.

C. M.

Psalm 110: 1.

JESUS, our Lord, ascend thy throne,
And near thy Father sit:
Zion shall thy power be known,
And make thy foes submit.

at wonders shall thy gospel do!
thy converts shall surpass
num'rous drops of morning dew, and own thy saving grace.

us, our Priest, for ever lives,
o plead for us above;
us, our King, for ever gives

I shall exalt his glorious head, and his high throne maintain;
He strike the powers and princes dead,
Who dare oppose his reign.

Thou art worthy.

8s & 7s.

OWN his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name, compassion never ceasing,
gives salvation to proclaim.

thee our Saviour hailing,
we our God in praise we own;
Thy honors, never failing,
are eternal round thy throne.

ye saints, his pow'r confessing, your grateful strains adore;
His mercy, never ceasing,
flows, and flows for evermore.

Worthy the Lamb.

C. M.

LET us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Thousand thousand are their tongues,
but all their joys are one.

CHRIST,

- 2 Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus!
Worthy the Lamb, our lips reply,
For he was slain for us!
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and pow'r divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.
- 4 Let all who dwell above the sky,
On earth, in air, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thy endless praise.
- 5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

King of kings, etc. 8s, 7s & 4.
Rev. 19: 16.

- LOOK, ye saints;—the sight is glorious;—
See the Man of Sorrows now
From the fight returned victorious;
Every knee to him shall bow.
Crown him! crown him!
Crowns become the Victor's brow.
- 2 Crown the Saviour! angels, crown him
Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthrone him.
While the heavenly concert rings,
Crown him! crown him!
Crown the Saviour King of kings.
- 3 Sinners in derision crowned him,
Mocking thus the Saviour's claim;
Saints and angels! crowd around him,
Own his title, praise his name.
Crown him! crown him!
Spread abroad the Victor's name.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 4 Hark! those bursts of acclamation!
Hark! those loud triumphant chords!
Jesus takes the highest station;
O, what joy the sight affords!
Crown him! crown him!
King of kings, and Lord of lords.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 208 Of his kingdom there shall be no end. L. M.
Luke 1: 33.

- KING Jesus, reign for evermore,
Unrival'd in thy courts above;
While we, with all thy saints, adore
The wonders of redeeming love.
- 2 No other Lord but thee we'll know,
No other power but thine confess;
We'll spread thine honors while below,
And heav'n shall hear us shout thy grace.
- 3 We'll sing along the heav'nly road
That leads us to thy blest abode;
Till with the vast unnumber'd throng
We join in heav'n's triumphant song—
- 4 Till with pure hands and voices sweet,
We cast our crowns at Jesus' feet,
And sing of everlasting love
In everlasting strains above.

- 209 All nations shall serve him. L. M.
Psalm 72: 11.

- JESUS shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom stretch from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- 2 For him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

CHRIST,

- 3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name.
- 4 Blessings abound where'er he reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains,
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.
- 5 Where he displays his healing power,
Death and the curse are known no more
In him the tribes of Adam boast
More blessings than their father lost.
- 6 Let every creature rise, and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the long Amen.

210 Give the King thy judgments. L.

Psalm 72 : 1.

- EXALTED Prince of Life, we own
The royal honors of thy throne;
'Tis fix'd by God's almighty hand,
And seraph's bow at thy command.
- 2 Exalted Saviour, we confess
The mighty triumphs of thy grace;
Where beams of gentle radiance shine
And temper majesty divine.
- 3 Wide thy resistless scepter sway,
Till all thine enemies obey;
Wide let thy cross its virtues prove,
And conquer millions by its love!

211 My heart is inditing a good matter. L.

Psalm 45 : 1.

NOW be my heart inspir'd to sing
The glories of my Saviour King;
He comes with blessings from above,
And wins the nations to his love.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

2 Thy throne. O Lord, for ever stands;
Grace is the scepter in thy hands;
Thy laws and works are just and right,
But truth and mercy thy delight.

3 Let endless honors crown thy head;
Let ev'ry age thy praises spread;
Let all the nations know thy word,
And ev'ry tongue confess thee Lord.

212 I know that my Redeemer liveth. L. M
Job 19 : 25.

HE lives! the great Redeemer lives!
What joy the blest assurance gives!
And now, before his Father, God,
Pleads the full merit of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice armed with frowns appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on his heart.

4 Great Advocate, almighty Friend!
On him our humble hopes depend;
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

213 Let the whole earth be filled with his glory. L. M
Psalm 72 : 19.

GREAT God! whose universal sway
The known and unknown worlds obey,
Now give the kingdom to thy Son;
Extend his power, exalt his throne.

2 Thy scepter well becomes his hands;
All heaven submits to his commands;
His justice shall avenge the poor,
And pride and rage prevail no more.

CHRIST,

- 3 The heathen lands, that lie beneath
The shades of overspreading death,
Revive at his first dawning light;
And deserts blossom at the sight.
- 4 The saints shall flourish in his days,
Dressed in the robes of joy and praise;
Peace, like a river, from his throne
Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

214 The Lord is King. L.

THE Lord is King! lift up thy voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice!
From world to world the joy shall ring
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

- 2 The Lord is King! who then shall dare
Resist his will, distrust his care?
Holy and true are all his ways:
Let every creature speak his praise.

215 He humbled himself. L.
Phil. 2: 8.

(O) CHRIST! our King, Creator, Lord!
Saviour of all who trust thy word!
To them who seek thee, ever near,
Now to our praises bend thine ear.

- 2 In thy dear cross a grace is found—
It flows from every streaming wound—
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond and frees our souls
- 3 Thou didst create the stars of night:
Yet thou hast veiled in flesh thy light—
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear,
A mortal's painful lot to bear.
- 4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged thee,
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

Vow in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqu'ror, never more to die,
As by thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end!

6 His promises are yea and amen. L. M.

SAVIOUR, I lift my trembling eyes,
To that bright seat, where, placed on high,
The great, the atoning sacrifice,
For me, for all, is ever nigh.

Be thou my guard on peril's brink;
Be thou my guide through weal or wo;
And teach me of thy cup to drink,
And make me in thy faith to go.

For what is earthly change or loss?

Thy promises are still my own:
The feeblest frame may bear thy cross,
The lowliest spirit share thy throne.

7 Let all the angels of God worship him. L. M.
Heb. 1: 6.

THEE we adore. O gracious Lord!
We praise thy name with one accord
Thy saints, who here thy goodness see,
Through all the world do worship thee.

To thee aloud all angels cry,
And ceaseless raise their songs on high,
Both cherubim and seraphim,
The heavens and all the powers therein.

The apostles join the glorious throng;
The prophets swell the immortal song;
The martyrs' noble army raise
Eternal anthems to thy praise.

Thee, holy, holy, holy King!
Thee, O Lord God of hosts, they sing:
Thus earth below, and heaven above,
Resound thy glory and thy love.

CHRIST,

218 He hath the keys of hell and of death. L. M.
Rev. 1: 18.

HAIL to the Prince of Life an' Peace,
Who holds the keys of death and hell;
The spacious world unseen is his,
The sov'reign power becomes him well.

- 2 Ir shame and anguish once he died;
But now he lives for ever more;
Bow down, you saints, around his seat,
And all you angel bands adore.
- 3 Live, live for ever, glorious Lord,
To crush thy foes and guard thy friends,
While all thy chosen tribes rejoice
That thy dominion never ends.
- 4 Worthy thy hand to hold the keys,
Guided by wisdom and by love;
Worthy to rule our mortal lives,
O'er worlds below and worlds above.
- 5 For ever reign, victorious King! [known;
Wide through the earth thy name be
And call our longing souls to sing
Sublimar anthems near thy throne.

219 My Redeemer liveth. L. M.
Job 19: 25.

I KNOW that my Redeemer lives;
What comfort this sweet sentence gives
He lives, he lives who once was dead,
He lives, my ever-living head!

- 2 He lives to bless me with his love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to bless in time of need.
- 3 He lives to grant me rich supply,
He lives to guide me with his eye,
He lives to comfort me when faint,
He lives to hear my soul's complaint.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

He lives, my kind, wise, heav'nly friend,
He lives, and loves me to the end;
He lives, and while he lives I'll sing,
He lives, my Prophet, Priest, and King!

He lives, and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives my mansion to prepare,
He lives to bring me safely there.

He lives, all glory to his name!
He lives, my Jesus, still the same!
O the sweet joy this sentence gives—
I know that my Redeemer lives!

20

No other name.

L. M.

Acts 4: 12.

JESUS, the spring of joys divine,
Whence all our hopes and comforts flow
Jesus, no other name but thine
Can save us from eternal wo.

In vain would boasting reason find
The way to happiness and God;
Her weak directions leave the mind
Bewildered in a dubious road.

No other name will heaven approve;
Thou art the true, the living way,
Ordained by everlasting love,
To the bright realms of endless day.

Here let our constant feet abide,
Nor from the heavenly path depart;
O let thy Spirit, gracious Guide!
Direct our steps, and cheer our heart.

Safe lead us through this world of night,
And bring us to the blissful plains—
The regions of unclouded light,
Where perfect joy for ever reigns.

CHRIST,

221 Excellency of the knowledge of Christ. L. M.

- 1 LET everlasting glories crown
Thy head, my Saviour and my Lord;
Thy hands have brought salvation down,
And stored the blessings in thy word.
- 2 In vain the trembling conscience seeks
Some solid ground to rest upon;
With long despair the spirit breaks,
Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 3 How well thy blessed truths agree!
How wise and holy thy commands!
Thy promises, how firm they be!
How firm our hope and comfort stands!
- 4 Should all the forms that men devise
Assault my faith with treacherous art,
I'd call them vanity and lies,
And bind the gospel to my heart.

222 Lord, to whom shall we go? L. M.
John 6: 68.

- THOU only Sov'reign of my heart,
My Refuge, my almighty Friend—
And can my soul from thee depart.
On whom alone my hopes depend?
- 2 Whither, ah! whither shall I go,
A wretched wanderer from my Lord?
Can this dark world of sin and woe
One glimpse of happiness afford?
- 3 Eternal life thy words impart;
On these my fainting spirit lives;
Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart;
Than all the round of nature gives.
- 4 Let earth's alluring joys combine;
While thou art near, in vain they call!
One smile, one blissful smile of thine,
My dearest Lord, outweighs them all.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 1 Thy name my inmost powers adore;
Thou art my life, my joy, my care,
Depart from thee—'t is death—'t is more—
'T is endless ruin, deep despair!
- 2 Low at thy feet, my soul would lie
Here safety dwells, and peace divine;
Still let me live beneath thine eye,
For life, eternal life, is thine.

3 Christ the Way, the Truth, and the Life. L. M.

THOU art the Way; and he who sighs,
Amid this starless waste of woes,
To find a pathway to the skies,
A light from heaven's eternal glow,
By thee must come, thou Gate of love,
Through which the saints undoubting
Fill faith discovers, like the dove, [trod,
An ark, a resting-place in God.

Thou art the Truth, whose steady day
Shines on through earthly blight and
The pure, the everlasting Ray, [bloom;
The Lamp that shines e'en in the tomb;
The Light that out of darkness springs,
And guideth those that blindly go;
The Word whose precious radiance flings
Its luster upon all below.

Thou art the Life, the blessed Well
With living waters gushing o'er,
Which those that drink shall ever dwell
Where sin and thirst are known no more
Thou art the mystic Pillar given,
Our Lamp by night, our Light by day;
Thou art the sacred Bread from heaven;
Thou art the Life, the Truth, the Way

CHRIST,

224 A very present help in trouble. L. M. 6 lines
Psalm 16: 1.

STILL nigh me. O my Saviour, stand,
And guard in fierce temptation's hour
Support by thy almighty hand.
Show forth in me thy saving power;
Still be thine arm my sure defense,
Nor earth nor hell shall pluck me thence

- 2 In suffering be thy love my peace,
In weakness be thy love my power;
And when the storms of life shall cease,
O, Saviour, in that trying hour,
In death, as life, be thou my guide,
And save me, who for me hast died.

225 Christ all and in all. L. M. 6 lines

JESUS, thou source of calm repose,
All fullness dwells in thee divine;
Our strength, to quell the proudest foes;
Our light, in deepest gloom to shine;
Thou art our fortress, strength, and tower
Our trust, and portion, evermore.

- 2 Jesus, our Comforter, thou art
Our rest in toil, our ease in pain;
The balm to heal each broken heart.
In storms our peace, in loss our gain;
Our joy, beneath the worldling's frown;
In shame our glory and our crown:
- 3 In want, our plentiful supply;
In weakness our almighty power;
In bonds, our perfect liberty;
Our refuge in temptation's hour;
Our comfort, 'midst all grief and thral;
Our life in death; our all in all.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

Prophet, Priest, and King. L. M. 6 lines

Y Prophet thou. my heavenly Guide,
Thy sweet instructions I will hear;
words that from thy lips proceed,
how divinely sweet they are!
O my great Prophet, I would love,
imitate the blest above.

great High Priest, whose precious blood once atone upon the cross,
now dost intercede with God,
and plead the friendless sinner's cause:
Thee I trust, thee would I love,
imitate the blest above.

King supreme. to thee I bow willing subject at thy feet;
Other lords I disavow,
and to thy government submit;
Saviour King this heart would love,
imitate the blest above.

He is precious.

L. M

1 Pet. 2: 7.

SUS! the very thought is sweet;
In that dear name all heart-joys meet;
sweeter than the honey far glimpses of his presence are.

word is sung more sweet than this;
name is heard more full of bliss;
thought brings sweeter comfort night,
in Jesus, Son of God, most high.

is, the hope of souls forlorn!
Ev' good to them for sin that mourn;
them that seek thee, O how kind!
what art thou to them that find?

tongue of mortal can express,
letters write its blessedness;
He, who hath thee in his heart,
owns, love of Jesus, what thou art.

CHRIST,

228 Christ a merciful High Priest. O.

- WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above:
His heart is full of tenderness:
His bosom glows with love.
- 2 Touched with a sympathy with in,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean
For he has felt the same.
- 3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out his cries and tears,
And in his measure feels afresh
What every member bears.
- 4 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In each distressing hour.

229 The bright and morning star. O.
Rev. 22: 16.

- BRIGHT was the guiding star that led
With mild, benignant ray,
The Gentiles to the lowly shed
Where the Redeemer lay.
- 2 But lo! a brighter, clearer light
Now points to his abode;
It shines through sin and sorrow's night
To guide us to our God.
- 3 O haste to follow where it leads;
The gracious call obey,
Be rugged wilds or flowery meads
The Christian's destined way.
- 4 O gladly tread the narrow path.
While light and grace are given:
Who meekly follow Christ on earth
Shall reign with him in heaven.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

30 They shall speak of the glory, etc. C. M.

Psalm 145: 11.

COME, you that love the Saviour's name,
And joy to make it known.
The Sov'reign of your heart proclaim,
And bow before his throne.
Behold your King, your Saviour, crown'd
With glories all divine;
And tell the wond'ring nations round
How bright these glories shine.
Infinite power and boundless grace
In him unite their rays;
You that have seen his lovely face,
Can you forbear his praise?
When in the earthly courts we view
The beauties of our King,
We long to love as angels do,
And wish like them to sing.
And shall we long and wish in vain?
Lord, teach our songs to rise!
Thy love can animate our strain,
And bid it reach the skies.
O for the day, the glorious day!
When heav'n and earth shall raise,
With all their powers, the raptur'd lay,
To celebrate thy praise.

31 Thou dear Redeemer, dying Lamb. C. M.

THOU dear Redeemer, dying Lamb,
I love to hear of thee;
No music's like thy charming name,
Nor half so sweet can be.
O, may I ever hear thy voice
In mercy to me speak;
In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice,
And thy salvation seek.

CHRIST,

- 3 My Jesus shall be still my theme,
While on this earth I stay;
I'll sing my Jesus' lovely name,
When all things else decay.

232

Offices of Christ.

C. M.

- WE bless the Prophet of the Lord,
That comes with truth and grace;
Jesus, thy Spirit and thy Word
Shall lead us in thy ways.
- 2 We rev'rence our High Priest above,
Who offer'd up his blood,
And lives to carry on his love
By pleading with our God.
- 3 We honor our exalted King;
How sweet are his commands!
He guards our souls from hell and sin
By his almighty hands.

233

A merciful and faithful High Priest.

C. M.

Heb. 2: 17.

- COME, let us join in songs of praise
To our ascended Priest;
He enter'd heav'n with all our names
Engraven on his breast.
- 2 On earth he wash'd our guilt away
By his atoning blood;
Now he appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.
- 3 What though while here we oft must feel
Temptation's keenest dart,
Our tender High Priest feels it too,
And will appease the smart.
- 4 Cloth'd with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which he himself o'ercame.

we ne'er forget his grace,
blush to wear his name!
ay our hearts hold fast his faith.. lips his praise proclaim!

Children's Hymn.

C. M.

SANNA! raise the pealing hymn
to David's Son and Lord;
cherubim and seraphim
alt the incarnate Word.

nna! Lord, our feeble tongue
no lofty strains can raise:
thou wilt not despise the young so meekly chant thy praise.

nna! Sovereign, Prophet, Priest,
how vast thy gifts, how free!
Blood, our life; thy Word, our feast.. thy Name, our only plea.

nna! Master, lo! we bring our offerings to thy throne;
gold, nor myrrh, nor mortal thing.
Adorers to thy throne come

CHRIST,

235

Consider—the High Priest, etc.

Heb. 3: 1

C. M.

NOW let our cheerful eyes survey
Our great High Priest above,
And celebrate his constant care
And sympathetic love.

2 Though rais'd to heav'n's exalted throne
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the hosts of light,
With matchless honors crown'd—

3 The names of all his saints he bears,
Deep graven on his heart;
Nor shall the weakest Christian say
That he has lost his part.

4 Those characters shall fair abide,
Our everlasting trust,
When gems, and monuments, and crowns
Have molder'd down to dust.

5 So, gracious Saviour, on my breast
May thy lov'd name be worn,
A sacred ornament and guard,
To endless ages borne.

236

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain.

Rev. 5: 12.

C. M.

BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb
Amidst his Father's throne,
Prepare new honors for his name,
And songs before unknown.

2 Let elders worship at his feet,
The church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless blessings paid;
Salvation, glory, joy, remain
For ever on thy head!

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 4 Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood,
Hast set the pris'ners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

237

Christ—all in all.

C. M

- INFINITE excellence is thine,
Thou lovely Prince of Grace!
Thy uncreated beauties shine
With never-fading rays.
- 2 Sinners from earth's remotest end
Come bending at thy feet;
To thee their prayers and praise ascend
In thee their wishes meet.
- 3 Thy name, as precious ointment shed,
Delights the church around;
Sweetly the sacred odors spread,
And purest joys abound.
- 4 Millions of happy spirits live
On thy exhaustless store;
From thee they all their bliss receive,
And still thou givest more.
- 5 Thou art their triumph and their joy:
They find their all in thee;
Thy glories will their tongues employ
Through all eternity.

238

He died for our sins.

C. M.

1 Cor. 15 : 3.

- JESUS, in thy transporting name
What blissful glories rise!
Jesus, the angels' sweetest theme—
The wonder of the skies!
- 2 Well might the skies with wonder view
A love so strange as thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!

CHRIST,

- 3 Jesus, and didst thou leave the sky
To bear our sins and woes?
And didst thou bleed, and groan, and die,
For vile rebellious foes?
- 4 Victorious love! can language tell,
The wonders of thy pow'r,
Which conquer'd all the force of hell
In that tremendous hour!
- 5 What glad return can I impart
For favors so divine?
O take this heart, this worthless heart,
And make it only thine!

239

The Name above every name.

C. M.

- THE Saviour! O what endless charms
Dwell in the blissful sound!
Its influence ev'ry fear disarms,
And spreads sweet peace around.
- 2 Here pardon, life, and joys divine,
In rich profusion flow;
For guilty rebels, lost in sin,
And doom'd to endless wo.
- 3 Th' almighty Former of the skies
Stoop'd to our vile abode;
While angels view'd, with wond'ring eyes,
And hail'd th' incarnate God.
- 4 O the rich depths of love divine!
Of bliss a boundless store!
Blest Saviour, let me call thee mine;
I can not wish for more.
- 5 On thee, alone, my hope relies,
Beneath thy cross I fall;
My Lord, my life, my sacrifice,
My Saviour and my all.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

40 He suffered, the Just for the unjust. C. M.
1 Pet. 3: 18.

- A LAS! and did my Saviour bleed?
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
- 2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When God's own Son was crucified
For man the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.
- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away;
'T is all that I can do.

41 Remember me. C. M.

- JESUS, thou art the sinner's friend;
As such I look to thee;
Now, in the fullness of thy love,
O Lord, remember me!
- 2 Remember thy pure word of grace,
Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy promises,
And then remember me.
- 3 Thou mighty Advocate with God!
I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
O Lord, remember me!

CHRIST,

- 4 I own I'm guilty—own I'm vile;
Yet thy salvation's free;
Then, in thy all-abounding grace;
O Lord, remember me!
- 5 Howe'er forsaken or distress'd,
Howe'er oppress'd I be,
Howe'er afflicted here on earth,
Do thou remember me!
- 6 And when I close my eyes in death,
And creature helps all flee,
Then, O my great Redeemer, Lord,
I pray remember me!

C. M.

242

An unchangeable priesthood.
Heb. 7 : 24.

- JESUS, in thee our eyes behold
A thousand glories more
Than the rich gems and polish'd gold
The sons of Aaron wore.
- 2 They first their own burnt-off'rings brought
To purge themselves from sin;
Thy life was pure, without a spot,
And all thy nature clean.
- 3 Fresh blood, as constant as the day,
Was on their altar spilt;
But thy one off'ring takes away
For ever all our guilt.
- 4 Their priesthood ran through sev'ral
For mortal was their race;
Thy never-changing office stands
Eternal as thy days.
- 5 Once, in the circuit of a year,
With blood, but not his own,
Aaron with the vail appear'd
Before the golden throne;

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 5 But Christ, with his own precious blood,
Ascends above the skies,
And in the presence of our God
Shows his own sacrifice.
- 1 Jesus, the King of glory, reigns
On Zion's holy hill;
Looks like a lamb that had been slain,
And wears his priesthood still.
- 1 He ever lives in heav'n to plead
The cause which cost his blood,
And saves unto the utmost those
Who by him come to God.

243

He is Lord of all.
Acts 10 : 36.

C. M.

- HOSANNA to our conqu'ring King!
All hail, incarnate Love!
Ten thousand songs and glories wait
To crown thy head above.
- 1 Thy vict'ries and thy deathless fame
Through all the world shall run,
And everlasting ages sing
The triumphs thou hast won.

244

Grace is poured into thy lips.
Psalm 45 : 2.

C. M

- O JESUS! King most wonderful!
Thou Conqueror renowned!
Thou Sweetness most ineffable!
In whom all joys are found.
- 2 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.
- 3 Thee may our tongues forever bless,
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our lives express
The image of thine own.

CHR. ST,

245 Rise, Lord, let thine enemies be scattered. C. M.
Num. 10 : 35.

- JESUS, immortal King! arise,
Assert thy rightful sway,
Till earth, subdued, its tribute brings,
And distant lands obey.
- 2 Ride forth, victorious Conqueror! ride,
Till all thy foes submit,
And all the powers of hell resign
Their trophies at thy feet.
- 3 Send forth thy word, and let it fly
The spacious earth around,
Till every soul beneath the sun
Shall hear the joyful sound.
- 4 From sea to sea, from shore to shore,
May Jesus be adored!
And earth, with all her millions, shout
Hosannas to the Lord.

246 The shadow of a great rock, etc. C. M.
Isaiah 32 : 2.

- HE who on earth as man was known,
And bore our sins and pains,
Now seated on th' eternal throne,
The Lord of glory reigns.
- 2 His hands the wheels of nature guide
With sure, unerring skill.
And countless worlds, extended wide,
Obey his sov'reign will.
- 3 While harps unnumber'd sound his praise
In yonder worlds above,
His saints on earth admire his ways,
And glory in his love.
- 4 This land through which his pilgrims go
Is desolate and dry;
But streams of grace from him o'erflow,
Their thirst to satisfy.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

n troubles, like a burning sun,
at heavy on their head.
his high Rock for rest they run,
and find a pleasing shade.

glorious he, how happy they such a gen'rous friend,
se love secures them all the way,
and crown them at the end.

Ye are complete in him.

Col. 2: 10.

C. M.

OW sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear!

makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
is manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

thee my prayers acceptance gain,
Although with sin defiled;
can accuses me in vain.
And I am owned a child.

us, my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
my Prophet, Priest, and King,
Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.

ask is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
t when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

ll then, I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
and may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death!

CHRIST,

248

The true and living Way.

- THOU art the Way—to thee alone
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth—thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life—the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conqu’ring arm;
And those who put their trust in thee,
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

249

Blessed are all they, etc.

Psalm 2: 12.

- MY Saviour! my almighty Friend!
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end—
The numbers of thy grace?
- 2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore;
And since I knew thy graces first
I speak thy glories more.
- 3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road;
And march, with courage, in thy street
To see my Father God.
- 4 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul, redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

50 Chief among ten thousand. C. M.

MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace overflow.

- 2 No mortal can with him compare
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he, than all the fair
Who fill the heavenly train.
- 3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
And flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.
- 4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
And saves me from the grave.
- 5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joys complete.
- 6 Since from thy bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord! they should all be thine.

51 Altogether lovely. C. M.

JESUS, I love thy charming name,
'Tis music to my ear;
Fain would I sound it out so loud
That all the earth might hear.

- 2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust;
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.

CHRIST,

3 All that my ardent soul can wish
In thee doth richly meet;
Nor to my eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

4 Thy grace shall dwell upon my heart
And shed its fragrance there;
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

5 I'll speak the honors of thy name
With my last lab'ring breath,
And, dying, triumph in thy cross,
The antidote of death.

252 I looked—and there was none to help. C
Isaiah. 63: 5.

PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.

2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and—O! amazing love!
He ran to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.

4 O! for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.

5 Angels! assist our mighty joys;
Strike all your harps of gold;
But, when you raise your highest notes
His love can ne'er be told.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

253

A fountain for sin.

Zech. 13 : 1.

J. M.

THERE is a fountain fill'd with blood
 Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
 And sinners plung'd beneath that flood,
 Lose all their guilty stains.

1 The dying thief rejoiced to see
 That fountain in his day;
 And there have I, as vile as he,
 Wash'd all my sins away.

2 O Lamb of God, thy precious blood
 Shall never lose its power,
 Till all the ransom'd Church of God
 Be sav'd to sin no more.

3 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
 Thy flowing wounds supply,
 Redeeming love has been my theme,
 And shall be till I die.

4 And when this lisping, stammering tongue
 Lies silent in the grave,
 Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
 I'll sing thy power to save.

254 He shall save his people from their sins. O M

Math. 1 : 21.

SALVATION! O! the joyful sound;
 'Tis pleasure to our ears;
 A sovereign balm for every wound,
 A cordial for our fears.

1 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
 At hell's dark door we lay;
 But we arise, by grace divine,
 To see a heavenly day.

2 Salvation! let the echo fly
 The spacious earth around;
 While all the armies of the sky
 Conspire to raise the sound.

CHRIST,

255

The Reign of Christ.

C. M

LET earth, with every isle and sea,
Rejoice; the Saviour reigns:
His word, like fire, prepares his way,
And mountains melt to plains.

2 His presence sinks the proudest hills
And makes the valleys rise;
The humble soul enjoys his smiles,
The haughty sinner dies.

3 Adoring angels, at his birth,
Made our Redeemer known;
Thus shall he come to judge the earth
And angels guard his throne.

4 His foes shall tremble at his sight,
And hills and seas retire;
His children take their upward flight,
And leave the world on fire.

5 The seeds of joy and glory sown
For saints in darkness here,
Shall rise and spring in worlds unknown,
And a rich harvest bear.

256 Thou hast put all things under his feet. C. H. M

Heb. 2: 8.

O NORTH, with all thy vales of green,
O South, with all thy palms,
From peopled towns, and fields between,
Uplift the voice of psalms;
Baise, ancient East, the anthem high,
And let the youthful West reply.

2 Lo! in the clouds of heaven appears
God's well-belovéd Son;
He brings a train of brighter years—
His kingdom is begun:
He comes, a guilty world to bless
With mercy, truth and righteousness.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

O Father, haste the promised hour
When at his feet shall lie
All rule, authority and power
Beneath the ample sky.
When he shall reign from pole to pole,
The Lord of every human soul.
When all shall heed the words he said,
Amid their daily cares,
And by the loving life he led
Shall strive to pattern theirs;
And he who conquered Death shall win
The mighty conquest over Sin.

157 The only foundation. C. F. M.

HAD I ten thousand gifts beside,
I'd cleave to Jesus crucified,
And build on him alone;
For no foundation is there giv'n
On which to place my hopes of heav'n,
But Christ, the corner-stone.

2 Possessing Christ I all possess,
Wisdom, and strength, and righteousness
And holiness complete;
Bold in his name, I dare draw nigh
Before the Ruler of the sky,
And all his justice meet.

3 There is no path to heav'nly bliss,
To solid joy or lasting peace,
But Christ, th' appointed road;
O may we tread the sacred way,
By faith rejoice, and praise, and pray;
Till we sit down with God!

4 The types and shadows of the word
Unite in Christ, the Man, the Lord,
The Saviour kind and true;
O may we still his word believe,
And all his promises receive,
And all his precepts do.

CHRIST;

5 As he above for ever lives,
And life to dying mortals gives,
Eternal and divine;
O may his Spirit in me dwell!
Then, sav'd from sin, and death and Eternal life is mine.

258 All we like sheep have gone astray. S.
Isaiah. 53: 6.

LIKE sheep we went astray,
And broke the fold of God;
Each wand'ring in a different way,
But all the downward road.

2 How dreadful was the hour
When God our wand'rings laid,
And did at once his vengeance pour
Upon the Shepherd's head.

3 How glorious was the grace
When Christ sustain'd the stroke!
His life and blood the Shepherd pays,
A ransom for the flock.

4 But God hath rais'd his head
O'er all the sons of men.
And made him see a num'rous seed
To recompense his pain.

259 Seen of angels. S.
1 Tim. 3: 16.

BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as th' eternal hills,
Yon heaven of heavens, with living light,
Our great Redeemer fills.

2 Around him angels fair,
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

"Hail Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love,
Moved thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."

And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast their honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.

They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies;
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the Conqueror rise.

They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung--
"The glorious work is done."

160 And they sung a new song. 8s & 5s.
Rev. 14: 3.

SING of Jesus, sing for ever
Of the love that changes never!
Who, or what, from him can sever
Those he makes his own?

With his blood the Lord hath bought them.
When they knew him not, he sought them.
And from all their wand'rings brought them:
His the praise alone.

Through the desert Jesus leads them.
With the bread of heaven he feeds them.
And through all their way he speeds them
To their home above.

There they see the Lord who bought them.
Him who came from heaven and sought them
Him who by his Spirit taught them,
Him they serve and love.

CHRIST,

And that rock was Christ. 7s 6
1 Cor. 10; 4.

ROCK of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From thy riven side which flowed,
Be of sin the double cure;
Cleanse me from its guilt and pow

2 Not the labor of my hands
Can fulfill the law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to thee for dress;
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly,
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my heart-strings break in d
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment-throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee.

262

A covert from the storm. dou
Isaiah 4: 6.

JESUS, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly,
While the billows near me roll,
While the tempest still is high
Hide me, O my Saviour, hide,
Till the storm of life is past:
Safe into the haven guide,
O receive my soul at last.

HIS MEDIATORIAL REIGN.

- 2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee!
Leave, O leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on thee is stay'd,
All my help from thee I bring,
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
Boundless love in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,
Prince of Peace and Righteousness;
Most unworthy, Lord, I am,
Thou art full of love and grace.
- 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,
Grace to pardon all my sins;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within:
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

163 Friend of sinners. 8s, 7s & 4s

- ONE there is above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end;
Hallelujah!
Costly, free, and knows no end.
- 2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood!
But this Saviour died, to have us
Reconcil'd in him to God.
Hallelujah!
Reconcil'd in him to God.

CHRIST,

3 When he liv'd on earth abas'd,
 Friend of sinners was his name;
 Now above all glory rais'd,
 He rejoices in the same;
 Hallelujah!
 He rejoices in the same.

The Rock that is higher than I.
 IN seasons of grief to my God I'll repair,
 When my heart is o'erwhelm'd with sorrow and care;
 From the end of the earth unto thee will I cry,
 Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I!
 Higher than I, higher than I,
 Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.

2 When Satan, the tempter, comes in like a flood
 To drive my poor soul from the fountain of good,
 I'll pray to the Lord who for sinners did die—
 Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I.
 3 And when I have finished my pilgrimage here,
 Complete in Christ's righteousness I shall appear,
 In the swellings of Jordan, all dangers defy,
 And look to the Rock that is higher than I.
 4 And when the last trumpet shall sound through the air,
 And the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise,
 Transported I'll join with the ransom'd on high,
 To praise the great Rock that is higher than I.
 Higher than I, higher than I,
 To praise the great Rock that is higher than I.

GOSPEL—THE PROCLAMATION.

The Christian banner. L. M.

Christian banner! dread no loss ere that broad ensign floats unrolled, the fair and sacred cross out from every radiant fold:—
 es arise, a countless throng,
 as the storms of Kara's sea,
 ough the strife be fierce and long,
 cross shall wave in victory.

the shrill trumpet, sound, and call people of the mighty King, d them keep that standard all artial thousands gathering;—
 m come forth from every clime, lies beneath the circling sun,
 s, as flowers in that sweet clime eflowers are, in heart, but one.

s of heaven! take sword and shield,
 up to him who rules on high,
 rward to the glorious field,
 e noble martyrs bleed and die;—

THE GOSPEL—

Press on ward, scorning flight or fear
As deep waves burst on Norway's coast
And let the startled nations hear
The war-shout of the Christian host

- 4 Lift up the banner:—rest no more,
Nor let this righteous warfare cease
Till man's last tribe shall bow before
The Lord of lords—the Prince of Peace
Go! bear it forth, ye strong and brave
Let not those bright folds once be seen
Till that high sun shall see them wave
Above a blest but conquered world

267

The Spirit of the Lord, etc.

Isaiah 59 : 19.

- FLING out the banner! let it float
Sky-ward and sea-ward, high and
The sun, that lights its shining folds,
The cross, on which the Saviour died
- 2 Fling out the banner! angels bend,
In anxious silence, o'er the sign;
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonder of the love divine.
- 3 Fling out the banner! heathen lands
Shall see, from far, the glorious sign
And nations, crowding to be born,
Baptize their spirits in its light.
- 4 Fling out the banner! sin-sick souls,
That sink and perish in the strife,
Shall touch in faith its radiant hem,
And spring immortal into life.
- 5 Fling out the banner! let it float
Sky-ward and sea-ward, high and
Our glory, only in the cross;
Our only hope the Crucified.

THE PROCLAMATION.

The power of God unto salvation. L. M.
Rom. 1: 16.

in the gospel of his Son,
know his eternal counsels known;
where his richest mercy shines,
which is drawn in fairest lines.
Learners of a humble frame seek his grace and learn his name; written in characters of blood,
how just—immensely good.
Jesus, in ten thousand ways,
his attracting charms displays;
his poverty and pains,
his love in melting strains.
This blest volume ever lie near my heart, and near my eye—his last hour my soul engage,
his chosen heritage!

Pentecost. L. M.
Acts 2.

IT was the day, the joy was great when the belov'd disciples met;
when their heads the Spirit came,
and like tongues of cloven flame.
Behold, what miracles he gave!
Power to kill, the power to save, [words,
and their tongues with wondrous of shields, and spears, and swords.
From'd, he sent the champions forth,
east to west, from south to north:
I assert your Saviour's cause—and the myst'ry of his cross!

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 These weapons of the holy war,
Of what almighty force they are
To make our stubborn passions bow,
And lay the proudest rebel low !
- 5 The Greeks and Jews, the learn'd and rude
Are by these heav'nly arms subdued ;
While Satan rages at his loss,
And hates the doctrine of the cross.

276 How beautiful are the feet, etc. S. M.
Rom. 10 : 15.

- HOW beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill !
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal !
- 2 How charming is their voice !
How sweet the tidings are !
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found !
- 4 How blessed are our eyes
That see this heavenly light !
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad ;
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

THE PROCLAMATION.

271

Power of God's word.

S. M.

- BEHOLD, the morning sun
 Begins his glorious way;
 His beams through all the nations run,
 And light and life convey.
- 2 But where the gospel comes,
 It spreads diviner light;
 It calls dead sinners from their tombs,
 And gives the blind their sight.
- 3 How perfect is thy word!
 And all thy judgments just!
 For ever sure thy promise, Lord,
 And we securely trust.
- 4 My gracious God, how plain
 Are thy directions given!
 O, may I never read in vain,
 But find the path to heaven.

272

The gospel trumpet.

8s. & 7.

- HARK! how the gospel trumpet sounds!
 Through all the world the echo bounds!
 And Jesus, by redeeming blood,
 Is bringing sinners back to God,
 And guides them safely by his word
 To endless day.
- 2 Hail, Jesus! all victorious Lord!
 Be thou by all mankind adored!
 For us didst thou the fight maintain,
 And o'er our foes the victory gain,
 That we with thee might ever reign
 In endless day.
- 3 Fight on, ye conquering souls, fight on,
 And when the conquest you have won,
 Then palms of victory you shall bear,
 And in his kingdom have a share,
 And crowns of glory ever wear,
 In endless day.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 There we shall in full chorus join,
With saints and angels all combine
To sing of his redeeming love,
When rolling years shall cease to move,
And this shall be our theme above,
In endless day.

273

The year of jubilee.

H. M

- BLOW ye the trumpet, blow,
The gladly-solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 2 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-atonning Lamb;
Redemption by his blood,
Through all the lands, proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 3 Ye slaves of sin and hell,
Your liberty receive,
And safe in Jesus dwell.
And blest in Jesus live:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home
- 4 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace:
Ye happy souls, draw near;
Behold your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
- 5 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Has full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mourning souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

THE PROCLAMATION.

274 The royal proclamation. 8s. peculiar.

HEAR the royal proclamation,
 'The glad tidings of salvation,
 Publishing to ev'ry creature,
 To the ruin'd sons of nature,
 Jesus reigns—he reigns victorious,
 Over heaven and earth most glorious!
 Jesus reigns.

- 2 See the royal banners flying,
 Hear the heralds loudly crying:
 "Rebel sinners, royal favor
 Now is offer'd by the Saviour."
- 3 Here is wine, and milk, and honey,
 Come and purchase without money,
 Mercy like a flowing fountain
 Streaming from the holy mountain.
- 4 Shout, you tongues of ev'ry nation,
 To the bounds of the creation,
 Shout the praise of Judah's Lion,
 The Almighty King of Zion.
- 5 Shout, O saints! make joyful mention,
 Christ has purchas'd our redemption;
 Angels, shout the joyful story,
 Through the brighter worlds of glory.

275 Holding forth the word of life. 6s & 4s.
 Phil. 2: 16.

SOUND, sound the truth abroad!
 Bear ye the word of God;
 Through the wide world;
 Tell what our Lord has done,
 Tell how the day is won,
 Tell from his lofty throne
 Satan is hurled.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Far over sea and land,
Go at your Lord's command,
Bear ye his name;
Bear it to every shore,
Regions unknown explore,
Enter at every door;
Silence is shame.
- 3 Speed on the wings of love;
Jesus who reigns above
Bids us to fly;
They who his message bear
Should neither doubt nor fear;
He will their friend appear,
He will be nigh.
- 4 When on the mighty deep,
He will their spirits keep,
Stayed on his word;
When in a foreign land,
No other friend at hand,
Jesus will by them stand,
Jesus, their Lord.

INVITATIONS.

- 276 Haste thee; escape thither. L. M. pecul
Gen. 19 : 22.

HASTE, trav'ler, haste! the night comes
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou art far from home and rest:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

- 2 Awake, awake! pursue thy way
With steady course, while yet 't is day;
While thou art sleeping on the ground,
Danger and darkness gather round;
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

INVITATIONS.

- 3 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path; no refuge near:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!
- 4 Haste, while a shelter you may gain,—
A covert from the wind and rain,—
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,—
A refuge from the wrath to come:
Haste, trav'ler, haste!
- 5 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life—the mountain gain;
Look not behind, make no delay;
O, speed thee, speed thee on thy way!
Haste, trav'ler, haste!

277

The night cometh.

L. M.

John 9 : 4.

- WHILE life prolongs its precious light,
Mercy is found, and peace is given;
But soon, ah! soon, approaching night
Shall blot out every hope of heav'n.
- 2 While God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come, sinners, haste, O haste away,
While yet a pardoning God is found.
- 3 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing,
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear, or save.
- 4 In that lone land of deep despair,
No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rise;
No God regard your bitter prayer,
Nor Saviour call you to the skies.

THE GOSPEL,

- 5 Now God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound
Come, sinners, haste, O haste away,
While yet a pardoning God is found.

278

Come unto me.

L

Matt. 11 : 28.

- WITH tearful eyes I look around;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea
Yet midst the gloom I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper. Come to me!
- 2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee:
O! to the weary, faint, opprest,
How sweet the bidding. Come to me!
- 3 Come, for all else must fail and die;
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye;
I am thy portion; Come to me!
- 4 O voice of mercy, voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above,
And gently whisper, Come to me!

279

To-day, if you will hear his voice.

L

Heb. 4 : 7.

- TO-DAY, if you will hear his voice,
Now is the time to make your choice
Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?
- 2 Say, will you be for ever blest,
And with this glorious Jesus rest?
Will you be sav'd from guilt and pain?
Will you with Christ for ever reign?
- 3 Make now your choice, and halt no more!
He now is waiting for the poor:
Say, now, poor souls, what will you do?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

INVITATIONS.

E, weary souls, with sin distress'd,
 me, and accept the promised rest ;
 vlour's gracious call obey,

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Oppress'd with guilt, a heavy load,
O! come and bow before your God;
Divine compassion, mighty love,
Will all the painful load remove.
- 3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows
To cleanse your guilt and heal your wounds
Pardon, and life, and endless peace,
How rich the gift, how free the grace!
- 4 Lord, we accept with thankful heart
The hope thy gracious words impart:
We come with trembling, yet rejoice,
And bless thy kind inviting voice.

282

One thing needful.

I

WHY will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot?

2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue:
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God! thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

283

The broad and the narrow way.

Math. 7: 13, 14

BROAD is the road that leads to death
And thousands walk together there
But wisdom shows a narrow path,
With here and there a traveler.

INVITATIONS.

- 2 "Deny thyself, and take thy cross,"
Is the Redeemer's great command;
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain this heav'nly land.
- 3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteem'd almost a saint,
And makes his own destruction sure.
- 4 Lord, let my hopes be not in vain,
Create my heart entirely new;
This hypocrites could ne'er attain;
This false apostates never knew.

284

Ecclesiastes, 9 : 10.

L. M.

- LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
The time t' insure the great reward,
And while the lamp holds out to burn,
O hasten, sinner, to return!
- 2 Life is the hour that God has giv'n
To 'scape from hell and fly to heav'n,
The day of grace, when mortals may
Secure the blessings of the day.
 - 3 The living know that they must die,
Beneath the clods their dust must lie;
Then have no share in all that's done
Beneath the circle of the sun.
 - 4 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands, with all your might pursue:
Since no device nor work is found,
Nor faith nor hope, beneath the ground.
 - 5 There are no acts of pardon pass'd
In the cold grave to which we haste;
O may we all receive thy grace,
And see with joy thy smiling face.

THE GOSPEL,

285 Come, for all things are now ready. L. M.
Luke 14: 17.

COME, sinners, to the gospel feast,

Oh, do no longer stay;
Let every soul be Jesus' guest,
O, do no longer stay away!

CHORUS.—O, do no longer stay away
For now your Saviour calls
And the gospel sounds the jubilee,
O, do no longer stay away.

2 Hark! 'tis the Saviour's gracious call,
The invitation is to all;
Come, all the world—come, sinner, thou;
All things in Christ are ready now.

3 Come, all you souls by sin oppress'd,
You weary wand'ers after rest;
You poor and maim'd, and halt and blind,
In Christ a hearty welcome find.

4 The message, as from God, receive,
You all may come to Christ and live;
O let his love your hearts constrain,
Nor suffer him to call in vain.

5 This is the time—no more delay;
The Saviour calls you all to-day;
O may his call effectual prove!
Accept the offers of his love!

286 Hear and your soul shall live. C. M.
Isaiah 55: 3.

LET ev'ry mortal ear attend,
And ev'ry heart rejoice;
The trumpet of the gospel sounds
With an inviting voice.

2 Ho! all you hungry, starving souls,
Who feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill an empty mind:

INVITATIONS.

- 3 Eternal wisdom has prepar'd
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.
- 4 Ho! you that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
Here may you quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.
- 5 Rivers of love and mercy here
In a rich ocean join;
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.
- 6 Great God! the treasures of thy love
Are everlasting mines,
Deep as our helpless mis'ries are,
And boundless as our sins.
- 7 The happy gates of gospel grace
Stand open night and day:
Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
And drive our wants away.

287

For there is no difference.

C. M.

Rqm. 10: 12.

- HOW free and boundless is the grace
Of our redeeming God!
Extending to the Greek and Jew,
And men of ev'ry blood.
- 2 Come, all you wretched sinners, come,
He'll form your souls anew;
His gospel and his heart have room
For rebels such as you.
 - 3 His doctrine is almighty love;
There's virtue in his name
To turn a raven to a dove,
A lion to a lamb.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 Come, then, accept the offer'd grace,
And make no more delay;
His love will all your guilt efface,
And soothe your fears away.

288

Let him return unto the Lord.

C

Isaiah 55 : 7

- RETURN, O wand'rer, now return,
And seek thy Father's face;
Those new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by his grace.
- 2 Return, O wand'rer, now return!
He hears thy humble sigh!
He sees thy soften'd spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Return, O wand'rer, now return!
Thy Saviour bids thee live;
Go to his feet, and grateful learn
How freely he'll forgive.
- 4 Return, O wand'rer, now return!
And wipe the falling tear;
Thy Father calls—no longer mourn,
'T is love invites thee near.

289

Incline your ear, and come.

C

Isaiah 55: 3.

- THE Saviour calls; let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound;
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear;
Hope smiles reviving round.
- 2 For every thirsty, longing heart,
Here streams of bounty flow,
And life, and health, and bliss impart
To banish mortal wo.
- 3 Ye sinners, come; 't is mercy's voice;
That gracious voice obey;
'T is Jesus calls to heavenly joys;
And can you yet delay?

INVITATIONS.

- 4 Dear Saviour, draw reluctant hearts;
To thee let sinners fly,
And take the bliss thy love imparts,
And drink, and never die.

290 Let him that is athirst, come. C. M.
Rev. 22: 17.

(O)! WHAT amazing words of grace
Are in the gospel found,
Suited to every sinner's case
Who hears the joyful sound!

- 2 Come, then, with all your wants and wounds.
Your every burden bring;
Here love, unchanging love, abounds—
A deep celestial spring.
- 3 This spring with living water flows,
And heavenly joy imparts;
Come, thirsty souls! your wants disclose,
And drink, with thankful hearts.
- 4 Millions of sinners, vile as you,
Have here found life and peace;
Come then, and prove its virtues too,
And drink, adore, and bless.

291 That whose believeth might not perish. C. M.
John 3: 15.

COME, humble sinner, in whose breast
A thousand thoughts revolve;
Come, with your guilt and fear oppress'd
And make this last resolve:

- I I'll go to Jesus, though my sin
Has like a mountain rose;
His kingdom now I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.

Humbly I'll bow at his command,
And there my guilt confess;
I'll own I am a wretch undone
Without his sov'reign grace.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 Surely he will accept my plea,
For he has bid me come;
Forthwith I'll rise, and to him flee,
For yet, he says, there's room.
- 5 I can not perish if I go;
I am resolv'd to try:
For if I stay away, I know
I must forever die.

292

Come to the Ark.

Gen. 7: 1.

O M.

- COME to the ark, come to the ark;
To Jesus come away;
The pestilence walks forth by night,
The arrow flies by day.
- 2 Come to the ark: the waters rise,
The seas their billows rear:
While darkness gathers o'er the skies,
Behold a refuge near!
- 3 Come to the ark, all, all that weep
Beneath the sense of sin:
Without, deep calleth unto deep,
But all is peace within.
- 4 Come to the ark, ere yet the flood
Your lingering steps oppose;
Come, for the door, which open stood,
Is now about to close.
- 293 He that cometh to me shall never hunger. O. M.

John 6: 35.

- YE wretched, hungry, starving poor,
Behold a royal feast,
Where mercy spreads her bounteous store
For ev'ry humble guest.
- 2 See, Jesus stands with open arms;
He calls, he bids you come;
Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms,
But see, there yet is room.

INVITATIONS.

- 3 Room in the Saviour's bleeding heart;
There love and pity meet:
Nor will he bid the soul depart
That trembles at his feet.
- 4 O come, and with his children taste
The blessings of his love,
While hope attends the sweet repast
Of nobler joys above.
- 5 There, with united heart and voice,
Before th' eternal throne,
Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice
In ecstasies unknown.
- 6 And yet ten thousand thousand more
Are welcome still to come;
Ye longing souls, the grace adore;
Approach—there yet is room.

294 In this mountain shall the Lord, etc. C. M.
Isaiah 25: 6.

- THE King of heav'n his table spreads
And dainties crown the board;
Not Paradise, with all its joys,
Could such delights afford.
- 2 Pardon and peace to dying men,
And endless life are giv'n,
Through the rich blood that Jesus shed,
, To raise our souls to heav'n.
 - 3 You hungry poor, that long have stray'd
In sin's dark mazes, come;
Come from your most obscure retreat,
And grace shall find you room.
 - 4 Millions of souls in glory now
Were fed and feasted here;
And millions more still on the way
Around the board appear.

THE GOSPEL,

5 Yet are his heart and house so large,
That millions more may come:
Nor could the whole assembled world
O'erfill the spacious room.

6 All things are ready: come away,
Nor weak excuses frame;
Crowd to your places at the feast,
And bless the Founder's name.

295 None excluded. C. M.

JESUS, thy blessings are not few,
Nor is thy gospel weak;
Thy grace can melt the stubborn Jew,
And heal the dying Greek.

2 Wide as the reach of Satan's rage
Doth thy salvation flow;
'T is not confined to sex nor age,
The lofty nor the low.

3 While grace is offered to the prince,
The poor may take his share;
No mortal has a just pretense
To perish in despair.

4 Come, all ye wretched sinners, come,
He'll form your souls anew;
His gospel and his heart have room
For rebels such as you.

5 His doctrine is almighty love;
There's virtue in his name
To turn the raven to a dove,
The lion to a lamb.

296 Draw nigh to God, etc. C. M. per
James 4: 8.

RETURN. O wand'rer, to thy home
Thy Father calls for thee;
No longer now an exile roam,
In guilt and misery:
Return, return!

INVITATIONS.

2 Return, O wand'rer, to thy home,
 'T is Jesus calls for thee;
 The Spirit and the Bride say—come;
 O! now for refuge flee;
 Return, return!

3 Return, O wand'rer, to thy home,
 'T is madness to delay;
 There are no pardons in the tomb,
 And brief is mercy's day:
 Return, return!

97 Now is the accepted time. S. M
2 Cor. 6: 2.

NOW is th' accepted time,
 Now is the day of grace;
 Now, sinners come, without delay,
 And seek the Saviour's face.

2 Now is th' accepted time,
 The Saviour calls to-day;
 To-morrow it may be too late—
 Then why should you delay?

3 Now is th' accepted time,
 The gospel bids you come;
 And ev'ry promise in his word
 Declares there yet is room.

98 Now is the day of salvation. S. M
2 Cor. 6: 2.

NOW is the day of grace;
 Now to the Saviour come;
 The Lord is calling, "Seek my face,
 And I will guide you home."

2 The Father bids you speed;
 O, wherefore then delay?
 He calls in love; he sees your need;
 He bids you come to-day.

THE GOSPEL,

- 3 To-day the prize is won;
The promise is to save;
Then, O, be wise; to-morrow's sun
May shine upon your grave.

299

Give me thy heart.

S. M.

Prov. 23: 26.

- GIVE to the Lord thy heart;
In him all pleasures meet:
O, come and choose the better part,
Low at the Saviour's feet.
- 2 Hear, and your soul shall live;
His peace shall be your stay—
Peace, which the world can never give
Can never take away.

300

Where shall the ungodly, etc.

S. M

1 Pet. 4: 18.

- AND will the Judge descend?
And must the dead arise?
And not a single soul escape
His all-discerning eyes?
- 2 How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven before his face,
Astonished, shrink away?
But ere the trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead;
Hark! from the Gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread.
- 4 Ye sinners! seek his grace,
Whose wrath ye can not bear
Flee to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.
- 6 Come! take his offers now
From every sin depart.
Perform thy oft-repeated vow,
And render him thy heart.

INVITATIONS.

- 6 Repent! return! receive
The grace through Jesus given;
Sure, if with God on earth we live,
We live with God in heaven.

301 The gospel call. S. M

- YE trembling captives! hear;
The gospel-trumpet sounds;
No music more can charm the ear,
Or heal your heart-felt wounds.
- 2 'Tis not the trump of war,
Nor Sinai's awful roar;
Salvation's news it spreads afar,
And vengeance is no more.
- 3 Forgiveness, love, and peace,
Glad heaven aloud proclaims;
And earth, the jubilee's release,
With eager rapture claims.
- Far, far to distant lands
The saving news shall spread;
And Jesus all his willing bands
In glorious triumph lead.

302 Boast not thyself of to-morrow. S. M
Prov. 27 1.

- TO-MORROW, Lord! is thine,
Lodged in thy sovereign hand;
And if its sun arise and shine,
It shines by thy command.
- 2 The present moment flies,
And bears our life away;
O, make thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day.
- 3 Since on this fleeting hour
Eternity is hung,
Awake, by thine almighty power,
The aged and the young.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 One thing demands our care ·
O, be it still pursued !
Lest, slighted once, the season fair
Should never be renewed.
- 5 To Jesus may we fly,
Swift as the morning light,
Lest life's young, golden beams should die
In sudden, endless night.

303

Come and welcome 7s. 6 lines

- FROM the cross uplifted high,
Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious sounds we hear,
Bursting on the ravish'd ear!—
“Love's redeeming work is done;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 2 “Sprinkled now with blood the throne,
Why beneath thy burdens groan?
On my pierc'd body laid,
Justice owns the ransom paid;
Bow the knee, embrace the Son;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 3 “Spread for thee, the festal board,
See with richest dainties stor'd;
To thy Father's bosom press'd,
Yet again a child confess'd,
Never from his house to roam,—
Come and welcome, sinner, come.
- 4 “Soon the days of life shall end;
Lo, I come, your Saviour, Friend,
Safe your spirits to convey
To the realms of endless day,
Up to my eternal home;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.”

INVITATIONS.

304

Turn ye,—for why will ye die.

Ezekiel 18 : 31.

7s.

- SINNERS, turn—why will you die?
God, your Maker, asks you why:
 God, who did your being give,
 Made you with himself to live.
- 2 Sinners, turn—why will you die?
 Christ, your Saviour, asks you why:
 He, who did your souls retrieve,
 He, who died that you might live.
- 3 Will you let him die in vain?
 Crucify your Lord again?
 Why—you ransom'd sinners—why
 Will you slight his grace and die?
- 4 Will you not his grace receive?
 Will you still refuse to live?
 O! you dying sinners, why—
 Why will you for ever die?

305

What could have been done, etc. 7s. double.

Isaiah 5 : 4.

- WHAT could your Redeemer do
 More than he has done for you?
 To procure your peace with God,
 Could he more than shed his blood?
 After all this flow of love,
 All his drawings from above,
 Why will you your Lord deny?
 Why will you resolve to die?
- 2 Turn, he cries, O sinner, turn:
 By his life your God hath sworn
 He would have you turn and live,
 He would all the world receive:
 If your death were his delight,
 Would he thus to life invite?
 Would he ask, beseech and cry,
 Why will you resolve to die?

THE GOSPEL,

- 3 Sinners, turn while God is near!
He has left you naught to fear:
Now, e'en now, your Saviour stands,
All day long he spreads his hands:
Cries, "You will not happy be,
No, you will not come to me;
Me, who life to none deny—
Why will you resolve to die?"
- 4 Can you doubt that God is love,
Who thus calls you from above?
Will you not his word receive?
Will you not his oath believe?
See, the suff'ring Lord appears:
Jesus weeps—believe his tears!
Mingled with his blood, they cry,
"Why will you resolve to die?"

306

Earnest entreaty.

7

- HASTE, O sinner! to be wise,
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom warns thee from the skies,
All the paths of death to shun.
- 2 Haste, and mercy now implore;
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Thy probation may be o'er
Ere this evening's work is done.
- 3 Haste, O sinner! now return;
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.
- 4 Haste, while yet thou canst be blest;
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Death may thy poor soul arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

INVITATIONS.

307

Fullness of Christ.

7s.

BLEEDING hearts, defiled by sin,
Jesus Christ can make you clean;
Contrite souls, with guilt oppress'd,
Jesus Christ can give you rest.

2 You that mourn o'er follies past,
Precious hours and years laid waste:
Turn to God, O turn and live,
Jesus Christ can still forgive.

3 You that oft have wander'd far
From the light of Bethlehem's star,
Trembling, now your steps retrace,
Jesus Christ is full of grace.

4 Souls benighted and forlorn,
Grieved, afflicted, tempest-worn,
Now in Israel's rock confide,
Jesus Christ for man has died.

5 Fainting souls, in peril's hour,
Yield not to the tempter's power;
On the risen Lord rely,
Jesus Christ now reigns on high.

308

Flee from the wrath to come.

7s. double.

Math. 3: 7.

SINNER, art thou still secure?
Wilt thou still refuse to pray?
Can thy heart or hands endure
In the Lord's avenging day?
See his mighty arm made bare!
Awful terrors clothe his brow!
For his judgment now prepare,
Thou must either break or bow.

2 At his presence nature shakes,
Earth, affrighted, hastes to flee;
Solid mountains melt like wax,
What will then become of thee?

THE GOSPEL,

Who his coming may abide?
You that glory in your shame,
Will you find a place to hide
When the world is wrapt in flame?

8 Then the great, the rich, the wise,
Trembling, guilty, self-condemned,
Must behold the wrathful eyes
Of the Judge they once blasphemed.
Where are now their haughty looks?
O! their horror and despair
When they see the opened books,
And their dreadful sentence hear!

4 Lord, prepare us by thy grace,
Soon we must resign our breath,
And our souls be called to pass
Through the iron gate of death.
Let us now our days improve,
Listen to the gospel voice;
Seek the things that are above;
Scorn the world's pretended joys.

309

My peace I give unto you. 7s. 6 l
John 14: 27.

YE who in his courts are found
List'ning to the joyful sound,
Lost and hopeless as ye are,
Sons of sorrow, sin, and care,
Glorify the King of kings;
Take the peace the gospel brings

2 Turn to Christ your longing eyes
View his bleeding sacrifice;
See in him your sins forgiv'n,
Pardon, holiness, and heav'n;
Glorify the King of kings;
Take the peace the gospel bring

INVITATIONS.

)

The night is past.

1 John 2: 8.

7s.

WEEPING sinners, dry your tears;
 Jesus on the throne appears;
 Mercy comes with balmy wing,
 Bids you his salvation sing.
 Peace he brings you by his death,
 Peace he speaks with ev'ry breath;
 Can you alight such heav'nly charms?
 Flee, O flee to Jesus' arms.

The pearl of great price.

8s & 7s.

Math. 13: 46.

INNER, seek the priceless treasure,
 Offered without price from God;
 ere is mercy without measure
 Flowing in the Saviour's blood.
 Come, then, to the fount of healing,
 Come, and prove its virtues true;
 Turn not from love's sweet appealing,
 Jesus shed his blood for you!

Come, begin the race for heaven,
 Start to-day. O do not wait;
 Now's the time that God has given,
 Sinner, do not be too late:
 When the door of mercy closes,
 You will stand and knock in vain;
 Or, when justice interposes,
 Mercy will not call again!

Look unto me and be saved.

8s, 7s & 4s.

Isaiah 45: 22.

COME, you sinners, poor and needy,
 Weak and wounded sick and sore:
 Jesus ready stands to save you.
 Full of pity, love, and pow'r;
 He is able.
 He is willing—doubt no more.

THE GOSPEL,

2 Let not conscience make you linger
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness he requireth,
Is to feel your need of him;
This he gives you,
'T is the Saviour's rising beam.

3 Come, you weary, heavy laden,
Bruis'd and mangled by the fall;
If you tarry till you 're better,
You will never come at all.
Not the righteous—
Sinners Jesus came to call.

4 Agonizing in the garden,
Lo! your Saviour prostrate lies!
On the bloody tree behold him!
Hear him cry before he dies,
"It is finish'd!"
Sinners, will not this suffice?

5 Lo! the rising Lord, ascending,
Pleads the virtue of his blood:
Venture on him, venture freely,
Let no other trust intrude:
None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good.

6 Saints and angels, joined in concert,
Sing the praises of the Lamb,
While the blissful seats of heaven
Sweetly echo to his name
Hallelujah!
Sinners now his love proclaim.

§13 We are on the ocean sailing.

WE are on the ocean sailing,
Homeward bound we sweetly sail
We are on the ocean sailing,
To a home beyond the tide.

INVITATIONS.

s.—All the storms will soon be over,
Then we 'll anchor in the harbor,
We are out on the ocean sailing
To a home beyond the tide.

ons now are safely landed
er on the golden shore;
ons more are on their journey,
t there's room for millions more.

e on board, O ship for glory,
in haste; make up your mind,
our vessel's weighing anchor—
u will soon be left behind.

d we 'll sing for evermore.

All the storms of life are over.

Landed in the port of glory:

Now no more on the ocean sailing—

Safe at home beyond the tide.

He that hath ears let him hear. 8s, 7s & 4s
Matt. 13: 9.

INERS, will you scorn the message
ent in mercy from above?

7 sentence, O how tender!

'ry line is full of love;

Listen to it;

'ry line is full of love.

THE GOSPEL,

2 Hear the heralds of the gospel
News from Zion's King proclaim:

"Pardon to each rebel sinner;

Free forgiveness in his name:"

O how gracious!

"Free forgiveness in his name."

3 Will you not receive the message—

Listen to the joyful word;

And embrace the news of pardon

Offer'd to you by the Lord?

Can you slight it—

Offer'd to you by the Lord?

4 O ye angels, hov'ring round us,

Waiting spirits, speed your way,

Haste ye to the court of heav'n;

Tidings bear without delay:

Rebel sinners

Glad the message will obey.

315

The gospel invitation.

8s, 7s & 4s

LISTEN to the gospel, telling

How the Lord was crucified;

How upon the cross he suffered,

When he bowed his head and died,

All for sinners!

Come, then, to his bleeding side.

2 Listen to the gospel calling!

Hear, O sinner, and obey!

Come to Jesus. He will save you,

Now, no longer, stay away;

He invites you;

Sinner, then, make no delay.

3 Listen to the gospel pleading,

Hasten, sinner, to arise;

Come and cast yourself on Jesus,

He, to none, his love denies;

Trust him freely,

Wait no longer; now be wise.

INVITATIONS.

Listen to the gospel blessing
All who trust the Saviour's love;
And to those who now obey him,
Bringing pardon from above:
Careless sinner,
Will you still refuse to move?

Listen to the gospel warning;
All who stay away must die;
Come, then, while all things are ready,
Mercy calls you from on high:
Come and welcome,
Hear, O hear, the Saviour cry!

6 The voice of mercy. 8s, 7s & 4s

HEAR, O sinner! mercy calls you,
Now with sweetest voice she calls;
Bids you haste to seek the Saviour,
Ere the hand of Justice falls:
Trust in Jesus;
'T is the voice of mercy calls.

Haste, O sinner! to the Saviour,—
Seek his mercy, while you may;
Soon the day of grace is over;
Soon your life will pass way!
Haste to Jesus;
You must perish, if you stay.

7 The alarm. 7s, 6s & 7s.

STOP, poor sinner, stop and think,
Before you further go;
Will you sport upon the brink
Of everlasting wo!
On the verge of ruin stop—
Now the friendly warning take—
Stay your footsteps—ere you drop
Into the burning lake.

THE GOSPEL,

2 Say, have you an arm like God,
That you his will oppose?
Fear ye not that iron rod
With which he breaks his foes?
Can you stand in that dread day,
Which his justice shall proclaim,
When the earth shall melt away
Like wax before the flame?

3 Ghastly death will quickly come,
And drag you to his bar;
Then to hear your awful doom,
Will fill you with despair!
All your sins will round you crowd—
You shall mark their crimson dye,—
Each for vengeance crying loud;
And what can you reply?

4 Though your heart were made of steel,
Your forehead lined with brass,
God at length will make you feel;
He will not let you pass;
Sinners then in vain will call,
Those who now despise his grace—
“Rocks and mountains, on us fall,
And hide us from his face.”

318 If any man thirst, let him come unto me. 8s & 6s.
John 7: 37.

BURDENED with guilt, wouldst thou be
Trust not the world; it gives no rest: [blest?
I bring relief to hearts oppressed;
O weary sinner, come!

2 Come, leave thy burden at the cross;
Count all thy gains but empty dross;
My grace repays all earthly loss:
O needy sinner, come!

INVITATIONS.

3 Come, hither bring thy boding fears,
Thine aching heart, thy bursting tears,
'T is mercy's voice salutes thine ears:
O trembling sinner, come!

4 "The Spirit and the bride say, Come:"
Rejoicing saints re-echo, Come!
Who faints, who thirsts, who will, may come:
Thy Saviour bids thee come.

319

Sinner, come.

6s.

- SINNER! come, 'mid thy gloom,
All thy guilt confessing;
Trembling now, contrite bow,
Take the offered blessing.
- 2 Sinner! come, while there 's room—
While the feast is waiting;
While the Lord, by his word,
Kindly is inviting.
- 3 Sinner! come, ere thy doom
Shall be sealed forever;
Now return, grieve and mourn,
Flee to Christ, the Saviour.
- 4 Sinner! come to thy home,
High in heaven gleaming;
To the sky lift thine eye,
With true sorrow streaming.
- 5 Sinner! haste, time fleets fast,
And the grave is yawning;
Win renown, seize the crown,
Eternity is dawning.

320

Will you go?

8s. & 3s.

WE'RE trav'ling home to heaven above;
Will you go?
To sing the Saviour's dying love;
Will you go?

THE GOSPEL.

Millions have reached that blest abode,
Anointed kings and priests to God,
And millions more are on the road;
Will you go?

2 We're going to see the bleeding Lamb;
Will you go?
In rapturous strains to praise his name;
Will you go?
The crown of life we there shall wear,
The conqueror's palms our hands shall bear
And all the joys of heaven we'll share;
Will you go?

3 We're going to join the heavenly choir;
Will you go?
To raise our voice and tune the lyre;
Will you go?
There saints and angels gladly sing
Hosanna to their God and King,
And make the heavenly arches ring;
Will you go?

4 Ye weary, heavy-laden, come;
Will you go?
In the blest house there still is room;
Will you go?
The Lord is waiting to receive,
If thou wilt on him now believe,
He'll give thy troubled conscience ease
Come, believe.

5 The way to heaven is straight and plain.
Will you go?
Believe, repent, be born again;
Will you go?
The Saviour cries aloud to thee,
"Take up thy cross, and follow me,
And thou shalt my salvation see;
Come to me."

INVITATIONS.

Could I hear some sinner say,
I will go,
'll start this moment, clear the way,
Let me go!
y old companions, fare you well,
will not go with you to hell,
ith Jesus Christ I mean to dwell,
Let me go! fare you well.

The Spirit and the Bride say come. 9s & 8s
Rev. 22: 17.

L you that are weary and sad—come!
And you that are cheerful and glad—come!
bes of humility clad—come!
ie Saviour invites you to-day.

CHORUS.

at youth in its freshness and bloom—come!
at man in the pride of his noon—come!
at age on the verge of the tomb—come!
Let none in his pride stay away.

at the halt, and the maimed, and the blind—
all who are freely inclined—come! [come!
an humble and peaceable mind—come!
vay from the waters of strife.

e Spirit and Bride freely say—Come!
let him that heareth it. say—Come!
let him that thirsteth to-day—come!
id drink of the fountain of life.

The garment of praise, etc. 6s & 4s. peculiar
Isaiah 61: 3.

LD of sin and sorrow, filled with dismay,
Vail not for to-morrow, yield thee to-day.
Heaven bids thee come
While yet there 's room:
Child of sin and sorrow,
Hear and obey.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Child of sin and sorrow, why wilt thou
Come, while thou canst borrow help
Grieve not that love,
Which from above—
Child of sin and sorrow—
Would bring thee nigh.
- 3 Child of sin and sorrow, where wilt thou
Through that long to-morrow, eternally
Exiled from home,
Darkly to roam—
Child of sin and sorrow,
Where wilt thou flee?
- 4 Child of sin and sorrow, lift up thine
Heirship thou canst borrow in
In that high home,
Graven thy name:
Child of sin and sorrow,
Swift homeward fly!

323

To-day.

61

TO-DAY the Saviour calls:
Ye wand'ers, come:
O, ye benighted souls
Why longer roam?

- 2 To-day the Saviour calls;
O, hear him now;
Within these sacred walls
To Jesus bow.

- 3 To-day the Saviour calls;
For refuge fly;
The storm of vengeance falls,
And death is nigh.

- 4 The Spirit calls to-day;
Yield to his power;
O, grieve him not away:
'Tis mercy's hour.

INVITATIONS.

124

Come.

P. M

COME—come—come to the Saviour,
 Rich—rich mercy receive;
 Here—here you will find pardon,
 Jesus from sin will relieve;
 Come—come—come—come,
 Come to the Saviour and live.

2 Come—come laden and weary,
 Christ—Christ calls thee to come;
 Leave—leave paths dark and dreary,
 Cease from the Saviour to roam;
 Come—come—come—come,
 Jesus will guide thee safe home.

3 Come—come seek his salvation,
 Now—now hear and obey;
 Hark—hark the sweet invitation,
 Angels invite you away;
 Come—come—come—come,
 Sinner, believe and obey.

4 Hark—hark, angels are singing,
 Love—love—love is their theme;
 Peace—peace joyfully bringing,
 Mercy from God the Supreme:
 Come—come—come—come,
 Jesus is rich to redeem.

Early piety.

7s & 6s

O COME in life's gay morning,
 Ere in thy sunny way
 The flowers of hope have wither'd,
 And sorrow end thy day.
 Come, while from joy's bright fountain
 The streams of pleasure flow,
 Come ere thy buoyant spirits
 Have felt the blight of wo.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 "Remember thy Creator"
Now in thy youthful days,
And he will guide thy footsteps
Through life's uncertain maze.
"Remember thy Creator,"
He calls in tones of love,
And offers deathless glories
In brighter worlds above.
- 3 And in the hour of sadness,
When earthly joys depart,
His love shall be thy solace,
And cheer thy drooping heart
And when life's storm is over,
And thou from earth art free,
Thy God will be thy portion
Throughout eternity.

The year of jubilee.

E

- FAIR shines the morning star,
The silver trumpets sound,
Their notes re-echoing far,
While dawns the day around:
Joy to the slave; the slave is free;
It is the year of jubilee.
- 2 Prisoners of hope, in gloom
And silence left to die,
With Christ's unfolding tomb,
Your portals open fly;
Rise with your Lord; he sets you free
It is the year of jubilee.
- 3 Ye, who yourselves have sold
For debts to justice due,
Ransomed, but not with gold,
He gave himself for you!
The blood of Christ hath made you free
It is the year of jubilee.

INVITATIONS.

- 4 Captives of sin and shame,
O'er earth and ocean. hear
An angel's voice proclaim
The Lord's accepted year;
Let Jacob rise, be Israel free;
It is the year of jubilee.

127 The land of promise. 6s & 7s

- SINNER, go; will you go
To the highlands of heaven?
Where the storms never blow,
And the long summer 's given;
Where the bright, blooming flowers
Are their odors emitting;
And the leaves of the bowers
In the breezes are flitting.
- 2 Where the rich golden fruit
Is in bright clusters pending,
And the deep laden boughs,
Of life's fair tree are bending.
And where life's crystal stream
Is unceasingly flowing.
And the verdure is green,
And eternally growing.
- 3 Where the saints robed in white—
Cleansed in life's flowing fountain;
Shining beauteous and bright,
They inhabit the mountain.
Where no sin, nor dismay,
Neither trouble nor sorrow,
Will be felt for a day.
Nor be feared for the morrow.
- 4 He's prepared thee a home—
Sinner, canst thou believe it?
And invites thee to come,
Sinner, wilt thou receive it?

THE GOSPEL,

O come, sinner, come,
For the tide is receding,
And the Saviour will soon,
And for ever, cease pleading.

328 Awake thou that sleepest. 9s & 8s. peculiar.

HAIL, ransomed world! awake to glory!
For God, the Saviour, bids you rise;
Angelic hosts proclaim the story,
And speed the tidings from the skies:
Shall then the Prince of darkness reign,
Oppress the earth from pole to pole,
And bind in chains the immortal soul—
His hands all sacred things profaning?
Awake! O Church, awake!
The tyrant's fetters break!
In God's right arm of strength resolved
On glorious victory.

2 Far let the gospel-trump be sounding—
O'er sea, and continent, and isle;
While the sweet voice of grace abounds;
Shall make the burdened captive smile
Yes! to a world in bondage lying.
Go teach a bleeding Saviour's name—
Freedom from sin and death proclaim
On every breeze salvation flying—
And seize the gospel sword!
And with our mighty Lord,
March on, march on, all hearts resolve
On glorious victory.

329

Repent and turn.

Ezekiel 18: 30.

O TURN you! O turn you, for why will you die
When God in his mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says Come,
The brethren are waiting to welcome you home

INVITATIONS.

ain the delusion, that while you delay hearts may grow better by staying away :
 wretched, come starving, come just as you be,
 streams of salvation are flowing most free.

Jesus is ready your souls to receive ;
 / can you question, since now you believe ?
 sin is your burden, why will you not come ?
 w bids you welcome—he now says there's room.

yes, in pleasure what can you obtain,
 the your affliction or banish your pain ;
 it up your spirit when summon'd to die,
 & you to mansions of glory on high ?

Will you be starving and feeding on air ?
 s mercy in Jesus enough and to spare ;
 you are doubting, make trial and see,
 love that his mercy is boundless and free,

Delay not.

11s.

! not, delay not, O sinner, draw near,
 waters of life are now flowing for thee ;
 is demanded, the Saviour is here,
 ption is purchas'd—salvation is free.

t, delay not ! why longer abuse
 re and compassion of Jesus our Lord !
 in is open'd ; how canst thou refuse
 h and be cleans'd in his pardoning blood ?

t, delay not ! O sinner, to come ;
 cry still lingers, and calls thee to-day ;
 s is not heard in the vale of the tomb ;
 message, unheeded, will soon pass away.

t, delay not ! the Spirit of grace, riev'd and resisted, entreats thee to come ;
 lent in darkness thou finish thy race,
 nk to the vale of eternity's gloom.

t, delay not ! the hour is at hand,
 rth shall dissolve and the heavens shall fade ;
 , small and great, in the judgment shall stand ;
 pow'r, then, O sinner, shall lend thee its aid !

The Eden above.

I bound for the land of the pure and the holy,
 home of the happy, the kingdom of love,
 strers from God, in the broad road of folly,
 will you go to the Eden above.

Will you go, will you go,
 will you go to the Eden above ?

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 In that blessed land neither sighing nor anguish
Can breathe in the fields where the glorified are;
Ye heart-burdened ones, who in misery languish
O say, will you go to the Eden above?
Will you go, etc.
- 3 Not fraud, nor deceit, nor the hand of oppressor
Can injure the dwellers in that holy grove;
No wickedness there, not a shade of transgression
O say, will you go to the Eden above?
Will you go, etc.
- 4 Each saint has a mansion prepared and all furnished
Ere from this clay house he is summoned to rest;
Its gates and its towers with glory are burnished
O say, will you go to the Eden above?
Will you go, etc.
- 5 March on; happy pilgrims, that land is before you
And soon its ten thousand delights we shall prove;
Yes, soon we shall walk o'er the hills of bright glory
And drink the pure joys of the Eden above.
We will go, we will go;
O yes, we will go to the Eden above.
- 6 And yet, guilty sinner, we would not forsake thee
We halt yet a moment as onward we move;
O come to thy Lord, in his arms he will take thee
And bear thee along to the Eden above.
Will you go, will you go
O say, will you go to the Eden above?

332

The voice of free grace.

THE voice of free grace cries, "Escape to the mountains,
For Adam's lost race Christ hath open'd a way;
For sin and uncleanness, and every transgression
His blood flows most freely in streams of salvation."

CHORUS.

Hallelujah to the Lamb! he hath purchas'd our souls;
We'll praise him again when we pass over Jordan.

- 1 Ye souls that are wounded! O! flee to the Savior
He calls you in mercy—'t is infinite favor;
Your sins are increasing—escape to the mountain
His blood can remove them, it flows from the fountain.
- 2 O Jesus! ride onward, triumphantly glorious,
O'er sin, death and hell, thou art more than victor;
Thy name is the theme of the great congregation
While angels and saints raise the shout of salvation.

INVITATIONS.

333 The wandering sinner, etc. 11s & 10s.

RESTLESS thy spirit, poor wandering sinner,
Restless and roving: O, come to thy home!
Return to the arms, to the bosom, of mercy:
The Saviour of sinners invites thee to come.

2 Darkness surrounds thee, and tempests are rising,
Fearful and dangerous the path thou hast trod;
But mercy shines forth in the rainbow of promise,
To welcome the wanderer home to his God.

3 Peace to the storm in thy soul shall be spoken,
Guilt from thy bosom be banished away;
And heaven's sweet breezes, o'er death's rolling billows,
Shall waft thee at last to the regions of day.

334 The harvest is past, etc. 12s & 11s. Jer. 8: 20.

HARK, sinner, while God from on high doth entreat thee,
And warnings with accents of mercy do blend;
Give ear to his voice, lest in judgment he meet thee;
"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

2 How oft of thy danger and guilt he hath told thee!
How oft still the message of mercy doth send!
Haste, haste, while he waits in his arms to enfold thee;
"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

3 Despised and rejected, at length he may leave thee:
What anguish and horror thy bosom will rend!
Then, haste thee, O sinner, while he will receive thee;
"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

4 Ere long, and Jehovah will come in his power:
Our God will arise, with his foes to contend;
Haste, haste thee, O sinner; prepare for that hour;
"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

5 The Saviour will call thee in judgment before him:
O, bow to his scepter, and make him thy Friend;
Now yield him thy heart; make haste to adore him;
"Thy harvest is passing, thy summer will end."

335 Entreaty. 8s, 6s & 4s.

SINNERS, come, no longer wander,
Turn you from your evil way.
Precious time no longer squander
Come, come away.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Christ for you his life has offered,
What can you excusing say,
If you slight the pardon proffered
Come, come away.
- 3 Hold not back in hesitation,
There is danger in delay,
Haste, secure your soul's salvation
Come, come away.
- 4 You may feel regret and sorrow,
If you fail to come to-day,
God may grant you no to-morrow
Come, come away.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE

336

The wise choice.

- THOUGH all the world my choice
Yet Jesus shall my portion be;
For I am pleased with none beside;
The fairest of the fair is he.
- 2 Sweet is the vision of thy face,
And kindness o'er thy lips is shed
Lovely art thou, and full of grace,
And glory beams around thy head
- 3 Thy sufferings I embrace with thee
Thy poverty and shameful cross;
The pleasure of the world I flee,
And deem its treasures only dross
- 4 Be daily dearer to my heart,
And ever let me feel thee near;
Then willingly with all I'd part,
Nor count it worthy of a tear.

337

The solace of faith

WHEN human hopes and joys decay
I give thee, Lord, a contrite heart
And on my weary spirit steal
The thoughts that pass all earthly part

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

- 2 I cast above my tearful eyes,
And muse upon the starry skies;
And think that he who governs there
Still keeps me in his guardian care.
- 3 I gaze upon the opening flower,
Just moistened with the evening shower;
And bless the love which made it bloom,
To chase away my transient gloom.
- 4 I think, whene'er this mortal frame
Returns again to whence it came,
My soul shall wing its happy flight
To regions of eternal light.

338 Christ the soul's portion. L. M.

- LET thoughtless thousands choose the road
That leads the soul away from God;
This happiness, blest Lord, be mine,
To live and die entirely thine.
- 1 On Christ, by faith, my soul would live,
From him my life, my all receive;
To him devote my fleeting hours,
Serve him alone with all my pow'rs.
- 2 Christ is my everlasting all;
To him I look, on him I call;
He will my ev'ry want supply
In time and through eternity.
- 4 Soon will the Lord, my life, appear;
Soon shall I end my trials here;
Leave sin and sorrow, death and pain;
To live is Christ, to die is gain.

339 God calling yet. I. M

GOD calling yet!—shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumbers lie?

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 God calling yet!—shall I not rise
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still: can I delay?
- 3 God calling yet! and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve?
- 4 God calling yet!—and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still!—my heart, awake!
- 5 God calling yet! I can not stay;
My heart I yield without delay:
Vain world, farewell! from thee I part,
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

340 Christ the Redeemer and Judge. L

- NOW to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
- 2 'Twas he who cleansed us from our sin
And washed us in his precious blood;
'Tis he who makes us priests and kings
And brings us, rebels, near to God.
- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our eternal King,
Be everlasting power confessed
Let every tongue his glory sing.
- 4 Behold, on flying clouds he comes,
And every eye shall see him move;
Though with our sins we pierced him,
Now he displays his pardoning love.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

he unbelieving world shall wall,
While we rejoice to see the day:
Come, Lord, nor let thy promise fail,
Nor let thy chariot long delay.

1 Self-abasement. L. M

AH! wretched, vile, ungrateful heart!
That can from Jesus thus depart
Thus fond of trifles, widely rove,
Forgetful of a Saviour's love.
Dear Lord! to thee I would return,
And at thy feet, repentant, mourn;
There let me view thy pardoning love,
And never from thy sight remove.
O let thy love, with sweet control,
Bind every passion of my soul;
Bid every vain desire depart,
And dwell for ever in my heart.

2 Returning. L. M

AWAKED from sin's delusive sleep,
My heavy guilt I feel, and weep;
Beneath a weight of woes oppressed,
I come to thee, my Lord, for rest.
Now, from thy throne of grace above,
Look down upon my soul in love;
That smile shall sweeten all my pain,
And make my soul rejoice again.
By thy divine, transforming power,
My ruined nature now restore;
And let my life and temper shine,
In blest resemblance, Lord! to thine.

3 Just as I am. L. M.

JUST as I am—without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bid'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come.

THE GOSPEL,

- 1 Just as I am, and waiting yet
To rid my soul of one dark blot—
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 2 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
With fears within, and foes without—
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 5 Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,
Because thy promise I believe—
O Lamb of God, I come.
- 6 Just as I am—thy love unknown,
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

HEAR, gracious God! a sinner's cry,
For I have nowhere else to fly;
My hope, my only hope's in thee;
O God, be merciful to me!

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

thee I come, a sinner vile;
 on me, Lord, vouchsafe to smile!
 grey alone I make my plea;
 God, be merciful to me!

thee I come, a sinner great,
 and well thou knowest all my state,
 that full forgiveness is with thee;
 God, be merciful to me!

thee I come, a sinner lost,
 or have I aught wherein to trust,
 that where thou art, Lord, I would be,
 God, be merciful to me!

The love of Christ constraineth. L. M.
 2 Cor. 5 : 14.

RD, when my thoughts delighted me
 amid the wonders of thy love, that hope revives my drooping heart,
 bids intruding fears depart.

mortal crimes a sacrifice,
 Lord of life, the Saviour dies;
 that love! what mercy! how divine!
 ah, and can I call thee mine?

instant sorrows fill my heart,
 mingling joy allays the smart;
 may my future life declare sorrow and the joy sincere.

If my heart and all my days
 be to my Saviour's praise;
 let my glad obedience prove how much I owe, how much I love.

The contrite heart. L. M.

OW pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
 let a repentant rebel live;
 not thy mercies large and free?
 not a sinner trust in thee?

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 My crimes, though great, can not sur-
The power and glory of thy grace;
Great God, thy nature hath no bound
So let thy pardoning love be found.
- 3 O. wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean
Here, on my heart, the burden lies,
And past offenses pain my eyes.
- 4 My lips, with shame, my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace;
Lord, should thy judgment grow severe
I am condemned, but thou art clear.
- 5 Should sudden vengeance sieze my b
I must pronounce thee just in death;
And if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.
- 6 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy
Would light on some sweet promise th
Some sure support against despair.

347 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation.
Psalm

A BROKEN heart, my God, my Kin-
Is all the sacrifice I bring;
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.

- 2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye
And save the soul condemned to die.
- 3 Then will I teach the world thy ways
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning Go

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

- 4 O, may thy love inspire my tongue!
 Salvation shall be all my song;
 And all my powers shall join to bless
 The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

348 Here is my heart. L. M. 6 lines.

HERE is my heart—I give it thee!
 My God, I heard thee call, and say,
 “Not to the world, my child—to me!”

I heard thy voice and will obey:
 Here is love’s offering to my King,
 Which in glad sacrifice I bring.

- 2 Here is my heart!—so hard before,
 But now by thy rich grace made meet;
 Yet bruised and sad, it can but pour
 Its tears and anguish at thy feet:
 It groans beneath the weight of sin,
 It sighs salvation’s joy to win.

- 3 Here is my heart!—its longings end
 In Christ as near his cross it draws;
 It says, “Thou art my rest, my Friend,
 Thy precious blood my ransom was;”
 In thee, the Saviour, it has found
 That peace and blessedness abound.

349 Bethesda. L. M. 6 lines.

AROUND Bethesda’s healing wave,
 Waiting to hear the rustling wind
 Which spoke the angel nigh, who gave
 Its virtue to that holy spring,
 With patience and with hope endued,
 Were seen the gathered multitude.

- 2 Bethesda’s pool has lost its power!
 No angel, by his glad descent,
 Dispenses that diviner dower
 Which with its healing waters went;
 But he, whose word surpassed its wave,
 Is still omnipotent to save.

THE GOSPEL,

3 Saviour! thy love is still the same
As when that healing word was spoke;
Still in thine all-redeeming name
Dwells power to burst the strongest yoke!
O, be that power, that love, displayed,
Help those whom thou alone can'st aid!

350 Come unto me, all ye that labor. L. M. 6 l's.
Matt. 11: 28.

PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
Hath taught each scene the notes of wo;
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
And let thy tears forget to flow:
Behold, the precious balm is found,
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed;
On Jesus cast thy weighty load;
In him thy refuge find, thy rest,
Safe in the mercy of thy God:
Thy God 's thy Saviour—glorious word!
Oh, hear, believe, and bless the Lord!

351 The Star of Bethlehem. L. M.

WHEN marshal'd on the nightly plain,
The glitt'ring host bestud the sky;
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wand'ring eye.

2 Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks,
From ev'ry host, from ev'ry gem;
But one alone the Saviour speaks—
It is the Star of Bethlehem.

7 Once on the raging seas I rode;
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawn'd, and rudely blow'd
The wind that toss'd my found'ring bark.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceas'd the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose—
It was the Star of Bethlehem.
It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease;
And through the storm and danger's thrall
It led me to the port of peace.
Now safely moor'd, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever, and for evermore,
The Star—the Star of Bethlehem.

352 Power of Faith. C. M.

FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves us from its snares;
It yields support in all our toils
And softens all our cares.
The wounded conscience knows its power
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer,
And make the dying live.
Unrivalled wide the heavenly world,
Where endless pleasures reign,
It bids us seek our portion there,
Nor bids us seek in vain.
There, still unshaken, would we rest,
Till this frail body dies,
And then, on faith's triumphant wing,
To endless glory rise.

353 Increase our faith. C. M.
Luke 17: 8.

O FOR a faith that will not shrink,
Though pressed by every foe,
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe!—

THE GOSPEL,

- 3 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God;—
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That when in danger knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;—
- 4 That bears, unmoved, the world's dread
Nor heeds its scornful smile; [frown,
That seas of trouble can not drown,
Nor Satan's arts beguile;—
- 5 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last hour is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.
- 6 Lord, give us such a faith as this;
And then, whate'er may come,
We 'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

354

A living faith.

C. M.

MISTAKEN souls, that dream of heaven,
And make their empty boast
Of inward joys, and sins forgiven,
While they are slaves to lust!

- 2 How vain are fancy's airy flights,
If faith be cold and dead!
None but a living power unites
To Christ, the living Head.
- 3 'T is faith that purifies the heart;
'T is faith that works by love;
That bids all sinful joys depart,
And lifts the thoughts above.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

Faith must obey our Father's will,
As well as trust his grace;
A pard'ning God requires us still
To walk in all his ways.

This faith shall every fear control
By its celestial power,
With holy triumph fill the soul
In death's approaching hour.

55 Glorying in the cross. C. M.

DIDST thou, Lord Jesus, suffer shame,
And bear the cross for me?
And shall I fear to own thy name,
Or thy disciple be?

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should dread
To suffer shame or loss;
O, let me in thy footsteps tread,
And glory in thy cross.

56 Call to repentance. C. M.

REPENT! the voice celestial cries,
No longer dare delay:
The soul that scorns the mandate dies,
And meets a fiery day.

2 No more the sovereign eye of God
O'erlooks the crimes of men;
His heralds now are sent abroad
To warn the world of sin.

3 C sinners! in his presence bow,
And all your guilt confess;
Accept the offered Saviour now
Nor trifle with his grace.

4 Soon will the awful trumpet sound,
And call you to his bar;
His mercy knows the appointed bound,
And yields to justice there.

THE GOSPEL,

- 5 Amazing love—that yet will call,
And yet prolong our days!
Our hearts, subdued by goodness, fail,
And weep, and love, and praise.

357 God giveth grace to the humble. C. M.

COME, let us to the Lord our God,
With contrite hearts return!
Our God is gracious, nor will leave
The desolate to mourn.

- 2 His voice commands the tempest forth,
And stills the stormy wave;
And though his arm be strong to smite,
'T is also strong to save.

- 3 Our hearts, if God we seek to know,
Shall know him and rejoice:
His coming like the morn shall be;
Like morning songs his voice.

- 4 As dew upon the tender herb,
Diffusing fragrance round;
As showers that usher in the spring,
And cheer the thirsty ground:

- 5 So shall his presence bless our souls,
And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
The sorrows of the night.

358 There is joy over one sinner, etc. C. M.
Luke 15: 7.

OHOW divine, how sweet the joy,
When but one sinner turns.
And, with a humble, broken heart,
His sins and errors mourns!

- 2 Pleased with the news, the saints be w,
In songs their tongues employ;
Beyond the skies the tidings go,
And heav'n is fill'd with joy.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

3 Well pleas'd the Father sees, and hears
The conscious sinner's moan:
Jesus receives him in his arms,
And claims him for his own.

4 Nor angels can their joy contain,
But kindle with new fire;
"The sinner lost is found," they sing,
And strike the sounding lyre.

359 The heart's surrender. C. M.

WELCOME, O Saviour! to my heart;
Possess thy humble throne;
Bid every rival hence depart,
And claim me for thine own.

2 The world and Satan I forsake—
To thee, I all resign;
My longing heart, O Jesus! take,
And fill with love divine.

3 O! may I never turn aside,
Nor from thy bosom flee;
Let nothing here my heart divide—
I give it all to thee.

360 Whoso forsaketh not all that he hath. C. M.
Luke 14 : 33.

AND must I part with all I have,
Jesus, my Lord! for thee?
This is my joy, since thou hast done
Much more than this for me.

2 Yea, let it go; one look from thee
Will more than make amends
For all the losses I sustain
Of credit, riches, friends.

3 Ten thousand worlds, ten thousand lives,
How worthless they appear,
Compared with thee, supremely good,
Divinely bright and fair!

THE GOSPEL,

4 Saviour of souls! while I from thee
A single smile obtain,
Though destitute of all things else,
I'll glory in my gain.

361

A plea for mercy.

C. M

MERCY alone can meet my case,
For mercy, Lord, I cry;
Jesus, Redeemer, show thy face
In mercy, or I die.

2 I perish, and my doom were just;
But wilt Thou leave me?—No!
I hold thee fast, my hope, my trust;
I will not let thee go.

3 To thee, thee only will I cleave;
Thy word is all my plea;
That word is truth, and I believe—
Have mercy, Lord, on me.

362

It is I: be not afraid.

C. M

Matt. 14: 27.

WHEN I sink down in gloom or fear,
Hope blighted or delayed,
Thy whisper, Lord, my heart shall cheer,
"T is I: be not afraid!"

2 Or, startled at some sudden blow,
If fretful thoughts I feel,
"Fear not, it is but I!" shall flow
As balm my wound to heal.

3 Nor will I quit thy way, though foes
Some onward pass defend;
From each rough voice the watchword goes,
"Be not afraid! . . . a friend!"

4 And O! when judgment's trumpet clear
Awakes me from the grave,
Still in its echo may I hear,
"T is Christ! he comes to save."

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

63

Christ our only hope.

C. P. M.

DESPONDING soul, O cease thy wo;
Dry up thy tears; to Jesus go,
In faith's appointed way;
Let not thy unbelieving fears
Still hold thee back—thy Saviour hears—
From him no longer stay.

No works of thine can e'er impart
A balm to heal thy wounded heart,
Or solid comfort give;
Turn, then, to him who freely gave
His precious blood thy soul to save;
E'en now he bids thee live.

Helpless and lost, to Jesus fly!
His power and love are ever nigh
To those who seek his face;
Thy deepest guilt on him was laid,
He bore thy sins, thy ransom paid;
O, haste to share his grace.

64

You shall find rest for your souls.

S. M.

Matt. 11: 28.

AH! what avails my strife,
My wandering to and fro?
Thou hast the words of endless life;
Ah! whither should I go?

2 Thy condescending grace
To me did freely move;
It calls me still to seek thy face,
And stoops to ask my love.

3 Lord! at thy feet I fall;
I long to be set free;
I fain would now obey the call,
And give up all for thee.

THE GOSPEL,

365

Yielding.

S. M.

- AND can I yet delay
 My little all to give?
 To tear my soul from earth away
 For Jesus to receive?
- 1 Nay, but I yield, I yield;
 I can hold out no more;
 I sink, by dying love compelled,
 And own thee conqueror.
- 2 Though late, I all forsake;
 My friends, my all resign;
 Gracious Redeemer! take, O take,
 And seal me over thine.
- 3 Come, and possess me whole,
 Nor hence again remove;
 Settle and fix my wavering soul
 With all thy weight of love.
- 4 My one desire be this,
 Thy only love to know;
 To seek and taste no other bliss,
 No other good below.

366

God's mercy to the penitent.

S.

- SWEET is the friendly voice
 Which speaks of life and peace:
 Which bids the penitent rejoice,
 And sin and sorrow cease.
- 1 No balm on earth like this
 Can cheer the contrite heart;
 No flattering dreams of earthly bliss
 Such pure delight impart.
- 2 Still merciful and kind,
 Thy mercy, Lord, reveal;
 The broken heart thy love can heal
 The wounded spirit heal.

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

- 4 Thy presence shall restore
Peace to my anxious breast :
Lord, let my steps be drawn no more
From paths which thou hast blessed

367

Father, I have sinned.

Luke 15: 18.

70

- LOVE for all! and can it be?
L Can I hope it is for me?
I, who strayed so long ago,
Strayed so far, and fell so low!
- 2 I, the disobedient child,
Wayward, passionate, and wild;
I, who left my Father's home
In forbidden ways to roam!
- 3 I, who spurned his loving hold,
I, who would not be controlled;
I, who would not hear his call,
I, the willful prodigal!
- 4 I, who wasted and misspent
Every talent he had lent;
I, who sinned again, again,
Giving every passion rein!
- 5 To my Father can I go?—
At his feet myself I'll throw,
In his house there yet may be
Place, a servant's place, for me.
- 6 See, my Father waiting stands;
See, he reaches out his hands;
God is love! I know, I see,
Love for me—yes, even me

368

Sighing for home.

71

- PEOPLE of the living God!
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Now to you my spirit turns,
Turns, a fugitive unblessed;
Brethren! where your altar burns,
O receive me into rest.
- 3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;
Where you dwell sha'l be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.
- 4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my heart no more,
Every idol I resign.
- 5 Tell me not of gain or loss,
Ease, enjoyment, pomp, and power;
Welcome! poverty and cross,
Shame, reproach, affliction's hour.
- 6 "Follow me!"—I know thy voice,
Jesus, Lord! thy steps I see;
Now I take thy yoke by choice,
Light thy burden now to me.

369

Longing for rest.

7s. double

DOES the gospel word proclaim
Rest for those that weary be?
Then, my soul, put in thy claim—
Sure that promise speaks to thee:
Marks of grace I can not show,
All polluted is my best;
But I weary am, I know,
And the weary long for rest.

- 2 Burdened with a load of sin,
Harassed with tormenting doubt,
Hourly conflicts from within,
Hourly crosses from without;

FAITH AND REPENTANCE.

All my little strength is gone,
Sink I must without supply;
Sure upon the earth I none
Can more weary be than I.

- 8 In the ark the weary dove
Found a welcome resting place;
Thus my spirit longs to prove
Rest in Christ, the Ark of grace:
Tempest-tossed I long have been,
And the flood increases fast;
Open, Lord, and take me in,
Till the storm be overpast!

170

Forward.

Exodus 14 : 15.

7a.

WHEN we can not see our way,
Let us trust, and still obey;
He who bids us forward go,
Can not fail the way to show.

- 2 Though the sea be deep and wide,
Though a passage seem denied;
Fearless let us still proceed,
Since the Lord vouchsafes to lead.
- 3 Though it seems the gloom of night,
Though we see no ray of light;
Since the Lord himself is there,
'Tis not meet that we should fear.
- 4 Night with him is never night,
Where he is, there all is light;
When he calls us, why delay?
They are happy who obey.
- 5 Be it ours, then, while we re here,
Him to follow without fear;
Where he calls us, there to go,
What he bids us, that to do.

THE GOSPEL,

371

The unseen Friend.

8s & 6s.

(HOLY Saviour! Friend unseen,
Since on thine arm thou bidd'st me lean,
Help me, throughout life's changing scene,
By faith to cling to thee!

2 Blest with this fellowship divine,
Take what thou wilt, I'll not repine;
For, as the branches to the vine,
My soul would cling to thee.

3 Though far from home, fatigued, oppressed,
Here have I found a place of rest;
An exile still, yet not unblest,
Because I cling to thee.

4 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and hopes remove;
With patient, uncomplaining love,
Still would I cling to thee.

5 Though oft I seem to tread alone
Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,
Thy voice of love in gentlest tone,
Still whispers, "Cling to me!"

6 Though faith and hope are often tried,
I ask not, need not aught beside;
So safe, so calm, so satisfied,
The soul that clings to thee!

372

Cling to the Crucified.

6s

(CLING to the Crucified!
His eye shall guard thee well—
For thee, fast from his side,
The crimson current fell.

2 Cling to the Crucified!
My weary feet in peace
His tender hand shall guide
Till all thy wanderings cease.

BAPTISM.

S'Cling to the Crucified!
His love the golden door
For thee shall open wide,
And bless thee evermore.

THE GOSPEL—BAPTISM

173

Ashamed of Jesus!

L. M.

JESUS, and shall it ever be,
A mortal man asham'd of thee:
Asham'd of thee, whom angels praise,
Whose glory shines through endless days.
Asham'd of Jesus! Sooner far
Let ev'ning blush to own a star!
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.
Asham'd of Jesus! Just as soon
Let midnight be asham'd of noon:
'T is midnight with my soul, till he,
Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.
Asham'd of Jesus! that dear friend,
On whom my hopes of heav'n depend!
Not when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere his name.
Asham'd of Jesus! Yes, I may,
When I've no guilt to wash away,
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.
Till then—nor is my boasting vain—
Till then I'll boast a Sav our slain!
And O! may this my glory be,
That Christ is not asham'd of me!
His institutions would I prize,
Take up my cross, the shame despise—
Dare to defend his noble cause,
And yield obedience to his laws.

THE GOSPEL,

374

The spirit of obedience.

L. M.

- WE love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain.
- 2 We sink beneath the mystic flood;
O, bathe us in thy cleansing blood;
We die to sin, and seek a grave,
With thee, beneath the yielding wave.
- 3 And as we rise, with thee to live,
O, let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love.

375

Following.

L. M.

- JESUS my all to heav'n has gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His path I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way, till him I view.
- 2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment;
The King's highway of holiness—
I'll go, for all his paths are peace.

376

Christ's example.

L. M.

- (OUR Saviour bow'd beneath the wave,
And meekly sought a wat'ry grave;
Come see the sacred path he trod,
A path well pleasing to our God.
- His voice we hear, his footsteps trace,
And hither come to seek his face,
To do his will, to feel his love;
And join our songs with songs above.
- 4 Hosanna to the Lamb divine!
Let endless glories round him shine!
High o'er the heavens forever reign,
O Lamb of God! for sinners slain!

BAPTISM.

377

The baptism of Jesus.

L. M.

- COME, happy souls, adore the Lamb,
 Who lov'd our race e'er time began,
 Who vail'd his Godhead in our clay,
 And in an humble manger lay.
- 2 To Jordan's stream the Spirit led,
 To mark the path his saints should tread;
 With joy they trace the sacred way,
 To see the place where Jesus lay.
- 3 Baptiz'd by John in Jordan's wave,
 The Saviour left his wat'ry grave;
 Heav'n own'd the deed, approv'd the way,
 And bless'd the place where Jesus lay.
- 4 Come, all who love his precious name;
 Come tread his steps, and learn of him;
 Happy beyond expression they
 Who find the place where Jesus lay.

378

A baptismal hymn.

L. M.

- THE great Redeemer we adore,
 Who came the lost to seek and save—
 Went humbly down from Jordan's shore
 To find a tomb beneath its wave!
- 2 With thee into thy watery tomb,
 Lord, 't is our glory to descend;
 'T is wondrous grace that gives us room
 To share the grave of such a friend.
- 3 Yet as the yielding waves give way
 To let us see the light again,
 So, on the resurrection day,
 The bands of death proved weak and vain.
- 4 Thus, when thou shalt again appear,
 The gates of death shall open wide.
 Our dust thy mighty voice shall hear,
 And rise and triumph at thy side.

THE GOSPEL,

379

If any man serve me, &c.

L. M.

John 12 : 26.

SEE how the willing converts trace
The path their great Redeemer trod,
And follow through his liquid grave
The meek, the lowly Son of God!

- 2 Here they renounce their former deeds,
And to a heavenly life aspire,
Their rags for glorious robes exchanged,
They shine in clean and bright attire.
- 3 O sacred rite, by thee the name
Of Jesus we to own begin;
This is our resurrection pledge,
Pledge of the pardon of our sin.
- 4 Glory to God on high be given,
Who shows his grace to sinful men;
Let saints on earth, and hosts in heaven,
In concert join their loud Amen.

380

Hinder me not.

C. M.

Gen. 24 : 56.

IN all my Lord's appointed ways,
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not, you much lov'd saints,
For I must go with you.

- 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus send,
I'll follow where he goes;
Hinder me not, shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through trials and through sad rings
I'll go at his command:
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be,—
Hinder me not—come, welcome death
I'll gladly go with thee.

BAPTISM

that is ashamed of me and of my word. C. M.
Mark 8: 38.

ALFD of Christ! our souls disdain to mean, ungen'rous thought; we disown that friend whose blood
our salvation brought?

He glad news of love and peace to heav'n to earth he came;
endur'd the painful cross,
as despis'd the shame.

command let us submit
ourselves without delay;
yes—yea, thousand lives of ours,
love can ne'er repay.

Faithful foll'wer Jesus views
in infinite delight;
lives to him are dear—their death precious in his sight.

For his name—his cross to bear—highest honor this!
nobly suffers for him now
I reign with him in bliss.

He left us an example. C. M.
1 Pet 2: 21.

TRIED beneath the yielding wave
The great Redeemer lies
He views him in the wat'ry grave, and thence beholds him rise.

With joy we in his footsteps tread,
and would his cause maintain,
him be number'd with the dead
and with him rise and reign.

O, blest Redeemer, we to thee
our grateful voices raise:
And in the fountain of thy blood,
our lives shall be thy praise.

THE GOSPEL,

383

Lord, if thou wilt, etc.

Matt. 5 : 2.

C. M.

O LORD, and will thy pard'ning love
Embrace a wretch so vile?
Wilt thou my load of guilt remove,
And bless me with thy smile?

2 Hast thou the cross for me endur'd,
And all its shame despis'd?
And shall I be asham'd. O Lord,
With thee to be baptiz'd?

3 Didst thou the great example lead,
In Jordan's swelling flood!
And shall my pride disdain the deed,
That's worthy of my God!

4 O Lord, the ardor of thy love
Reproves my cold delays;
And now my willing footsteps move
In thy delightful ways.

384

The Holy Spirit descended, etc.

Luke 3 : 22.

C. M.

MEEKLY in Jordan's flowing stream
The great Redeemer bowed;
Bright was the glory's sacred beam
That hushed the wondering crowd.

2 Thus God descended to approve
The deed that Christ had done;
Thus came the emblematic Dove,
And hovered o'er the Son.

3 So, may the Spirit come to-day
To our baptismal scene:
Let thoughts of earth be far away,
And every mind serene.

4 This day we give to holy joy;
This day to heaven belongs:
Raised to new life, we will employ
In melody our tongues.

BAPTISM.

85

I come to do thy wi l.

Heb. 10 : 7.

C. M.

“I COME.” the great Redeemer cries,
 “To do thy will, O Lord!”
 At Jordan’s flood, behold! he seal:
 The sure prophetic word.

2 “Thus it becomes us to fulfill
 All righteousness,” he said;
 He spake obedient, and beneath
 The yielding wave was laid.

3 Hark! a glad voice—the Father speaks,
 From heaven’s exalted hight;
 “This is my Son, my well belov’d,
 In whom I do delight.”

4 Jesus, the Saviour, well belov’d!
 His name we will profess,
 Like him, desirous to fulfill
 Each law of righteousness.

5 No more we’ll count ourselves our own,
 But his in bonds of love;
 O! may such bonds for ever draw
 Our souls to things above.

386

Math 3 : 16.

S. M.

COME and behold the place,
 Where once your Saviour lay;
 Confess that he is Lord of all,
 And humble homage pay.

2 Laid in the watery grave,
 He quickly rose again;
 Buried with him, we too shall rise,
 And endless life obtain.

3 Now may the Spirit crown,
 With tokens of his grace,
 The solemn service of this day,
 And bid us go in peace.

THE GOSPEL,

S. M.

The same.

387

SAVIOUR, thy law we love,
Thy pure example bless,
And with a firm unwavering zeal
Would in thy footsteps press.

2 Not to the fiery pains
By which the martyrs bled;
Not to the scourge, the thorn, the cross,
Our favored feet are led;—

3 But, at this peaceful tide,
Assembled in thy fear,
The homage of obedient hearts,
We humbly offer here.

S. M.

Follow thou me.

John 21 : 22.

388

HERE, Saviour, we would come,
In thine appointed way;
Obedient to thy high commands,
Our solemn vows we pay.

2 O, bless this sacred rite,
To bring us near to thee;
And may we find that as our day
Our strength shall also be.

Thus it becometh us.

Matt. 3 : 15.

389

WITH willing hearts we tread
The path the Saviour trod;
We love th' example of our Head,
The glorious Lamb of God.

2 On thee, on thee alone,
Our hope and faith rely;
O thou who didst for sinners die,
Who didst for sinners die.

BAPTISM.

- 3 We trust thy sacrifice;
To thy dear cross we flee;
O, may we die to sin, and rise
To life and bliss in thee.

390

Lord, save me.

7s. 6 lines.

Matt. 14: 30.

- JESUS, Lamb of God, for me
Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;
Whither—whither, but to thee,
Can a trembling sinner fly?
Death's dark waters o'er me roll,
Save, O save, my sinking soul!
- 2 Never bowed a martyred head,
Weighed with equal sorrow down;
Never blood so rich was shed,
Never king wore such a crown!
To thy cross and sacrifice,
Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.
- 3 All my soul, by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there;
By thy mighty grace renewed,
New-born hope forbids despair;
Lord, thou canst my guilt forgive,
Thou hast bid me look and live.
- 4 While with broken heart I kneel,
Sinks the inward storm to rest;
Life—immortal life—I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast;
Thine—for ever thine—I am,
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

391

And hath washed us from our sins, etc.

7s.

Rev. 1: 5.

- JESUS, to thy wounds I fly;
Purge my sins of deepest dye
Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
Wash away my crimson stain.

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 Purge me in that sacred flood,
In that fountain of thy blood;
Then thy Father's eye shall see
Not a spot of guilt in me.

392

He is our pence.

7s. 6 lines.

Eph. 2: 14.

- WEARY souls, that wander wide
From the central point of bliss,
Turn to Jesus crucified;
Fly to those dear wounds of his;
Sink into the purple flood,
Rise into the life of God.
- 2 Find in Christ the way of pence,
Peace unspeakable, unknown;
By his pain he gives you ease,
Life, by his expiring groan;
Rise, exalted by his fall;
Find in Christ your all in all.
- 8 O believe the record true,
God to you his Son hath given!
You may now be happy too;
Find on earth the life of heaven;
Live the life of heaven above,
All the life of glorious love.

393

Hear and obey.

8s & 7s.

- HUMBLE souls, who seek salvation
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood
Hear the voice of revelation;
Tread the path that Jesus trod.
- 2 Hear the blest Redeemer call you;
Listen to his heav'nly voice;
Dread no ills that can befall you,
While you make his ways your choice.

REMISSION OF SINS.

Plainly here his footsteps tracing,
Follow him without delay.
Gladly his command embracing;
Lo! your Captain leads the way.

4 Calling on the name of the Lord. 8s. 7s & 4.
Acts 22: 16.

GRACIOUS Saviour, we adore thee;
Purchased by thy precious blood
We present ourselves before thee,
Now to walk the narrow road:
Saviour guide us—
Guide us to our heavenly home.

Thou didst mark our path of duty;
Thou wast laid beneath the wave;
Thou didst rise in glorious beauty,
From the semblance of the grave;
May we follow
In the same delightful way.

REMISSION OF SINS.

5 The joys of pardon. L. M.

FORGIVENESS! 't is a joyful sound
To malefactors doomed to die;
Publish the bliss the world around;
You seraphs, shout it from the sky!
'T is the rich gift of love divine;
'T is full, outmeasuring ev'ry crime;
Unclouded shall its glories shine,
And feel no change by changing time.

For this stupendous love of heav'n,
What grateful honors shall we show!
Where much transgression is forgiv'n
Let love in equal ardors glow.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 By this inspir'd, let all our days
With gospel holiness be crown'd;
Let truth and goodness, prayer and praise
In all abide, in all abound.

396 Blessed is the man whose sin is covered. L. M.
Rom. 4 : 7.

- EARTH has a joy unknown in heav'n—
The new-born joy of sins forgiv'n!
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
O angels! never dimm'd your sight.
- 2 You saw of old on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies;
You know where morn exulting springs,
And ev'ning folds her drooping wings.
- 3 Bright heralds of th' Eternal Will,
Abroad his errands you fulfill;
Or, thron'd in floods of beamy day,
Symphonious in his presence play.
- 4 Loud is the song—the heav'nly plain
Is shaken with the choral strain:
And dying echoes, floating far,
Draw music from each chiming star.
- 5 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge shall be mine;
You on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine shall bear.

397 Self-dedication. L. M

- L ORD, I am thine, entirely thine,
L Purchased alone by blood divine;
With full consent I yield to thee,
And own thy sovereign right to me.
- 2 Grant me, in mercy, now a place
Among the children of thy grace;
A wretched sinner, lost to God,
But ransomed by Immanuel's blood.

REMISSION OF SINS.

3 Thee, my new Master, now I call,
And consecrate to thee my all:
Lord, let me live and die to thee;
Be thine through all eternity.

18

Happy Day.

L. M.

O HAPPY day, that fixed my choice
On thee, my Saviour and my God!
WeL may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

CHORUS.

Happy day, happy day,
When Jesus washed my sins away;
He taught me how to watch and pray
And live rejoicing every day
O happy bond, that seals my vows
To him who merits all my love!
Let cheerful anthems fill his house,
While to that sacred shrine I move.
Tis done;—the great transaction's done;
I am my Lord's, and he is mine;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Charmed to confess the voice divine.
Now rest, my long divided heart!
Fixed on this blissful center rest;
Here have I found a nobler part,
Here heavenly pleasures fill my breast.
High heaven, that heard the solemn vow
That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

9

Joy of consecration to Christ.

L. M.

O SWEETLY breathe the lyres above,
When angels touch the quivering string,
And wake, to chant Immanuel's love,
Such strains as angel-lips can sing!

THE GOSPEL,

- no sweet, on earth. the choral swell.
From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.
Jesus, thy name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us thine;
And carnal joys, that charmed before,
For thy dear sake we now resign.
4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,
Accept thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away,
5 In thee we trust—on thee rely;
Though we are feeble, thou art strong;
O, keep us till our spirits fly
To join the bright, immortal throng!

400

The sure refuge.

L. M. 6 line!

- NOW I have found the ground wherein
Sure my soul's anchor may remain;
The wounds of Jesus, for my sin,
Before the world's foundation slain;
Whose mercy shall unshaken stay,
When heaven and earth are fled away.
2 O Love, thou bottomless abyss!
My sins are swallowed up in thee;
Cover'd is my unrighteousness,
From condemnation now I'm free;
While Jesus' blood through earth and
Mercy, free, boundless mercy! cries.
3 With faith I plunge me in this sea,
Here is my hope, my joy, my rest;
Hither, when hell assails, I flee,
I look into my Saviour's breast.
Away, sad doubt, and anxious fear!
Mercy is all that's written here.

REMISSION OF SINS.

oys be withered all, and dead; [gone;
' every comfort be withdrawn—
fast on this my soul relies:
x, thy mercy never dies.

What shall I render unto thee. L. M.
Psalm 116: 12.

REDEM'D from guilt, redeem'd from fears, soul enlarged, and dried my tears,
an I do, O Love Divine.
o repay such gifts as thine?
can I do, so poor, so weak,
n thy hands new blessings seek,
to feel thy mercies more,
o know thee, and adore?
ch me at thy feet to fall,
ld thee up myself, my all!
thy saints my debts to own,
e and die to thee alone!
spirit, Lord, at large impart,
l and raise and fill my heart!
I hope my life shall be
int return, O Lord, to thee.

Not as the world giveth. C. M.
John 14: 27

OW happy is the Christian's state!
His sins are all forgiv'n;
sheering ray confirms the grace,
and lifts his hopes to heav'n.
ough in the rugged path of life
le heaves the pensive sigh;
; trusting in his God, he finds
beliv'ring grace is nigh.

THE GOSPEL,

3 If, to prevent his wand'ring steps,
He feels the chast'ning rod,
The gentle stroke shall bring him b
To his forgiving God.

4 And when the welcome message co
To call his soul away,
His soul in raptures shall ascend
To everlasting day.

I was blind, but now I see.

John 9 : 25.

A MAZING grace! (how sweet the so
That sav'd a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.

2 Through many dangers, toils, and sna
I have already come;
'T is grace has brought me safe thus f
And grace will lead me home.

3 The Lord has promis'd good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

4 Yes, when this heart and flesh sha'l. fa
And mortal life shall cease,
I shall possess within the vail
A life of joy and peace.

404

Nearness of life.

Rom. 6 : 4.

HOW happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place,
I seek my home in heaven.

2 A country far from mortal sight,
Yet O, by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepared for me.

REMISSION OF SIN.

O, what a blessed hope is ours!
While here on earth we stay,
We more than taste the heavenly powers,
And ante-date that day.

We feel the resurrection near,
Our life in Christ concealed,
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels filled.

O, would he all of heaven bestow!
Then like our Lord we'll rise;
Our bodies, fully ransomed, go
To take the glorious prize.

On him with rapture then I'll gaze,
Who bought the bliss for me,
And shout and wonder at his grace,
Through all eternity.

05

By grace are ye saved.
Eph. 2 : 8.

S. M

GRACE! 't is a charming sound,
Harmonious to the ear;
Heav'n with the echo shall resound
And all the earth shall hear.

Grace first contriv'd the way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

Grace led our wand'ring feet
To tread the heav'nly road;
And new supplies each hour we meet,
While pressing on to God.

Grace all the work shall crown
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heav'n the topmost stone,
And well deserves our praise.

THE GOSPEL,

406 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me. S. M.

Psalm 139: 6.

BLEST Saviour! Friend divine!
Thou source of boundless love!
The hope of all thy saints on earth,
The joy of all above!

2 How can I tell thy worth!
How make thy glories known!
No language can thy goodness speak,
No tongue thy mercies own!

3 My words can not express,
The sweetness of thy name!
Nor can my feeble lips declare,
The wonders of thy fame!

4 Then take my trusting heart,
I can not give thee more;
Make rich my soul's deep poverty,
From thine unwasting store!

407 A new creature. 8s & 7s, peculiar.

2 Cor. 5: 17.

SINCE first thy word awaked my heart
Like light new dawning o'er me,
Where'er I turn my eyes, thou art
All light and love before me.

2 Naught else I feel, or hear, or see,
All bonds of earth I sever;
Thee, O my Lord, and only thee,
I live for, now, and ever.

3 Like him whose fetters dropped away
When light shone o'er his prison,
My soul, now touch'd by mercy's ray
Hath from its chains arisen.

4 And shall the soul thou bid'st be free
Return to bondage? Never!
Thee, O my God, and only thee,
I live for, now, and ever

1 Pet. 1 : 8.

How happy are they who their Saviour obey
And have laid up their treasures above!
None can not express the sweet comfort and
A soul in its earliest love! [peace

His comfort is mine, since the favor divine
I have found in the blood of the Lamb:
I see the truth I believ'd what a joy I've received what a heaven in Jesus' blest name! [receiv'd,
I know is a heav'n below my Redeemer to know,
And the angels can do nothing more
Than to fall at his feet, and the story repeat,
And the lover of sinners adore!

Jesus all the day long is my joy and my song;
That all to this refuge may fly!
Who has lov'd me, I cried, he has suffer'd and Redeem'd such a rebel as I! [died

With the wings of his love I am carried above
From my sin, and temptation, and pain;
Why should I grieve, while on him I believe!
Why should I sorrow again!

In the rapturous light of that holy delight,
Which I find in the life-giving blood!
My Saviour possess'd, I am perfectly bless'd,
Living fill'd with the fullness of God!

Now my remnant of days will I spend to his
Who has died me from sin to redeem: [praise
Whether many or few, all my years are his
They shall all be devoted to him. [due;

What a mercy is this! what a heaven of bliss!
How unspeakably happy am I.

SPIRIT OF ADOPTION.

409

You hath he quickened.

L. M.

Col. 2: 13.

- LIKE morning—when her early breeze
Breaks up the surface of the seas,
'That, in their furrows, dark with night,
Her hand may sow the seeds of light—
- 2 Thy grace can send its breathings o'er
The spirit dark and lost before;
And, freshening all its depths, prepare
For truth divine to enter there.
- 3 Till David touched his sacred lyre,
In silence lay the unbreathing wire;
But when he swept its chords along,
Then angels stooped to hear the song.
- 4 So sleeps the soul, till thou, O Lord,
Shall deign to touch its lifeless chord;
Till, waked by thee, its breath shall rise
In music worthy of the skies.

The gift of the Holy Spirit.

L. M.

Acts 2: 38.

- O LORD! and shall thy Spirit rest
In such a wretched heart as mine!
Unworthy dwelling! glorious guest!
Favor astonishing, divine!
- 2 When sin prevails, and gloomy fear,
And hope almost expires in night,
Lord, can thy Spirit then be here,
Great Spring of comfort, life and light?
- 3 Sure the blest Comforter is nigh!
'Tis he sustains my fainting heart;
Else would my hopes for ever die,
And every cheering ray depart.

SPIRIT OF ADOPTION.

- 4 When some kind promise glads my soul,
Do I not find his healing voice
The tempest of my fears control,
And bid my drooping powers rejoice!
- 5 Let thy kind Spirit in my heart
For ever dwell, O God of love!
And light and heavenly peace impart—
Sweet earnest of the joys above.

The Beatitudes.

L. M.

- BLESS'D are the humble souls that see
Their emptiness and poverty;
Treasures of grace to them are giv'n,
And crowns of joy laid up in heav'n.
- 2 Bless'd are the men of broken heart,
Who mourn for sin with inward smart;
The blood of Christ divinely flows,
A healing balm for all their woes.
 - 3 Bless'd are the souls who thirst for grace,
Hunger and thirst for righteousness;
They shall be well supplied, and fed
With living streams and living bread.
 - 4 Bless'd are the men of peaceful life,
Who quench the glowing coals of strife;
They shall be call'd the heirs of bliss,
The sons of God, the God of peace.
 - 5 Bless'd are the suff'rers who partake
Of pain and shame for Jes is' sake;
Their souls shall triumph in the Lord:
Glory and joy are their reward

In Christ.

L. M

GOD of my life! thy boundless grace,
Chose, pardoned, and adopted me;
My rest, my home, my dwelling-place;
Father! I come, I come to thee.

THE GOSPEL,

Jesus, my hope, my rock, my shield !
Whose precious blood was shed for me,
Into thy hands my soul I yield ;
Saviour ! I come, I come to thee.

413 He is not ashamed to call them brethren. L. M
Heb. 2 : 11.

HONOR and happiness unite,
To make the Christian's name a praise.
How fair the scene, how clear the light,
That fills the remnant of his days !

2 A kingly character he bears,
No change his priestly office knows ;
Unfading is the crown he wears,
His joys can never reach a close.

3 Adorn'd with glory from on high,
Salvation shines upon his face ;
His robe is of the ethereal dye,
His steps are dignity and grace.

4 Inferior honors he disdains,
Nor stoops to take applause from earth,
The King of kings himself maintains
The expenses of his heavenly birth.

5 The noblest creature seen below,
Ordain'd to fill a throne above ;
God gives him all he can bestow,
His kingdom of eternal love !

6 My soul is ravish'd at the thought !
Methinks from earth I see him rise !
Angels congratulate his lot.
And shout him welcome to the skies !

414 Peace in the storm. C.

LORD, in whose might the Saviour t
The dark and stormy wave.
And trusted in his Father's arm,
Omnipotent to save ;—

SPIRIT OF ADOPTION.

2 When thickly round our footsteps rise
The floods and storms of life,
Grant us thy Spirit, Lord, to still
The dark and fearful strife.

3 Strong in our trust, on thee reposed,
The ocean path we'll dare,
Though waves around us rage and foam,
Since thou art present there.

415 Crying, Abba, Father. C. M.
 Gal. 4 : 6.

FATHER! I wait before thy throne;
Call me a child of thine;
And let the Spirit of thy Son,
Fill this poor heart of mine.

2 There shed thy promised love abroad,
And make my comfort strong;
Then shall I say, my Father, God!
With an unwavering tongue.

416 We have left all, etc. C. M.
 Matt. 19 : 27.

THERE is a name I love to hear,
I love to speak its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.

2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.

3 It tells me of a Father's smile,
Beaming upon his child;
It cheers me through this "little wld,"
Through desert, waste, and wild.

4 It bids my trembling heart rejoice,
It dries each rising tear,
It tells me in "a still small voice,"
To trust and never fear.

THE GOSPEL,

- 5 Jesus' the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear!
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.
- 6 This name shall shed its fragrance still
Along this thorny road,
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.

417 The Spirit of God dwelleth within you. C. M.
1 Cor. 3: 16.

LORD, let thy Spirit penetrate
This heart and soul of mine;
And my whole being with thy grace
Pervade, O Life divine!

- 2 As this clear air surrounds the earth,
Thy grace around me roll;
As the fresh light pervades the air,
So pierce and fill my soul.
- 3 As from these clouds drops down in love
The precious summer rain,
So from thyself pour down the flood
That freshens all again.
- 4 As these fair flowers exhale their scent
In gladness at our feet,
So from thyself let fragrance breathe,
More heavenly and more sweet.
- 5 Thus life within our lifeless hearts,
Shall make its glad abode;
And we shall shine in beauteous light,
Filled with the light of God.

418 I will write my law in their hearts. S. M. D
Heb. 8: 1.

GREAT source of life and light!

Thy Holy Spirit grant, and write
Thy law upon my heart;

My soul would cleave to thee;
Let naught my purpose move;
O, let my faith more steadfast be,
And more intense my love!

- 2 Long as my trials last,
Long as the cross I bear,
O, let my soul on thee be cast
In confidence and prayer!
Conduct me to the shore
Of everlasting peace,
Where storm and tempest rise no more,
Where sin and sorrow cease.

John 17 : 21.

THY Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee our Head;
Shall form us to thine image bright,
That we thy paths may tread.

- 2 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near thy side
Through all the gloomy way.

Why should we doubt or fear!
If he in heaven hath fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

120 In whom we have redemption. 7s, 6 lines.
Coll. 1 : 14.

BLESSED are the sons of God;
They are bought with Jesus' blood
They are ransomed from the grave;
Life eternal they shall have:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

THE GOSPEL,

2 They are justified by grace,
They enjoy the Saviour's peace;
All their sins are washed away;
They shall stand in God's great day:
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

3 They are lights upon the earth,—
Children of a heavenly birth,—
One with God, with Jesus one;
Glory is in them begun;
With them numbered may we be,
Here, and in eternity.

421 God, our salvation. 8s & 7a.

CALL Jehovah thy salvation,
Rest beneath th' Almighty's shade;
In his secret habitation
Dwell, and never be dismayed.
Guile nor violence can harm thee,
In eternal silence there;
There no tumult shall alarm thee;
Thou shalt dread no hidden snare.

2 Since with pure and firm affection
Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of his protection
He will shield thee from above;
Thou shalt call on him in trouble;
He will hearken; he will save;
Here for grief reward thee double;
Crown with life beyond the grave.

Luke 11: 13.

O THOU that hearest prayer,
Attend our humble cry,
And let thy servants share
Thy blessings from on high:
We plead the promise of thy word;
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord.

- 2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry,—
If they, with love sincere,

425 The world knoweth us not. C. H. M.
I John 3: 1.

LET others boast their ancient line,
In long succession great;
In the proud list let heroes shine,
And monarchs swell the state;
Descended from the King of kings,
Each saint a nobler title sings.

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

- 2 Pronounce me, gracious God, thy son,
Own me an heir divine;
I'll pity princes on the throne,
When I can call thee mine:
Scepters and crowns unenvied rise,
And lose their luster in my eyes.
- 3 Content, obscure, I pass my days,
To all I meet unknown.
And wait till thou thy child shalt raise,
And seat me near thy throne:
No name, no honors here I crave.
Well pleas'd with those beyond the grave.
- 4 Jesus, my elder brother, lives;
With him I, too, shall reign;
Nor sin, nor death, while he survives,
Shall make the promise vain;
In him my title stands secure,
And shall while endless years endure.
- 5 When he, in robes divinely bright,
Shall once again appear,
Thou, too, my soul, shalt shine in light,
And his full image bear:
Enough!—I wait th' appointed day—
Bless'd Saviour, haste, and come away!

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

426 Our life is a vapor. L. M.

James 4: 14.

HOW vain is all beneath the skies!
How transient every earthly bliss!
How slender all the fondest ties
That bind us to a world like this!

- 3 The evening cloud, the morning dew
The withering grass, the fading flower
Of earthly hopes are emblems true,
The glory of a passing hour.

THE GOSPEL,

3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a brighter world on high,
Beyond the reach of care and pain.

4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares, and chase our fear
If God be ours, we're traveling home
Though passing through a vale of tears

427 Fight the good fight of faith.

1 Tim. 6 : 12

STAND up, my soul, shake off thy
And gird the gospel armor on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
But hell and sin are vanquished foes
Thy Saviour nailed them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose

3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise

428 The land of promise.

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign,
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

- 3 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.
- 4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shivering on the brink,
And fear to launch away.
- 5 O! could we make our doubts remove
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unobscured eyes;
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er;
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

429

The land that is afar off.

C. M.

Isaiah 33: 17.

- FAR from these narrow scenes of night
Unbounded glories rise;
And realms of infinite delight,
Unknown to mortal eyes.
- 2 Celestial land! could our weak eyes
But half thy charms explore,
How would our spirits long to rise,
And dwell on earth no more:
- 3 There pain and sickness never come,
And grief no place obtains;
Health triumphs in immortal bloom,
And endless pleasure reigns!
- 4 No cloud these blissful regions know,
For ever bright and fair!
For sin, the source of ev'ry woe,
Can never enter there.

THE GOSPEL,

- 5 There no alternate night is known,
Nor sun's faint sickly ray ;
But glory from the sacred throne
Spreads everlasting day.

430 We all shall meet in heaven.

HAIL, sweetest, dearest tie, that bind
Our glowing hearts in one ;
Hail, sacred hope, that tunes our mind
To harmony divine.

It is the hope, the blissful hope,
Which Jesus' grace has given—
The hope, when days and years are past
We all shall meet in heaven.

- 2 What though the northern wintry blast
Shall howl around our cot ;
What though beneath an eastern sun
Be cast our distant lot ;
Yet still we share the blissful hope,
Which Jesus' grace has given—
The hope, when days and years are past
We all shall meet in heaven.

- 3 From eastern shores, from northern lands
From western hill and plain,
From southern climes, the brother-band
May hope to meet again ;
It is the hope, the blissful hope,
Which Jesus' grace has given ;
The hope, when life and time are o'er
We all shall meet in heaven.

- 4 From Burmah's shores, from Africa's
From India's burning plain,
From Europe, from Columbia's land,
We hope to meet again ;
It is the hope, the blissful hope,
Which Jesus' grace has given,
The hope, when days and years are past
We all shall meet in heaven.

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

No lingering look, nor parting sigh,
Our future meeting knows;
There friendship beams from every eye,
And love immortal glows.
O sacred hope! O blissful hope!
Which Jesus' grace has given,
The hope, when days and years are past,
We all shall meet in heaven.

31 The heavenly Canaan. C. M.

ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
O the transporting, rapt'rous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields array'd in living green.
And rivers of delight!
There gen'rous fruits that never fail
On trees immortal grow;
There rocks and hills, and brooks and vales
With milk and honey flow.
All o'er these wide, extended plains,
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Sun, for ever reigns.
And scatters night away.
No chilling winds nor pois'nous breath
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death.
Are felt and feared no more.
When shall I reach that happy place,
And be for ever blest!
When shall I see my Father's face
And in his bosom rest!

THE GOSPEL,

- 7 Fill'd with delight, my raptur'd soul
Would here no longer stay ;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

432

Hope in trouble.

C. M.

- WHEN musing sorrow weeps the past,
And mourns the present pain,
'Tis sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain.
- 2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will ;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.
- 3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.
- 4 It is that troubled conscience feels
The pangs of struggling sin,
And sees, though far, the hand that heals,
And ends the strife within.
- 5 O, let me wing my hallowed flight
From earth-born wo and care,
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share.

433

Light in darkness.

C. M.

4 Abounding in hope. C. M.

SINCE I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to ev'ry fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.
Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts he hurl'd,
Then I would smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.
Let cares, like a wild deluge, come,
And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heav'n, my all.
There shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heav'nly rest:
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

5 God our only hope. C. M

WHEN rest of all, and hopeless care
Would sink us to the tomb,
What power shall save us from despair,
What dissipate the gloom?

THE GOSPEL,

- 2 No balm that earthly plants distill
Can soothe the mourner's smart,
No mortal hand, with lenient skill,
Bind up the broken heart.
- 3 But One alone, who reigns above,
Our wo to joy can turn,
And light the lamp of life and love,
That long has ceased to burn.
- 4 Then, O my soul! to that One flee,
To God thy woes reveal;
His eye alone thy wounds can see,
His power alone can heal.

436

Hope thou in God.

Psalm 42: 5.

C. M.

MY soul! triumphant in the Lord,
Proclaim thy joys abroad,
And march with holy vigor on,
Supported by thy God.

- 2 Through every winding maze of life,
His hand has been my guide;
And in his long-experienced care,
My heart shall still confide.
- 3 His grace, through all the desert flows,
An unexhausted stream;
That grace, on Zion's sacred mount,
Shall be my endless theme.
- 4 Beyond the choicest joys of time,
Thy courts on earth I love;
But O! I burn with strong desire
To view thy house above.
- 5 There, joined with all the shining band,
My soul would thee adore;
A pillar in thy temple fixed,
To be removed no more.

THE HOPE OF LIFE ETERNAL.

437 Vain world, adieu. 8s & 4s.

WHEN for eternal worlds we steer,
And seas are calm, and skies are clear,
And faith, in lively exercise,
Sees distant fields of Canaan rise,
The soul for joy then spreads her wings,
And loud her lovely sonnet sings,
Vain world, adieu.

2 With cheerful hope, her eyes explore
Each land-mark on the distant shore,
The trees of life, the pastures green,
The golden streets, the crystal stream;
Again for joy she spreads her wings,
And loud her lovely sonnet sings,
I'm going home.

3 The nearer still she draws to land,
More eager all her powers expand;
With steady helm, and free bent sail,
Her anchor drops within the vail,—
And now for joy she folds her wings,
And her celestial sonnet sings,
I'm safe at home.

438 Hope maketh not ashamed. C. M.
Rom. 5: 5.

THE world may change from old to new,
From new to old again;
Yet hope and heaven, forever true,
Within our hearts remain.

2 Hope leads the child to plant the flower,
The man to sow the seed;
Nor leaves fulfillment to her hour,—
But prompts again to deed.

3 And ere upon the old man's dust
The grass is seen to wave,
We look through falling tears, to trust
Hope's sunshine on the grave.

THE GOSPEL,

- 4 O, no! it is no flattering lure,
No fancy weak or fond,
When hope would bid us rest secure
In better life beyond.
- 5 Nor love, nor shame, nor grief, nor tears,
Her promise may gainsay;
The voice divine speaks through our yea
To cheer us on our way.

Fix here your hope's foundation;
Serve him, and he will ever be
The Rock of your Salvation.
- 2 If distress befall you, painful though it be,
Let not grief appall you—to your Saviour flee;
He, ever near, your pray'r will hear,
And calm your perturbation;
The waves of wo shall ne'er o'erflow
The Rock of your Salvation.
- 3 When earth's prospects fail you, let it not distress,
Better comforts wait you—Christ will surely bless;
To Jesus flee—your prop he'll be,
Your heav'nly consolation;
For griefs below can not o'erthrow
The Rock of your Salvation.
- 4 Dangers may approach you; let them not alarm;
Christ will ever watch you, and protect from harm.
He near you stands, with mighty hands
To ward off each temptation;
To Jesus fly; he's ever nigh,
The Rock of your Salvation.
- 5 Let not death alarm you, shrink not from his blow;
For your God shall arm you, and victory bestow.
For death shall bring to you no sting,
The grave no desolation:
'T is sweet to die with Jesus nigh,
The Rock of your Salvation.

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE.

40

Jesus is mine.

6s & 4s.

NOW I have found a friend,
Jesus is mine;
His love shall never end,
Jesus is mine.
Though earthly joys decrease;
Though human friendships cease,
Now I have lasting peace;
Jesus is mine.

2 Though I grow poor and old,
Jesus is mine;
He will my faith uphold,
Jesus is mine;
He shall my wants supply,
His precious blood is nigh,
Nought can my hope destroy,
Jesus is mine!

3 When earth shall pass away,
Jesus is mine.
In the great Judgment day,
Jesus is mine.
O! what a glorious thing
Then to behold my King,
On tuneful harp to sing,
Jesus is mine.

4 Farewell mortality!
Jesus is mine.
Welcome eternity!
Jesus is mine.
He my Redemption is,
Wisdom and Righteousness,
Life, Light and Holiness,
Jesus is mine.

THE CHURCH.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

441

God is the midst of her.

Psalm 46: 5.

L. M

HAPPY the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace!
Thine holy courts are his abode,
Thou earthly palace of our God!

2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates
A guard of heavenly warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep foundations move,
Fixed on his counsels and his love.

3 Thy foes in vain designs engage;
Against his throne in vain they rage:
Like rising waves, with angry roar,
That dash and die upon the shore.

4 God is our shield, and God our sun;
Swift as the fleeting moments run,
On us he sheds new beams of grace,
And we reflect his brightest praise.

442

God is our refuge.

Psalm 46: 1.

L. M.

GOD is the refuge of his saints,
When storms or sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,
Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled
Down to the deep, and buried there;
Convulsions shake the solid world;
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Zion enjoys her monarch's love,
Secure against a threatening hour;
Nor can her firm foundations move,
Built on his truth, and armed with power.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

143 A kingdom which can not be moved. O M.
 Heb. 12 : 28.

THY kingdom, Lord, for ever stands,
 While earthly thrones decay ;
 And time submits to thy commands,
 While ages roll away.

2 Thy sov'reign bounty freely gives
 Its unexhausted store ;
 And universal nature lives
 On thy sustaining pow'r.

3 Holy and just in all thy ways
 Thy providence divine ;
 In all thy works, immortal rays
 Of power and mercy shine.

4 The praise of God—delightful theme !—
 Shall fill my heart and tongue ;
 Let all creation bless his name,
 In one eternal song.

144 A sure foundation. C. M.
 Isaiah 28 : 16.

BEHOLD the sure foundation-stone,
 Which God in Zion lays,
 To build our heav'nly hopes upon,
 And his eternal praise !

Chosen of God, to sinners dear,
 And saints adore the name ;
 They trust their whole salvation here,
 Nor shall they suffer shame.

The foolish builders, scribe, and priest,
 Reject it with disdain ;
 Yet on this rock the church shall rest,
 And envy rage in vain.

What though the gates of hell withstood,
 Yet must this building rise :

'T is thy own work, Almighty God.
 And wondrous in our eyes.

THE CHURCH.

445 Let us go into the house of the Lord
Psalm 122 : 1.

HOW did my heart rejoice to h
My friends devoutly say,
"In Zion let us all appear,
And keep the solemn day."

2 I love her gates, I love the road
The church, adorned with gra
Stands like a palace, built for G
To show his milder face.

3 Up to her courts, with joys unkn
The holy tribes repair;
The Son of David holds his thro
And sits in judgment there.

4 He hears our praises and compl
And while his awful voice
Divides the sinners from the sa
We tremble and rejoice.

5 Peace be within this sacred plac
And joy a constant guest!
With holy gifts and heavenly gr
Be her attendants blest!

6 My soul shall pray for Zion still
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindre
There God, my Saviour reigns

446 Yet will I not forget thee.
Isaiah 49 : 15.

A MOTHER may forgetful be,
For human love is frail;
But thy Creator's love to thee,
O Zion! can not fail.

2 No! thy dear name engraven sta
In characters of love,
On thy almighty Father's hands
And never shall remove.

Fear not, little flock.

Luke 12 : 32.

C. M.

RE is a little lonely fold,
hose flock One Shepherd keeps,
gh summer's heat, and winter's cold,
h eye that never sleeps.

2 By evil beast, or burning sky,
Or damp of midnight air,
Not one in all that flock shall lie
Beneath that Shepherd's care.

3 For if, unheeding or beguiled,
In danger's path they roam,
His pity follows through the wild,
And guards them safely home.

4 O, gentle Shepherd, still behold
Thy helpless charge in me;
And take a wanderer to thy fold,
That trembling turns to thee.

449 You are come unto Mount Zion. C. M.
 Heb. 12: 22.

NOT to the terrors of the Lord,
The tempest, fire, and smoke,—
Not to the thunder of that word
Which God on Sinai spoke;—

2 But we are come to Zion hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare his will
And spread his love abroad.

3 Behold the great, the glorious host
Of angels cloth'd in light!
Behold the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turn'd to sight!

4 Behold the blest assembly there,
Whose names are writ in heav'n!
And God, the Judge, who doth declare
Their vilest sins forgiv'n!

5 Saints here, and those in Jesus dead,
But one communion make;
All join in Christ, their living head,
And of his grace partake.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

- 6 In such society as this
 My weary soul would rest:
 The man that dwells where Jesus is
 Must be for ever bless'd.

450 Rev. 1 : 20. C. M.

OUR Christ hath reached his heavenly seat,
 Through sorrows and through scars;
 The golden lamps are at his feet,
 And in his hand the stars.

- 2 C God of life, and truth, and grace,
 Ere nature was begun!
 Make welcome to our erring race
 Thy Spirit and thy Son.

- 3 We hail the Church, built high o'er all
 The heathens' rage and scoff;
 Thy providence its fenced wall,
 "The Lamb the light thereof."

- 4 O, may he walk among us here,
 With his rebuke and love,—
 A brightness o'er this lower sphere,
 A ray from worlds above!

451 His kingdom is everlasting. C. M.
Danl. 7 : 27.

O WHERE are kings and empires now
 Of old that went and came?
 But Holy Church is praying yet,
 A thousand years the same.

- 2 Mark ye her holy battlements,
 And her foundations strong;
 And hear within, the solemn voice,
 And her unending song.

- 3 For not like kingdoms of the world
 The Holy Church of God!
 Though earthquake shocks are rocking her,
 And tempests are abroad;

THE CHURCH.

- 4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Unmovable she stands—
A mountain that shall fill the earth
A fane unbuilt by hands.

452

The Lord is great in Zion.

Psalm 99 : 2.

8

- GREAT is the Lord our God,
And let his praise be great ;
He makes his churches his abode,
His most delightful seat.
- 2 These temples of his grace,
How beautiful they stand !
The honors of our native place,
And bulwarks of our land.
- 3 In Zion God is known,
A refuge in distress ;
How bright has his salvation shone,
Through all her palaces !
- 4 When kings against her join'd,
And saw the Lord was there,
In wild confusion of the mind,
They fled with hasty fear.
- 5 Oft have our fathers told,
Our eyes have often seen,
How well our God secures the fold
Where his own sheep have been.
- 6 In ev'ry new distress
We'll to his house repair ;
We'll call to mind his wondrous grace
And seek deliv'rance there.

453

I love thy kingdom, Lord.

8.

- 1 LOVE thy kingdom, Lord—
The house of thine abode,
The church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

I love thy Church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.

For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend ;
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

Jesus, thou Friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King.
Thy hand from every snare and foe
Shall great deliverance bring.

Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

4 How amiable are thy tabernacles. S. M.
Psalm 84: 1.

HOW charming is the place
Where my Redeemer God
Unveils the beauties of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!

Not the fair palaces
To which the great resort,
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his court.

Here on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
And smile on all around.

THE CHURCH.

- 4 To him their prayers and cries
Each humble soul presents;
He listens to their broken sighs,
And grants them all their waits.
5 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy bless'd abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.

455 It shall stand for ever. S. 1
Dan. 2 : 44.

- THY kingdom, gracious Lord,
Shall never pass away;
Firm as thy truth it still shall stand,
When earthly thrones decay.
2 Thy people here have found,
Through many weary years,
The sweet communion, joy and peace,
To banish all their fears.
3 And now while in thy courts,
Do thou our love increase;
Give us the food our spirits need,
And fill our hearts with peace.

456 The ark of God. S. 1

- LIKE Noah's weary dove,
That soar'd the earth around,
But not a resting-place above
The cheerless waters found,—
2 O cease, my wand'ring soul,
On restless wing to roam;
All the wide world to either pole
Has not for thee a home.
3 Behold the ark of God,
Behold the open door;
Hasten to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

- 4 There safe thou shalt abide,
There sweet shall be thy rest,
And ev'ry longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.
- 5 And when the waves of ire,
Again the earth shall fill,
The ark shall ride the sea of fire,
Then rest on Zion's hill.
- 57 The Lord loveth the gates of Zion. S. M.
Psalm 87: 2.

HOW honor'd is the place,
Where we adoring stand!
Zion, the glory of the earth,
And beauty of the land.

- 2 Bulwarks of grace defend
The city where we dwell;
While walls of strong salvation made,
Defy th' assaults of hell.
- 3 Lift up th' eternal gates,
The doors wide open fling;
Enter, ye nations, that obey
The statutes of our King.
- 4 Here taste unmingled joys,
And live in perfect peace;
You that have known Jehovah's name,
And ventur'd on his grace.
- 5 Trust in the Lord, ye saints;
And banish all your fears,
Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,
Eternal as his years.

- 58 The joy of the whole earth. S. M.
Psalm 48 : 2.

FAR as thy name is known
The world declares thy praise;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne
Their songs of honor raise.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 With joy thy people stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.
- 3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thy holy ground,
And mark the building well.
- 4 How comely and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.
- 5 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die;
Will be our God while here below,
And ours above the sky.

459 The church in the wilderness. S. M.

- FAR down the ages now,
Much of her journey done,
The pilgrim church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.
- 2 The story of the past
Comes up before her view;
How well it seems to suit her still—
Old, and yet ever new!
 - 3 It is the oft-told tale
Of sin and weariness,—
Of grace and love yet flowing down
To pardon and to bless.
 - 4 No wider is the gate,
No broader is the way,
No smother is the ancient path,
That leads to life and day.

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

- 5 No sweeter is the cup,
Nor less our lot of ill:
'T was tribulation ages since,
'T is tribulation still.
- 6 No slacker grows the fight,
No feebler is the foe,
Nor less the need of armor tried,
Of shield, and spear, and bow.
- 7 Thus onward still we press,
Through evil and through good,—
Through pain, and poverty, and want,
Through peril and through blood.
- 8 Still faithful to our God,
And to our Captain true,
We follow where he leads the way,
The kingdom in our view.

460 Glorious things are spoken of thee. 8s & 7s.
Psalm 87 : 3.

- GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God!
He, whose word can not be broken,
Form'd thee for his own abode:
On the Rock of ages founded.
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's wall surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.
- 2 See the streams of living waters,
Springing from Eternal Love.
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of drought remove:
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst t' assuage!
Grace, which like the Lord the giver
Never fails from age to age.

THE CHURCH.

- 3 Round each habitation hov'ring,
 See the cloud and fire appear,
 For a glory and a cov'ring,
 Showing that the Lord is near:
 Thus deriving from their banner
 Light by night, and shade by day,
 Safe they feed upon the manna
 Which he gives them when they pray
- 4 Blest inhabitants of Zion,
 Wash'd in the Redeemer's blood,
 Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
 Makes them kings and priests to God
 'Tis his love his people raises
 With himself to reign as kings;
 And, as priests, his solemn praises
 Each for a thank-off'ring brings.
- 5 Saviour, since of Zion's city,
 I through grace a member am,
 Let the world deride or pity,
 I will glory in thy name;
 Fading is the worldling's treasure,
 All his boasted pomp and show!
 Solid joys and lasting pleasure
 None but Zion's children know.

461 When the Lord shall bring again Zion. 10
 Isaiah 52: 8.

RESTORE, O Father! to our times restore
 The peace which filed thine infant Church a' yea
 Ere lust of power had sown the seeds of strife,
 And quenched the new-born charities of life.

- 2 O, never more may different judgments part
 From kindled sympathy a brother's heart!
 But, linked in one, believing thousands kneel,
 And share with each the sacred joy they feel.
- 3 From soul to soul, quick as the sunbeam's ray,
 Let concord spread one universal day;
 And faith by love lead all mankind to thee,
 Parent of peace, and Fount of harmony!

DIVINE CONSTITUTION.

462 Living waters. 8s, 7s & 4s.

SEE, from Zion's sacred mountain,
Streams of living water flow;
God has opened there a fountain
That supplies the world below;
They are blessed
Who its sovereign virtues know.

2 Through ten thousand channels flowing,
Streams of mercy find their way:
Life, and health, and joy bestowing,
Waking beauty from decay.
O, ye nations,
Hail the long-expected day.

3 Gladdened by the flowing treasure,
All-enriching as it goes,
Lo! the desert smiles with pleasure,
Buds and blossoms as the rose;
Lo! the desert
Sings for joy where'er it flows.

463 The house of the Lord. 12s.

YOU may sing of the beauty of mountain and dale,
Of the silvery streamlets and flowers of the vale;
But the place most delightful this earth can afford,
Is the place of devotion, the house of the Lord.

2 You may boast of the sweetness of day's early dawn,
Of the sky's softening graces when day is just gone;
But there's no other season or time can compare,
With the hour of devotion, the season of prayer.

3 You may value the friendships of youth and of age,
And select for your comrades the noble and sage;
But the friends that most cheer me on life's rugged road,
Are the friends of my Master, the children of God.

4 You may talk of your prospects, of fame, or of wealth,
And the hopes that oft flatter the favorites of health;
But the hope of bright glory, of heavenly bliss—
Take away every other, and give me but this.

5 Ever hail, blessed temple, abode of my Lord!
I will turn to thee often, to hear from his word;
I will walk to thine altar with those that I love,
And rejoice in the prospects revealed from above.

Mount Zion, etc.

8s, 7s & 4s.

Psalm 125: 1.

- ZION stands with hills surrounded—
Zion kept by pow'r divine;
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine:
Happy Zion,
What a favor'd lot is thine!
- 2 Ev'ry human tie may perish;
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish;
Heav'n and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.
- 2 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright;
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in his sight:
God is with thee—
God, thine everlasting light.

OFFICERS.

465

Go ye into all the world.

L. M.

Mark 16: 15.

- YE Christian heralds! go, proclaim
Salvation through Immanuel's name
To distant climes the tidings bear.
And plant the rose of Sharon there
- 2 He'll shield you with a wall of fire,
With holy zeal your hearts inspire,
Bid raging winds their fury cease,
And hush the tempest into peace.
- 3 And when our labors all are o'er,
Then we shall meet to part no more,—
Meet with the blood-bought throng, to fall,
And crown our Jesus—Lor! of all!

OFFICERS.

66

Go, teach all nations.

Matt. 28 : 19

L. M.

GO.—messenger of peace and love!
 To nations plunged in shades of night;
 Like angels sent from fields above,
 Be thine to shed celestial light.
 Go—to the hungry food impart;
 To paths of peace the wanderer guide,
 And lead the thirsty, panting heart,
 Where streams of living water glide.
 Go—bid the bright and morning-star [shine,
 From Bethlehem's plains resplendent
 And, piercing through the gloom afar,
 Shed heavenly light and love divine.
 From north to south, from east to west,
 Messiah yet shall reign supreme;
 His name by every tongue confess'd—
 His praise—the universal theme.

67

Pray for us.

2 Thess. 3 : 1.

L. M.

FATHER of mercies, bow thine ear,
 Attentive to our earnest prayer :
 We plead for those who plead for thee;
 Successful pleaders may they be.
 How great their work! how vast their charge!
 Do thou their anxious souls enlarge:
 Their best endowments are our gain;
 We share the blessings they obtain.
 O, clothe with energy divine
 Their words; and let those words be thine;
 To them thy sacred truth reveal;
 Suppress their fear, inflame their zeal
 Teach them to sow the precious seed;
 Teach them thy chosen flock to feed;
 Teach them immortal souls to gain,—
 And thus reward their toil and pain.

THE CHURCH.

et thronging multitudes around
 Hear from their lips the joyful sound,
 In humble strains thy grace implore,
 And feel thy Spirit's living power.

(C. M.

68 Ordination of elders or deacons.
 VOUCHSAFE, O Lord, thy presence now.

Direct us in thy fear;
 Before thy throne we humbly bow,
 And offer fervent prayer.

2 Give us the men whom thou shalt choose,
 Thy house on earth to guide;
 Those who shall ne'er their power abuse,
 Or rule with haughty pride.

3 Inspired with wisdom from above,
 And with discretion blessed;
 Displaying meekness, temperance, love,
 Of every grace possessed;

4 These are the men we seek of thee,
 O God of righteousness:
 Such may thy servants ever be,
 With such thy people bless.

C. M

469 Ordination.
 WITH joy we own thy servant, Lord,

Thy minister below,
 Ordain'd to spread thy truth abroad,
 That all thy name may know.

2 O may he now, and ever, keep
 His eye intent on thee:
 Do thou, great Shepherd of the sheep,
 His bright example be.

3 With plenteous grace his heart prepare
 To execute thy will;
 And give him patience, love, and care,
 And faithfulness and skill.

OFFICERS.

- 4 In flame his mind with ardent zeal,
 Thy flock to feed and teach;
 And let him live, and let him feel,
 The truths he's called to preach.
- 5 As showers refresh the thirsty plain,
 So let his labors prove:
 By him extend thy righteous reign—
 The reign of truth and love.

470 On the departure of a missionary. S. M.

- YOU messengers of Christ,
 His sov'reign voice obey;
 Arise and follow where he leads—
 And peace attend your way.
- 2 The Master whom you serve
 Will needful strength bestow;
 Depending on his promis'd aid,
 With sacred courage go.
- 3 Mountains shall sink to plains,
 And hell in vain oppose;
 The cause is God's, and must prevail
 In spite of all his foes.
- 4 Go, spread a Saviour's fame,
 And tell his matchless grace,
 To the most guilty and deprav'd
 Of Adam's num'rous race.
- 5 We wish you, in his name,
 The most divine success;
 Assur'd that he who sends you forth
 Will your endeavors bless.

471 The same. S. M.

- GO with thy servant, Lord,
 His ev'ry step attend;
 All needful help to him afford,
 And bless him to the end.

THE CHURCH,

- 2 Preserve him from all wrong;
Stand thou at his right hand:
And keep him from the sland'rous tongue
And persecuting band.
- 3 May he proclaim aloud
The wonders of thy grace;
And do thou, to the list'ning crowd,
His faithful labors bless.
- 4 Farewell, dear lab'rer, go;
We part with thee in love;
And if we meet no more below,
O may we meet above.

472

Be ye therefore ready also.

Luke 12: 40.

S. M

- YE servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait;
With joy obey his heavenly word,
And watch before his gate.
- 2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins, as in his sight;
For awful is his name.
- 3 Watch! 't is the Lord's command;
And while we speak, he's near;
Mark the first signal of his hand,
And ready all appear.
- 4 O happy servant he,
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crown'd.

473

Matt 9: 38.

S. M. D.

- LORD of the harvest! hear
Thy needy servant's cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.

OFFICERS.

On thee we humbly wait;
Our wants are in thy view;
The harvest truly, Lord! is great,
The laborers are few.

- 2 Convert and send forth more
Into thy Church abroad;
And let them speak thy word of power,
As workers with their God.
Give the pure gospel-word,
The word of general grace;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
The Saviour of our race.
- 3 O, let them spread thy name;
Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim,
Thy all-redeeming love.
On all mankind, forgiven,
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven,
That thou hast died for all.

Preach the word.

5s & 6s.

2 Tim. 4: 2.

YOU servants of God,
Your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad
His wonderful name:
The name all victorious
Of Jesus extol:
His kingdom is glorious,
And rules over all.

- 2 Christ ruleth on high,
Almighty to save:
And still he is high—
His presence we have:

289

THE CHURCH,

The great congregation
His triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation
To Jesus our King.

3 Salvation to him,
Who sits on the throne—
Let all cry aloud,
And honor the Son :
Our Saviour's praises
The angels proclaim,
They fall on their faces
And worship the Lamb.

4 Him let us adore,
And give him his right;
All glory and power
And wisdom and might:
All honor and blessing
With angels above,
And thanks never ceasing
For infinite love.

475 Prayer for Deacons.

SON of God, our glorious Head !
On us now thy blessing shed;
From thy throne let mercy flow
To thy waiting flock below.

2 Taught by thee, with prayer sincere,
We have called thy servants here,
For thy needy ones to care,
And thy holy feast to bear.

3 May the Spirit from above
Fill their hearts with faith and love;
Make them humble, zealous, wise,
Strife to shun, and good devise.

OFFICER 3.

When their earthly work is done,
When the crown of life is won,
May they, with thy favor blest,
Pass from labor into rest.

76 The fields are white already to harvest. 7s & 6
John 4 : 35.

HO. reapers of life's harvest,
Why stand with rusted blade,
Until the night draws round thee,
And day begins to fade ?
Why stand ye idle, waiting
For reapers more to come ?
The golden morn is passing,
Why sit ye idle, dumb ?

2 Thrust in your sharpened sickle,
And gather in the grain :
The night is fast approaching,
And soon will come again.
Thy Master calls for reapers ;
And shall he call in vain ?
Shall sheaves lie there ungathered
And waste upon the plain ?

3 Come down from hill and mount in,
In morning's ruddy glow,
Nor wait until the dial
Points to the noon below ;
And come with the strong sinew,
Nor faint in heat or cold :
And pause not till the evening
Draws round its wealth of gold.

4 Mount up the heights of wisdom,
And crush each error low ;
Keep back no words of knowledge
That human hearts should know

THE CHURCH

Be faithful to thy mission,
In service of thy Lord;
And then a golden chaplet
Shall be thy just reward.

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

477 Christian fellowship. L. M.

KINDRED in Christ, for his dear sake
A hearty welcome here receive;
May we together now partake
The joys which only he can give.

2 May he, by whose kind care we meet,
Send his good Spirit from above;
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.

3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians meet together thus;
We only wish to speak of him
Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.

4 We'll talk of all he did, and said,
And suffered for us here below;
The path he marked for us to tread,
And what he's doing for us now.
Thus—as the moments pass away—
We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
And hasten on the glorious day
When we shall meet to part no more.

478 Come in, thou blessed of the Lord. L. M.
Gen. 24: 31.

COME in, thou blessed of our God,
In Jesus' name we bid thee come;
No more thy feet shall roam abroad,
Henceforth a brother—welcome home.

VE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

joys which earth can not afford,
I seek in fellowship to prove,
in one spirit to our Lord,
ther bound by mutual love.

hile we pass this vale of tears
I make our joys and sorrows known;
share each other's hopes and fears,
count a brother's cares our own.

more our welcome we repeat,
ive assurance of our love;
we all together meet
nd the throne of God above.

1 Cor. 12. 31.

I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
d nobler speech than angels use,
be absent, I am found,
tink'ng brass, an empty sound.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heaven and hell—
Or could my faith the world remove—
Still I am nothing without love.
- 3 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor—
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name—
- 4 If love to God and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain ;
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
The work of love can e'er fulfill.

481 The pilgrim band. L. M.

COME, you that love the Lord indeed,
Who are from sin and bondage freed,
Submit to all the ways of God.
And walk the narrow, happy road.

CHORUS.

We're all united heart and hand,
Join'd in one band completely ;
We're marching through Immanuel's land,
Where waters flow most sweetly.

- 2 Great tribulation you shall meet,
But soon shall walk the golden street ;
Though hell may rage and vent its spite,
Yet Christ will save his heart's delight.
- 3 That happy day will soon appear
When Michael's trumpet you shall hear
Sound through the earth—yea, down to hell,
And call the nations great and small.
- 4 Behold the righteous marching home,
And all the angels bid them come, [claim
While Christ the Judge these words pro
" Here come my saints—I own their names

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

5 "You everlasting gates, fly wide,
Make ready to receive my bride;
You harps of heav'n, now sound aloud,
Here come the ransom'd by my blood!"

6 In grandeur see the royal line,
In glitt'ring robes the sun outshine!
See saints and angels join in one,
And march in splendor to the throne.

7 They stand, and wonder, and look on:
They join in one eternal song,
Their great Redeemer to admire,
While rapture sets their souls on fire.

482 Thy little flock in safety keep. L. M

JESUS, thou Shepherd of the sheep,
Thy little flock in safety keep;
These lambs within thine arms now take,
Nor let them e'er thy fold forsake.

2 Secure them from the scorching beam,
And lead them to the living stream;
In verdant pastures let them lie,
And watch them with a shepherd's eye!

3 O, teach them to discern thy voice,
And in its sacred sound rejoice!
From strangers may they ever flee,
And know no other guide but thee.

4 Lord, bring thy sheep that wander yet,
And let their number be complete;
Then let the flock from earth remove.
And reach the heavenly fold above.

483 Organization of a church. L. M

1 ORD, bless thy saints assembled here,
In solemn cov'nant now to join,
Unite them in thy holy fear,
And in thy love their hearts combine.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 O give this church a large increase
Of such as thou wilt own and bless;
Lord, fill their hearts with joy and peace,
And clothe them with thy righteousness.
- 3 Make her a garden wall'd with grace,
A temple built for God below,
Where thy blest saints may see thy face;
And fruits of thy bless'd Spirit grow.

484 You are all one in Christ Jesus. L. M.
Gal. 3: 28.

- STILL one in life and one in death,
One in our hope of rest above;
One in our joy, our trust, our faith,
One in each other's faithful love.
- 2 Yet must we part, and, parting, weep;
What else has earth for us in store?
Our farewell pangs, how sharp and deep!
But soon we'll meet to part no more.

485 Parting hymn. L. M.

- MY Christian friends in bonds of love,
Whose hearts the sweetest union prove;
Your friendship's like the strongest band,
Yet we must take the parting hand.
- 2 Your presence sweet, our union dear,
What joys we feel together here!
And when I see that we must part,
You draw like cords around my heart.
- 3 How sweet the hours have pass'd away,
Since we have met to sing and pray;
How loath are we to leave the place
Where Jesus shows his smiling face!
- 4 O could I stay with friends so kind,
How would it cheer my fainting mind!
But pilgrims in a foreign land,
We oft must take the parting hand

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

5 My Christian friends, both old and young,
I trust you will in Christ go on;
Press on, and soon you'll win the prize—
A crown of glory in the skies.

6 A few more days, or years at most,
And we shall reach fair Canaan's coast,
When in that holy, happy land,
We'll take no more the parting hand.

O blessed day! O glorious hope!
My soul rejoices at the thought,
When in that holy, happy land,
We'll take no more the parting hand.

486 Go on you pilgrims. C. M.

GO on, you pilgrims, while below,
In the sure path of peace,
Determin'd nothing else to know
But Jesus and his grace.

2 Observe your leader, follow him;
He through this world has been
Often revil'd; but like a lamb
Did ne'er revile again.

3 O! take the pattern he has giv'n,
And love your enemies;
And learn the only way to heav'n
Through self-denial lies.

4 Remember, you must watch and pray
While journeying on the road,
Lest you should fall out by the way,
And wound the cause of God.

5 Go on rejoicing night and day,
Your crown is yet before,
Defy the trials of the way,
The storm will soon be o'er.

THE CHURCH.

- 6 Soon we shall reach the promised land,
With all the ransom'd race,
And join with all the glorious band,
To sing redeeming grace.

487 Planting a church. C. M

- PLANTED in Christ, the living vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord.
- 2 Joined in one body may we be;
One inward life partake;
One be our heart; one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.
- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.
- 4 Around this feeble, trusting band
Thy sheltering pinions spread,
Nor let the storms of trial beat
Too fiercely on our head.
- 5 Then, when, among the saints in light,
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine.

488 The unity of the Spirit. C. M
 Eph. 4: 8.

- BLESS'D be the dear uniting love,
That will not let us part;
Our bodies may far off remove--
We still are one in heart.
- 2 Joined in one Spirit to our Head,
Where he appoints, we go;
And still in Jesus' foot steps tread,
And show his praise below

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

- 3 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
The same in mind and heart;
Nor joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
Nor life, nor death, can part.

489

We will serve the Lord.

C. M.

Josh. 24 : 15.

- Y E men and angels, witness now,—
Before the Lord we speak,
To him we make our solemn vow,—
A vow we dare not break ;—
2 That long as life itself shall last,
Ourselves to Christ we yield ;
Nor from his cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.
3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on his grace rely ;
May he, with our returning wants,
All needful aid supply.
4 O, guide our doubtful feet aright,
And keep us in thy ways ;
And, while we turn our vows to pray'rs,
Turn thou our pray'rs to praise.

490

Restore such a one, etc.

C. M.

Gal. 6 : 1.

- T HINK gently of the erring one!
O, let us not forget,
However darkly stained by sin,
He is our brother yet.
2 Heir of the same inheritance,
Child of the self-same God,
He hath but stumbled in the path,
We have in weakness trod.
3 Speak gently to the erring ones!
We yet may lead them back,
With holy words, and tones of love,
From misery's thorny track.

THE CHURCH.

- 4 Forget not, brother, thou hast sinned,
And sinful yet may be;
Deal gently with the erring heart,
As God hath dealt with thee.

491 Before and behind the veil. C. M.

- HAPPY the souls to Jesus join'd,
And made in spirit one :
Walking in all his ways, they find
Their heav'n on earth begun.
- 2 The church triumphant in thy love,
Their mighty joys we know :
They sing the Lamb in hymns above,
And we in hymns below.
- 3 Thee in thy glorious realm they praise,
And bow before thy throne ;
We in the kingdom of thy grace :
The kingdoms are but one.
- 4 The holy to the holiest leads ;
To heaven our spirits rise ;
And he that in thy statutes treads,
Shall meet thee in the skies.

492 Spiritual blessings in heavenly places. C. M.
Eph. 1 : 3.

- O HAPPY they who know the Lord,
With whom he deigns to dwell !
He feeds and cheers them by his word,
His arm supports them well.
- 2 To them in each distressing hour
His throne of grace is near ;
And when they plead his love and power,
He stands engag'd to hear.
- 3 His presence sweetens all our cares,
And makes our burdens light ;
A word from him dispels our fears,
And gilds the gloom of night.

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

- 4 Lord, we expect to suffer here,
Nor would we dare repine;
But give us still to find thee near,
And own us still for thine.
- 5 Let us enjoy and highly prize
These tokens of thy love,
Till thou shalt bid our spirits rise
To worship thee above.

493

The bond of perfectness.

Col. 3: 14.

C. M.

HOW sweet, how heav'nly is the sight,
When those that love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfill the word.

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart:

3 When free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love:

4 When love in one delightful stream
Through ev'ry bosom flows,
When union sweet and dear esteem
In ev'ry action glows.

5 Love is the golden chain that binds,
The happy souls above,
And he's an heir of heav'n that finds
His bosom glow with love.

494

The whole family in heaven and earth. C. M.

Eph. 3: 15.

COME, let us join our friends above,
Who have obtained the prize,
And, on the eagle wings of love,
To joy celestial rise.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone,
For all the servants of our King
In heaven and earth are one:—
- 3 One family,—we dwell in him;
One church,—above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream—
The narrow stream of death.
- 4 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.
- 5 Ev'n now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly;
And we are to the margin come,
Expecting soon to die!
- 6 Dear Saviour! be our constant guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid Jordan's narrow stream divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

495

Love as brethren.

S. M.

1 Pet. 2: 8.

BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

- 4 Though often called to part,
Amid these scenes of pain;
Yet, we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

496

Stand fast in the Lord
Phil. 4 : 1.

S M.

- ALL you that have confess'd
That Jesus is the Lord,
And to his people join'd yourselves,
According to his word:—
- 2 In Zion you must dwell,
Her altar ne'er forsake;
Must come to all her solemn feasts,
Of all her joys partake.
- 3 She must employ your thoughts,
And your unceasing care;
Her welfare be your constant wish,
And her increase your pray'r.
- 4 With humbleness of mind,
Among her sons rejoice:
A meek and quiet spirit is
With God of highest price.
- 5 Never offend, nor grieve
Your brethren by the way;
But shun the dark abodes of strife,
Like children of the day.

THE CHURCH.

- 6 In all your Saviour's ways
With willing footsteps move;
Be faithful unto death, and then
You 'll reign with him above.

497 Let there be no divisions among you. S. M.
1 Cor. 1: 10.

LET party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread.
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
Are one in Christ, their Head.

- 2 Among the saints on earth
Let mutual love be found;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.

- 3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above,
Where streams of pleasure ever flow,
And every heart is love.

498 Strangers and pilgrims. 7s
1 Pet. 2: 11.

CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

- 2 Ye are traveling home to God,
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now—and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.
- 3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest;
• You on Jesus' throne shall rest:
There your seat is now prepared—
There your kingdom and reward.
- 4 Fear not, brethren, joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

- 5 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below ;
Only thou our leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

499

Bond of Peace.

7s.

Eph. 4 : 3.

- JESUS, Lord, we look to thee ;
Let us in thy name agree ;
Show thyself the Prince of Peace ;
Bid our jars for ever cease.
- 2 By thy reconciling love,
Every stumbling-block remove :
Each to each unite, endear ;
Come, and spread thy banner here.
- 3 Make us of one heart and mind,—
Courteous, pitiful and kind ;
Lowly, meek, in thought and word,—
Altogether like our Lord.
- 4 Let us for each other care ;
Each the other's burden bear ;
To thy Church the pattern give ;
Show how true believers live.
- 5 Free from anger and from pride,
Let us thus in God abide ;
All the depths of love express,—
All the heights of holiness.
- 6 Let us then with joy remove
To the family above ;
On the wings of angels fly ;
Show how true believers die.

500

Love is of God.

8s

1 John 4 : 7.

SAY, whence does this union arise,
Where hatred is conquer'd by love ?
It fastens our souls with such ties,
That distance nor time can remove.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 It can not in Eden be found,
Nor yet in a Paradise lost;
It grows on Immanuel's ground,
And Jesus' life's blood it has cost.
- 3 My friends so endear'd unto me,
Our souls so united in love;
Where Jesus is gone we shall be,
In yonder blest mansions above.
- Why then so unwilling to part,
Since there we shall soon meet again,
Engrav'd on Immanuel's heart,
At distance we can not remain.
- 5 And then we shall see that bright day,
And join with the angels above,
Set free from our prisons of clay,
United in Jesus' kind love.
- 6 With Jesus we ever shall reign,
And all his bright glory shall see;
Then sing hallelujahs—Amen!
Amen! Even so let it be!

501

Receive ye one another.

8s & 7s.

Rom. 15 : 7.

- COME, dear friends, we all are brethren,
Bound for Canaan's happy land;
Come, unite and walk together,
Christ, our leader, gives command.
Cease to boast of party merit,
Wound the cause of God no more,
Be united by his Spirit:
Zion's peace again restore.
- 1 Now our hand, our heart and spirit
Here in fellowship we give;
Let us love and peace inherit,
Show the world how Christians live.

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

We'll be one in Christ our Saviour,
Male and female, bond and free!
Christ is all in all forever,
In him we all blessed be.

2

Parting friends.

7a.

WHEN shall we all meet again?
When shall we all meet again?
Oft shall glowing hope expire,
Oft shall wearied love retire,
Oft shall death and sorrow reign,
Ere we all shall meet again.
Though in distant lands we sigh,
Parched beneath a hostile sky;
Though the deep between us rolls,—
Friendship shall unite our souls:
And in fancy's wide domain,
Oft shall we all meet again.
When the dreams of life are fled,
And its wasted lamp is dead:
When in cold oblivion's shade,
Beauty, wealth, and fame are laid;
Where immortal spirits reign,
There may we all meet again,

We shall meet no more to part.

P. M

WE shall meet no more to part;
Cease thy sorrows, mourning heart!
Weary days will soon depart—
Then we may rest for ever!
When the work of life is done,
When the victor's crown is won,
Then, immortal life begun,
We no more shall sever.
We shall meet, no more to part
Cease thy sorrows, mourning heart!
Weary days will soon depart—
Then we may rest for ever!

THE CHURCH.

- 2 In the home of peace and bliss,
In the world where Jesus is,
When we bid adieu to this,
Then we may love for ever.
Purified from every stain,
Through the Lamb that once was slain,
Brethren, we shall meet again,
And be parted never!

504 When shall we meet again. 6s & 5s.

WHEN shall we meet again?
Meet ne'er to sever?
When will Peace wreathe her chain
Round us for ever?
Our hearts will ne'er repose
Safe from each blast that blows
In this dark vale of woes,
Never—no, never!

- 2 When shall love freely flow,
Pure as life's river?
When shall sweet friendship glow,
Changeless forever?
Where joys celestial thrill,
Where bliss each heart shall fill,
And fears of parting chill,
Never—no, never!

- 3 Up to that world of light
Take us, dear Saviour;
May we all there unite,
Happy forever:
Where kindred spirits dwell,
There may our music swell,
And time our joys dispel
Never—no, never!

- 4 Soon shall we meet again,
Meet ne'er to sever:
Soon shall Peace wreathe her chain
Round us for ever:

LOVE, UNITY AND FELLOWSHIP.

Our hearts will then repose
Secure from wordly woes;
Our songs of praise shall close,
Never—no, never!

5 He that dwelleth in love, etc. C. P. M.
1 John 4: 16.

) LOVE divine, how sweet thou art!
When shall I find my wand'ring heart
All taken up in thee!
) may I daily live to prove
The sweetness of redeeming love,
The love of Christ to me.
God only knows the love of God;
) may it now be shed abroad
To cheer my fainting heart!
I want to feel that love divine;
His heav'nly portion, Lord, be mine—
Be mine this better part.
) that I could for ever sit
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice;
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heav'n on earth be this,
To hear the bridegroom's voice.
) that I might with happy John
Recline my weary head upon
The bless'd Redeemer's breast!
From care, and fear, and sorrow free,
Give me, O Lord, to find in thee
My everlasting rest.

6 A parting hymn. 6s. & 4s.

PEACEFULLY, tenderly,
Here, as we part,
The farewell that lingers
Be breathed from the heart;

THE CHURCH.

No place more fitting,
O house of the Lord—
Here be it spoken,
That last prayerful word.

2 Thoughtfully, carefully,
Solemn and slow!
Tears are bedewing
The path that we go;
Perils before us
We know not to-day—
Kindly and safely,
O Lord, lead the way.

3 Upwardly, steadfastly,
Gaze on that brow:
Jesus, our Leader,
Reigns conqueror now.
His steps let us follow,
His sufferings dare,
Go up to glory,
His blessedness share.

4 Patiently, cheerfully,
Up, and depart
To labor and duty
With gladness of heart;
The ransomed, with triumph,
To Zion we 'll bring,
Shouting salvation
To Jesus, our King.

507

Pilgrim's farewell.

L. M

FAREWELL, my friends, time rolls along,
Nor waits for mortal care or bliss;
I leave you here to travel on,
Till I arrive where Jesus is.
CHORUS.—Farewell, farewell, farowell,
My Christian friends, farewell

THE CHURCH.

Now here's my hand, and my best wishes,
In token of my Christian love;
In hopes with you to praise my Jesus:
So farewell, brethren— we'll meet above.

509

Heavenward.

C. P. M.

Col. 3: 2.

COME on, my partners in distress,
My comrades in the wilderness,
Who feel your sorrows still;
Awhile forget your griefs and fears,
And look beyond this vale of tears
To that celestial hill.

- 2 Beyond the bounds of time and space,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
The saint's secure abode;
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,
And force your passage to the skies,
And scale the mount of God.
- 3 Who suffer with our Master here,
Shall there before his face appear,
And by his side sit down:
To patient faith the prize is sure;
And all that to the end endure
The cross, shall wear the crown.

510

Home.

11s.

Phil. 3: 20.

'MID scenes of confusion and creature complaints,
How sweet to my soul is communion with saints;
To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
And feel in the presence of Jesus at home.

- 2 Sweet bonds, that unite all the children of peace;
And thrice blessed Jesus, whose love can not cease;
Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory at home.
- 3 While here in the valley of conflict I stray,
O give me submission and strength as my day;
In all my afflictions to thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

ng, dearest Lord, in thy beauty to shine;
more as an exile in sorrow to pine;
in thy dear image arise from the tomb,
h glorified millions to praise thee at home.

Ephesians 4: 5.

S. P. M.

Th baptism and one faith,
One Lord below, above, fellowship of Zion hath is only watchword—Love.
In different temples though it rise, song ascendeth to the skies.
sacrifice is One;
is priest before the throne—
crucified, the risen Son,
redeemer, Lord alone!
sighs from contrite hearts that spring,
chief, our choicest offering.
Why should they who love
the gospel to unfold,
look for one bright home above,
the earth be strange and cold?
Ye, subjects of the Prince of Peace,
trife abide, and bitterness?
Why that holy prayer—
is tenderest and his last,
utterance of his latest care ere to the cross he passed—longer unfulfilled remain, world's offense, thy people's stain!

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

Glorying only in the cross.

Gal. 6: 14.

L. M.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride!

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast.
Save in the death of Christ, my Lord:
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet—
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all!

513 Delight in Christ. L. M.

- JESUS, thou Joy of loving hearts!
Thou Fount of Life! thou Light of men!
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to thee again.
- 2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee, thou art good,
To them that find thee—All in All!
- 3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 5 O Jesus, ever with us stay!
Make all our moments calm and bright
Chase the dark night of sin away—
Shed o'er the world thy holy light!

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

514 Soft be the gently breathing notes. L. M.

- SOFT be the gently breathing notes
That sing the Saviour's dying love;
Soft as the evening zephyr floats,
Soft as the tuneful lyres above:
Soft as the morning dew's descend,
While warbling birds exulting soar;
So soft to our almighty Friend
Be every sigh our bosoms pour.
- 2 Pure as the sun's enlivening ray,
That scatters life and joy abroad;
Pure as the lucid orb of day,
That wide proclaims its Maker, God;
Pure as the breath of vernal skies,
So pure let our contrition be;
And purely let our sorrows rise
To him who bled upon the tree.

515 Communion in Christ. L. M.

- HOW pleasing to behold and see
The friends of Jesus all agree—
To sit around the sacred board
As members of one common Lord.
- 2 Here we behold the dawn of bliss—
Here we behold the Saviour's grace—
Here we behold his precious blood,
Which sweetly pleads for us with God.
- 3 While here we sit, we would implore
That love may spread from shore to shore,
Till all the saints, like us, combine
To praise the Lord in songs divine.
- 4 To all we freely give our hand,
Who love the Lord in ev'ry land;
For all are one in Christ our head,
To whom be endless honors paid.

THE CHURCH.

516

Welcome to young converts.

L. M.

WELCOME, ye hopeful heirs of heav'n,
To this rich feast of gospel love—
This pledge is but the prelude giv'n
To that immortal feast above.

- 2 How great the blessing, thus to meet
According to our Saviour's word,
And hold by faith communion sweet,
With our unseen yet present Lord.
- 3 And if so sweet this feast below,
What will it be to meet above,
Where all we see, and feel, and know,
Are fruits of everlasting love!
- 4 Soon shall we tune the heav'nly lyre,
While list'ning worlds the song approve;
Eternity itself expire,
Ere we exhaust the theme of love.

517

The last scenes.

L. M.

'TWAS on that night when doom'd to
The eager rage of ev'ry foe, [know
That night in which he was betray'd,
The Saviour of the world took bread;

- 2 And, after thanks and glory giv'n
To him that rules in earth and heav'n,
That symbol of his flesh he broke,
And thus to all his foll'wers spoke:
- 3 My broken body thus I give
To you, my friends; take, eat, and live;
And oft the sacred feast renew,
That brings my wondrous love to view.
- 4 Then in his hands the cup he rais'd,
And God anew he thank'd and prais'd;
While kindness in his bosom glow'd,
And from his lips salvation flow'd.

THE LORD'S SUPPER

- 5 My blood I thus pour forth, he cries,
To cleanse the soul in sin that lies;
In this the covenant is seal'd,
And heav'n's eternal grace reveal'd.
- 3 This cup is fraught with love to men
Let all partake who love my name;
Through latest ages let it pour
In mem'ry of my dying hour.

518 The bread of life. L. M

- A WAY from earth my spirit turns—
Away from every transient good:
With strong desire my bosom burns
To feast on heaven's diviner food.
- 2 Thou, Saviour, art the living bread;
Thou wilt my every want supply;
By thee sustained, and cheered, and led,
I'll press through dangers to the sky.
- 3 What though temptations oft distress,
And sin assails, and breaks my peace;
Thou wilt uphold, and save, and bless,
And bid the storms of passion cease.
- 4 Then let me take thy gracious hand,
And walk beside thee onward still;
Till my glad feet shall safely stand
Forever firm on Zion's hill.

519 They came together to break bread. C. M.
Acts 20: 7.

- L ORD, may the spirit of this feast—
The earnest of thy love—
Maintain a dwelling in our breast
Until we meet above.
- 2 The healing sense of pardoned sin,
The hope that never tires,
The strength a pilgrim's race to win,
The joy that heaven inspires:

THE CHURCH.

- 3 Still may their light our duties try
In lines of hallowed flame,
Like that upon the prophet's face,
When from the mount he came.
- 4 But if no more with kindred dear
The broken bread we share,
Nor at the banquet-board appear
To breathe the grateful prayer;
- 5 Forget us not—when on the bed
Of dire disease we waste,
Or to the chambers of the dead,
And bar of judgment haste.
- 6 Forget not—thou who bore the woe
Of Calvary's fatal tree—
Those who within these courts be
Have thus remembered thee.

520

Remembering Christ.

- IF human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie—
If tender thoughts within us burn
To feel a friend is nigh;
- 2 O, shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him who died our fears to quell,
And save from endless woe?
 - 3 While yet his anguished soul survey
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words display
“Meet and remember me.”
 - 4 Remember thee! thy death, thy share
The griefs which thou didst bear!
O memory, leave no other name
But His recorded there.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

521

Spiritual refreshment.

C. M.

O GOD, unseen yet ever near!
Reveal thy presence now,
While we, in love that hath no fear,
Before thy glory bow.

2 Here may obedient spirits find
The blessings of thy love—
The streams that through the desert wind,
The manna from above.

A while beside the fount we stay,
And eat this bread of thine,
Then go, rejoicing, on our way,
Renewed with strength divine.

522

Reception of members.

C. M

COME in, thou blessed of the Lord;
Stranger nor foe art thou:
We welcome thee with warm accord,
Our friend, our brother now.

2 The hand of fellowship, the heart
Of love, we offer thee:
Leaving the world, thou dost but part
From lies and vanity.

3 The cup of blessing which we bless,
The heav'nly bread we break,—
Our Saviour's blood and righteousness,
Freely with us partake.

4 In weal or woe, in joy or care,
Thy portion shall be ours;
Christians their mutual burdens bear;
They lend their mutual pow'rs.

5 Come with us, we will do thee good,
As God to us hath done;
Stand but in him, as those have stood,
Whose faith the vict'ry won.

THE CHURCH.

- 6 And when, by turns, we pass away
As star by star grows dim,
May each, translated into day,
Be lost, and found in him.

523 Blessed are the poor in spirit. C. M.
Matt. 5: 3.

LORD, at thy table we behold
The wonders of thy grace;
But most of all admire that we Should find a welcome place.

- 2 What strange, surprising grace is this,
That we, so lost, have room!
Jesus our weary souls invites,
And freely bids us come!

- 3 Ye saints below, and hosts of heaven,
Join all your sacred powers:
No theme is like redeeming love;
No Saviour is like ours.

524 In remembrance of me. C. M.
1 Cor. 11: 24.

I N memory of the Saviour's love,
We keep the sacred feast,
Where every humble, contrite heart
Is made a welcome guest.

- 2 Under his banner thus we sing
The wonders of his love,
And thus anticipate by faith
The heavenly feast above.

525 He was known of them, etc. C. M.
Luke 24: 35

SHEPHERD of souls, refresh and bless
Thy chosen pilgrim flock,
With manna from the wilderness,
With water from the rock.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

- 2 Hungry and thirsty, faint and weak,
(As thou when here below),
Our souls the joys celestial seek,
That from thy sorrows flow.
- 3 We would not live by bread alone,
But by thy word of grace,—
In strength of which we travel on
To our abiding place.
- 4 Be known to us in breaking bread,
But do not then depart,—
Saviour, abide with us, and spread
Thy table in our heart.
- 5 Then sup with us in love divine;
Thy body and thy blood,
That living bread and heavenly wine,
Be our immortal food.

26 You do show the Lord's death. S. M.
1 Cor. 11: 26.

- JESUS, the Friend of man,
Invites us to his board;
The welcome summons we obey,
And own our gracious Lord.
- 2 Here we show forth his love,
Which spake in every breath,
Prompted each action of his life,
And triumphed in his death.
- 3 Here let our powers unite
His honored name to raise;
Let grateful joy fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.
- 4 One faith, one hope, one Lord,
One God alone we know;
Brethren we are; let every heart
With kind affections grow.

THE CHURCH.

527

After the supper.

S. M.

NOW let each happy guest
The sacred concert raise,
To close the honors of the feast,
And sing the Master's praise.

2 His condescending love
First calls our wonder forth;
He left the blessed realms above,
To dwell with men on earth.

3 His precepts, how divine!
How suited to our state!
How bright his acts of mercy shine!
His promises how great!

4 Redemption's glorious plan,
How wondrous in our view!
The salutary source to man
Of peace and pardon too.

528 Truly our fellowship is with the Father, etc. S. M.

1 John 1: 3.

OUR heavenly Father calls,
And Christ invites us near;
With both, our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.

2 God pities all our griefs:
He pardons every day;
Almighty to protect our souls,
And wise to guide our way.

3 How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good,
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!

4 Jesus, our living Head,
We bless thy faithful care;
Our Advocate before the throne,
And our forerunner there.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

5 Here fix, my roving heart!
 Here wait, my warmest love!
 Till the communion be complete,
 In nobler scenes above.

529

Take this, etc.

Luke 22 : 17.

S. M.

JESUS invites his saints
 To meet around his board;
 Here pardon'd rebels sit, and hold
 Communion with their Lord.

2 This holy bread and wine
 Maintain our fainting breath,
 By union with our living Lord,
 And int'rest in his death.

3 Let all our pow'rs be join'd
 His glorious name to raise;
 Let holy love fill ev'ry mind,
 And ev'ry voice be praise.

530

And when they had sung a hymn, etc.
Matt. 26. 30.

S. M.

A PARTING hymn we sing,
 Around thy table, Lord;
 Again our grateful tribute bring,
 Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face,
 And felt thy presence here;
 So may the savor of thy grace
 In word and life appear.

3 The purchase of thy blood—
 By sin no longer led—
 The path our dear Redeemer trod
 May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love
 Be Christian union shown,
 Until we join the Church above,
 And know as we are known.

THE CHURCH.

531

Behold the Lamb of God.

John 1 : 36

NOT all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace
Or wash away its stain.

2 But Christ, the heav'nly Lamb,
Bears all our sins away ;
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove ;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice
And sing his dying love.

532

Foretastes.

Mark 14 : 25.

BLEST feast of love divine !
'T is grace that makes us free
To feed upon this bread and wine,
In memory, Lord, of thee !

2 That blood which flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the blessed pledge within,
That we are loved of thee.

3 O, if this glimpse of love
Be so divinely sweet,
What will it be, O Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet !

4 To see thee face to face, —
Thy perfect likeness wear. —
And all thy ways of wond'rous grace
Through endless years declare !

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

33 I will draw all men unto me. 8s & 7
John 12: 32.

IT is finished! Man of Sorrows!
From thy cross our frailty borrows
Strength to bear and conquer thus.

2 While extended there we view thee,
Mighty Sufferer! draw us to thee;
Sufferer victorious!

3 Not in vain for us uplifted,
Man of Sorrows, wonder-gifted!
May that sacred emblem be;

4 Lifted high amid the ages,
Guide of heroes, saints, and sages;
May it guide us still to thee!

34 The body and blood of Christ. 7s.

BREAD of heaven, on thee we feed,
For thy flesh is meat indeed;
Ever let our souls be fed
With this true and living bread.

2 Vine of heaven, thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice;
Lord, thy wounds our healing give;
To thy cross we look and live.

3 Day by day with strength supplied,
Through the life of him who died,
Lord of life. O, let us be
Rooted, grafted, built on thee.

35 Leaving the Lord's table. 8s. & 7s

FROM the table now retiring,
Which for us the Lord hath spread,
May our souls, refreshment finding,
Grow in all things like our Head.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 His example by beholding,
May our lives his image bear;
Him our Lord and Master calling,
His commands may we revere.
- 3 Love to God and man displaying,
Walking steadfast in his way,
Joy attend us in believing,
Peace from God, through endless day.

536

It was for us.

P. M.

- NEAR the cross our station taking,
Earthly cares and joys forsaking,
Meet it is for us to mourn :
'T was for us he came from heaven,
'T was for us his heart was riven;
All his griefs for us were borne.
- 2 When no eye its pity gave us,
When there was no arm to save us,
He his love and power displayed :
By his stripes our help and healing,
By his death our life revealing,
He for us the ransom paid.
- 3 Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
That from sin we may refrain us,
In thy griefs may deeply grieve;
Thee our best affections giving,
To thy praise and honor living,
May we in thy glory live!

537

My peace I give unto you.

P. M.

- LAMB of God! whose bleeding love
We now recall to mind,
Send thy blessing from above,
And let us mercy find :
Think on us, who think on thee;
Every burdened soul release;
O, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

- 2 By thine agonizing pain,
And bloody sweat, we pray—
By thy dying love to man,
Take all our sins away :
By thy passion on the tree,
Let our griefs and troubles cease :
O, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace !

538

Looking to Jesus.

8s & 7s.

Heb. 12: 2.

- SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend ;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying friend.
- 2 Here I'll sit, for ever viewing
Mercy streaming in his blood ;
Precious drops ! my soul bedewing,
Plead they now my peace with God.
- 3 Truly blessed is this station,
Here unfolds his wondrous grace ;
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his lovely face.
- 4 Here it is I find my heaven.
While upon the cross I gaze ;
Here the joy of sins forgiven
Shall inspire my songs of praise.
- 5 Love and grief my heart dividing,
While his feet I bathe with tears ;
Constant still in faith abiding—
Hope triumphant o'er my fears
- 6 Lord ! in ceaseless contemplation,
Fix my trusting heart on thee,
Till I know thy full salvation,
And thy face in glory see

THE CHURCH,

539

My meditation shall be sweet.

P.

Psalm 104 : 34.

HERE - sink before thee lowly,
Filled with gladness deep and holy,
As with trembling awe and wonder
On thy mighty work I ponder,—
On this banquet's mystery,
On the depths we can not see :
Far beyond all mortal sight
Lie the secrets of thy might.

2 Sun, who all my life dost brighten !
Light, who dost my soul enlighten !
Joy, the sweetest man e'er knoweth !
Fount, whence all my being floweth !
Humbly draw I near to thee ;
Grant that I may worthily
Take this blessed heavenly food,
To thy praise, and to my good.

3 Jesus, Bread of Life from heaven,
Never be thou vainly given,
Nor I to my hurt invited ;
Be thy love with love requited ;
Let me learn its depths indeed,
While on thee my soul doth feed ;
Let me, here so richly blest,
Be hereafter, too, thy guest.

540

Whom having not seen, we love. 8s &

1 Pet. 1 : 8.

WHILE in sweet communion feeding
On this earthly bread and wine,
Saviour, may we see thee bleeding
On the cross to make us thine.

2 Though unseen, now be thou near us,
With the still small voice of love ;
Whispering words of peace to cheer us—
Every doubt and fear remove.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

Bring before us all the story,
Of thy life, and death of woe!
And with hopes of endless glory,
Wean our hearts from all below.

41

To him be glory.

Eph. 3: 21

P. M.

JESUS has died for me,
Glory to God!
From sin he set me free,
Glory to God!
And, if I trust his grace,
I soon shall win the race;
Then see his lovely face,
Glory to God.

2 Soon, I shall sing above,
Glory to God!
Tell of his wondrous love,
Glory to God;
Free from all death and wrong,
Then shall my notes prolong
One loud, triumphant song,
Glory to God!

42

Christ our confidence.

Cs & 45.

MY faith looks up to thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary:
Saviour divine,
Now hear me while I pray;
Take all my guilt away;
O, let me, from this day,
Be wholly thine.

2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart;
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
O, may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire.

THE CHURCH,

- 3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.
- 4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll;
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove;
O bear me safe above—
A ransomed soul.

543 The Cross—the power of God. 7s. & 1
1 Cor. 1: 18.

- I SAW the cross of Jesus
When burden'd with my sin;
I sought the cross of Jesus
To give me peace within:
I brought my soul to Jesus;
He cleans'd it in his blood;
And in the cross of Jesus
I found my peace with God.
- 2 I love the cross of Jesus—
It tells me what I am;
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb.
No righteousness, no merit,
No beauty can I plead;
Yet in the cross I glory,
My title there I read.
- 3 I clasp the cross of Jesus
In ev'ry trying hour,
My sure and certain refuge,
My never-failing tower.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

In every fear and conflict,
I more than conqueror am;
Living I'm safe, or dying,
Through Christ the risen Lamb.

- 4 Sweet is the cross of Jesus!
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace and safety
Till life itself depart.
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing thy wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter,
And death is known no more.

544 Communion of the body and blood of Christ. 1 M.
1 Cor. 10: 16.

HERE, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen;
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon thee lean.

- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear:
The feast, though not the love, is passed and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but thou art here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.
- 4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above—
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

545 Believing, we rejoice. H. M.
1 Peter 1: 8

YE saints, your music bring,
Attuned to sweetest sound,
Strike every trembling string,
Till earth and heaven resound;
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

THE CHURCH,

- 2 The cross, the cross alone,
Subdued the powers of hell;
Like light'ning from his throne
The prince of darkness fell,
The triumphs of the cross we sing,
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.
- 3 The cross hath power to save
From all the foes that rise;
The cross hath made the grave
A passage to the skies;
The triumphs of the cross we sing;
Awake, ye saints, each joyful string.

546 The true passover. 7s. 6 line

- ONCE the angel started back,
When he saw the blood-stained door,
Pausing on his vengeful track,
And the dwelling passing o'er.
Once the sea from Israel fled,
Ere it rolled o'er Egypt's dead.
- 2 Now our Passover is come
Dimly shadowed in the past,
And the very Paschal Lamb,
Christ, the Lord is slain at last.
Then with hearts and hands made meet,
Our unleavened bread we'll eat.
- 3 Blesséd Victim sent from heaven,
Whom all angel hosts obey,
To whose will all earth is given,
At whose word hell shrinks away,
Thou hast conquered death's dread rise,
Thou hast brought us light and life.

The Mercy Seat.

L. M.

FROM ev'ry stormy wind that blows,
From ev'ry swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat—
'T is found beneath the Mercy Seat.

- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all besides more sweet—
It is the blood-bought Mercy Seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet
Around one common Mercy Seat.
- 4 Ah! whither could we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismay'd;
Or how the host of hell defeat,
Had suff'ring souls no Mercy Seat?
- 5 There! there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense seem all no more,
And heav'n comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the Mercy Seat!
- 6 O let my hand forget her skill.
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This bounding heart forget to beat,
Ere I forget the Mercy Seat!

548

This is the gate of heaven.

Gen. 28: 17

L. M.

HOW sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour! on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee
Ah! Lord! behold us at thy feet—
Let this the “gate of heaven” be.
- 3 “Chief of ten thousand!” now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face:
O! grant, that we thy voice may hear.
And let thy presence fill this place.

549 For a business meeting. L M.

- BENIGNANT God of love and power,
Be with us in this solemn hour;
Smile on our souls; our plans approve,
By which we seek to spread thy love.
- 2 Let each discordant thought be gone,
And love unite our hearts in one;
Let all we have and are combine
To forward objects so divine.

550 Hour of prayer. L. M. D.

- SWEET hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer—
That calls me from a world of care, [er,
And bids me at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known!
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer.
- 2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer
The joy I feel, the bliss I share,
Of those whose anxious spirits burn
With strong desires for thy return
With such I hasten to the place
Where God my Saviour shows his face,
And gladly take my station there,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

3 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
 Thy wings shall my petition bear,
 To him whose truth and faithfulness
 Engage the waiting soul to bless;
 And since he bids me seek his face,
 Believe his word and trust his grace,
 I'll cast on him my every care.
 And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

551

Isaiah 57: 15.

L. M.

- JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
 There they behold thy mercy-seat;
 Where'er they seek thee, thou art found;
 And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For thou, within no walls confined,
 Inhabitest the humble mind;
 Such ever bring thee where they come,
 And, going, take thee to their home.
- 3 Dear Shepherd of thy chosen few,
 Thy former mercies here renew;
 Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
 The sweetness of thy saving name.
- 4 Here may we prove the power of prayer
 To strengthen faith and banish care;
 To teach our faint desires to rise,
 And bring all heaven before our eyes.

552

There am I.

L. M.

Matt. 18: 20.

- WHERE two or three with sweet accord
 Obedient to their sovereign Lord,
 Meet to recount his acts of grace,
 And offer solemn prayer and praise;
- 1 "There," says the Saviour, "will I be,
 Amid the little company;
 To them unvail my smiling face.
 And shed my glories round the place."

THE CHURCH.

- 3 We meet at thy command, O Lord,
Relying on thy faithful word;
Be present in each waiting heart,
And strength and heavenly peace impart.

553 No other friend can I desire. L. M.

- MY precious Lord, for thy dear name
I bear the cross, despise the shame;
Nor do I faint while thou art near;
I lean on thee, how can I fear?
- 2 No other name but thine is given
To cheer my soul in earth or heaven;
No other wealth will I require;
No other friend can I desire.
- 3 Yea, into nothing would I fall
For thee alone my All in all;
To feel thy love, my only joy;
To tell thy love, my sole employ.

554 Christ, all in all. L. M.
Col. 3: 11.

- O THOU pure light of souls that love,
True joy of every human breast,
Sower of life's immortal seed,
Our Saviour and Redeemer blest!
- 2 Be thou our guide, be thou our goal;
Be thou our pathway to the skies;
Our joy, when sorrow fills the soul;
In death our everlasting prize.
- 555 The tranquil hour. L. M.
- THOU, Saviour, from thy throne on high,
Enrobed with light, and girt with power,
Dost note the thought, the prayer, the sigh
Of hearts that love the tranquil hour.
- 2 Oft thou thyself didst steal away,
At eventide, from labor done,
In some still peaceful shade to pray,
Till morning watches were begun.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

- 3 Thou hast not, dearest Lord, forgot
Thy wrestlings on Judea's hills;
And still thou lov'st the quiet spot
Where praise the lowly spirit fills.
- 4 Now to our souls, withdrawn awhile
From earth's rude noise, thy face reveal;
And, as we worship, kindly smile,
And for thine own our spirits seal.
- 5 To thee we bring each grief and care.
To thee we fly while tempests lower;
Thou wilt the weary burdens bear
Of hearts that love the tranquil hour.

556 Exhortation to prayer. L M.

- WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat!
Yet who, that knows the worth of prayer,
But wishes to be often there?
- 2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.
 - 3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles, when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.
 - 4 Have you no words? Ah, think again;
Words flow apace when we complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all our care.
 - 5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord has done for me!"

557 They that believe do enter into rest. • I. M.
Heb. 4 3.

MY only Saviour! when I feel
O'erwhelmed in spirit, faint, oppressed,
'Tis sweet to tell thee, while I kneel
Low at thy feet, thou art my rest.

2 I'm weary of the strife within;
Strong powers against my soul contest;
O, let me turn from self and sin
To thy dear cross, for there is rest!

3 O! sweet will be the welcome day,
When from her toils and woes released,
My parting soul in death shall say,
"Now, Lord! I come to thee for rest."

558 Prayer for contentment. C. M.

FATHER, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sov'reign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise;

2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From ev'ry murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine,
My life, and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

559 Tempest-tossed. C. M

O JESUS, Saviour of the lost,
My Rock and Hiding-place,
By storms of sin and sorrow tost,
I seek thy sheltering grace.

2 Guilty, forgive me, Lord! I cry;
Pursued by foes, I come;
A sinner, save me, or I die;
An outcast, take me home.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS

- 3 Once safe in thine almighty arms,
 Let storms come on amain;
 There danger never, never harms;
 There death itself is gain.
- 4 And when I stand before thy throne
 And all thy glory see,
 Still be my righteousness alone
 To hide myself in thee.

560 Thy will be done. C. M.

- HOW sweet to be allowed to pray
 To God, the Holy One;
 With filial love and trust to say,
 O God, thy will be done."
- 2 We in these sacred words can find
 A cure for every ill;
 They calm and soothe the troubled mind
 And bid all care be still.
- 3 O let that Will which gave me breath
 And an immortal soul,
 In joy or grief, in life or death,
 My every wish control.
- 4 O, could my heart thus ever pray,
 Thus imitate thy Son!
 Teach me, O God, with truth to say,
 Thy will, not mine, be done.

561 Sanctify the Lord Goa in your hearts. C. M.
 1 Pet. 3: 15.

- WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power,
 Be my vain wishes stilled;
 And may this consecrated hour
 With better hopes be filled.
- 2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed;
 To thee my thoughts would soar;
 Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
 That mercy I adore.

THE CHURCH.

- 3 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see!
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by thee
- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear.
My heart shall find delight in praise.
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour;
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.
- 6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall banish fear;
That heart shall rest on thee.

562

Retirement and meditation.

C. M

- I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
- 2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear;
And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.
- 3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.
- 4 I love, by faith, to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
 May its departing ray
 Be calm as this impressive hour,
 And lead to endless day.

563 My Saviour died for me. C M

THOU art my hiding-place, O Lord,
 In thee I fix my trust,
 Encouraged by thy holy word,
 A feeble child of dust.

- 2 I have no argument beside
 I urge no other plea,
 And 't is enough—the Saviour died,
 The Saviour died for me.
- 3 When storms of fierce temptation beat,
 And furious foes assail,
 My refuge is the mercy-seat,
 My hope within the vail.
- 4 From strife of tongues and bitter words,
 My spirit flies to thee;
 Joy to my heart the thought affords—
 My Saviour died for me.
- 5 And when thy awful voice commands
 This body to decay,
 And life, in its last lingering san'g,
 Is ebbing fast away—
- 6 Then, though it be in accents weak,
 My voice shall call on Thee,
 And ask for strength in death to speak—
 “My Saviour died for me.”

564 Let us draw near. C. M

Heb. 10 : 22.

APPROACH, my soul, the mercy-seat,
 Where Jesus answers prayer;
 There humbly fall before his feet,
 For none can perish there.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to thee
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place;
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, "Thou hast died."
- 5 O, wondrous love, to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name!

565

Prayer.

C. M

- PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear;
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And say—"Behold, he prays."

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

- 3 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gate of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

566 Filled with all the fullness of God. C. M.

- O LORD, I would delight in thee,
And on thy care depend;
To thee in every trouble flee,
My best, my only Friend.
- 2 When all created streams are dried,
Thy fullness is the same:
May I with this be satisfied,
And glory in thy name!
- 3 No good in creatures can be found,
But what is found in thee:
I must have all things and abound
While God is God to me.
- 4 O that I had a stronger faith,
To look within the vail,—
To credit what my Saviour saith,
Whose word can never fail.
- 5 He who has made my heaven secure,
Will here all good provide:
While Christ is rich, can I be poor?
What can I want beside?
- 6 O Lord, I cast my care on thee;
I triumph and adore:
Henceforth my great concern shall be
To love and please thee more.

567 Ask and it shall be given you. S. M.
Luke 11: 9.

JESUS, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do;
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 3 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down, and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill;
- 4 A soul inured to pain,
To hardships, grief, and loss;
Bold to take up, firm to sustain
The consecrated cross;
- 5 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;
- 6 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

568 Opening prayer meeting. S. M.

- IT is the hour of prayer:
I Draw near and bend the knee,
And fill the calm and holy air
With voice of melody!
O'erwearied with the heat
And burden of the day,
Now let us rest our wandering feet
And gather here to pray.
- 2 O, blessed is the hour
That lifts our hearts on high!
Like sunlight when the tempests lower
Prayer to the soul is nigh;
Though dark may be our lot,
Our eyes be dim with care,
These saddening thoughts shall trouble
This holy hour of prayer.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

569

Come, let us pray.

C. H. M.

COME. let us pray : 't is sweet to feel
That God himself is near ;
That, while we at his footstool kneel,
His mercy deigns to hear :
Though sorrows cloud life's dreary way,
This is our solace—let us pray.

2 Come, let us pray : the burning brow,
The heart oppressed with care,
And all the woes that throng us now,
Will be relieved by prayer :
Jesus will smile our griefs away ;
O, glorious thought!—come, let us pray.

3 Come. let us pray : the mercy-seat
Invites the fervent prayer,
And Jesus ready stands to greet
The contrite spirit there :
O, loiter not, nor longer stay
From him who loves us ; let us pray.

570

Invitation to prayer.

S. M.

COME to the house of pray'r,
O thou afflicted, come ;
The God of peace shall meet thee there ;
He makes that house his home.

2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now ;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.

1 Ye aged, hither come,
For you have felt his love ;
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.

THE CHURCH.

- 4 Ye young, before his throne
Come, bow; your voices raise;
Let not your hearts his praise disown
Who gives the pow'r to praise.
- 5 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all,—
Who see'st the tear of misery,
And hear'st the mourner's call—
- 6 Up to thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heav'n on earth be won.

571 Heavenly places. 7s. 6 lin

- I F't is sweet to mingle where
Christians meet for social prayer;
If't is sweet with them to raise
Songs of holy joy and praise—
Passing sweet that state must be,
Where they meet eternally.
- 2 Saviour, may these meetings prove
Antepasts to that above;
While we worship in this place,
May we go from grace to grace,
Till we each, in his degree,
Fit for endless glory be.

572 Deliver us from evil.

- H EAVENLY Father! to whose eye
Future things unfolded lie;
Through the desert when I stray
Let thy counsels guide my way
- 2 Lord! uphold me day by day;
Shed a light upon my way;
Guide me through perplexing snares
Care for me in all my cares.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

Should thy wisdom, Lord, decree
Trials long and sharp for me,
Pain, or sorrow, care or shame,—
Father! glorify thy name.

Let me neither faint nor fear,
Feeling still that thou art near;
In the course my Saviour trod,
Sending home to thee, my God.

3 God is present everywhere.

76

THEY who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.

In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

When our earthly comforts fail,
When the woes of life prevail,
'T is the time for earnest prayer;
God is present everywhere.

Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father come, and wait;
He will answer every prayer;
God is present everywhere.

4 Lift the heart, and bend the knee.

76.

CHILD, amid the flowers at play,
While the red light fades away
Mother, with thine earnest eye
Ever following silently;

Father, by the breeze of eve,
Called thy daily toil to leave,
Pray! ere yet the dark hours be,
Lift the heart, and bend the knee!

THE CHURCH.

- 3 Traveler in the stranger's land
Far from thine own household band;
Mourner, haunted by the tone
Of a voice from this world gone;
- 4 Captive, in whose narrow cell
Sunshine hath not leave to dwell;
Sailor, on the darkening sea,
Lift the heart, and bend the knee!
- 5 Ye that triumph, ye that sigh,
Kindred by one holy tie,
Heaven's first star alike ye see;
Lift the heart, and bend the knee!

575

Lead me, O Lord.

71

- SHEPHERD of thy little flock,
Lead me to the shadowing rock,
Where the richest pasture grows;
Where the living water flows;
- 2 By that pure and silent stream.
Sheltered from the scorching beam;
Shepherd, Saviour, Guardian, Guide,
Keep me ever near thy side.

576

Draw near with a true heart. 7s, 6 lines
Heb. 10 : 22.

- HOLY Lord, our hearts prepare
For the solemn work of prayer;
Grant that while we bend the knee,
All our thoughts may turn to thee;
Let thy presence here be found.
Breathing peace and joy around.
- 2 Lord, when we approach thy throne,
Make thy power and glory known
Thus may we be taught to call
Humbly on the Lord of all.
And with reverence and fear
At thy footstool to appear.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS

Teach us, as we breathe our woes,
On thy promise to repose;
All thy tender love to trace
In the Saviour's work of grace;
And with confidence depend
On a gracious God and Friend.

77 The Lord make his face shine upon thee. 78
Num. 6: 25.

STEALING from the world away,
We are come to seek thy face;
Kindly meet us, Lord, we pray,
Grant us thy reviving grace.

- 2 Yonder stars that gild the sky,
Shine but with a borrowed light;
We, unless thy light be nigh,
Wander, wrapt in gloomy night.
- 3 Sun of Righteousness! dispel
All our darkness, doubts and fears
May thy light within us dwell,
Till eternal day appears.

78 Hear us when to thee we cry. 78. dou'

SAVIOUR, when in dust to thee
Low we bow th' adoring knee:
When repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our streaming eyes;
O, by all thy pains and wo,
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear us when to thee we cry.

- 2 By thy birth and early years.
By thy human griefs and fears,
By thy fasting and distress
In the lonely wilderness ;

THE CHURCH.

By thy vict'ry in the hour
Of the subtle tempter's power;
Jesus look with pitying eye,
Hear our humble, earnest cry.

3 By thine hour of dark despair,
By thine agony of prayer,
By thy purple robe of scorn,
By thy wounds, thy crown of thorn,
By thy cross, thy pangs and cries,
By thy perfect sacrifice;
Jesus, look with pitying eye,
Listen to our humble cry.

4 By thy deep expiring groan,
By the seal'd sepulchral stone,
By thy triumph o'er the grave.
By thy power from death to save:
Dying, ris'n, ascended, Lord,
To thy throne in heaven restored,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear us when to thee we cry.

579

Evening, and morning, etc.

7s &

Psalm 55: 1"

GO, when the morning shineth,
Go, when the noon is bright,
Go, when the eve declineth,
Go, in the hush of night;
Go with pure mind and feeling,
Put earthly thoughts away,
And, in God's presence kneeling,
Do thou in secret pray.

2 Remember all who love thee,
All who are loved by thee;
Pray, too, for those who hate thee,
If any such there be;

THE CHURCH.

- 2 Blest is the tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that hour of solemn eve,
When, on the wings of prayer up-borne,
The world I leave.
- 3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.
- 4 No words can tell what sweet relief
There for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What peace of mind!
- 5 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;
And e'en the penitential tear
Is wiped away.
- 6 Lord! till I reach that blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

582 Casting all your care upon him. C. P. M.
1 Pet. 5: 7.

- O LORD! how happy should we be,
If we could leave our cares to thee,
If we from self could rest,
And feel at heart that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love
Is working for the best.
- 2 For when we kneel and cast our care
Upon our God in humble prayer,
With strengthened souls we rise;
Sure that our Father, who is nigh
To hear the ravens when they cry,
Will hear his children's cries.

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

- 3 O! would these restless hearts of ours
 The lesson learn from birds and flower-,
 And learn from self to cease;
 Leave all things to our Father's will,
 And in his mercy trusting still,
 Find in each trial, peace.

583

Faint, yet pursuing.

11s.

Judges 8: 4.

- THOUGH faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
 The Lord is our Leader, his Word is our stay;
 Though suff'ring, and sorrow, and trial, be near,
 The Lord is our refuge, and whom can we fear?
- 2 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint;
 The weak and oppressed, he will hear their complaint
 The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
 But how can we falter? our help is in God.
- 3 And to his green pastures our footsteps he leads;
 His flock in the desert, how kindly he feeds!
 The lambs in his bosom he tenderly bears,
 And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.
- 4 Though clouds may surround us, our God is our light;
 Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
 So faint, yet pursuing, still onward we come;
 The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home.

584

For divine strength.

11s & 10s.

- FATHER, in thy mysterious presence kneeling,
 Fain would our souls feel all thy kindling love,
 For we are weak, and need some deep revealing
 Of trust, and strength, and calmness, from above.
- 2 Lord, we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
 And thou hast made each step an onward one;
 And we will ever trust each unknown morrow—
 Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.
- 3 In the heart's depths, a peace serene and holy Abides, and when pain seems to have her will,
 Or we despair—O may that peace rise slowly,
 Stronger than agony, and we be still.
- 4 Now, Father, now, in thy dear presence kneeling,
 Our spirits yearn to feel thy kindling love:
 Now make us strong, we need thy deep revealing
 Of trust, and strength, and calmness, from above

THE CHURCH.

585

The house of prayer.

11s.

HOW honored, how dear, is that sacred abode,
Where Christians draw near to their Father and God;
'Mid worldly commotion my wearied soul faints
For the house of devotion, the home of thy saints.

- 2 Thou hearer of prayer, O still grant me a place
Where Christians repair to the courts of thy grace,
More blest beyond measure one day so employed,
Than years of vain pleasure by worldlings enjoyed.

Me more would it please keeping post at thy gate,
Than lying at ease in the chambers of state;
The meanest condition outshines with thy smiles,
The pomp of ambition, the world with its wiles.

- 4 The Lord is a Sun, and the Lord is a Shield;
What grace has begun will with glory be sealed;
He hears the distressed, he succors the just,
And they shall be blessed who make him their trust.

586

Come ye disconsolate.

11s & 10s.

COME, ye disconsolate, where'er you languish,
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish—
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal.

- 2 Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure!
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not cure.

- 3 Here see the bread of life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above:
Come to the feast of love; come, ever-knowing,
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

587

Hear, Father, hear our prayer.

P. M.

HEAR, Father, hear our prayer!
Thou who art pity where sorrow prevailloth,
Thou who art safety when mortal help falleth,
Strength to the feeble and hope to despair,
Hear, Father, hear our prayer!

- 2 Hear, Father, hear our prayer!
Wandering alone in the land of the stranger,
Be with all travelers in sickness or danger,
Guard thou their path, guide their feet from the snare:
Hear, Father, hear our prayer!

PRAYER AND SOCIAL MEETINGS.

- 3 Hear thou the poor that cry !
 Feed thou the hungry and lighten their sorrow,
 Grant them the sunshine of hope for the morrow;
 They are thy children, their trust is on high :
 Hear thou the poor that cry !
- 4 Dry thou the mourner's tear !
 Heal thou the wounds of time-hallowed affection ;
 Grant to the widow and orphan protection ;
 Be, in their trouble, a friend ever near ;
 Dry thou the mourner's tear !
- 5 Hear, Father, hear our prayer !
 Long hath thy goodness our footsteps attended ;
 Be with the pilgrim whose journey is ended :
 When at thy summons for death we prepare,
 Hear, Father, hear our prayer !

588

Prayer of the contrite.

11s & 5.

- FROM the recesses of a lowly spirit,
 Our humble prayer ascends ; O Father ! hear it,
 Upsoaring on the wings of awe and meekness ;
 Forgive its weakness !
- 2 We see thy hand : it leads us, it supports us ;
 We hear thy voice ; it counsels and it courts us ;
 And then we turn away ; and still thy kindness
 Forgives our blindness.
 - 3 O, how long-suffering, Lord ! but thou delightest
 To win with love the wandering ; thou invitest,
 By smiles of mercy, not by frowns or terrors,
 Man from his errors.
 - 4 Father and Saviour ! plant within each bosom
 The seeds of holiness, and bid them blossom
 In fragrance and in beauty bright and vernal,
 And spring eternal.

589

Strengthened with might, etc.

11s & 10s

Eph. 3 : 16.

- FATHER, to us thy children, humbly kneeling,
 Conscious of weakness, ignorance, sin and shame
 Give such a force of holy thought and feeling,
 That we may live to glorify thy name :
- 2 That we may conquer base desire and passion,
 That we may rise from selfish thought and will,
 Overcome the world's allurements, threat and fashion,
 Walk humbly, gently, leaning on thee still.

THE CHURCH.

- 3 Let all thy loving kindness which attends us,
 Let all thy mercy on our souls be sealed,
 Lord, if thou wilt, thy saving power can cleanse us:
 O, speak the word! thy servants shall be healed.

590

Lead thou me on.

P. 1

- SHED kindly light amid the encircling gloom,
 And lead me on!
 The night is dark, and I am far from home,
 Lead thou me on!
 Keep thou my feet: I do not ask to see
 The distant scene: one step enough for me.
- 2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
 Shouldst lead me on!
 I loved to choose and see my path, but now
 Lead thou me on!
 I loved day's dazzling light, and spite of fears
 Pride ruled my will; remember not past years!
- 3 So long thy power hath blessed me, surely still
 'T will lead me on!
 Through dreary doubt, through pain and sorrow, till
 The night is gone!
 And with the morn those angel faces smile
 Which I have loved long since and lost awhile.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPH

591

Put on thy strength, O Zion.

L. 1

Isaiah 52: 1.

- TRIPHANT Zion! lift thy head
 From dust, and darkness, and the dead
 Though humbled long—awake at length.
 And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength
- 2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
 And let thy excellence be known;
 Decked in the robes of righteousness,
 The world thy glories shall confess.
- 3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
 And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
 No more shall hell's insulting host
 Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

- 4 God, from on high, has heard thy prayer;
His hand thy ruins shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace

592 All nations shall serve him. L. M.
Psalm 72: 11

ETERNAL Lord! from land to land
Shall echo thine all-glorious name,
Till kingdoms bow at thy command,
And every lip thy praise proclaim.

- 2 Exalted high, on every shore,
The banner of the cross unfurled,
Shall summon thousands to adore
The Saviour of a ransomed world.
- 3 Thousands shall join thy pilgrim band,
And, by that sacred standard led,
Press forward to Immanuel's land,
Nor fear the thorny path to tread.
- 4 Triumphant over every foe,
Their ransomed hosts shall move along
To that blest world, where sin and woe
Shall never mingle with their song.

593 Put on thy beautiful garments. L. M.
Isaiah 62: 1

- ZION, awake; thy strength renew;
Put on thy robes of beauteous hue;
Church of our God, arise and shire,
Bright with the beams of truth divine.
- 2 Soon shall thy radiance stream afar,
Wide as the heathen nations are;
Gentiles and kings thy light shall view;
All shall admire and love thee too.

Zion's prospects.

C. M

- LET Zion and her sons rejoice,
Behold the promised hour;
Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
And comes t' exalt his power.
- 2 Her dust and ruins, that remain,
Are precious in his eyes;
Those ruins shall be built again,
And all that dust shall rise.
- 3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
And stand in glory there;
All nations bow before his name,
And kings attend with fear.
- 4 He frees the soul condemned to death;
Nor, when his saints complain,
Shall it be said that praying breath
Was ever spent in vain.
- 5 This shall be known when we are dead,
And left on long record,
That ages yet unborn may read
And praise and trust the Lord.

595

Isaiah 62.

C. M

- FOR Zion's sake I will not rest,
I will not hold my peace
Until Jerusalem be blest,
And Judah dwell at ease;
- 2 Until her righteousness return
As daybreak after night,—
The lamp of her salvation burn
With everlasting light.
- 3 The Gentiles shall her glory see,
And kings declare her fame;
Appointed unto her shall be
A new and holy name.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

- 4 The watchmen on her walls appear,
And day and night proclaim,
"Zion's Deliverer is near;
Make mention of his name."
5 Go through, go through, prepare the way
The gates wide open fling;
With loudest voice let heralds say,
"Behold thy coming King."

Canticles 6: 10.

- SAY, who is she that looks abroad
Like the sweet, blushing dawn,
When with her living light she paints
The dew-drops of the lawn?
2 Fair as the moon when in the skies
Serene her throne she guides,
And o'er the twinkling stars supreme
In full orb'd glory rides;
3 Clear as the sun, when from the east,
Without a cloud he springs,
And scatters boundless light and heat,
From his resplendent wings.
4 Tremendous as a host that moves
Majestically slow,
With banners wide display'd, all arm'd
And fearless of the foe!
5 This is the church by heaven arrayed
With strength and grace divine;
Thus shall she strike her foes with dread.
And thus her glories shine.

597

All nations shall flow unto it.

C. M

Isaiah 2: 2.

BEHOLD the mountain of the Lord
In latter days shall rise,
On mountain tops above the hills,
And draw the wond'ring eyes.

THE CHURCH.

- 2 To this the joyful nations round,
All tribes and tongues shall flow
Up to the hill of God, they'll say
And to his house we'll go!
- 3 The beam that shines from Zion
Shall lighten ev'ry land!
The King who reigns in Salem's
Shall all the world command.
- 4 No strife shall vex Messiah's reign
Or mar the peaceful years,
To plowshares men shall beat the
To pruning-hooks their spear.
- 5 No longer hosts encountering here
Their millions slain deplore;
They hang the trumpet in the hall
And staid war no more.
- 6 Come, then—O come from every
To worship at his shrine;
And, walking in the light of God
With holy beauties shine.

598 We look for thine appearing.

- COME, O thou mighty Saviour
We look for thine appearing
Descend we pray,
Thy love display,
Our waiting spirits cheering.
- 2 Come, clothed with glorious power
Let all thy saints adore thee,
And let thy word,
The Spirit's sword,
Subdue thy foes before thee.
 - 3 May every heart with gladness,
Thine offered grace receiving,
Now cease from sin,
And pure within,
Have peace, in thee believing.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

- 4 Then, when thou com'st to judgment,
On flying clouds descending,
May we rejoice,
When, at thy voice,
The solid earth is rending.

599 I, the Lord will hasten it in his time. 7s.
Isaiah 60: 22.

- HASTEN, Lord! the glorious time,
When, beneath Messiah's sway,
Every nation, every clime,
Shall the gospel call obey.
- 2 Mightiest kings his power shall own,
Heathen tribes his name adore;
Satan and his host, o'erthrown,
Bound in chains shall hurt no more.
- 3 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
Then be banished grief and pain;
Righteousness, and joy, and peace,
Undisturbed shall ever reign.
- 4 Bless we, then, our gracious Lord!
Ever praise his glorious name;
All his mighty acts record,
All his wondrous love proclaim.

600 Rev. 19: 6. 7s. double.

- HARK! the song of Jubilee,
Loud as mighty thunders roar,
Or the fullness of the sea,
When it breaks upon the shore!
Hallelujah! for the Lord
God omnipotent, shall reign!
Hallelujah! let the word
Echo round the earth and main.
- 2 Hallelujah! hark, the sound,
From the depths unto the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies!

THE CHURCH.

See Jehovah's banner furled,
Sheathed his sword; he speaks—'tis done
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of his Son!

- 3 He shall reign from pole to pole,
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when like a scroll
Yonder heavens have passed away.
Then the end: beneath his rod
Man's last enemy shall fall:
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ, is all in all!

601 Future peace and glory of the church. 8s & 7a

- HEAR what God, the Lord, hath spoken:
O my people, faint and few,
Comfortless, afflicted, broken.
Fair abodes I build for you;
Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
Shall no more perplex your ways;
You shall name your walls salvation,
And your gates shall all be praise.
- 2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow;
For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
All his bounty shall bestow;
Still in undisturbed possession
Peace and righteousness shall reign;
Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.
- 4 You, no more your suns descending,
Waning moons no more shall see;
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me;

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night,
He, the Lord, shall be your glory,
God your everlasting light

The day-spring.

8s. 7s & 4

Luke 1: 78.

CHRISTIAN! see! the orient morning
Breaks along the heathen sky;
Lo! the expected day is dawning—
Glorious day-spring from on high;
Hallelujah!—

Hail the day-spring from on high!

Heathens at the sight are singing;
Morning wakes the tuneful lays;
Precious offerings they are bringing—
First-fruits of more perfect praise;
Hallelujah!—

Hail the day-spring from on high!

Zion's Sun!—salvation beaming—
Gilding now the radiant hills—
Rise and shine, till brighter gleaming,
All the world thy glory fills;
Hallelujah!—

Hail the day-spring from on high!

Lord of every tribe and nation!
Spread thy truth from pole to pole;
Spread the light of thy salvation
Till it shine on every soul;
Hallelujah!—

Hail the day-spring from on high!

3

Encouraging prospects.

8s, 7s & 4

YES, we trust the day is breaking;
Joyful times are near at hand;
God, the mighty God, is speaking,
By his word, in every land:

THE CHURCH,

When he chooses,
Darkness flies at his command.

- 2 While the foe becomes more daring,
While he enters like a flood,
God, the Saviour, is preparing
Means to spread his truth abroad:
Ev'ry language
Soon shall tell the love of God.
- 3 O, 't is pleasant, 't is reviving
To our hearts, to hear, each day,
Joyful news, from far arriving,
How the gospel wins its way,
Those enlight'ning
Who in death and darkness lay.
- 4 God of Jacob, high and glorious,
Let thy people see thy hand;
Let the gospel be victorious,
Through the world, in every land;
Then shall idols
Perish, Lord, at thy command.

604 How beautiful on the mountains. 8s, 7s &
Isaiah 52: 7.

ON the mountain's top appearing,
Lo! the sacred herald stands,
Welcome news to Zion bearing—
Zion long in hostile lands:
Mourning captive,
God himself will loose thy bands.

- 2 Has thy night been long and mournful
Have thy friends unfaithful prov'd?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful
By thy sighs and tears unmov'd?—
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well-belov'd.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

- 3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
 He himself appears thy Friend;
 All thy foes shall flee before thee;
 Here their boasts and triumphs end:
 Great deliv'rance
 Zion's King will surely send.
- 4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
 All thy warfare now be past;
 God thy Saviour will defend thee;
 Victory is thine at last;
 All thy conflicts
 End in everlasting rest.

605 Awake, awake, O Zion. 11s.
 Isaiah 52: 1.

- DAUGHTER of Zion, awake from thy sadness;
 Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more:
 Bright o'er the hills dawns the day-star of gladness,
 Arise, for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.
- 2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm that subdued them,
 And scatter'd their legions, was mightier far; [them,
 They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge that pursued
 Vain were their steeds and their chariots of war.
- 3 Daughter of Zion, the pow'r that hath sav'd thee,
 Extoll'd with the harp and the timbrel should be;
 Shout! for the foe is destroy'd that enslav'd thee,
 Th' oppressor is vanquish'd, and Zion is free.

606 In thy majesty, etc. 12s, 11s & 8.
 Psalms 45: 4.

- THE Prince of Salvation in triumph is riding,
 And glory attends him along his bright way;
 The news of his grace on the breezes is gliding,
 And nations are owning his sway.
- 2 And now through the darkness of earth's gloomy regions,
 The wheels of his chariot are rolling sublime;
 His banners unfolding his own true religion,
 Dispelling the errors of time.
- Behold a bright angel from heaven descending,
 High lifting his trumpet, hosannas to raise:
 "Hail, Son of the Highest! let every knee bending,
 Adore thee with off'rings of praise.

THE CHURCH.

- 4 "Thy sword and thy buckler shall save and deliver
The poor and the needy, from foes that assail;
Thy bow and thy quiver shall vanquish for ever
The prince and the legions of hell.
- 5 "Ride on in thy greatness, thou conquering Saviour;
Let thousands of thousands submit to thy reign,
Acknowledge thy goodness, entreat for thy favor,
And follow thy glorious train.
- 6 "Ride on, till the compass of thy great dominion,
The globe shall encircle from pole unto pole;
And mankind, cemented with friendship and union,
Obey thee with heart and with soul.
- 7 "Then loud shall ascend from each sanctified nation
The voice of thanksgiving, the chorus of praise;
And heaven shall echo the song of salvation,
In rich and melodious lays."

607

Shout, inhabitant of Zion.

P. M

Isaiah 12: 6.

- ZION, the marvelous story be telling,
The Son of the Highest, how lowly his birth!
The brightest of angels in glory excelling,
He stoops to redeem thee—he reigns upon earth.
Shout the glad tidings! exultingly sing,
Jerusalem triumphs! Messiah is King!
- 2 Tell how he cometh from nation to nation,
The heart-cheering news let the earth echo round,
How free to the sinner he offers salvation!
How his people with joy everlasting are crown'd!
Shout the glad tidings! exultingly sing,
Jerusalem triumphs! Messiah is King!
- 2 Mortals, your homage be gratefully bringing,
And sweet let the glad some hosanna arise;
You angels, the full hallelujah be singing—
One chorus resound through the earth and the skies
Shout the glad tidings! exultingly sing,
Jerusalem triumphs! Messiah is King!

608

Hail to the brightness.

11s & 10s

HAIL to the brightness of Zion's glad morning!
Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain;
Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning,
Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.

ITS GROWTH AND FUTURE TRIUMPHS.

- 2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold;
Hail to the millions from bondage returning,
Gentiles and Jews the blest vision behold.
- 3 Lo! in the desert rich flowers are springing,
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
Wastes rise in verdure and mingle in song.
- 4 See, from all lands—from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

309 Gird on thy sword, O most mighty! H. M.
Psalm 45: 3.

- GIRD on thy conquering sword,
Ascend thy shining car,
And march, almighty Lord!
To wage thy holy war.
Before his wheels, in glad surprise,
Ye valleys, rise, and sink, ye hills.
- 1 Fair truth and smiling love,
And injured righteousness,
Under thy banners move,
And seek from thee redress;
Thou in their cause shall prosperous ride,
And far and wide dispense thy laws.
- 2 Before thine awful face
Millions of foes shall fall,
The captives of thy grace—
The grace that capt ives all.
The world shall know, great King of kings,
What wondrous things thine arm can do.
Here to my willing soul
Bend thy triumphant way;
Here every foe control.
And all thy power display;
My heart, thy throne, blest Jesus! see,
Bows low to thee, to thee alone.

Joyful tidings.

P. M

O LET the joyful tidings fill the wide creation,
 Heirs of redeeming mercy spread the news around;
 Jesus, Immanuel, shall rule o'er every nation,
 Far as the guilty race of man is found.
 Now while the night of ages fills the world with sadness,
 Now while the prince of darkness rages in his madness:
 O, Sun of Righteousness, thy cheering beams display,
 Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day!

- 2 O Father, let thy blessing with thy saints abounding,
 Fill every breast with zeal, the gospel to proclaim;
 O sing Jerusalem, thy gates with joy surrounding,
 While distant isles rejoice in Jesus' name.
 Watchmen of Zion, sound aloud the note of warning,
 Till earth's benighted nations hail the glorious morning;
 O, Sun of Righteousness, thy cheering beams display,
 Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day!
- 3 Deep is the desolation of the race benighted, [fear;
 Fast bound in ignorance, o'erwhelmed with guilt and
 Folly and superstition every hope have blighted,
 Save where the rays of truth divine appear.
 Haste, haste, ye messengers, reveal the wondrous story,
 Tell of the cross, and of the coming tide of glory;
 Then, Sun of Righteousness, thy cheering beams display,
 Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day.

PUBLIC WORSHIP, THE LORD'S DAY.

611

It is a good thing to give thanks, etc. L. M.
 Psalm 92: 1.

SWEET is the work, my God! my King!
 To praise thy name, give thanks and sing;
 To show thy love by morning light,
 And talk of all thy truth at night.

- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
 No mortal care shall seize my breast;
 O! may my heart in tune be found,
 Like David's harp of solemn sound.
- 3 My heart shall triumph in the Lord,
 And bless his works, and bless his word;
 Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
 How deep thy counsels! how divine!

THE LORD'S DAY.

4. Lord! I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.
- 5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

612

As it began to dawn.

L. M.

Matt. 28: 1.

- MY opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee,
While thus my early vows I pay.
- 2 I yield my heart to thee alone,
Nor would receive another guest:
Eternal King, erect thy throne,
And reign sole monarch in my breast.
- 3 O, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away;
Nor let me feel one vain desire,
One sinful thought, through all the day
- 4 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing

613

The Lord's day.

L. M

- O SACRED day of peace and joy.
Thy hours are ever dear to me;
Ne'er may a sinful thought destroy
The holy calm I find in thee.
- 2 Dear are thy peaceful hours to me,
For God has given them in his love,
To tell how calm, how blest shall be
The endless day of heaven above.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

614

Christ is risen

- HAIL! morning known among
Morning of hope, and joy, and
Of heav'nly peace and holy rest;
Pledge of the endless rest above
- 2 Bless'd be the Father of our Lord
Who from the dead has brought
Hope to the lost was their restor'
And everlasting glory won.
- 3 Scarce morning twilight had begun
To chase the shades of night away
When Christ arose—unsettling Sun
The dawn of joy's eternal day!
- 4 Mercy look'd down with smiling face
When our Immanuel left the dead
Faith mark'd his bright ascent on
And Hope with gladness rais'd
- 5 God's goodness let us bear in mind
Who to his saints this day has
For rest and serious joy design'd
To fit us for the bliss of heav'n

615

Lord's-day evening.

- SWEET is the fading light of evening
And soft the sunbeams linger
For these blest hours the world
Wafted on wings of praise and song
- 2 The time, how lovely and how still
Peace shines and smiles on all
The plain, the stream, the wood.
All fair with evening's setting
- 3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melody
And while these sacred moments
Faith sees a smiling heaven above

THE LORD'S DAY.

Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod,
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

6 Return unto thy rest, O my soul. L. M.
Psalm 116: 7.

ANOTHER six days' work is done;
Another day of rest begun,
Return, my soul, enjoy the rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blest.

2 O that our thoughts and thanks may rise
As grateful incense to the skies;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose
Which none but he that feels it knows.

3 This heavenly calm within the breast
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the Church of God remains,
The end of cares, the end of pains.

7 There remaineth a rest to the people of God. L. M.
Heb. 4: 9.

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our laboring souls aspire,
With ardent pangs of strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans to mingle with the songs
Which warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes;
No cares to break the long repose;
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin,
Dawn on these realms of wo and sin;
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

618 This is the day which the Lord hath made. C
Psalm 118:

COME, let us join with one accord
In hymns around the throne;
This is the day our risen Lord
Hath made and called his own.

2 This is the day which God has bless'd
The brightest of the sev'n,
Type of the everlasting rest
The saints enjoy in heav'n.

3 Then let us in his name sing on,
And hasten on that day,
When our Redeemer shall come down
And shadows pass away.

4 Not one, but all our days below,
Our hearts his praise employ;
And in our Lord rejoicing go
To his eternal joy.

619 We will rejoice and be glad in it. C.
Psalm 118: 24

THIS is the day the Lord hath made
He calls the hours his own;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day he rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints his triumphs spread
And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to th' anointed King,
To David's holy Son;
Help us, O Lord—descend and bring
Salvation from thy throne.

4 Blessed be the Lord who comes to me
With messages of grace;
Who comes in God his Father's name
To save our sinful race.

THE LORD'S DAY.

Hosanna in the highest strains
The church on earth can raise;
The highest heavens in which he reigns
Shall give him nobler praise.

0 I will praise thee with my whole heart. C. M.
Psalm 9 : 1.

O FATHER! though the anxious fear
May cloud to-morrow's way,
No fear nor doubt shall enter here;
All shall be thine to-day.
We will not bring divided hearts
To worship at thy shrine;
But each unworthy thought departs,
And leaves this temple thine.
Sleep, sleep to-day, tormenting cares,
Of earth and folly born;
Ye shall not dim the light that streams
From this celestial morn.

1 Lev. 23 : 11 & 1 Cor. 15 : 20. C. M.

THIS is the day the first ripe sheaf
Before the Lord was wav'd,
And Christ, first-fruits of them that slept,
Was from the dead receiv'd.
He rose for them for whom he died,
That, like to him, they may
Rise when he comes, in glory great,
That ne'er shall fade away.
This is the day the Spirit came
With us on earth to stay—
A comforter, to fill our hearts
With joys that ne'er decay.
His comforts are the earnest sure
Of that same heav'nly rest
Which Jesus enter'd on, when he
Was made for ever blest.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 5 This day the Christian Church begun,
Form'd by his wondrous grace;
This day the saints in concord meet,
To join in prayer and praise.

622 He hath abolished death. C. M.
2 Tim. 1 : 10.

- THE Saviour ris'n to-day we praise
In concert with the blest;
For now we see his work complete,
And enter into rest.
- 2 On this first day a brighter scene
Of glory was display'd
By the Creating Word, than when
The universe was made.
- 3 He rises who mankind has bought
With grief and pain extreme: [nought,
'Twas great to speak the world from
'Twas greater to redeem.
- 4 How vain the stone, the watch, the seal!
Nought can forbid his rise:
'Tis he who shuts the gates of hell,
And opens Paradise.

623 The type of endless rest. C. M.

- WHEN the worn spirit wants repose,
And sighs her God to seek,
How sweet to hail the evening's close,
That ends the weary week!
- 2 How sweet to hail the early dawn,
That opens on the sight,
When first that soul-reviving morn
Sheds forth new rays of light!
- 3 Sweet day! thine hours too soon will cease;
Yet, while they gently roll, [peace,
Breathe, gracious Lord, thou source of
A Sabbath o'er my soul!

THE LORD'S DAY.

- 4 When will my pilgrimage be done,
The world's long week be o'er;
That Sabbath dawn, which needs no sun,
That day, which fades no more!

624

This is the Lord's doing.

S. M.

Psalm 118: 23

- THIS is the glorious day,
That our Redeemer made;
Let us rejoice and sing and pray,
Let all the church be glad.
- 2 The work, O Lord, is thine,
And wondrous in our eyes;
This day declares it all divine,
This day did Jesus rise.
- 3 Hosanna to the King,
Of David's royal blood;
Bless him, you saints, he comes to bring Salvation from your God.
- 4 We bless thy Holy Word,
Which all this grace displays,
And offer on thine altar, Lord,
Our sacrifice of praise.

625

The righteous doth sing and rejoice. S. M.

Prov. 29: 6.

- SWEET is the task, O Lord,
Thy glorious acts to sing,
To praise thy name, and hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, at the dawning hour,
Thy boundless love to tell;
And when the night-wind shuts the flower,
Still on the theme to dwell.
- 3 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 4 To songs of praise and joy
May all our days be given,
That such may be our best employ
Eternally in heaven.

626 Welcome, sweet day of rest. S. M.

WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise,
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes.

- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here may we sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

- 3 One day, amid the place
Where Christ, my Lord, hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Within the tents of sin.

- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

627 I was glad. S. P. M.
Psalm 122: 1.

HOW pleased and blessed was I,
To hear the people cry.—

“Come, let us seek our God to-day!”
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion’s hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

- 2 Zion! thrice happy place,
Adorned with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round,
In thee our tribes appear
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel’s joyful sound.

THE LORD'S DAY.

- 3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase -
A thousand blessings on him rest!

628 Hail the day that saw him rise. 7s. dou'

- HAIL the day that saw him rise,
Ravish'd from his people's eyes;
Christ, awhile to mortals giv'n,
Re-ascends his native heav'n.
There the glorious triumph waits—
"Lift your heads, you heav'nly gates,
Wide unfold the radiant scene,
Take the King of glory in."
- 2 He, whom highest heav'n receives,
Ever loves the friends he leaves;
Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls his saints his own;
Still for us he intercedes,
Prevalent his death he pleads;
Near himself prepares a place,
Harbinger of human race.
- 3 Taken from our eyes to-day,
Master, hear us when we pray;
See thy needy servants, see,
Ever gazing up to thee:
Grant, though parted from our sight,
Far above you azure hight,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Follow thee beyond the skies.
- 4 Ever upward let us move,
Wafted on the wings of love;
Looking when the Lord shall come,
Longing, reaching after home;

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

There for ever to remain,
Partners of thy endless reign;
There thy face unclouded see,
Find our heav'n of heav'ns in thee.

Springs in the desert. 7s, 6 lir
Isalah 49: 10.

SAFELY through another week
God has brought us on our way,
Let us each a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts to-day:
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.

- 2 While we seek supplies of grace
Through the blest Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciling face,
Take away our sin and shame:
From our worldly care set free,
May we rest this day in thee.
- 3 Here we come thy name to praise,
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes,
While we in thy house appear;
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting rest.
- 4 May the gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners—comfort saints—
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief to all complaints:
Thus let all our worship prove,
Till we join thy courts above.
- 5 Glory be to God on high—
God, whose glory fills the sky;
Glory to the Lamb be giv'n—
Glory in the highest heav'n:
Wisdom, riches, praise, and pow'r,
Be to God for evermore.

THE LORD'S DAY.

630

The resurrection celebrated.

H. M

- A WAKE, ye saints, awake,
And hail the sacred day ;
In loftiest songs of praise
Your joyful homage pay ;
Come bless the day that God hath blest,
The type of heaven's eternal rest.
- 2 On this auspicious morn
The Lord of life arose,
And burst the bars of death,
And vanquished all our foes ;
And now he pleads our cause above,
And reaps the fruit of all his love.
- 3 All hail, triumphant Lord !
Heaven with hosannas rings ;
And earth, in humbler strains,
Thy praise responsive sings ;
Worthy the Lamb that once was slain,
Through endless years to live and reign.

631

A day in thy courts, etc.

H. M

Psalm 84 : 10.

- TO spend one sacred day
Where God and saints abide,
Affords divine joy
Than thousand days beside :
Where God resorts,
I love it more
To keep the door
Than shine in courts.
- 2 God is our sun and shield,
Our light and our defense ;
With gifts his hands are fill'd ;
We draw our blessings thence :
He will bestow
On Israel's race
Peculiar grace.
And glory too.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 3 The Lord his people loves ;
His hand no good withholds
From those his heart approves,—
From pure and upright souls :
Thrice happy he,
O God of hosts,
Whose spirit trusts
Alone in thee.

632 Welcome, delightful morn. H M.

- WELCOME—delightful morn,
Thou day of sacred rest ;
I hail thy kind return ;—
Lord, make these moments blest ;
From the low train of mortal toys,
I soar to reach immortal joys.
- 2 Now may the King descend
And fill his throne with grace ;
The scepter, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face :
Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

633 The first day of the week. 7s & 6s.

- O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright.
On thee, the high and lowly,
Bending before the throne,
Sing holy, holy, holy,
To God the holy One.
- 2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth ;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth ;

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

On thee our Lord victorious,
The Spirit sent from heaven,
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

- 3 Thou art a port protected
From storms that round us rise ;
A garden intersected
With streams of Paradise ;
Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry, dreary sand ;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

634

Loving kindness.

L. M

- A WAKE, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing the great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me,
His loving kindness, O how free!
- 2 He saw me ruin'd in the fall,
Yet lov'd me, notwithstanding all;
He sav'd me from my lost estate,
His loving kindness, O how great!
- 3 Though num'rous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along,
His loving kindness, O how strong!
- 4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gather'd thick and thunder'd loud,
He near my soul has always stood,
His loving kindness, O how good!
- 5 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale.
Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
O may my last expiring breath
His loving kindness sing in death!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 6 Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day,
And sing with rapture and surprise
His loving kindness in the skies!

635

I will praise thee for ever.

L. M.

Psalm 54; 3.

- MY God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days;
Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
Till death and glory raise the song.
- 2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear,
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty, done for thee.
- 3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and labor of my tongue.
- 4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all my thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways,
Vast and immortal is thy praise.

636

Omnipresence.

L. M

Psalm 138.

- LORD of all being; throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!
- 2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.
- 3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine!

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE,

4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame!

637 His mercy endureth for ever. L. M.
Psalm 106: 1.

O RENDER thanks to God above,
The fountain of eternal love;
Whose mercy firm through ages past
Has stood, and shall for ever last.

2 Who can his mighty deeds express,
Not only vast, but numberless!
What mortal eloquence can raise
His tribute of immortal praise!

638 Condescension of Christ. L. M.

HOW sweet the praise, how high the theme,
To sing of him who rules supreme,
Who dwells at God's right hand on high,
Yet looks on us with tender eye,

2 Th' angelic host in countless throngs,
Recount his glories in their songs,
And golden harps salute his ear;
Yet our weak praise he deigns to hear.

3 The planets roll their orbits round;
Unnumbered worlds, in space profound
Are rul'd by him, by him controlled;
Yet he's the Shepherd of our fold.

4 Exalted high upon his throne,
The universe is all his own:
Untold the honors he doth wear;
Yet we are objects of his care.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

639

Matt. 1 : 21.

C. P. M.

- O LET your mingling voices rise
In grateful rapture to the skies,
And hail a Saviour's birth;
Let songs of joy the day proclaim,
When Jesus all-triumphant came
To bless the sons of earth.
- 2 He came to bid the weary rest;
To heal the sinner's wounded breast;
To bind the broken heart;
To spread the light of truth around;
And to the world's remotest bound,
The heavenly gift impart.
- 3 He came our trembling souls to save,
From sin, from sorrow, and the grave,
And chase our fears away;
Victorious over death and time,
To lead us to a happier clime,
Where reigns eternal day.

640

To him be glory.

P. M.

- REJOICE, O earth! the Lord is King!
To him your humble tribute bring;
Let Jacob rise, and Zion sing,
And all the world with praises ring,
And give to Jesus glory!
- 2 O may the saints of ev'ry name
Unite to serve the bleeding Lamb!
May jars and discords cease to flame,
And all the Saviour's love proclaim
And give to Jesus glory!
- 3 We long to see the Christians join
In union sweet and love divine,
And glory through the churches shine,
And Gentiles crowding to the sign,
To give to Jesus glory!

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 4 O may the distant lands rejoice,
And sinners hear the Bridegroom's voice,
While praise their happy tongues employ,
And all obtain immortal joys,
And give to Jesus glory!
- 5 Then tears shall all be wiped away,
And Christians never go astray.
When we are freed from cumb'rous clay
We'll praise the Lord in endless day,
And give to Jesus glory.

641 My sheep—follow me. C. M..
John 10: 27.

- TO thee, my Shepherd, and my Lord,
A grateful song I'll raise;
O let the humblest of thy flock
Attempt to speak thy praise.
- 2 My life, my joy, my hope, I owe
To thine amazing love;
Ten thousand thousand comforts here,
And nobler bliss above.
- 3 To thee my trembling spirit flies,
With sin and grief oppress'd;
Thy gentle voice dispels my fears,
And lulls my cares to rest.
- 4 Lead on, dear Shepherd!—led by thee,
No evil shall I fear;
Soon shall I reach thy fold above,
And praise thee better there.

642 Worthy is the Lamb that was slain. P. M..
Rev. 5: 12.

- RISE, tune thy voice to sacred song,
Exert thy noblest powers;
Rise, mingle with the choral throng,
The Saviour's praises to prolong,
Amid life's fleeting hours.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 2 O! hast thou felt the Saviour's love,
That flame of heavenly birth?
Then let thy strains melodious prove,
With raptures soaring far above
The trifling toys of earth.
- 3 Hast found the pearl of price unknown
That cost a Saviour's blood?
Heir of a bright celestial crown,
That sparkles near the eternal throne;
O sing the praise of God!
- 4 Sing of the Lamb that once was slain
That man might be forgiven;
Sing how he broke death's bars in twa
Ascending high in bliss to reign,
The God of earth and heaven.

643

The Saviour died for me.

C.

- TO our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song;
O may his love (immortal flame!)
Tune every heart and tongue.
- 2 His love, what mortal thought can reach
What mortal tongue display!
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.
- 3 He left his radiant throne on high,
Left the bright realms of bliss,
And came to earth to bleed and die!
Was ever love like this?
- 4 Blest Lord, while we adoring pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May ev'ry heart with rapture say,
"The Saviour died for me!"
- 5 O may the sweet, the blissful theme
Fill ev'ry heart and tongue,
Till strangers love thy charming name,
And join the sacred song.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

644

Tender mercies.

C. M.

- ALMIGHTY Father! gracious Lord!
 A Kind Guardian of my days!
 Thy mercies let my heart record
 In songs of grateful praise.
- 2 In life's first dawn, my tender frame
 Was thine indulgent care,
 Long ere I could pronounce thy name,
 Or breathe the infant prayer.
- 3 Each rolling year new favors brought
 From thine exhaustless store;
 But, ah! in vain my laboring thought
 Would count thy mercies o'er.
- 4 Still I adore thee, gracious Lord!
 For favors more divine—
 That I have known thy sacred word,
 Where all thy glories shine.
- 5 Lord, when this mortal frame decays,
 And every weakness dies,
 Complete the wonders of thy grace,
 And raise me to the skies.

645 I will bless thy name for ever and ever. C. M.

Psalm 145 : 1.

- LONG as I live I'll praise thy name,
 My King, my God of love;
 My work and joy shall be the same
 In the bright world above.
- 2 Great is the Lord, his pow'r unknown,
 And let his praise be great :
 I'll sing the honors of thy throne,
 Thy work of grace repeat.
- 3 Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue;
 And while my lips rejoice,
 The men that hear my sacred song
 Shall join their cheerful voice.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 4 Fathers to sons shall teach thy name,
And children learn thy ways;
Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
And nations sound thy praise.
- 5 Thy glorious deeds of ancient date
Shall through the world be known—
Thy arm of pow'r, thy heav'nly state
With public splendor shown.
- 6 The world is manag'd by thy hands,
Thy saints are rul'd by love;
And thy eternal kingdom stands,
Though rocks and hills remove.

646

Unto him that loved us.

C. M.

Rev. 1 : 5.

- TO him that lov'd the sons of men
And washed us in his blood,
To royal honors raised our heads,
And made us priests to God:
- 2 To him let ev'ry tongue be praise,
And ev'ry heart be love;
All grateful honors paid on earth,
And nobler songs above.
- 3 Behold, on flying clouds he comes!
His saints shall bless the day;
While they that pierc'd him sadly mourn,
In anguish and dismay.
- 4 Thou art the First, and thou the Last;
Time centers all in thee;
Almighty Lord, who wast, and art,
And evermore shalt be.

647

Old things passed away.

C. M.

- LET earthly minds the world pursue,
It has no charms for me;
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace has set me free.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 2 As, by the light of opening day,
The stars are all concealed;
So earthly pleasures fade away,
When Jesus is revealed.
- 3 Creatures no more divide my choice,
I bid their all depart;
His name, his love, his gracious voice
Have fixed my roving heart.
- 4 But may I hope, that thou wilt own
A worthless worm like me?
Dear Lord! I would be thine alone,
And wholly live to thee.

648 The Song of Moses and the Lamb. S. M.
Rev. 15 : 3.

- A WAKE, and sing the song,
Of Moses and the Lamb!
Wake, ev'ry heart and ev'ry tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name!
- 2 Sing of his dying love!
Sing of his rising pow'r!
Sing how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore!
- 3 Sing on your heav'nly way,
You ransom'd sinners, sing;
Sing on, rejoicing ev'ry day
In Christ, the glorious King.
- 4 Soon shall you hear him say,
"You blessed children, come,"
Soon will he call you hence away,
And take his pilgrims home.

649 Break forth into joy. S. M.
Isaiah 52 : 9.

- R AISE your triumphant songs
To an immortal tune;
Let the wide earth resound the deeds
Celestial grace has done.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 2 Sing how Eternal Love
His Chief Belovéd chose,
And bade him raise our wretched race
From their abyss of woes.
- 3 His hand no thunder bears,
Nor terror clothes his brow;
No bolts to drive our guilty souls
To fiercer flames below.
- 4 He shows his Father's love,
To raise our souls on high;
He came with pardon from above
To rebels doomed to die.
- 5 Now sinners, dry your tears,
Let hopeless sorrow cease;
Bow to the scepter of his love,
And take the offer'd peace.
- 6 Lord, we obey thy call;
We lay an humble claim
To the salvation thou hast brought
And love and praise thy name.

650

Psalm 103.

S. M

- O BLESS the Lord, my soul!
His grace to thee proclaim;
And all that is within me, join
To bless his holy name.
- 2 O bless the Lord, my soul!
His mercies bear in mind;
Forget not all his benefits;
The Lord to thee is kind.
- 3 He will not always chide;
He will with patience wait;
His wrath is ever slow to rise,
And ready to abate.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 4 He pardons all thy sins,
Prolongs thy feeble breath;
He healeth thine infirmities,
And ransoms thee from death.
- 5 Then bless his holy name,
Whose grace hath made thee whole.
Whose loving-kindness crowns thy days;
O bless the Lord, my soul!

51 Bless his holy name. S. M.

Psalm 103 : 1.

- LET every heart and tongue
Proclaim the Saviour's praise;
He is the source of all my joy,
His mercy crowns my days.
- 2 He knows my feeble frame;
Remembers I am dust;
And though he should my life destroy,
In him I'll put my trust.
- 3 Each day he is my strength,
My hope, my life, my all;
And while upon his arm I lean
I surely can not fall.
- 4 Then to my blessed Lord,
Let grateful songs arise,
While angels bear the notes above
And sound them through the skies.

52 His compassions fail not. S. M.

Sam. 3 : 22.

- HOW various and how new
Are thy compassions, Lord!
Each morning shall thy mercies show,
Each night thy truth record.
- 2 Thy goodness, like the sun,
Dawn'd on our early days,
Ere infant reason had begun
To form our lips to praise.

PUBLIC WORSH.P.

- 3 Each object we beheld
Gave pleasure to our eyes;
And nature all our senses held
In bands of sweet surprise.
- 4 But pleasures more refin'd
Awaited that blest day,
When light arose upon our mind
And chas'd our sins away.
- 5 How new thy mercies, then!
How sov'reign and how free!
Our souls, that had been dead in sin
Were made alive to thee.

653

Redeeming love.

71

- NOW begin the heavenly theme;
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who his salvation prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.
- 1 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.
- 3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Canceled by redeeming love.
- 4 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest;
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.
- 5 Hither, then, your music bring;
Strike aloud each cheerful string;
Mortals, join the host above—
Join to praise redeeming love.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

They shall come to Zion with songs.

78

Isaiah 35: 10

INGS of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born;
s of praise arose, when he ive led captivity.

'n and earth must pass away,
s of praise shall crown the day;
will make new heav'ns and earth,
s of praise shall hail their birth.

will man alone be dumb,
hat glorious kingdom come?
the church delights to raise ns, and hymns, and songs of praise.

s below, with heart and voice,
in songs of praise rejoice;
ning here, by faith and love, s of praise to sing above.

e upon the latest breath,
s of praise shall conquer death;
amidst eternal joy,
s of praise their pow'rs employ.

Praise waiteth for thee, etc.

79.

Psalm 65: 1.

AISE on thee, in Zion's gates,
bally, O Jehovah, waits;
thee, who hearest prayer,
the tribes of men repair.

gh with conscious guilt oppress'd,
y mercy still we rest;
forgiving love display,
O Lord our sins away.

w bless'd their reward,
en servants of the Lord,
within thy courts abide,
thy goodness satisfied.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

656

1 Pet. 1 : 8.

P. 1

SAVIOUR! thy gentle voice
Gladly we hear;
Author of all our joys
Be ever near;
Our souls would cling to thee,
Let us thy fullness see
Our life to cheer.

2 Fountain of life divine!
Thee we adore;
We would be wholly thine
For evermore;
Freely forgive our sin,
Grant heavenly peace within,
Thy light restore.

3 Though to our faith unseen,
While darkness reigns,
On thee alone we lean
While life remains;
By thy free grace restored,
Our souls shall bless the Lord
In joyful strains!

657

All things lost for Christ.

MY gracious Redeemer I love!
His praises aloud I'll proclaim,
And join with the armies above
To shout his adorable name.

2 To gaze on his glories divine
Shall be my eternal employ,
And feel them incessantly shine,
My boundless, ineffable joy.

You palaces, scepters, and crowns,
Your pride with disdain I survey
Your pomps are but shadows and sounds,
And pass in a moment away.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 4 The crown that my Saviour bestows,
 Yon permanent sun shall outshine;
 My joy everlastingly flows—
 My God, my Redeemer, is mine.

658

The first, and the last.

8s

Rev. 1: 11.

THIS Lord is the Lord we adore,
 Our faithful unchangeable friend,
 Whose love is as large as his power,
 And neither knows measure nor end.

- 2 'T is Jesus, the First and the Last,
 Whose Spirit shall guide us safe home;
 We'll praise him for all that is past,
 And trust him for all that's to come.

659

The unsearchable riches of Christ.

8s

Eph. 3: 8.

HOW shall I my Saviour set forth?
 How shall I his beauties declare?
 O how shall I speak of his worth,
 Or what his chief dignities are?

- 2 His angels can never express.
 Nor saints who sit nearest his throne,
 How rich are his treasures of grace—
 No—this is a secret unknown.
- 3 In him all the fullness of God
 For ever transcendently shines!
 Though once like a mortal he stood
 To finish his gracious designs.
- 4 Though once he was nail'd to the cross,
 Vile rebels like me to set free,
 His glory sustain'd no loss,
 Eternal his kingdom shall be.
- 5 O sinners! believe and adore
 This Saviour so rich to redeem!
 No creature can ever explore
 The treasures of goodness in him.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 6 Come, all you who see yourselves lost,
And feel yourselves burden'd with sin,
Draw near, while with terror you 're toss'd,
Obey, and your peace shall begin.
- 7 He riches has ever in store,
And treasures that never can waste:
Here's pardon, here's grace—yea, and more,
Here's glory eternal at last.

660 O thou Fount of every blessing. 8s & 7s.

- O THOU Fount of ev'ry blessing!
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.
- 2 Teach me ever to adore thee,
May I still thy goodness prove,
While the hope of endless glory
Fills my heart with joy and love.
- 3 Here I'll raise my Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I've come,
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
- 4 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from thy fold, O God!
He to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.
- 5 O! to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrain'd to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind me closer still to thee!
- 6 Never let me wander from thee,
Never leave thee whom I love;
By thy Word and Spirit guide me,
Till I reach thy courts above.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

61 Brightness of the Father's glory. 8s & 7s.
 Heb. 1: 3.

BRIGHTNESS of the Father's glory,
 Shall thy praise unuttered lie?
 Break, my tongue, such guilty silence;
 Sing the Lord, who came to die.

Did the angels sing thy coming?
 Did the shepherds learn their lays?
 Shame would cover me, ungrateful,
 Should my tongue refuse to praise.

From the highest throne in glory
 To the cross of deepest wo,
 All to ransom guilty captives!
 Flow, my praise, forever flow.

Re-ascend, immortal Saviour;
 Leave thy footstool, take thy throne;
 Thence return, and reign forever;
 Be the kingdom all thine own.

62 Thrice holy. 8s & 7s.

BRIGHT the vision that delighted
 Once the sight of Judah's seer;
 Sweet the countless tongues united
 To entrance the prophet's ear.
 Round the Lord in glory seated,
 Cherubim and seraphim
 Filled his temple, and repeated
 Each to each th' alternate hymn:

"Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
 Earth is with its fullness stored;
 Unto thee be glory given,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!"
 Heaven is still with glory ringing;
 Earth takes up the angels' cry,
 "Holy, holy, holy," singing,
 "Lord of hosts, the Lord most high!"

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 3 Ever thus in God's high praises,
Brethren, let our tongues unite
While our thoughts his greatness raise,
And our love his gifts recite.
With his seraph train before him
With his holy Church below,
Thus conspire we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow:
- 1 "Lord, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt the angels' cry,
'Holy, holy, holy,' blessing
Thee, the Lord of hosts most high!"

663 Hark! ten thousand harps 8s & 7s. peculi

- HARK! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns, and heav'n rejoices;
Jesus reigns, the God of love:
See, he sits on yonder throne;
Jesus rules the world alone.
- 2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens
All above, and gives it worth;
Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth
When we think of love like thine,
Lord, we own it love divine.
- 3 King of glory, reign for ever;
Thine an everlasting crown.
Nothing from thy love shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing;
 Bring, O bring, the glorious day,
 When, the awful summons hearing,
 Heav'n and earth shall pass away :
 Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,
 "Glory, glory to our King."

664 Worthy is the Lamb, etc. 8s, 7s & 4
 Rev. 5: 12.

G LORY, glory, everlasting,
 Be to him who bore the cross,
 Who redeem'd our souls by tasting
 Death, the death deserv'd by us:
 Sound his glory
 While our heart with transport glows.

- 2 Jesus' love is love unbounded,
 Without measure, without end :
 Human thought is here confounded;
 'T is too vast to comprehend ;
 Praise the Saviour ;
 Magnify the sinner's Friend.

- 3 While we hear the wondrous story
 Of the Saviour's cross and shame,
 Sing we, " Everlasting glory
 Be to God and to the Lamb !"
 Saints and angels,
 Give ye glory to his name.

665 He hath put a new song in my mouth. 11s.
 Psalm 40 2.

O JESUS, the giver of all we enjoy !
 Our lives to thy honor we wish to employ ;
 With praises unceasing we'll sing of thy name !
 Thy goodness increasing, thy love we'll proclaim.

- 2 The wonderful name of our Jesus we'll sing,
 And publish the fame of our Captain and King,
 With sweet exultation his goodness we prove ;
 His name is salvation—his nature is Love.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 3 And when to the regions of glory we rise,
And join the bright legions that shout through the skies,
We'll tell the glad story of Jesus' kind grace,
And give him the glory, and honor, and praise.
- 4 In this blest employment our spirits shall rest,
In sweetest enjoyment on Jesus' own breast;
We'll drink of the streams of Immanuel's love,
And bask in the beams of his glory above.

666

Worthy is the Lamb.

118.

Rev. 5: 12.

COME, saints, let us join in the praise of the Lamb,
The theme most sublime of the angels above;
They dwell with delight on the sound of his name,
And gaze on his glories with wonder and love.

- 2 They worship the Lamb who for sinners was slain;
But their loftiest songs never equal his love:
The claims of his mercy will ever remain,
Transcending the anthems in glory above.
- 3 Yet even our service he will not despise,
When we join in his worship and tell of his name;
Then let us unite in the song of the skies,
And, trusting his mercy, sing, "Worthy the Lamb."

667

Let us awake our joys.

68 & 44.

LET us awake our joys;
Strike up with cheerful voice,
Each creature sing:
Angels, begin the song;
Mortals, the strain prolong,
In accents sweet and strong,
"Jesus is King."

- 2 Proclaim abroad his name;
Tell of his matchless fame
What wonders done;
Above, beneath, around,
Let all the earth resound,
"Till heaven's high arch rebound,
"Victory is won."

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 3 He vanquished sin and hell,
And our last foe will quell;
Mourners, rejoice;
His dying love adore;
Praise him, now raised in power;
Praise him for evermore,
With joyful voice.
- 4 All hail the glorious day,
When, through the heavenly way,
Lo, he shall come,
While they who pierced him, wail;
His promise shall not fail;
Saints, see your King prevail:
Great Saviour, come.

668

Rev. 5 : 12, 13.

6s & 4s.

- GLORY to God on high!
Let heaven and earth reply;
Praise ye his name;
His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore,
And sing for evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb."
- 2 Ye who surround the throne,
Join cheerfully in one,
Praising his name;
Ye who have felt his blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound his dear name abroad:
"Worthy the Lamb."
- 3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye his name;
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb."

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 4 Soon must we change our place;
Yet will we never cease
Praising his name:
To him our songs we'll bring,
Hail him our gracious King,
And through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb."

669

God is ever good.

6s. & 5s.

SEE the shining dew-drops
On the flowers strewed,
Proving as they sparkle—
God is ever good.

- 2 See the morning sunbeams,
Lighting up the wood,
Silently proclaiming —
God is ever good.

- 3 Hear the mountain streamlet
In the solitude.
With its ripple saying—
God is ever good.

- 4 In the leafy tree-tops,
Where no fears intrude,
Merry birds are singing—
God is ever good.

- 5 Bring, my heart, thy tribute,
Songs of gratitude,
While all nature utters —
God is ever good.

670

Declare among the people his doings. H. M.

Psalm 9: 1..

(COME, ev'ry pious heart
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest pow'rs exert
To celebrate his fame:
Tell all above and all below
The debt of love to him you owe

GRATITUDE AND PRAISE.

- 2 Such was his zeal for God,
And such his love for you,
He nobly undertook
What angels could not do:
His ev'ry deed of love and grace
All words exceed, all thoughts surpass
- 3 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died:
What he endur'd, O who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell!
- 4 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansion of the dead;
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led:
Up through the sky the Conq'ror rode,
And reigns on high the Son of God.
- 5 From thence he'll quickly come,
His chariot will not stay,
And bear our spirits home
To realms of endless day:
There shall we see his lovely face,
And ever be in his embrace.

671

Glad homage.

P. M.

- FATHER of Spirits! humbly bent before thee,
Songs of glad homage unto thee we bring;
Touched by thy Spirit, O teach us to adore thee;
Let thy light attend us,
Let thy love befriend us,
Father of our spirits, Everlasting King!
- Send forth thy mandate, gather in the nations,
Through the wide universe thy name be known,
Millions of voices shall join in adorations,
Every soul invited,
Every voice united,
Joining to adore thee, Everlasting One!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

672

The great salvation.

C. P. 1

Heb. 2: 3.

TO him who did salvation bring,
Wake ev'ry tuneful power, and sing
A song of sweetest praise:
His grace diffuses, as the rains
Crown nature's flow'ry hills and plains,
And spread a thousand ways.

2 Salvation is the noblest song,
O may it dwell on ev'ry tongue,
And all repeat, Amen!
The Lord will come from heav'n to earth
To give his people second birth,
And make them one again.

3 We feel redemption drawing near;
We soon in glory shall appear,
And be for ever bless'd:
His promise never can delay,
Our Jesus, on th' appointed day,
Will give his people rest.

4 By faith we view him coming down,
With angels hov'ring all around;
He smiles upon his saints:
He cries aloud in melting strains,
I come to save you from your pains,
And end your sore complaints.

5 The smiling millions rise and sing
All glory! glory to our King;
The Grand Assize is come!
You everlasting doors, fly wide,
The Church is glorious as a bride,
And Jesus takes her home.

6 In all the heav'ns there's not a tear
Nor in the realms of bliss a fear,

OPENING HYMNS.

But pleasure yet unknown :
 'rom heav'n to heav'n we sound the bliss
 ' what a blest abode is this,
 For ever round the throne!

The joys of heav'n will never end ;
 All glory to the sinner's Friend !
 Roll on, you happy scenes !
 'ou wingéd seraphs, help us praise
 The Author of eternal joys !
 Our Jesus ever reigns.

3 Praise the Lord. 8s. 7s. & 4

PRAISE the Lord ! ye saints adore him
 All unite with one accord ;
 Bring your offerings, come before him—
 O praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord ! who every blessing
 On our heads hath richly poured ;
 Sing aloud, his love confessing—
 O praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord ! who would not praise
 He hath us to grace restored : [him ?
 To the highest honors raise him—
 O praise the Lord.

Praise the Lord ! your songs excelling
 Worldly music's richest chord ;
 Sing—your Saviour's glory telling ;
 O praise the Lord.

OPENING HYMNS.

4 Psalm 100. L. M

BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
 Ye nations, bow with sacred joy ;
 now that the Lord is God alone,
 He can create and he destroy.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 2 His sov'reign pow'r, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and form'd us men;
And when like wand'ring sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We are his people—we his care—
Our souls, and all our mortal frame;
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name?
- 4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful
High as the heav'ns our voices raise
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 5 Wide as the world is thy command!
Vast as eternity thy love!
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to rove.

675

God exalted.

Psalm 57: 5.

- BE thou exalted, O my God!
Above the heavens where angels dwell;
Thy power on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.
- 2 My heart is fixed; my song shall raise
Immortal honors to thy name:
Awake, my tongue, to sound his praise,
My tongue, the glory of my frame.
 - 3 High o'er the earth his mercy reigns,
And reaches to the utmost sky;
His truth to endless years remains,
When lower worlds dissolve and die.

676

Every place a temple.

- OTHOU, to whom, in ancient time;
The lyre of Hebrew bards was strung;
Whom kings adored in songs sublime,
And prophets praised with glowing tongue.

OPENING HYMNS.

ot now on Zion's hight alone favored worshipers may dwell;
 where, at sultry noon, thy Son weary, by the patriarch's well.

rom every place below the skies, grateful song, the fervent prayer,— incense of the heart,—may rise heaven, and find acceptance there.

o thee shall age, with snowy hair,
 strength, and beauty, bend the knee;
 childhood lisp, with reverent air,
 praises and its prayers to thee!

thou, to whom, in ancient time, lyre of prophet-bards was strung,
 thee, at last, in every clime,
 all temples rise, and praise be sung!

Coming together in the name of Jesus. L. M.
 Matt. 18 · 20.

REAT God! the followers of thy Son,
 We bow before thy mercy-seat,
 worship thee, the holy One,
 And pour our wishes at thy feet.

grant thy blessing here to-day;
 O, give thy people joy and peace;
 the tokens of thy love display.
 And favor that shall never cease.

e seek the truth which Jesus brought.
 His path of light we long to tread;
 are be his holy doctrines taught.
 And here their purest influence shed.

ay faith, and hope, and love abound;
 Our sins and errors be forgiven;
 and we, from day to day, be found
 The sons of God and heirs of heaven.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

678 Seeking refuge. L. M. 6 lines.

- FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly;
Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
Father, we seek thy shelter here:
Weary and weak, thy grace we pray;
Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.
- 2 Long have we roamed in want and pain;
Long have we sought thy rest to gain;
Wildered in doubt, in darkness lost,
Long have our souls been tempest-tost;
Low at thy feet our sins we lay;
Turn not, O Lord, thy guests away.

679 The hour of worship. L. M.

- BLEST hour, when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
- 2 Blest hour, when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast,
While, all around, the calm divine
Proclaims the holy day of rest.
- 3 Blest hour, when God himself draws nigh,
Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To hush the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.
- 4 Blest hour! for, where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given,
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of heaven.

680 How amiable are thy tabernacles. L. M.
Psalm 84: 1.

GREAT God, attend while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs;
To spend one day with thee on earth,
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

OPENING HYMNS.

- 2 Might I enjoy the meanest place,
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
- 3 God is our sun, he makes our day;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.
- 4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory too:
He gives us all things, and withholds
No real good from upright souls.
- 5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway,
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
And devils at thy presence flee;
Blest is the man that trusts in thee.

681 Serve the Lord with gladness. L. M.
Psalm 100: 2.

- YE nations round the earth rejoice,
 Before the Lord, your sovereign King;
 Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
 With all your tongues his glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God: 'tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give;
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pastures live.
 - 3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
 - 4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind,
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And the whole race of men shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

682

Let us worship and bow down.

Psalm 95

- O, COME, loud anthems let us sing
 O, Loud thanks to our almighty
 For we our voices high should raise
 When our salvation's Rock we praise
 2 Into his presence let us haste,
 To thank him for his favors past,
 To him address in joyful songs
 The praise that to his name belongs
 3 O, let us to his courts repair,
 And bow with adoration there!
 Down on our knees, devoutly, all
 Before the Lord, our Maker, fall.

683

Speak, Lord, thy servant heareth.

1 Sam. 3 :

- W HILE now thy throne of grace
 O God! within our spirits speaks
 For we will hear thy voice to-day
 Nor turn our hardened hearts away
 2 Speak in thy gentlest tones of love
 Till all our best affections move;
 We long to hear thy gentle call,
 And feel that thou art all in all.
 3 To conscience speak thy quickening
 Till all its sense of sin is stirred;
 For we would leave no stain of guilt
 To cloud the radiance of thy smile
 4 Speak, Father, to the anxious heart
 Till every fear and doubt depart:
 For we can find no home or rest,
 Till with thy Spirit's whispers blest
 5 Speak to convince, forgive, console
 Childlike we yield to thy control:
 These hearts, too often closed before
 Would grieve thy patient love no more

OPENING HYMNS.

84

God is here.

L. M.

BE still! be still! for all around,
On either hand, is holy ground:
Here in his house, the Lord to-day
Will listen, while his people pray.

- 2 Thou, tossed upon the waves of care
Ready to sink with deep despair,
Here ask relief, with heart sincere,
And thou shalt find that God is here.
- 3 Thou who hast laid within the grave
Those whom thou hadst no power to save,
Now to the mercy-seat draw near,
With all thy woes, for God is here.
- 4 Thou who hast dear ones far away,
In foreign lands, 'mid ocean's spray,
Pray for them now, and dry the tear,
And trust the God who listens here.
- 5 Thou who art mourning o'er thy sin,
Deploring guilt that reigns within,
The God of peace is ever near;
The troubled spirit meets him here.

85

I will come in.

L. M.

Rev. 3: 20.

O BLEST the souls, for ever blest,
Where God as sovereign is confest!
O happy hearts, the blessed homes
To which the King in glory comes!

- 2 Fling wide thy portals, O my heart.
Be thou a temple set apart;
So shall thy Sovereign enter in,
And new and nobler life begin.
- 3 Deliverer, come! we open wide
Our hearts to thee; here, Lord, abide!
Let all thy glorious presence feel;
Thou—King of saints! thyself reveal.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

686 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house. L. M
Psalm 84 : 4.

HOW pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

My soul would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee!

3 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength, and through the roa
They lean upon their Helper, God.

687 The living temple. L. M

O FATHER! with protecting care
Meet us in this our house of prayer;
Assembled in thy sacred name,
Thy promised blessing here we claim.

2 But chiefest in the cleanséd breast,
For ever let thy Spirit rest,
And make the contrite heart to be
A temple pure and worthy thee.

688 My soul longeth for the courts of the Lord. L. M
Psalm 84 : 2.

LOOK from on high, great God, and see
Thy saints lamenting after thee:
We sigh, we languish, and complain;
Revive thy gracious work again.

OPENING HYMNS.

- 2 To-day thy cheering grace impart,
Bind up and heal the broken heart;
Our sins subdue, our souls restore,
And let our foes prevail no more.
- 3 Thy presence in thy house afford.
And bless the preaching of thy word;
That sinners may their danger see,
And now begin to mourn for thee.

689

Homage and devotion.

C. M.

- WITH sacred joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal Love.
- 2 Before the gracious throne we bow
Of heaven's almighty King;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.
 - 3 O Lord, while in thy house we kneel,
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.
 - 4 With fervor teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

690 Lift thou the light of thy countenance, etc. C. M.

Psalm 4 : 6.

- WITHIN thy house, O Lord our God,
In glory now appear;
Make this a place of thine abode,
And shed thy blessings here.
- 2 When we thy mercy-seat surround,
Thy Spirit, Lord, impart;
And let thy gospel's joyful sound
With power reach ev'ry heart.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 3 Here let the blind their sight obtain ;
Here give the mourners rest ;
Let Jesus here triumphant reign,
Enthron'd in ev'ry breast.
- 4 Here let the voice of sacred joy
And humble pray'r arise,
Till higher strains our tongues employ
In realms beyond the skies.

691 The House of God. C. M.

- MY soul ! how lovely is the place,
To which thy God resorts !
'T is heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.
- 2 There the great monarch of the skies
His saving power displays,
And light breaks in upon our eyes,
With kind and quickening rays.
- 3 There, mighty God ! thy words declare
The secrets of thy will ;
And still we seek thy mercy there,
And sing thy praises still.

692 What shall I render. C. M.
Psalm 116 : 12.

- WHAT shall I render to my God
For all his kindness shown ?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My songs address thy throne.
- 2 Among the saints that fill thy house
My offerings shall be paid ;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.
- 3 How happy all thy servants are,
How great thy grace to me !
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

OPENING HYMNS.

4 Now I am thine, for ever thine,
Nor shall my purpose move;
Thy hand hath loosed my bonds of pain
And bound me with thy love.

5 Here in thy courts I leave my vow,
And thy rich grace record;
Witness, ye saints, who hear me now,
If I forsake the Lord.

693 They shall mount up with wings as eagles. O. M.
Isaiah 40: 31.

COME, O thou King of all thy saints,
Our humble tribute own,
While, with our praises and complaints,
We bow before thy throne.

2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!

How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!

3 But, ah, the song, how faint it flows!
How languid our desire!

How dim the sacred passion glows
Till thou the heart inspire!

4 Blest Saviour, let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine,
A heav'n on earth appear.

694 Again the Lord of light and life. O. M.

AGAIN the Lord of light and life
Awakes the kindling ray,
Unseals the eyelids of the morn,
And pours increasing day.

2 O what a night was that which wrapt
The heathen world in gloom!

O what a Sun which rose this day
Triumphant from the tomb!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 3 This day be grateful homage paid
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in ev'ry heart,
And praise on ev'ry tongue,
4 Ten thousand diff'rent lips shall join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wing
To nations yet unborn.

695 With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure. C.
2 Sam. 22: 9

THE offerings to thy throne which rise
Of mingled praise and prayer,
Are but a worthless sacrifice
Unless the heart is there.

- 2 Upon thine all-discerning ear
Let no vain words intrude;
No tribute but the vow sincere,—
The tribute of the good.
3 My offerings will indeed be blest,
If sanctified by thee,—
If thy pure Spirit touch my breast
With its own purity.
4 O, may that Spirit warm my heart
To piety and love,
And to life's lowly vale impart
Some rays from heaven above.

696 Let us go up to the house of the Lord. C.
Psalm 122: 1.

A GAIN our earthly cares we leave,
And to thy courts repair;
Again, with joyful feet, we come
To meet our Saviour here.

- 2 Within these walls let holy peace,
And love, and concord dwell,
Here give the troubled conscience ease,
The wounded spirit heal.

OPENING HYMNS.

3 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.

4 May we in faith receive thy word,
In faith present our pray'rs,
And in the presence of our Lord
Unbosom all our cares.

5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hope to raise,
And pour thy blessings from above,
That we may render praise.

697 Quicken us, and we will call on thy name. C. M.
Psalm 89: 18.

COME, Lord, and warm each languid heart;
Inspire each lifeless tongue;
And let the joys of heav'n impart
Their influence to our song.

2 Then to the shining realms of bliss
The wings of faith shall soar,
And all the charms of Paradise
Our raptur'd thoughts explore.

3 There shall the foll'wers of the Lamb
Join in immortal songs,
And endless honors to his name
Employ their tuneful tongues.

4 Lord, tune our hearts to praise and love;
Our feeble notes inspire,
Till, in thy blissful courts above,
We join the heav'nly choir.

698 Early will I seek thee. C. M.
Psalm 63: 1.

EARLY, my God, without delay
I haste to seek thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away
Without thy cheering grace.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
Beneath a burning sky,
Long for a cooling stream at hand,
And they must drink or die.

3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice
As thy forgiving love.

4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

699 The morrow after the Sabbath. C. M.
Lev. 23 : 11.

BLEST day of God! most calm, most bright,
The first and best of days;
The laborer's rest, the saint's delight,
The day of prayer and praise.

2 My Saviour's face made thee to shine;
His rising thee did raise:
And made thee heavenly and divine
Beyond all other days.

3 The first-fruits oft a blessing prove
To all the sheaves behind;
And they who do the Lord's day love,
A happy week shall find.

4 This day I must to God appear
For, Lord, the day is thine;
Help me to spend it in thy fear,
And thus to make it mine.

700 Stand up and bless the Lord S. M.
Neh. 1 . 1.

STAND up and bless the Lord.
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up and bless the Lord your God
With heart, and soul, and voice.

OPENING HYMNS.

- 2 O for the living flame,
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And raise to heaven our thought !
- 3 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours ;
Then be his love in Christ proclaim'd
With all our ransom'd powers.
- 4 Stand up and bless the Lord,
The Lord your God adore,
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth for evermore.

'01 Come we that love the Lord. S. M.

- COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known ;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.
- 2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banish'd from this place !
Religion never was design'd
To make our pleasures less.
 - 3 Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God ;
But children of the heav'nly King
May speak their joys abroad.
 - 4 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below ;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From hope and faith may grow.
 - 5 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heav'nly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 6 Then let our songs abound,
And ev'ry tear be dry;
We're marching o'er this hall w'd grou
To fairer worlds on high.

702 Come, sound his praises abroad. S. 1

- COME, sound his praise abroad,
And hymns of glory sing;
Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.
- 2 He formed the deeps unknown;
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
And all the solid ground.
- 3 Come, worship at his throne;
Come, bow before the Lord;
We are his work, and not our own;
He formed us by his word.
- 4 To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own y ur gracious God.

703 Blessed they that hunger. S. 1

Matt. 5: 6.

- HUNGRY, and faint, and poor
Behold us, Lord, again
Assembled at thy mercy's door,
Thy bounty to obtain.
- 2 Thy word invites us nigh,
Or we would starve indeed;
For we no money have to buy,
Nor righteousness to plead.
- 3 The food our spirits want,
Thy hand alone can give;
O! hear the pray'r of faith, and grant
That we may eat and live!

OPENING HYMNS.

704 As I have seen thee in the sanctuary. S. M.
Psalm 63; 2.

- MY God, perennate my tongue
This joy, to call thee mine;
And let my early cries prevail,
To taste thy love divine.
- 2 Within thy churches, Lord,
I long to find my place;
Thy power and glory to behold,
And feel thy quickening grace.
- 3 Since thou hast been my help,
To thee my spirit flies;
And on thy watchful providence
My cheerful hope relies.
- 4 The shadow of thy wings
My soul in safety keeps;
I follow where my Father leads,
And he supports my steps.

705 Reunion. S. M.

- AND are we yet alive,
And see each other's face?
Glory and praise to Jesus give,
For his preserving grace.
- 2 What troubles have we seen!
What conflicts have we past!
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled last.
- 3 But out of all the Lord
Hath brought us by his love;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above.
- 4 Then let us make our boast
Of his redeeming power,
Which saves us to the uttermost,
Till we can sin no more.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

706

Come into his courts.

Psalm 96 : 8.

7a.

TO thy temple we repair;
 Lord, we love to worship there;
 There, within the veil, we meet
 Christ upon the mercy-seat.

- 2 While thy glorious name is sung,
 Tune our lips, inspire our tongue;
 Then our joyful souls shall bless
 Christ, the Lord our Righteousness.

707

The unity of the Spirit.

Eph. 4 : 3.

7a.

FATHER, hear our humble claim;
 We are met in thy great name;
 In the midst do thou appear,
 Manifest thy presence here.

- 2 Lord, our fellowship increase;
 Knit us in the bond of peace;
 Join our hearts, O Father! join
 Each to each, and all to thine.
- 3 Build us in one spirit up,
 Called in one high calling's hope—
 One the spirit, one the aim,
 One the pure baptismal flame.

708

Wait on the Lord, etc.

Psalm 27 : 14.

7a.

LORD, we come before thee now;
 At thy feet we humbly bow:
 O do not our suit disdain
 Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

- 2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
 In compassion now descend;
 Fill our hearts with thy rich grace;
 Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

OPENING HYMNS.

- 3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;
Lord, from hence we would not go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.
- 4 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down, lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.
- 5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick; the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

709 Far from mortal cares retreating. 8s & 7s.

- FAR from mortal cares retreating,
Sordid hopes, and vain desires,
Here our willing footsteps meeting,
Every heart to heaven aspires.
From the Fount of glory beaming;
Light celestial cheers our eyes,
Mercy from above proclaiming
Peace and pardon from the skies.
- 2 Blessings all around bestowing,
God withholds his care from none;
Grace and mercy ever flowing
From the fountain of his throne.
Lord, with favor still attend us;
Bless us with thy wondrous love;
Thou, our Sun, our Shield, defend us;
All our hope is from above.

710 Love divine, all love excelling. 8s & 7s.

- LOVE divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heav'n to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling:
All thy faithful mercies crown;

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

Jesus, thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art,
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter ev'ry trembling heart.

- 2 Breathe, O, breathe thy loving Spirit
Into ev'ry troubled breast:
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find thy promis'd rest.
Take away the love of sinning,
Take our load of guilt away;
End the work of thy beginning,
Bring us to eternal day.

- 3 Carry on thy new creation,
Pure and holy may we be;
Let us see our whole salvation,
Perfectly secur'd by thee;
Change from glory into glory,
Till in heav'n we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before thee
Lost in wonder, love and praise.

711 The Lord is in his holy temple. 8s, 7s & 4.
Hab. 2 : 20.

GOD is in his holy temple,
G All the earth keep silence here;
Worship him in truth and spirit,
Reverence him with godly fear;
Holy, holy,
Lord of hosts, our Lord, appear.

- 2 God in Christ reveals his presence,
Throned upon the mercy-seat:
Saints, rejoice! and sinners, tremble!
Each prepare his God to meet:
Lowly, lowly,
Bow adoring at his feet.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

713 Rejoice with trembling. 8a, 7s & 4.

Psaln 2: 11.

IN thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
O that we this day may hear—
Hear with meekness—
Hear thy word with godly fear.

2 While our days on earth are lengthen'd,
May we give them, Lord, to thee!
Cheer'd by hope, and daily strengthen'd,
We would run, nor weary be,
Till thy glory
Without clouds, in heav'n we see.

3 There, in worship, purer, sweeter,
All thy people shall adore;
Tasting of enjoyment greater
Than they could conceive before;
Full enjoyment—
Holy bliss for evermore.

714 Longing for the house of God. H. M.

LORD of the worlds above,
How pleasant and how fair
The dwellings of thy love,
Thy earthly temples, are!
To thy abode my heart aspires,
With warm desires to see my God.

2 O, happy souls, who pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O, happy men, who pay
Their constant service there!
They praise thee still; and happy they
Who love the way to Zion's hill.

CLOSING HYMNS.

- 3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears:
O glorious seat, when God, our King
Shall thither bring our willu g feet.

CLOSING.

- 715 He shall go in and out and find pasture. L. M.
John 10: 9.

- NOW may the Lord our Shepherd lead
To living streams his little flock;
May he in flowery pastures feed,
Shade us at noon beneath the rock!
- 2 Now may we hear our Shepherd's voice,
And gladly answer to his call;
Now may our hearts for him rejoice,
Who knows, and names, and loves us all.
- 3 When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,
And small and great before him stand,
O, be the flock assembling here
Found with the sheep on his right hand!

- 716 Walking with God. L. M.

- THROUGH all this life's eventful road,
Fain would I walk with thee, my God,
And find thy presence light around.
And every step on holy ground
- 2 Each blessing would I trace to thee.
In every grief, thy mercy see,
And through the paths of duty move,
Conscious of thine encircling love.
- 3 And when the angel Death stands by,
Be this my strength, that thou art nigh;
And this my joy, that I shall be
With those who dwell in light with thee.

717 The Lord bless thee, and keep thee. L. M.

ERE to the world again we go,
Its pleasures, cares, and idle show,
Thy grace, once more, O God, we crave,
From folly and from sin to save.

- 2 May the great truths we here have heard—
The lessons of thy holy Word—
Dwell in our inmost bosoms deep,
And all our souls from error keep.
- 3 O, may the influence of this day
Long as our memory with us stay,
And as an angel guardian prove,
To guide us to our home above.

718 Let all the people praise thee. L. M.

FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise :
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by ev'ry tongue.

- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord ;
Eternal truth attends thy word :
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

719 Grapes from Eschcol. L. M

HAPPY the saints whose lot is cast
Where oft is heard the gospel sound;
The word is pleasing to their taste,
A healing balm for ev'ry wound.

- 2 With joy they hasten to the place
Where they their Saviour oft have met;
And while they feast upon his grace,
Their burdens and their griefs forget.

CLOSING HYMNS.

- 3 This favor'd lot, my friends, is ours;
 May we the privilege improve,
 And find these consecrated hours
 Sweet earnest of the joys above.

720 A parting hymn. L. M.

COME, Christian brethren, ere we part,
 Join ev'ry voice and ev'ry heart;
 One solemn hymn to God we raise,
 One final song of grateful praise.

- 2 Christians, we here may meet no more;
 But there is yet a happier shore;
 And there, releas'd from toil and pain,
 Dear brethren, we shall meet again.

721 Bid us all depart in peace. L. M.

DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord;
 Help us to feed upon thy word;
 All that has been amiss, forgive,
 And let thy truth within us live.

- 2 Though we are guilty, thou art good:
 Cleanse all our sins in Jesus' blood;
 Give every burdened soul release,
 And bid us all depart in peace.

722 I will not forget thy word. L. M.
 Psalm 119: 16.

LORD, how delightful 't is to see
 A whole assembly worship thee,
 At once they sing, at once they pray!
 They hear of heaven, and learn the way.

- 2 O write upon my memory, Lord,
 The text and doctrine of thy word;
 That I may break thy laws no more,
 But love thee better than before.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

723 Striving together for the faith, etc. L. M. D.
Phil. 1: 27.

L ORD, cause thy face on us to shine;
L Give us thy peace, and seal us thine;
Teach us to prize the means of grace,
And love thine earthly dwelling-place.
One is our faith, and one our Lord;
One body, spirit, hope, reward:
May we in one communion be,
One with each other, one with thee.

2 Bless all whose voice salvation brings,
Who minister in holy things;
Our pastors, rulers, deacons, bless;
Clothe them with zeal and righteousness:
Let many in the judgment day,
Turn'd from the error of their way,
Their hope, their joy, their crown, appear:
Save those who preach, and those who hear.

724 Lord, now we part in thy blest name. L. M.

L ORD, now we part in thy blest name,
L In which we here together came;
Grant us our few remaining days,
To work thy will and spread thy praise.

2 Teach us, in life and death, to bless
Thee, Lord, our strength and righteousness;
And grant us all to meet above,
Where we shall better sing thy love!

725 The pillar and cloud. L. M.

O PRESENT still, though still unseen,
O, When brightly shines the prosperous
Be thoughts of thee a cloudy screen, ;day,
To temper the deceitful ray!

2 And, O, when gathers on our path
In shade and storm the frequent night,
Be thou, long-suffering, slow to wrath,
A burning and a shining light

CLOSING HYMNS.

726 "Up to the hills, I lift mine eyes." L. M.
Psalm 121.

UP to the hills I lift mine eyes,
Th' eternal hills beyond the skies;
Thence all her help my soul derives,
There my almighty Refuge lives.

- 2 He lives—the everlasting God
That built the world, that spread the flood ;
The heavens with all their hosts he made.
And the dark regions of the dead.
- 3 He guides our feet, he guards our way ;
His morning smiles bless all the day ;
He spreads the evening vail, and keeps
The silent hours, while Israel sleeps.
- 4 Israel, a name divinely blest,
May rise secure, securely rest ;
Thy holy Guardian's wakeful eyes
Admit no slumber, nor surprise.
- 5 Should earth and hell with malice burn,
Still thou shalt go, and still return,
Safe in the Lord ; his heavenly care
Defends thy life from every snare.

727 Give him the thanks his love demands. L. M.

TO God the great, the ever-blest,
Let songs of honor be address'd!
His mercy firm forever stands;
Give him the thanks his love demands!

- 2 Who knows the wonder of his ways?
Who can make known his boundless praise?
Blest are the souls that fear him still,
And learn submission to his will.

728 Doxology. L. M.

PRAISE God, ye heavenly hosts above!
Praise him all creatures of his love!
Praise him each morning, noon and night,
Praise him with holy sweet delight!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

729 Thou leadest thy people like a flock C. M.
Psalm 77 : 20.

THOU art our Shepherd, glorious God!
Thy little flock behold,
And guide us by thy staff and rod,
The children of thy fold.

2 We praise thy name that we were brought
To this delightful place, [taught.
Where we are watch'd, and warn'd, and
The children of thy grace.

3 May all our friends, thy servants here,
Meet with us all above.
And we and they in heav'n appear,
The children of thy love.

730 Prayer for divine direction. C. M.

ETERNAL Source of life and light!
Supremely good and wise!
To thee we bring our grateful vows,
To thee lift up our eyes.

1 Our dark and erring minds illumine
With truth's celestial rays;
Inspire our hearts with sacred love,
And tune our lips to praise.

3 Safely conduct us, by thy grace,
Through life's perplexing road;
And place us, when that journey's o'er,
At thy right hand, O God!

731 The seed of the word. C. M.

O GOD, by whom the seed is given,
By whom the harvest blest;
Whose word, like manna showered from
Is planted in our breast; [heaven,

CLOSING HYMNS.

Reserve it from the passing feet,
And plunderers of the air;
The sultry sun's intenser heat,
And weeds of worldly care!

Though buried deep, or thinly strewn,
Do thou thy grace supply;
The hope, in earthly furrows sown,
Shall ripen in the sky.

2 Parting in hope. C. M..

LORD, when together here we meet,
And taste thy heav'nly grace,
Thy smiles are so divinely sweet,
We're loath to leave the place.

Yet, Father, since it is thy will
That we must part again,
O let thy gracious presence still
With ev'ry one remain!

Thus let us all in Christ be one,
Bound with the cords of love,
Till we, around thy glorious throne,
Shall joyous meet above:

Where sin and sorrow from each heart
Shall then for ever fly,
And not one thought that we shall part
Once interrupt our joy.

3 The good Seed. C. M..

ALMIGHTY God, thy word is cast
Like seed into the ground;
Now let the dew of heaven descend,
And righteous fruits abound.

Let not the foe of Christ and man
This holy seed remove;
But give it root in every heart,
To bring forth fruits of love.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

734

Glory to God.

GLORY to God! who deigns to bless
This consecrated day,
Unfolds his wondrous promises,
And makes it sweet to pray.

2 Glory to God! who deigns to hear
The humblest sigh we raise,
And answers every heartfelt prayer,
And hears our hymn of praise.

735

Peace I leave with you.

John 14 : 27.

LORD, at this closing hour,
Establish every heart
Upon thy word of truth and power
To keep us when we part.

2 Peace to our brethren give;
Fill all our hearts with love;
In faith and patience may we live,
And seek our rest above.

3 Through changes, bright or drear,
We would thy will pursue;
And toil to spread thy kingdom here
Till we its glory view.

4 To God, the Only Wise,
In every age adored.
Let glory from the church arise
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

736

To the only wise God, our Saviour.

Jude 24.

TO God, the Only Wise,
Our Saviour and our King;
Let all the saints below the skies
Their humble praises bring.

CLOSING HYMNS.

Is almighty love,
counsel and his care,
keeps us safe from sin and leath, every hurtful snare.

Thou present our souls,
blemished and complete,
the glory of his face,
thy joys divinely great.

All the chosen seed
I meet; around the throne, bless the conduct of his grace,
make his wonders known.

Thou Redeemer, God.
Thy dom and power belong,
thy crowns of majesty,
thy everlasting song.

God be merciful to us.

S. M.

Psalm 67: 1.

less thy chosen race,
thy mercy, Lord, incline;
raise the brightness of thy face on thy saints to shine;—
on thy wondrous way through the world be known;
distant lands their homage pay,
thy salvation own.

Let the nations join
celebrate thy fame;
let the world, O Lord, combine,
raise thy glorious name.

Waiting in hope.

S. M.

If we shall meet again
when all our toils are o'er, pain, and death, and grief, and pain,
parting are no more.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 1 O, happy, happy day
That calls thy exiles home;
The flaming heavens shall pass away,
The earth receive her doom.
- 3 Saviour, we wait the sound
That shall our souls release,
And labor that we may be found
Of thee in perfect peace.
- 739 Absent in the flesh—present in the spirit. S. M.
AND let our bodies part,
To different climes repair;
Still and for ever joined in heart
The friends of Jesus are.
- 2 O let us still proceed
In Jesus' work below;
And following our triumphant Head,
To further conquests go.
- 3 O let our heart and mind,
Great God, to thee ascend,
That haven of repose to find,
Where all our labors end;
- 4 Where all our toils are o'er,
Our suffering and our pain:
Who meet on that eternal shore
Shall never part again.
- 740 The spread of truth. S. M.
THEY name, almighty Lord,
Shall sound through distant lands:
Great is thy grace, and sure thy word;
Thy truth for ever stands.
- 2 Far be thine honor spread,
And long thy praise endure,
Till morning light and evening shade
Shall be exchanged no more.

CLOSING HYMNS.

41 Blessedness of the pure in heart. S. M

BLEST are the pure in heart
For they shall see our God ;
The secret of the Lord is theirs ;
Their soul is his abode.

2 Still to the lowly soul
He doth himself impart,
And for his temple and his throne
Selects the pure in heart.

42 Head of the Church triumphant. 7s. pe'.

HEAD of the Church triumphant!
We joyfully adore thee ;
Till thou appear, thy members here
Shall sing like those in glory.

3 We lift our hearts and voices
With blest anticipation,
And cry aloud, and give to God
The praise of our salvation.

43 Psalm 117. 7s.

ALL ye nations, praise the Lord ;
All ye lands, your voices raise ;
Heaven and earth, with loud accord
Praise the Lord, for ever praise.

2 For his truth and mercy stand,
Past, and present, and to be,
Like the years of his right hand,
Like his own eternity.

44 Supplication—with thanksgiving. 7s.
Phil. 4 : 6.

THANKS for mercies past receive ;
Pardon of our sins renew ;
Teach us, henceforth, how to live
With eternity in view.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

- 2 Bless thy word to old and young;
Grant us, Lord, thy peace and love;
And, when life's short race is run,
Take us to thy house above.

745 Guide us, Lord. 7s. double.

GUIDE us, Lord! while, hand in hand,
Journeying toward the better land;
Foes we know are to be met,
Snares the pilgrim's path beset;
Clouds upon the valley rest,
Rough and dark the mountain's breast;
And our home can not be gained,
Save through trials well sustained.

- 2 Guide us, while we onward move,
Linked in closest bonds of love,
Striving for the holy mind,
And the soul from sense refined;
That when life no longer burns,
And the dust to dust returns,
With the strength which thou hast given,
We may rise to thee and heaven.

746 The God of Peace—make you perfect. 7s
Heb. 13 : 20.

NOW may he, who from the dead
Brought the Shepherd of the sheep,
Jesus Christ, our King and Head,
All our souls in safety keep!

- 2 May he teach us to fulfil
What is pleasing in his sight;
Perfect us in all his will,
And preserve us day and night.
- 3 Great Redeemer! thee we praise,
Who the covenant sealed with blood;
While our hearts and voices raise
Loud thanksgiving unto God.

CLOSING. HYMNS.

747

Col. 1: 11, 12.

7s.

GLORIOUS in thy saints appear;
 From thy heavenly kingdom here;
 Light and life to all impart;
 Shine on each believing heart;

- 2 And, in every grace complete,
 Make us, Lord, for glory meet;
 Till we stand before thy sight,
 Partners with the saints in light.

748

I will never leave thee.

Heb. 13: 5.

7s

FOR a season called to part,
 Let us now ourselves commend
 To the gracious eye and heart
 Of our ever-present Friend.

- 2 Jesus, hear our humble prayer;
 Tender Shepherd of thy sheep,
 Let thy mercy and thy care
 All our souls in safety keep.
- 3 In thy strength may we be strong:
 Sweeten every cross and pain;
 Give us, if thou wilt, ere long
 Here to meet in peace again.

749

Doxology.

7s. double.

FATHER! glory be to thee,
 Source of all the good we see!
 Glory for the blessed Light
 Rising on the ancient night!
 Glory for the hopes that come
 Streaming through the silent tomb!
 Glory for thy Spirit given,
 Guiding us in peace to heaven!

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

750

The salutation of peace.

8s & 7s.

- PEACE be to this congregation!
Peace to every heart therein!
Peace, the earnest of salvation,
Peace, the fruit of conquer'd sin;
2 Peace, that speaks the heavenly Giver,
Peace, to worldly minds unknown,
Peace, that floweth, as a river,
From the eternal Source alone.
3 O thou God of Peace! be near us,
Fix within our hearts thy home;
With thy bright appearing cheer us,
In thy bless'd freedom come.
4 Come, with all thy revelations,
Truth which we so long have sought;
Come with thy deep consolations,
Peace of God which passeth thought!

751

Closing hymn.

8s & 7s.

- ISRUEL'S Shepherd, guide me, feed me,
Through my pilgrimage below,
And beside the waters lead me,
Where thy flock rejoicing go.
2 Lord, thy guardian presence ever,
Meekly kneeling, I implore;
I have found thee, and would never,
Never wander from thee more.

752

Apostolic benediction.

8s & 7s.

- MAY the grace of Christ our Saviour,
And the Father's boundless love,
With the Holy Spirit's favor,
Rest upon us from above.

CLOSING HYMNS.

- 2 Thus may we abide in union
 With each other and the Lord;
 And possess, in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth can not afford.

53 Praise to Christ. 8s & 7s

WORSHIP, honor, glory, blessing,
 Be to him who reigns above!
 Young and old thy Name confessing,
 Saviour! let us share thy love!

- 2 As the saints in heaven adore thee,
 We would bow before thy throne;
 As thine angels bow before thee,
 So on earth thy will be done!

54 Dismission. 8s, 7s & 4

L ORD, dismiss us with thy blessing,
 Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
 Let us each, thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace;
 O refresh us!
 Trav'ling through this wilderness.

- 2 Thanks we give and adoration
 For the gospel's joyful sound;
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound;
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.

- 3 So, whene'er the signal's given
 Us from earth to call away;
 Borne on angel's wings to heav'n
 Glad the summons to obey,
 May we ready,
 Rise and reign in endless day.

Then to praise thee
Through a bright eternity.

2 Precious is thy word of promise.
Precious to thy people here;
Never take thy presence from us,
Jesus, Saviour, still be near;
Living, dying,
May thy name our spirits cheer.

756 God of our salvation, hear us. 8s, 7s d

GOD of our salvation, hear us;
Bless, O bless us, ere we go;
When we join the world, be near us,
Lest we cold and careless grow;
Saviour, keep us,—
Keep us safe from every foe.

3 As our steps are drawing nearer
To the place we call our home,
May our view of heaven grow clearer
Hope more bright of joys to come;
And when dying,
May thy presence cheer the gloom.

757 Praise for salvation. 7s &

TO thee be praise for ever.

TRUST AND JOY.

'58 To God, and the word of his grace. H. M.
 Acts 20: 32.

TO thee our wants are known,
 From thee are all our powers;
 Accept what is thine own,
 And pardon what is ours:
 Our praises, Lord, and prayers, receive,
 And to thy words a blessing give.

2 O, grant that each of us
 Now met before thee here,
 May meet together thus,
 When thou and thine appear:
 To thy blest presence may we come
 And dwell in an eternal home.

'59 Show me a token for good. P. M.
 Psalm 86: 17.

OF thy love some gracious token
 Grant us, Lord, before we go;
 Bless thy word which has been spoken;
 Life and peace on all bestow!
 When we join the world again,
 Let our hearts with thee remain;
 O direct us
 And protect us,
 Till we gain the heavenly shore,
 Where thy people want no more!

TRUST AND JOY.

'60 The peace of God. L. M.
 Phil. 4: 7.

O PEACE of God, sweet peace of God!
 Where broods on earth this gentle dove!
 Where spread those pure and downy wings
 To shelter him whom God doth love?

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Whence comes this blessing of the soul,
This silent joy which can not fade?
This glory, tranquil, holy bright,
Pervading sorrow's deepest shade?
- 3 The peace of God, the peace of God!
It shines as clear 'mid cloud and storm
As in the calmest summer day,
'Mid chill as in the sunlight warm.
- 4 O peace of God! earth hath no power
To shed thine unction o'er the heart;
Its smile can never bring it here,—
Its frown ne'er bid its light depart.
- 5 Calm peace of God, in holy trust,
In love and faith, thy presence dwells—
In patient suffering and toil
Where mercy's gentle tear-drop swells
- 6 Sweet peace! O let thy heavenly ray
Shed its calm radiance o'er my road;
Its kindly light shall cheer me on—
Guide to the endless peace of God.

761

God our Father.

L.

- IS there a lone and dreary hour,
When worldly pleasures lose their power
My Father! let me turn to thee.
And set each thought of darkness free.
- 2 Is there a time of rushing grief,
Which scorns the prospect of relief?
My Father! break the cheerless gloom.
And bid my heart its calm resume.
- 3 Is there an hour of peace and joy
When hope is all my soul's employ?
My Father! still my hopes will roam,
Until they rest with thee, their home.

TRUST AND JOY.

The noontide blaze, the midnight scene,
The dawn, or twilight's sweet serene,
The glow of life, the dying hour,
Shall own my Father's grace and power

62 The secret place of the Most High. L. M. D
Psalm 91 : 1.

- O THIS is blessing, this is rest!
Into thine arms, O Lord! I flee;
I hide me in thy faithful breast,
And pour out all my soul to thee.
Now, hushing every adverse sound,
Songs of defense my soul surround,
As if all saints encamped about
One trusting heart, pursued by doubt.
- 2 And O, how solemn, yet how sweet,
Their one assured, persuasive strain!
"The Lord of hosts is thy retreat,
Still in his hands thy times remain."
O tender word! O truth divine!
Lord, I am altogether thine;
I have bowed down, I need not flee;
Peace, peace is found in trusting thee.
- 3 And now I count supremely kind
The rule that once I thought severe;
And precious, to my altered mind,
At length thy kind reproofs appear.
I must be taught what I would know,
I must be led where I should go:
And all the rest ordained for me
Is to be found in trusting thee.

63 The repose of faith. L. M

O FATHER! gladly we repose
Our souls on thee, who dwell'st above,
And bless thee for the peace which flows
From faith in thine encircling love.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Though every earthly trust may break,
Infinite might belongs to thee;
Though every earthly friend forsake,
Unchangeable thou still wilt be.
- 3 Though griefs may gather darkly round,
They can not vail us from thy sight;
Though vain all human aid be found,
Thou every grief canst turn to light.
- 4 All things thy wise designs fulfill,
In earth beneath, and heaven above,
And good breaks out from every ill,
Through faith in thine encircling love.

764 God is my light and my salvation. L. M. 6 lines.
Psalm 27 : 1.

FOUNTAIN of light, and living breath,
Whose mercies never fail nor fade,
Fill me with life that hath no death,
Fill me with light that hath no shade;
Appoint the remnant of my days
To see thy power, and sing thy praise.

- 2 O Lord, our God, before whose throne
Stand storms and fire, O what shall we Return to heaven, that is our own,
When all the world belongs to thee?
We have no offering to impart,
But praises, and a broken heart.
- 2 O thou who sittest in heaven and seest
My deeds without, my thoughts within,
Be thou my prince. be thou my priest,—
Command my soul, and cure my sin:
How bitter my afflictions be
I care not, so I rise to thee.

TRUST AND JOY.

- 4 What I possess, or what I crave
 Brings no content, great God, to me,
 If what I would or what I have
 Be not possessed and blest in thee:
 What I enjoy, O. make it mine,
 In making me—that have it—thine.

765 I delight to do thy will, O my God. L. M.
 Psalm 40 : 8.

O LORD, thy heavenly grace impart,
 And fix my frail, inconstant heart,
 Henceforth my chief delight shall be
 To dedicate myself to thee,
 To thee, my God, to thee.

- 2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
 One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
 That silent, secret thought shall be,
 That all my hopes are fixed on thee,
 On thee, my God, on thee.

- 3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
 Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
 And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
 Still shall my spirit cleave to thee,
 To thee, my God, to thee.

- 4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
 And safe beneath thy sheltering wing,
 My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
 That all I want I find in thee,
 In thee, my God, in thee.

766 My soul trusteth in thee. L. M. 6 lines.
 Psalm 57 : 1.

DO not I trust in thee, O Lord?
 Do I not rest in thee alone?
 Is not the comfort of thy word
 The sweetest cordial I have known?
 When vexed with care, bowed down with
 Where else could I obtain relief? grief.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 And is it not my chief desire
To feel as if a stranger here?
Do not my hopes and thoughts aspire
Beyond this transitory sphere?
And art thou not, while here I roam,
My hope, my hiding-place, my home?
- 4 O, yes! these things are ever true;
Thy promise is for ever sure;
And all I now am passing through,
And all that I may still endure,
Will but endear thy word to me,
And draw me nearer, Lord, to thee.
- 1 And now on thee I cast my soul,
Come life or death, come ease or pain;
Thy presence can each fear control,
Thy grace can to the end sustain:
Those whom thou lovest, heavenly Friend,
Thou lovest even to the end!

767

Repose in God's wisdom.

L. M

- WHITHER, O whither should I fly,
But to my loving Father's breast!
Secure within thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath thy wings to rest!
- 2 In all my ways thy hand I own,
Thy ruling providence I see:
Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.
- 3 I have no skill the snare to shun;
But thou, O God, my wisdom art;
I ever into ruin run;
But thou art greater than my heart.
- 4 Foolish, and impotent, and blind,
Lead me a way I have not known;
Bring me where I my heaven may find,
The heaven of loving thee alone.

He leadeth me. L. M. 6 lines.

“HE leadeth me!” O! blessed thought,
O! words with heavenly comfort
Whate’er I do, whate’er I be, [fraught,
Still ’t is God’s hand that leadeth me!
He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
By his own hand he leadeth me.

1 Sometimes ’midst scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden’s bowers bloom;
By waters still, o’er troubled sea—
Still ’t is his hand that leadeth me!
He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
By his own hand he leadeth me.

3 Lord, I would clasp thy hands in mine,
Nor ever murmur nor repine—
Content, whatever lot I see,
Since ’t is my God that leadeth me.
He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
By his own hand he leadeth me.

4 And when my task on earth is done,
When, by thy grace, the victory’s won;
E’en death’s cold wave I will not flee,
Since God through Jordan leadeth me.
He leadeth me! he leadeth me!
By his own hand he leadeth me.

769 Thou art my soul’s bright morning star. C. M.

MY God, the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
The comfort of my nights!

2 In darkest shades, if thou appear,
My dawning is begun;
Thou art my soul’s bright morning star
And thou my rising sun.

THE NEW LIFE.

3 The op'ning heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his mercy mine,
And whispers I am his.

4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word,
And run with joy the shining way
To meet my dearest Lord.

770 Rejoice in the Lord always. C. M.
Phil. 4 : 4.

REJOICE, believers in the Lord,
Who makes your cause his own;
The hope that's built upon his word
Can ne'er be overthrown.

2 Though many foes beset your road,
And feeble is your arm,
Your life is hid in Christ your God,
Beyond the reach of harm.

3 Weak as you are, you shall not faint,
Or fainting shall not die;
Jesus, the strength of ev'ry saint,
Will aid you from on high.

4 As surely as he overcame,
And triumph'd once for you;
So surely you that love his name
Shall triumph in him too.

771 Call me thy servant, Lord. C. M.

O NOT to fill the mouth of fame
My longing soul is stirred:
But give me a diviner name;
Call me thy servant, Lord!

2 No longer would my soul be known
As uncontrolled and free;
O, not mine own! O, not mine own!
Lord, I belong to thee.

TRUST AND JOY.

- 3 Thy servant—me thy servant choose,
Nought of thy claim abate!
The glorious name I would not lose,
Nor change the sweet estate.
- 4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven,
This is the name for me;
And be the same dear title given
Through all eternity.

772

Psalm 1.

C. M.

- BLESS'D is the man who shuns the place
Where sinners love to meet,
Who fears to tread their wicked ways,
And hates the scoffer's seat.
- 2 But in the statutes of the Lord
Has plac'd his chief delight;
By day he reads or hears the word,
And meditates by night.
- 3 Green as the leaf, and ever fair,
Shall his profession shine;
While fruits of holiness appear
Like clusters on the vine.
- 4 Not so the impious and unjust:
What vain designs they form!
Their hopes are blown away like dust,
Or chaff before the storm.
- Sinners in judgment shall not stand
Among the sons of grace,
When Christ the judge at his right hand
Appoints his saints a place.
- 6 His eyes behold the path they tread
His heart approves it well;
But crooked ways of sinners lead
Down to the gates of hell.

THE NEW LIFE.

773

O lead us gently on.

C. M. D.

FATHER of love, our Guide and Friend,
O, lead us gently on,
Until life's trial-time shall end,
And heavenly peace be won!
We know not what the path may be
As yet by us untrod;
But we can trust our all to thee,
Our Father and our God.

- 2 If called, like Abraham's child, to climb
The hill of sacrifice,
Some angel may be there in time;
Deliverance shall arise:
Or, if some darker lot be good,
O, teach us to endure
The sorrow, pain, or solitude,
That make the spirit pure!

774

Thou art my portion, O Lord.

C. M.

Psalm 119: 57.

THOU art my portion, O my God;
Soon as I know thy way,
My heart makes haste t' obey thy word,
And suffers no delay.

- 1 I choose the path of heavenly truth,
And glory in my choice;
Not all the riches of the earth
Could make me so rejoice.
- 3 The testimonies of thy grace
I set before mine eyes;
Thence I derive my daily strength,
And there my comfort lies.
- 1 If once I wander from thy path,
I think upon my ways;
Then turn my feet to thy commands,
And trust thy pardoning grace.

TRUST AND JOY.

5 Now I am thine, forever thine ;
 O, save thy servant, Lord ;
 Thou art my shield, my hiding-place
 My hope is in thy word.

775 The spirit of a little Child. C. M. 6 lines

FATHER, I know that all my life
 Is portioned out for me ;
 The changes that will surely come
 I do not fear to see :
 I ask thee for a present mind,
 Intent on pleasing thee.

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
 Through constant watching wise,
 To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
 And wipe the weeping eyes ;
 A heart at leisure from itself,
 To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
 That hurries to and fro,
 That seeks for some great thing to do,
 Or secret thing to know :
 I would be treated as a child,
 And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
 In whatsoe'er estate,
 I have a fellowship with hearts,
 To keep and cultivate ;
 A work of lowly love to do
 For him on whom I wait.

776 Christ loved unseen. (1. M

1 Peter 1: 8.

JESUS, these eyes have never seen
 That radiant form of thine !
 The veil of sense hangs dark between
 Thy blessed face and mine !

THE NEW LIFE.

- 1 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with thee.
- 2 Like some bright dream that comes
When slumbers o'er me roll, [s
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.
- 4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone;
I love thee, dearest Lord! and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.
- 5 When death these mortal eyes shall
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending vail shall thee reveal,
All glorious as thou art!

777

Job 1 : 21.

O.

- WHEN I can trust my all with God
In trial's fearful hour—
Bow all resigned beneath his rod,
And bless his sparing power;
A joy springs up amid distress,
A fountain in the wilderness.
- 2 O! to be brought to Jesus' feet,
Though trials fix me there,
Is still a privilege most sweet;
For he will hear my prayer;
Though sighs and tears its language
The Lord is nigh to answer me.
- 3 Then, blesséd be the hand that Still blesséd when it takes;
Blesséd be he who smites to save
Who heals the heart he breaks
Perfect and true are all his ways
Whom heaven adores and death

TRUST AND JOY.

That Rock was Christ.

S. M.

1 Cor. .9: 4.

EL the desert trod,
gain'd by power divine,
wondrous mercy mark'd the road
many a mystic sign.

Moses gave the stroke,
in Horeb's flinty side
a river, and the rock
Hebrew's thirst supplied.

What nobler themes
gospel grace afford!
Calvary spring superior streams—
we hung the smitten Lord!

Why hope bereft,
where, to Jesus go;
In the Rock of Ages cleft, living currents flow.

May our spirits bathe,
may our joys abound!
Pass'd the wilderness and death,
tread celestial ground.

Having all in Christ.

S. M.

Thy spirit on thy care,
Blest Saviour, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For thou art love divine.

When I place my trust
In thee I calmly rest:
How thee good, I know thee just,
And count thy choice the best.

Whatever events betide,
How will they all perform;
In thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 4 Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me—
Secure of having thee in all,
Of having all in thee.

780

Make me like a little child.

7a

- JESUS, cast a look on me!
Give me true simplicity:
Make me poor, and keep me low,
Seeking only thee to know.
- 2 All that feeds my busy pride,
Cast it evermore aside;
Bid my will to thine submit;
Lay me humbly at thy feet.
- 3 Make me like a little child.
Simple, teachable, and mild;
Seeing only in thy light;
Walking only in thy might!
- 4 Leaning on thy loving breast,
Where a weary soul may rest;
Feeling well the peace of God
Flowing from thy precious blood!

781

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel. P.M.

Psalms 73: 24.

MY Shepherd's mighty aid,
His dear redeeming love,
His all-protecting power displayed,
I joy to prove.
Led onward by my Guide,
I tread the beautiful scene,
Where tranquil waters gently glide
Through pastures green.
In error's maze my soul
Shall wander now no more;
His Spirit shall, with sweet control,
The lost restore;

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.
- 3 Vainer still the hope of heaven
That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given
Who in humble faith applies.
- 4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed,
He shall grant us peace and rest:
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed
Who through Christ his prayer add.

784

1 John 4: 19.

- SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day
Love's sweet lessons to obey;
Sweeter lessons can not be,
Loving him who first loved me.
- 2 With a child-like heart of love,
At thy bidding may I move;
Prompt to serve and follow thee,
Loving him who first loved me.
 - 3 Teach me all thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in thy grace;
Learning how to love from thee,
Loving him who first loved me.
 - 4 Love in loving finds employ—
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving him who first loved me.
 - 5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till thy face I see,
Of his love who first loved me

TRUST AND JOY.

85

I will fear no evil.

7s. & 6s.

Psalm 27: 1.

- IN heavenly love abiding,
 No change my heart shall fear
 And safe is such confiding.
 For nothing changes here.
 The storm may roar without me,
 My heart may low be laid,
 But God is round about me,
 And can I be dismayed?
- 2 Wherever he may guide me,
 No want shall turn me back:
 My Shepherd is beside me,
 And nothing can I lack.
 His wisdom ever waketh,
 His sight is never dim;
 He knows the way he taketh,
 And I will walk with him.
- 3 Green pastures are before me,
 Which yet I have not seen;
 Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
 Where the dark clouds have been.
 My hope, I can not measure,
 My path to life is free,
 My Saviour has my treasure,
 And he will walk with me.

86

Be thou my strong Rock.

6s & 4s.

Psalm 31: 2.

- O STRONG to save and bless,
 My Rock and Righteousness,
 Draw near to me.
 Blessing, and joy, and might,
 Wisdom, and love, and light
 Are all with thee.
- 2 My Refuge and my Rest,
 As child on mother's breast

THE NEW LIFE.

I lean on thee.
From faintness and from fear,
When foes and ill are near,
Deliver me.

- 3 O. answer me, my God;
Thy love is deep and broad,
Thy grace is true.
Thousands this grace have shared
O, let me now be heard,
O, love me too.

787

It is well.

P. M

2 Kings 4: 26.

THROUGH the love of God our Saviour,
All will be well:
Free and changeless is his favor;
All, all is well:
Precious is the blood that healed us;
Perfect is the grace that sealed us;
Strong the hand stretched out to shield us
All must be well.

- 2 Though we pass through tribulation,
All will be well;
Ours is such a full salvation;
All, all is well
Happy, still in God confiding,
Fruitful if in Christ abiding,
Holy, through the Spirit's guiding,
All must be well.

- 3 We expect a bright to-morrow;
All will be well:
Faith can sing through days of sorrow,
All, all is well:
On our Father's love relying,
Jesus every need supplying,
Or in living, or in dying,
All must be well.

TRUST AND JOY.

788

Trust in God amid perils.

4s & 6.

- IN time of fear,
When trouble's near,
I look to thine abode;
Though helpers fail,
And foes prevail,
I'll put my trust in God.
- 2 And what is life
But toil and strife?
What terror has the grave?
Thine arm of power,
In peril's hour,
The trembling soul will save.
- 3 In darkest skies,
Though storms arise,
I will not be dismayed:
O God of light,
And boundless might,
My soul on thee is stayed!

789

Acquaint now thyself with him.

11s

Job 22: 21

- ACQUAINT thee, O mortal, acquaint thee with God,
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road;
And peace like the dewdrop, shall fall on thy head,
And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.
- 2 Acquaint thee, O mortal, acquaint thee with God,
And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad:
Thy safeguard in danger that threatens thy path
Thy joy in the valley and shadow of death.

790

Heb. 12: 2.

11s

- OEYES that are weary, and hearts that are sore
Look off unto Jesus, now sorrow no more!
The light of his countenance shineth so bright,
That here, as in heaven, there need be no night.
- 2 While looking to Jesus, my heart can not fear;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
For, "Why are you troubled?" he saith unto me.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 Still looking to Jesus, O, may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round;
They bear me away in his presence to be;
I see him still nearer whom always I see.
- 4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
Shall know how his love went before me each day,
And wonder that ever my eyes turned away.

791

Complete in Christ.

10s

- LONG did I toil, and knew no earthly rest;
Far did I rove, and found no certain home;
At last I sought them in his sheltering breast,
Who opes his arms, and bids the weary come:
With him I found a home, a rest divine;
And I since then am his, and he is mine.
- 2 Yes! he is mine! and nought of earthly things,
Not all the charms of pleasure, wealth, or power,
The fame of heroes, or the pomp of kings,
Could tempt me to forego his love an hour.
Go, worthless world, I cry, with all that's thine!
Go! I my Saviour's am, and he is mine.
- 3 The good I have is from his stores supplied;
The ill is only what he deems the best;
He for my Friend, I'm rich with nought beside;
And poor without him, though of all possess:
Changes may come; I take, or I resign;
Content, while I am his, while he is mine.

792

Precious promises.

11s

- HOW firm a foundation, you saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word!
What more can he say than to you he has said,
You who unto Jesus for refuge have fled?
- 2 In ev'ry condition, in sickness, in health,
In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth;
At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea,
As your days may demand, so your succor shall be.
- 3 Fear not—I am with you; O be not dismay'd!
I, I am your God, and I will still give you aid;
I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause you to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

TRUST AND JOY.

- 4 When through the deep waters I cause you to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not you o'erflow ;
For I will be with you your troubles to bless,
And sanctify to you your deepest distress.
- 5 When through fiery trials your pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be your supply :
The flame shall not hurt you : I only design
Your dross to consume, and your gold to refine.
- 6 E'en down to old age all my people shall prove
My sov'reign, eternal, unchangeable love ;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.
- 7 The soul that on Jesus has lean'd for repose,
I will not, I can not desert to his foes ;
That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never—no, never—no, never forsake !

793

Rejoicing in hope.

105

Rom. 12 : 12.

- JOYFULLY, joyfully onward I move,
Bound to the land of bright spirits above ;
Angelic choristers, sing as I come—
Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home !
Soon with my pilgrimage ended below,
Home to the land of bright spirits I go ;
Pilgrim and stranger, no more shall I roam :
Joyfully, joyfully resting at home.
- 2 Friends fondly cherished, but passed on before ;
Waiting, they watch me approaching the shore ;
Singing to cheer me through death's chilling gloom :
Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home.
Sounds of sweet melody fall on my ear ;
Harps of the blessed, your voices I hear !
Rings with the harmony heaven's high dome—
Joyfully, joyfully haste to thy home.
- 3 Death, with thy weapons of war lay me low,
Strike king of terrors ! I fear not the blow ;
Jesus hath broken the bars of the tomb !
Joyfully, joyfully will I go home.
Bright will the morn of eternity dawn ;
Death shall be banished, his scepter be gone ;
Joyfully, then, shall I witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

THE NEW LIFE.

794

Behold the fowls of the air.

P. M.

Math. 6 : 26.

THE child leans on its parent's breast,
Leaves there its cares, and is at rest;
The bird sits singing by his nest,
And tells aloud
His trust in God, and so is blest
'Neath every cloud.

2 He has no store, he sows no seed;
Yet sings aloud, and doth not heed;
By flowing stream or grassy mead
He sings to shame
Men, who forget, in fear of need,
A Father's name.

3 The heart that trusts forever sings,
And feels as light as it had wings;
A well of peace within it springs:
Come good or ill,
Whate'er to-day, to-morrow brings,
It is his will!

795

Matthew 14 : 28, 29.

C. P. M.

HE bids us come; his voice we know,
And boldly on the waters go,
To him our Christ and Lord;
We walk on life's tempestuous sea,
For he who died to set us free
Hath called us by his word.

2 Secure from troubled waves we tread,
Nor all the storms around us heed,
While to our Lord we look;
O'er every fierce temptation bound, —
The billows yield a solid ground,
The wave is firm as rock.

TRUST AND JOY.

- 3 But if from him we turn our eye,
And see the raging floods run high,
And feel our fears within;
Our foes so strong, our flesh so frail,
Reason and unbelief prevail,
And sink us into sin.
- 4 Lord, we our feeble faith confess,
That little spark of faith increase,
That we may doubt no more;
But fix on thee our steady eye,
And on thine outstretched arm rely,
Till all the storm is o'er.

796

Rest, weary heart.

P. M.

REST, weary heart,
From all thy silent griefs, and secret pain,
Thy profitless regrets, and longings vain;
Wisdom and love have ordered all the past,
All shall be blessedness and light at last;
Cast off the cares that have so long oppress;
Rest, sweetly rest!

- 2 Rest, weary head!
Lie down to slumber in the peaceful tomb:
Light from above has broken through its gloom:
Here, in the place where once thy Saviour lay,
Where he shall wake thee on a future day,
Like a tired child upon its mother's breast,
Rest, sweetly rest!

- 3 Rest, spirit free!
In the green pastures of the heavenly shore,
Where sin and sorrow can approach no more,
With all the flock by the Good Shepherd fed,
Beside the streams of life eternal led,
Forever with thy God and Saviour blest
Rest, sweetly rest!

797

The bright and morning star.

P. M.

Rev. 22 : 16.

STAR of morn and even,
Sun of Heaven's heaven,
Saviour high and dear,
Toward us turn thine ear;

THE NEW LIFE.

Through whate'er may come,
Thou canst lead us home.

2 Though the gloom be grievous,
Those we leant on leave us,
Though the coward heart
Quit its proper part,
Though the tempter come,
Thou wilt lead us home.

3 Saviour pure and holy,
Lover of the lowly,
Sign us with thy sign,
Take our hands in thine;
Take our hands and come,
Lead thy children home!

4 Star of morn and even,
Shine on us from heaven;
From thy glory-throne
Hear thy very own!
Lord and Saviour, come,
Lead us to our home!

798

I will not let thee go.

P. M.

I WILL not let thee go; thou help in time of need
Heap ill on ill
I trust thee still,

E'en when it seems as thou wouldst slay indeed!
Do as thou wilt with me,
I yet will cling to thee,

Hide thou thy face, yet, help in time of need,
I will not let thee go!

3 I will not let thee go; should I forsake my bliss?
No, Lord, thou'rt mine,
And I am thine;

Thee will I hold when all things else I miss
Though dark and sad the night,
Joy cometh with thy light,

O thou my Sun: should I forsake my bliss?
I will not let thee go!

TRUST AND JOY.

3 I will not let thee go, my God, my Life, my Lord !
Not death can tear

Me from his care,

Who for my sake his soul in death outpour'd.

'Thou diedst for love to me,

I say in love to thee,

E'en when my heart shall break, my God, my Life, my Lord,
I will not let thee go!

799 They shall never perish. 7s, peculiar.
John 10 : 28.

NOW as long as here I roam,
On this earth have house and home.
Shall the light of love from thee
Shine through all my memory.

To my God I yet will cling,

All my life the praises sing

That from thankful hearts outspring.

2 Every sorrow, every smart,
That the Father's loving heart
Hath appointed me of yore,

Or hath yet for me in store,

As my life flows on I'll take

Calmly, gladly for his sake,

No more faithless murmurs make.

3 I will meet distress and pain,
I will greet e'en death's dark reign,

I will lay me in the grave,

With a heart still glad and brave.

Whom the strongest doth defend,

Whom the highest counts his friend,

Can not perish in the end.

800 The shining shore. P. M.

MY days are gliding swiftly by,

And I a pilgrim stranger,

Would not detain them as they fly—

Those hours of toil and danger.

THE NEW LIFE.

CHORUS.

For O! we stand on Jordan's strand
Our friends are passing over;
And just before the shining shore
We may almost discover.

- 2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,
Our distant home discerning;
Our absent Lord has left us word,
Let every lamp be burning.
- 3 Should coming days be cold and dark,
We need not cease our singing;
That perfect rest nought can molest,
Where golden harps are ringing.
- 4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,
Each cord on earth to sever;
Our King says, "Come," and there's our Forever, O! forever. [hom

801

Still will we trust.

P. M

STILL will we trust, though earth seem dark and drear
And the heart faint beneath his chastening rod,
Though rough and steep our pathway, worn and weary,
Still will we trust in God!

- 2 Our eyes see dimly till by faith anointed,
And our blind choosing brings us grief and pain;
Through him alone who hath our way appointed,
We find our peace again.
- 3 Choose for us, God! nor let our weak preferring
Cheat our poor souls of good thou hast designed;
Choose for us, God! thy wisdom is unerring,
And we are fools and blind.
- 4 So from our sky, the night shall furl her shadows,
And day pour gladness through his golden gates;
Our rough path leads to flower-enameled meads
Where joy our coming waits.
- 5 Let us press on in patient self-denial,
Accept the hardship, shrinking not from loss—
Our guerdon lies beyond the hour of trial;
Our crown, beyond the Cross.

TRUST AND JOY.

802 God doth not leave his own. P. M.

GOD doth not leave his own !
 (T The night of weeping for a time may last;
 Then, tears all past,
 His going forth shall as the morning shine;
 The sunrise of his favors shall be thine—
 God doth not leave his own.

2 God doth not leave his own !
 Though "few and evil" all their days appear,
 Though grief and fear [crowd,
 Come in the train of earth and hell's dark
 The trusting heart says, even in the cloud,
 God doth not leave his own.

3 God doth not leave his own !
 This sorrow in their life he doth permit,
 Yea, useth it [way,—
 To speed his children on their heavenward
 He guides the winds.—Faith, Hope and Love
 God doth not leave his own. [all say

803 Trust. P. M.

I KNOW not if or dark or bright
 Shall be my lot;
 If that wherein my hopes delight
 Be best, or not.

2 It may be mine to drag for years
 Toil's heavy chain;
 Or day and night my meat be tears
 On bed of pain.

3 Dear faces may surround my hearth
 With smiles and glee;
 Or I may dwell alone, and mirth
 Be strange to me.

4 My bark is wafted to the strand
 By breath divine;
 And on the helm there rests a hand
 Other than mine.

THE NEW LIFE

5 One who has known in storms to sail
I have on board;
Above the raving of the gale
I hear my Lord.

804

Nearer.

P. M.

WE are too far from thee, our Saviour
Too far from thee.
Before our eyes
Dark mists arise,
And veil the glories from the skies;
We are too far from thee.

2 We are too far from thee, our Saviour,
Too far from thee.
Fierce pains oppress,
Dark cares distress,
Made darker by our loneliness:
We are too far from thee.

3 We are too far from thee, our Saviour,
Too far from thee.
Dark waters roll
Above the soul;
Striving to reach the heavenly goal,
We are too far from thee.

4 We are too far from thee, our Saviour,
Too far from thee.
Alone, afraid,
Our path is laid
In darkness; send thy heavenly aid;
We are too far from thee.

6 We are too far from thee, our Saviour,
Too far from thee.
E'en if thy rod
Bring us to God,
In meekness be the pathway trod,
If it but lead to God.

ASPIRATIONS.

- 6 Draw us more close to thee, our Saviour,
 More close to thee.
 Let come what will
 Of good or ill,
 'T is one to us, well knowing still
 Thou drawest us to thee.

805

I have given him for a leader.

P. M.

Isaiah 55 : 4.

- JESUS! guide our way
 To eternal day!
 So shall we, no more delaying,
 Follow thee, thy voice obeying;
 Lead us by the hand
 To our Father's land!
- 2 When we danger meet,
 Steadfast make our feet!
 Lord, preserve us uncomplaining
 'Mid the darkness round us reigning!
 Through adversity
 Lies our way to thee.
- 3 Order all our way
 Through this mortal day;
 In our toil with aid be near us;
 In our need with succor cheer us;
 When life's course is o'er,
 Open thou the door!

ASPIRATIONS

806

And dying is but going home.

L. M.

NOW let our souls, on wings sublime,
 Rise from the vanities of time,
 Draw back the parting vail, and see
 The glories of eternity.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Born by a new, celestial birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at vain and fleeting toys,
So near to heaven's eternal joys?
- 3 Shall aught beguile us on the road,
While we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
And dying is but going home.
- 4 Welcome, sweet hour of full discharge
That sets our longing souls at large,
Unbinds our chains, breaks up our cell
And gives us with our God to dwell.
- 5 To dwell with God, to feel his love,
Is the full heaven enjoyed above;
And the sweet expectation now
Is the young dawn of heaven below.

807

That I may win Christ.

Phil. 3: 8.

L

- JESUS, my love, my chief delight,
For thee I long, for thee I pray,
Amid the shadows of the night,
Amid the bus'ness of the day.
- 2 When shall I see thy smiling face,
That face which I have often seen?
Arise, thou Sun of Righteousness!
Scatter the clouds that intervene.
 - 3 Thou art the glorious gift of God,
To sinners weary and distress'd;
The first of all his gifts bestow'd,
And certain pledge of all the rest.
 - 4 Since I can say this gift is mine;
I'll tread the world beneath my feet
No more at poverty repine,
Nor envy the rich sinner's state.

ASPIRATIONS.

808

Col. 3: 3, 4.

L. M.

WHAT sinners value I resign.
Lord! 't is enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.

- 2 This life 's a dream, an empty show;
But the bright world to which I go
Has joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake and find me there?
- 3 O glorious hour! O blest abode!
I shall be near and like my God!
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.
- 4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound;
Then burst the chains with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise.

809 Search me, O God, and know my heart. L. M.

Psalm 139: 23.

O THOU, to whose all-searching sight
The darkness shineth as the light,
Search, prove my heart, it pants for thee;
O, burst these bonds, and set it free.

- 2 Wash out its stains, refine its dross;
Nail my affections to the cross;
Hallow each thought; let all within
Be clean, as thou, my Lord, art clean.
- 3 If in this darksome wild I stray,
Be thou my light, be thou my way;
No foes, no violence I fear,
No fraud, while thou, my God, art near.
- 4 When rising floods my soul o'erflow,
When sinks my heart in waves of woe—
Jesus, thy timely aid impart,
And raise my head and cheer my heart.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 5 Saviour, where'er thy steps I see,
Dauntless, untired, I follow thee;
O, let thy hand support me still,
And lead me to thy holy hill.

810 That they be with me where I am. L. M.
John 17: 24.

LET me be with thee where thou art,
My Saviour, my eternal Rest!
Then only will this longing heart
Be fully and for ever blest!

- 2 Let me be with thee where thou art,
Wherespotless saints thy name adore;
Then only will this sinful heart
Be evil and defiled no more!
- 3 Let me be with thee where thou art,
Where none can die, where none remove;
There neither death nor life will part
Me from thy presence and thy love!

811 A new heart. C. M.

O FOR a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free,
A heart that always feels the blood
So freely shed for me.

- 2 A heart resign'd, submissive, meek,
My great Redeemer's throne,
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.
- 3 O for a lowly, contrite heart,
Confiding, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in ev'ry thought renew'd,
And full of love divine,
Perfect and right, and pure and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine.

ASPIRATIONS.

5 Thy Spirit, gracious Lord, impart;
 Direct me from above;
 May thy dear name be near my heart,
 That dear, best name is Love.

812 Longing for Heaven. C. M.

SWEET land of rest, for thee I sigh,
 When will the moment come,
 When I shall lay my armor by,
 And dwell in peace at home?

CHORUS.—O, this is not my home,
 O, this is not my home :
 This world 's a wilderness of wo,
 This world is not my home.

2 No tranquil joy on earth I know,
 No peaceful, sheltering dome;
 This world 's a wilderness of wo,
 This world is not my home.

3 When by affliction sharply tried,
 I view the gaping tomb,
 Although I dread death's chilling tide,
 Yet still I sigh for home.

4 Weary of wandering round and round
 This vale of sin and gloom,
 I long to quit the unhallow'd ground,
 And dwell with Christ at home.

813 The true riches. C. M.

YOU glitt'ring toys of earth, adieu,
 A nobler choice be mine;
 A real prize attracts my view—
 A treasure all divine.

2 Away, unworthy of my cars,
 You specious baits of sense;
 Inestimable worth appears.
 The pearl of price immense!

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 Jesus, to multitudes unknown—
O name divinely sweet!
Jesus, in thee, in thee alone,
Wealth, honor, pleasure meet.
- 4 Should both the Indies, at my call,
Their boasted stores resign,
With joy I would renounce them all,
For leave to call thee mine.
- 5 Should earth's vain treasures all depart,
Of this dear gift possess'd,
I'd clasp it to my joyful heart,
And be for ever blest.
- 6 Blest Sov'reign of my soul's desires,
Thy love is bliss divine;
Accept the praise that love inspires,
Since I can call thee mine!

814 Where thou art is heaven. C. M.

- JESUS hath died that I might live,
Might live to God alone;
In him eternal life receive,
And be in spirit one.
- 2 My soul breaks out in strong desire
The perfect bliss to prove;
My longing heart is all on fire
To be dissolved in love.
- 3 Give me thyself. From every boast
From every wish, set free,
Let all I am in thee be lost;
But give thyself to me.
- 4 Thy gifts, alas! can not suffice,
Unless thyself be given;
Thy presence makes my Paradise,
And where thou art, is heaven!

ASPIRATIONS.

815

To them that look for him.

C. M.

Heb. 9: 28.

A WAKE, you saints, and raise your eyes,
And raise your voices high;
Awake, and praise that sov'reign love
That shows salvation nigh.

2 On all the wings of time it flies;
Each moment brings it near;
Then welcome each declining day,
Welcome each closing year!

3 Not many years their round shall run,
Not many mornings rise,
Ere all its glories stand reveal'd
To our admiring eyes.

4 You wheels of nature, speed your course,
You mortal pow'rs, decay;
Fast as you bring the night of death,
You bring eternal day.

816

We are his workmanship.

C. M.

Eph. 2: 10.

I AM thy workmanship, O Lord!
And unto thee belong;
Thou art my Shield, my Great Reward,
My Glory, and my song.

2 Surround me with thy guardian might;
Uphold me with thy grace;
Unharmed, conduct me through the fight,
Unwearied, through the race.

3 Make me a weapon of thy power,
An angel of thy will;
To thee devoted, let each hour
Its happy task fulfill.

4 Yet dare not I, a child of dust.
Thus plead my filial claim,
But as in him is all my trust,
Who bears a Saviour's name.

THE NEW LIFE.

817

So great a cloud of witnesses.

C. M.

Heb. 12 : 1.

GIVE me the wings of faith, to rise
Within the vail, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
And bathed their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came;
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.

4 They marked the footsteps that he trod;
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, following their incarnate God,
Possessed the promised rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For his own pattern given;
While the long cloud of witnesses
Shows the same path to heaven.

818

O that I had wings like a dove.

C. M.

Psalms 55 : 6.

THE dove, let loose in eastern skies,
Returning fondly home,
Ne'er stoops to earth her wing, nor flies
Where idle warblers roam;—

2 But high she shoots through air and light
Above all low delay,
Where nothing earthly bounds her flight,
Nor shadow dims her way.

2 So grant me, Lord, from every snare
And stain of passion free,
Aloft, through faith's serener air,
To urge my course to thee;—

ASPIRATIONS.

- 4 No sin to cloud, no lure to stay,
My soul as home she springs;
Thy sunshine on her joyful way,
Thy freedom on her wings.

819 Heaven is my home. C. M. D

- I HAVE no resting-place on earth
On which to fix my love;
But O! my heart is yearning for
The promised rest above.
'Tis true, this earth is passing fair,
O'er which I sadly roam;
But yet it hath no charms for me,
For heavén is my home.
- 2 A pilgrim long I've wandered here;
But, with a steadfast eye,
I see a rest reserved for me,
At God's right hand on high.
Then all the joys of earth in vain
Shall tempt my feet to roam,
To seek a dwelling-place below,
Since heavén is my home.
- 3 O, were this earth as fair as when
Primeval Eden smiled,
I would not by its glowing charms
Be from my hope beguiled;
But I would seek a brighter world,
Where God has bid me come:
Then seek no more to bind me here,
For heavén is my home.

820 The new Jerusalem. C. M

- JERUSALEM, my happy home,
O how I long for thee!
When will my sorrows have an end?
Thy joys when shall I see?

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Thy walls are all of precious stones,
Most glorious to behold!
Thy gates are richly set with pearl,
Thy streets are pav'd with gold.
- 3 Thy gardens and thy pleasant greens
My study long have been ;
Such sparkling gems by human sight
Have never yet been seen.
- 4 If heavén be thus glorious, Lord,
Why should I stay from thence ?
What folly 't is that I should dread
To die and go from hence!
- 5 Reach down, reach down thine arms o
And cause me to ascend, [grac
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths never end.
- 6 Jesus, my love, to glory's gone ;
Him will I go and see ;
And all my brethren here below
Will soon come after me.

821 A city which hath foundations. C. M.
Heb. 11 : 10.

- JERUSALEM! my glorious home,
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy, and peace. and thee!
- 2 When shall these eyes thy heaven-bui
And pearly gates behold? [wall
Thy bulwarks with salvation strong,
And streets of shining gold?
- 3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know : "scene
Blessed seats! through rude and storm
I onward press to you.

ASPIRATIONS.

- 1 Why should I shrink at pain and wo?
Or feel, at death, dismay?
I've Canaan's goodly land in view,
And realms of endless day.
- 2 Apostles, martyrs, prophets there,
Around my Saviour stand;
And soon my friends in Christ below
Will join the glorious band.
- 3 Jerusalem! my glorious home!
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end,
When I thy joys shall see.

322

A brighter day.

S. M.

- LORD, we expect a day
Still brighter far than this,
When death shall bear our souls away,
To realms of light and bliss.
- 2 There rapt'rous scenes of joy
Shall burst upon our sight;
And ev'ry pain, and tear, and sigh,
Be drown'd in endless night.
 - 3 Beneath thy balmy wing,
O Sun of Righteousness!
Our happy souls shall sit and sing
The wonders of thy grace.
 - 4 Nor shall that radiant day,
So joyfully begun,
In evening shadows die away
Beneath the setting sun.
 - 5 How various and how new
Are thy compassions, Lord!
Eternity thy love shall show,
And all thy truth record.

THE NEW LIFE.

823

*The soul panting for God. 7s. 6 lines.
Psalm 42.*

AS the hart, with eager looks,
Panteth for the water-brooks,
So my soul, athirst for thee,
Pants the living God to see:
When, O when, with filial fear,
Lord, shall I to thee draw near?

- 2 Why art thou cast down, my soul?
God, thy God, shall make thee whole:
Why art thou disquieted?
God shall lift thy fallen head,
And his countenance benign
Be the saving health of thine.

824 They that conquer shall wear the crown. 7s.

COME, my Christian brethren, come,
Let us onward to our home;
Though we many trials meet,
Jesus makes our trials sweet.

CHORUS.

We with Jesus soon shall be Happy in eternity:
By our Father's side sit down:
They that conquer shall wear the crown

- 2 Brother Christian, doubt no more,
Christ, your Saviour's gone before:
He himself has marked the way,
Leading to eternal day.
We with Jesus, etc.

- 3 Let us never be afraid,
'Tis on Christ our help is laid;
He will all our foes o'ercome,
He will take his exiles home.
We with Jesus, etc.

ASPIRATIONS

- 4 Though the world revile and mock,
We are built upon the Rock;
And while thus we dwell secure,
Christ will make our goings sure.
We with Jesus, etc.

825

Prisoners of hope.

8s & 7s.

Zech. 9: 12.

- LET me go; my soul is weary
Of the chain which binds me here;
Let my spirit bend its pinion
To a brighter, holier sphere.
Earth, 'tis true, hath friends that bless me
With their fond and faithful love;
But the hands of angels beckon
Onward to the climes above.
- 2 Let me go; for earth hath sorrow,
Sin, and pain, and bitter tears;
All its paths are dark and dreary,
All its hopes are fraught with fears,
Short-lived are its brightest flowers,
Soon its cherished joys decay:—
Let me go; I fain would leave it
For the realms of endless day.
- 3 Let me go; my heart hath tasted
Of my Saviour's wondrous grace
Let me go, where I shall ever
See and know him face to face.
Let me go; the trees of heav'n
Rise before me, waving bright,
And the distant, crystal waters
Flash upon my failing sight.
- 4 Let me go; for songs seraphic
Now seem calling from the sky—
'Tis the welcome of the angels,
Which e'en now are hov'ring nigh:

THE NEW LIFE.

Let me go : they wait to bear me
To the mansions of the blest ;
Where the spirit, worn and weary,
Finds at last its long sought rest.

826

Longing for rest.

Psalm 55 : 6, 7.

() THAT I had wings like a dove,
For, then, would I soon be at rest ;
I'd fly to the mansions above,
The home of the pure and the blest ;
The place where no sorrow or tears
Can ever my pleasures destroy ;
But where through eternity's years,
I'll drink from an ocean of joy !

- 2 The clouds that now hang o'er my soul,
Make dark all the pathway of life ;
While thunders unceasingly roll
In storms of deep anger and strife ;
I hope for some bright ray to beam
From clouds where there yet may be light
But only the lightning's red gleam
Is seen through the darkness of night.
- 3 I try to be humble and meek,
Leave all to my Saviour's own will ;
For, He to the tempest can speak.
The winds will obey and be still ;
But now my soul flutters and cries,
And longs to be soaring away,
From darkness and gloom, to the skies,
The regions of bright, endless day.
- 4 Dear Saviour, O, let me come home,
And rest on thy bosom in peace ;
No more from thy presence to roam--
Then tempests and storms shall all cease

ASPIRATIONS.

I'll sing of thy wonderful ways,
With all of the glorified throng;—
For ever and ever, thy praise,
Shall be the one theme of my song.

827

Having a desire to depart.

8a.

Phil. 1 : 23.

TO Jesus, the crown of my hope,
My soul is in haste to be gone;
O bear me, ye cherubim, up,
And waft me away to his throne.
My Saviour, whom absent, I love;
Whom, not having seen, I adore;
Whose name is exalted above
All glory, dominion, and power!

2 Dissolve thou those bands that detain
My soul from her portion in thee,
Ah! strike off this adamant chain,
And make me eternally free.
When that happy era begins,
When arrayed in thy glories I shine,
Nor grieve any more, by my sins,
The bosom on which I recline;

3 O then shall the vail be removed!
And round me thy brightness be poured
I shall meet him, whom absent I loved,
I shall see, whom unseen I adored.
And then, never more shall the fears,
The trials, temptations, and woes,
Which darken this valley of tears,
Intrude on my blissful repose.

828

A pilgrim's song.

S. M. D.

A FEW more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come;
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb.

THE NEW LIFE.

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
O wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

- 2 A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time;
And we shall be where suns are not,
A far serener clime.

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

- 3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more.

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
O wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

- 4 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away.

- 5 A few more meetings here
Shall cheer us on our way;
And we shall reach the endless rest,
Th' eternal Sabbath day.

Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that sweet day
O wash me in thy precious blood
And take my sins away.

ASPIRATIONS.

829

Here and yonder.

8s & 7s.

HERE, we are but straying pilgrims,
Here, our path is often dim,
But to cheer us on our journey,
Still we sing this way-side hymn,

CHORUS.

Yonder over the rolling river,
Where the shining mansions rise,
Soon will be our home for ever,
And the smile of the blessed Giver
Gladdens all our longing eyes.

2 Here, our feet are often weary,
On the hills that throng our way;
Here, the tempest darkly gathers,
But our hearts within us say—
Yonder over the rolling river, etc.

3 Here, our souls are often fearful,
Of the pilgrim's lurking foe;
But the Lord is our defender,
And he tells us we may know,
Yonder over the rolling river, etc.

4 Here, our shadowed homes are transient,
And we meet the stranger's frown;
So we'll sing with joy while going,
E'en to death's dark billow down—
Yonder over the rolling river, etc

830

Song of our pilgrimage.

7s & 6s.

O WHEN shall I see Jesus,
And dwell with him above,
To drink the flowing fountain
Of everlasting love?
When shall I be deliver'd
From this vain world of sin,
And with my blessed Jesus
Drink endless pleasures in?

A crown of life he'll give,
And all his valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.

3 Through grace I am determin'd
To conquer though I die;
And then away to Jesus
On wings of love I'll fly.
Farewell to sin and sorrow,
I bid them both adieu:
And you, my friends, prove faithful
And on your way pursue.

4 And if you meet with troubles
And trials on the way,
Then cast your care on Jesus,
And don't forget to pray.
Gird on the heav'nly armor
Of faith, and hope, and love,
And when your warfare's ended,
You'll reign with him above.

5 O! do not be discourag'd,
For Jesus is your Friend.
And if you long for knowledge,
On him you may depend;
Neither will he upbraid you,
Though often you request;
He'll give you grace to conquer,
And take you home to rest.

831

How long, O Lord.

7s & C

HOW long, O Lord, our Saviour,
Wilt thou remain away?
Our hearts are growing weary
Of thy so long delay;

ASPIRATIONS.

- O when shall come the moment,
 When brighter far than noon,
 The sunshine of thy glory.
 Shall on thy people dawn.
- 2 How long, O gracious Master,
 Wilt thou thy household leave?
 So long hast thou now tarried,
 Few thy return believe;
 Immersed in sloth and folly,
 Thy servants, Lord, we see,
 And few of us stand ready
 With joy to welcome thee.
- 3 How long, O heavenly Bridegroom,
 How long wilt thou delay?
 And yet how few are grieving
 That thou dost absent stay;
 Thy very bride, her portion
 And calling hath forgot,
 And seeks for ease and glory
 Where thou, her Lord, art not.
- 4 O wake thy slumbering virgins,
 Send forth the solemn cry—
 Let all thy saints repeat it—
 The Bridegroom draweth nigh;
 May all our lamps be burning,
 Our loins well girded be,
 Each longing heart preparing
 With joy thy face to see.

32

Aspiration.

7s & 6s.

RISE, my soul, and stretch thy wings;
 Thy better portion trace;
 Rise, from transitory things,
 Toward heaven, thy native place.
 Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
 Time shall soon this earth remove;
 Rise, my soul, and haste away
 To seats prepared above!

THE NEW LIFE.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their source.
So a soul that's born of God
Pants to view his glorious face,
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn
Press onward to the prize;
Soon your Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All your sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

833 Arise and depart, for this is not your rest. 68
Mich. 2: 10.

GO up, go up, my heart,
Dwell with thy God above;
For here thou canst not rest,
Nor here give out thy love.

2 Go up, go up, my heart,
Be not a trifler here;
Ascend above these clouds,
Dwell in a higher sphere.

3 Let not thy love flow out
To things so soiled and dim;
Go up to heaven and God:
Take up thy love to him.

4 Waste not thy precious stores
On creature-love below;
To God that wealth belongs,
On him that wealth bestow.

ASPIRATIONS.

- 5 Go up, reluctant heart,
Take up thy rest above;
Arise, earth-clinging thoughts,
Ascend, my lingering love!

34 My spirit longs for thee.

6a.

MY spirit longs for thee
Within my troubled breast,
Though I unworthy be
Of so divine a Guest.

- 2 Of so divine a Guest
Unworthy though I be,
Yet has my heart no rest
Unless it come from thee.

- 3 Unless it come from thee,
In vain I look around;
In all that I can see,
No rest is to be found.

- 5 No rest is to be found
But in thy blessed love:
O let my wish be crowned,
And send it from above!

335 I have longed for thy salvation. 6s & 5s.
Psalm 119. 14.

PURER yet and purer
I would be in mind,
Dearer yet and dearer
Every duty find;

- 2 Hoping still, and trusting
God without a fear
Patiently believing
He will make all clear;

- 3 Calmer yet and calmer
Trial bear and pain,
Surer yet and surer
Peace at last to gain;

Out of clouds and night,
Nearer yet and nearer
Rising to the light—

6 Oft these earnest longings
Swell within my breast,
Yet their inner meaning
Ne'er can be expressed.

836

I would not live alway.

Job 7: 16.

I WOULD not live alway: I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the w
The few cloudy mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its che

2 I would not live alway: no, welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus has lain there, I dread not its gloom
There sweet be my rest, till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

3 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from you heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;

4 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet,
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul

ASPIRATIONS.

- 3 I am weary of sighing o'er sorrows of earth,
O'er joy's glowing visions, that fade at their birth,
O'er pangs of the lov'd, which we can not assuage,
O'er the blightings of youth, and the weakness of age.
- 4 I am weary of loving what passes away—
The sweetest and dearest, alas, may not stay !
I long for that land where those partings are o'er,
And death and the tomb can divide hearts no more.
- 5 I am weary, my Saviour, of grieving thy love :
O ! when shall I rest in thy presence above :
I am weary—but O ! let me never repine,
While thy word, and thy love, and thy promise are mine.

838

Strangers and pilgrims.

11s.

1 Pet. 2: 11.

MY rest is in heaven—my home is not here ;
Then why should I murmur when trials appear ?
Be hushed, my sad spirit, the worst that may come
But shortens thy journey and hastens thee home.

- 2 A pilgrim and stranger, I seek not my bliss,
Nor lay up my treasures in regions like this ;
I look for a city which hands have not piled ;
I pant for a country by sin undefiled.
- 3 Afflictions may try me, but can not destroy ;
One vision of home turns them all into joy ;
And the bitterest tear that flows from my eyes,
But sweetens my hope of that home in the skies.
- 4 Though foes and temptations my progress oppose,
They only make heaven more sweet at the close ;
Come joy or come sorrow—the worst may befall,
One moment in heaven will make up for all.
- 5 The thorn and the thistle around me may grow,
I would not repose upon roses below ;
I ask not my portion, I seek not my rest,
Till, seated with Jesus, I lean on his breast.
- 6 A scrip for the way and a staff in my hand,
I march on in haste through the enemy's land :
The road may be rough, but it can not be long :
So I'll smooth it with hope, and I'll cheer it with song.

839.

I shall be satisfied.

11s & 10s.

Psalm 17: 15.

NOT here! not here! Not where the sparkling waters
Fade into mocking sands as we draw near ;
Where in the wilderness each footstep falters—
“ I shall be satisfied ;” but, O ! not here !

THE NEW LIFE

- 2 Not here—where all the dreams of bliss deceive us,
Where the worn spirit never gains its goal;
Where, haunted ever by the thought that grieves us,
Across us floods of bitter memory roll.
- 3 There is a land where every pulse is thrilling
With rapture earth's sojourners may not know,
Where heaven's repose the weary heart is stilling,
And peacefully life's time-tossed currents flow.
Far out of sight, while yet the flesh enfolds us,
Lies the fair country where our hearts abide,
And of its bliss is nought more wondrous told us
Than these few words—"I shall be satisfied."
- 4 Satisfied! satisfied! The spirit's yearning
For sweet companionship with kindred minds—
The silent love that here meets no returning—
The inspiration which no language finds—
- 5 Shall they be satisfied? The soul's vague longing—
The aching void which nothing earthly fills?
O! what desires upon my soul are thronging
As I look upward to the heavenly hills.
- 7 Thither my weak and weary steps are tending—
Saviour and Lord! with thy frail child abide!
Guide me toward home, where, all my wanderings o'er lie
I shall see thee, and "shall be satisfied."

840 Lord tarry not, but come. P. 1

BEYOND the smiling and the weepin'
I shall be soon;

Beyond the waking and the sleeping,
Beyond the sowing and the reaping,

I shall be soon.

Love, rest, and home!

Sweet home!

Lord, tarry not, but come.

2 Beyond the blooming and the fading,
I shall be soon;

Beyond the shining and the shading,
Beyond the hoping and the dreading

I shall be soon.

Love, rest, and home!

Sweet home!

Lord, tarry not, but come.

ASPIRATIONS.

Beyond the rising and the setting,
I shall be soon ;
Beyond the calming and the fretting,
Beyond remembering and forgetting,
I shall be soon :
Love, rest, and home !
Sweet home !
Lord, tarry not, but come.

Beyond the parting and the meeting,
I shall be soon ;
Beyond the farewell and the greeting,
Beyond the pulse's fever beating,
I shall be soon.
Love, rest, and home !
Sweet home !
Lord, tarry not, but come.

Beyond the frost-chain and the fever,
I shall be soon ;
Beyond the rock-waste and the river,
Beyond the ever and the never
I shall be soon.
Love, rest, and home !
Sweet home !
Lord, tarry not, but come.

O tell me no more.

113.

O TELL me no more of this world's vain store ;
The time for such trifles with me now is o'er ;
A country I've found where true joys abound,
To dwell I'm determined on that happy ground.

The souls that believe, in glory shall live,
And me in that number will Jesus receive ;
My soul, do n't delay, he calls thee away,
Hie, follow the Saviour, and bless the glad day.

No mortal doth know what he can bestow,
What light, strength and comfort—go after him, go ;
Lo, onward I move to a city above,
None guesses how wondrous my journey will prove.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 4 Great spoils I shall win, from death, hell, and sin,
 'Midst outward afflictions, I feel Christ within
 And when I 'm to die, receive me, I 'll cry,
 For Jesus has loved me, I can not tell why.
- 5 But this I do find, we two are so joined,
 He 'll not live in glory, and leave me behind.
 So this is the race I 'm running, through grace,
 Henceforth, till admitted to see my Lord's face.
- 6 Now this is my care, that my neighbors may share
 These blessings : to seek them will none of you dare !
 In bondage, O why, and death, will you lie,
 When Jesus assures you free grace is so nigh ?

842 Lead us, heavenly Father, lead us. 8s, 7s & 4

LEAD us, heavenly Father ! lead us
 O'er the world's tempestuous sea ;
 Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
 For we have no help but thee.
 Yet possessing
 Every blessing,
 If our God our Father be.

2 Saviour ! breathe forgiveness o'er us ;
 All our weakness thou dost know ;
 Thou didst tread this earth before us,
 Thou didst feel its keenest wo.
 Lone and dreary,
 Faint and weary
 Through the desert thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God descending !
 Fill our hearts with heavenly joy ;
 Love with every passion blending.
 Pleasure that can never cloy.
 Thus provided,
 Pardoned, guided,
 Nothing can our peace destroy.

843 Faint yet pursuing.

MY feet are worn and weary with the march
 O'er the rough road and up the steep hill-side ;
 O city of our God ! I fain would see
 Thy pastures green, where peaceful waters gild.

ASPIRATIONS.

My hands are worn and weary, toiling on,
 Day after day, for perishable meat ;
 O city of our God ! I fain would rest—
 I sigh to gain thy glorious mercy-seat.

My garments, travel-worn and stained with dust,
 Oft rent by briars and thorns that crowd my way,
 Would fain be made, O Lord, my righteousness !
 Spotless and white in heaven's unclouded ray.

My eyes are weary looking at the sin,
 Impiety, and scorn upon the earth ;
 O city of our God ! within thy walls
 All—all are clothed again with thy new birth.

My heart is weary of its own deep sin—
 Sinning, repenting, sinning still again ;
 When shall my soul thy glorious presence feel,
 And find, dear Saviour, it is free from stain ?

Patience, poor soul ! the Saviour's feet were worn ;
 The Saviour's heart and hands were weary too ;
 His garments stained, and travel-worn, and old ;
 His vision blinded with a pitying dew.

Love thou the path of sorrow that he trod ;
 Toil on, and wait in patience for thy rest :
 O city of our God ! we soon shall see
 Thy glorious walls—home of the loved and blest.

† The night is far spent, etc. 10s & 11s.
 Rom. 13 : 12

ON and for ever the breaking of day
 Shall chase all the night-clouds of sorrow away ;
 On and for ever we'll see as we're seen,
 And know the deep meaning of things that have been—
 Where fightings without and conflicts within
 All weary no more in the warfare with sin— [never,
 Where tears, and where fears, and where death shall be
 Christians with Christ shall be soon and for ever.

On and for ever—such promise our trust—
 Enough ashes to ashes, and dust be to dust,
 On and for ever our union shall be
 As perfect, our glorious Redeemer, in thee :
 When the cares and the sorrows of time shall be o'er,
 Pangs and its partings remembered no more ;
 Where life can not fail and where death can not sever,
 Christians with Christ shall be soon and for ever.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICT

845 When I would do good, evil is present
 Rom. 7 : 5

IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust,
 Thou art my portion and my strength;
 Thy ways, with me, are always just;
 But mine, with thee, are often wrong.

2 I can not do the things I would,
 For sin is in my flesh concealed;
 So evil takes the place of good,
 And all my weakness stands revealed.

3 But thou, O Lord, can'st make me strong,
 And give me strength to do thy will;
 While on thy promises I lean,
 All darkness changes into light.

4 O give me grace the wrong to shun,
 The right to follow all my days;
 And when life's victory is won,
 Then will I give thee all the praise.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

In panoply of truth complete,
Salvation's helmet on his head,
In righteousness, a breastplate meet,
And faith's broad shield before him spread,—
With this, omnipotence he moves;
From this the alien armies flee;
No more than conqueror he proves,
Through Christ, who gives him victory.
Thus strong in his Redeemer's strength,
In death, and hell he tramples down,
Gains the good fight, and wins at length,
Through mercy, an immortal crown.

7 Put on the whole armor of God. L. M.
Eph. 6: 11.

A WAKE, my soul! lift up thine eyes;
See where thy foes against thee rise,
In long array, a numerous host;
Awake, my soul! or thou art lost.
See where rebellious passions rage,
And fierce desires and lust engage;
The meanest foe of all the train
Has thousands and ten thousands slain.
Thou tread'st upon enchanted ground;
Perils and snares beset thee round;
Beware of all; guard every part;
But most, the traitor in thy heart.
Come, then, my soul! now lean to wield
The weight of thine immortal shield;
Put on the armor from above,
Of heavenly truth, and heavenly love.

8 Let us go forth without the camp. L. M.
Heb. 13: 13.

SILENT, like men in solemn haste,
Girded wayfarers of the waste,
We press along the narrow road
That leads to life, to bliss, to God.

We trim our lamps, our vigils keep
No shrinking from the desperate
No thought of yielding or of flight

4 No love of present gain nor ease
No seeking man nor self to please
With the brave heart and steady
We onward march to victory.

5 Night is far spent, and morn is nigh
Morn of the cloudless and the clear
'Tis but a little, and we come
To our reward, our crown, our home

6 Another year—it may be less—
And we have crossed the wilderness
Finished the toil, the rest begun,
The battle fought, the triumph won

849

A pillar of cloud by day, etc.

Exodus 13: 21.

WHEN Israel, of the Lord beloved
Out from the land of bondage
Her father's God before her moved,
An awful Guide, in smoke and fire

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

And O, when gathers on our path,
In shade and storm, the frequent night,
Be thou, long-suffering, slow to wrath,
A burning and a shining light.

0 Fight the good fight of faith. L. M.
Tim. 6 : 12.

(1) ISRAEL, to thy tents repair :
Why thus secure on hostile ground ?
Thy King commands thee to beware
For many foes thy camp surround.

The trumpet gives a martial strain:
O Israel, gird thee for the fight!
Arise, the combat to maintain,
And put thine enemies to flight!

Thou shouldst not sleep, as others do;
Awake; be vigilant; be brave!
The coward, and the sluggard too,
Must wear the fetters of the slave.

A nobler lot is cast for thee;
A kingdom waits thee in the skies:
With such a hope, shall Israel flee,
Or yield, through weariness, the prize?

No! let a careless world repose
And slumber on through life's short day,
While Israel to the conflict goes,
And bears the glorious prize away!

1 Psalm third. L. M.

THE tempter to my soul hath said—
“There is no help in God for thee;”
Lord! lift thou up thy servant’s head,
My glory, shield, and solace be.

Thus to the Lord I raised my cry,
He heard me from his holy hill,
At his command the waves rolled by;
He beckoned—and the winds were still

Compass my steps in all their way
Salvation to the Lord belongs;
His presence guards his people's

852 The Lord is nigh to all that call on him
Psalm 145 :

WHEN, in the hour of lonely
I give my sorrows leave to
And anxious fear and dark distrust
Weigh down my spirit to the dust

2 When not e'en friendship's gentle
Can heal the wounds the world has
O this shall check each rising sigh
My Saviour is forever nigh.

3 His counsels and upholding care
My safety and my comfort are;
And he shall guide me all my day
Till glory crown the work of grace

853 I have considered the days of old.
Psalm 77

LORD! I have foes without, within
The world, the flesh, indwelling
Life's daily ills, temptation's power,
The tempted spirit's weaker hour.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

Teach me thy will, subdue my own;
Thou art my God, and thou alone;
Release my soul from trouble, Lord!
Mute and keep me by thy word.

4 Why art thou cast down. L. M.

Psalm 42 : 5.

WHEN darkness long has veiled my mind,
And smiling day once more appears;
Then, my Creator! then I find
The folly of my doubts and fears.
Straight I upbraid my wandering heart,
And blush that I should ever be
Thus prone to act so base a part,
Or harbor one hard thought of thee.
Let me then at length be taught
What I am still so slow to learn,—
That God is love, and changes not,
Nor knows the shadow of a turn.
Sweet truth, and easy to repeat!
But, when my faith is sharply tried,
Find myself a learner yet,
Unskillful, weak, and apt to slide.
Ut, O my God! one look from thee
Subdues the disobedient will,
Rives doubt and discontent away,
And thy rebellious child is still.

5 We walk by faith. L. M.

2 Cor. 5 : 7.

BY faith in Christ I walk with God,
With heaven, my journey's end, in view
Supported by his staff and rod,
My road is safe and pleasant too.
Travel through a desert wide,
Where many round me blindly stray,
That he vouchsafes to be my Guide,
And keeps me in the narrow way.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 The wilderness affords no food,
But God for my support prepares,
Provides me every needful good,
And frees my soul from wants and cares.
- 4 With him sweet converse I maintain;
Great as he is, I dare be free;
I tell him all my grief and pain,
And he reveals his love to me.
- 5 I pity all that worldlings talk
Of pleasures that will quickly end;
Be this my choice, O Lord! to walk [Frie
With thee, my Guide, my Guard,

856

I press toward the mark.

L.

Phil. 3: 14.

- A WAKE, our souls; away, our fears;
Let every trembling thought be gone
Awake, and run the heavenly race,
And put a cheerful courage on.
- 2 True, 't is a straight and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint;
 - 3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
Is ever new and ever young,
And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.
 - 4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a full supply;
While those who trust their native strain
Shall melt away, and droop, and die.
 - 5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amid the heavenly road.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

Lord, save us; we perish. L. M.
Matt. 8: 25.

THE billows swell, the winds are high;
Clouds overcast my wintry sky:
At of the depths to thee I call;
My fears are great, my strength is small.
Lord, the pilot's part perform,
And guide and guard me thro' the storm;
Defend me from each threatening ill:
Control the waves; say, "Peace! be still."
And the roaring of the sea,
My soul still hangs her hope on thee;
Thy constant love, thy faithful care,
All that saves me from despair.
No' tempest-tossed and half a wreck,
Thy Saviour through the floods I seek:
At neither winds nor stormy main
Will I give back my shattered bark again.

Where is the blessedness ye spake of. L. M.
Gal. 4: 15.

WHERE is now that glowing love
That mark'd our union with the Lord?
Our hearts were fix'd on things above.
Nor could the world a joy afford.
Here is the zeal that led us then
To make our Saviour's glory known;
That freed us from the fear of men,
And kept our eyes on him alone?
Here are the happy seasons spent
In fellowship with him we loved?
The sacred joy, the sweet content,
The blessedness that then we proved?
Hold, again we turn to thee,
Do not cast us not away, thought vile!
No peace we have, no joy we see,
No Lord, our God, but in thy smile.

THE NEW LIFE.

859 Love—which passeth knowledge. L. M. 6 lines.
Eph. 3: 19.

THOU hidden love of God, whose light,
Whose depth, unfathomed, no man
I see from far thy beauteous light: [knows,
Inly I sigh for thy repose;
My heart is pained; nor can it be
At rest till it find rest in thee.

1 Thy secret voice invites me still
The sweetness of thy yoke to prove;
And fain I would; but though my will
Seems fixed, yet wide my passions rove;
Yet hind'rances strew all the way;
I aim at thee, yet from thee stray.

3 'Tis mercy all, that thou hast brought
My mind to seek her peace in thee;
Yet, while I seek, but find thee not,
No peace my wandering soul shall see.
O, when shall all my wanderings end,
And all my steps to thee-ward tend?

4 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with thee my heart to share!
Ah, tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there;
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in thee.

860 So run that ye may obtain. C. M.
1 Cor. 9: 24.

RISE, O my soul! pursue the path
By ancient heroes trod;
Ambitious view those holy men,
Who liv'd and walk'd with God.

2 Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
And in example live;
Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds,
Still fresh instruction give.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 3 'Twas through the Lamb's most precious
They conquered ev'ry foe; [blood
And to his pow'r and matchless grace
Their crowns and honor owe.
- 4 Lord, may we ever keep in view
The patterns thou hast giv'n,
And ne'er forsake the blessed road
Which led them safe to heaven.

861 O ! it will be glorious. C. M. D

CHRISTIANS. keep your armor bright,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing;
In union strong together fight;
Hosanna to our King!
Come, laud and magnify his name,
Nor let his praises cease;
His ways are ways of pleasantness
And all his paths are peace.

CHORUS.

O it will be glorious!
With crowns and palms victorious,
And Jesus reigning over us,
When our sad warfare's o'er.

- 2 We will not act the coward's part,
But onward all proceed:
Our Captain shall his grace impart
In ev'ry time of need.
Great peace have they who love his cause,
And on his word rely;
From such as keep his holy laws
The enemy will fly.
- 3 The world and sin may grieve us sore,
And rouse our weakest fears;
Our march is but a few days more
Through this dark vale of tears.

THE NEW LIFE.

Death may assail, and Satan too;
With his opposing pow'rs ;
But let us prove our valor true,
The victory is ours.

862

O Lord, remember me.

C. M.

(O THOU, from whom all goodness flows,
I lift my soul to thee;
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
O Lord, remember me.

2 If for thy sake, upon my name
 Reproach and shame shall be,
 I'll hail reproach, and welcome shame;
 O Lord, remember me!

3 When worn with pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble body see ;
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief ;
O Lord, remember me !

4 When, in the solemn hour of death,
I wait thy just decree,
Be this the prayer of my last breath—
O Lord, remember me!

5 And when before thy throne I stand,
And lift my soul to thee,
Then with the saints at thy right hand,
O Lord, remember me!

963

Endure hardness as a good soldier.

C. M

2 Tm. 2:2

A M I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign,
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 5 'Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
With Hope's exulting eye.
- 6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

864

Overcoming.

C. M.

- KIND Father, look with pity now
On one by sin defiled;
While at the mercy-seat I bow,
O bless thy erring child.
- 2 My struggles, Lord, to do thy will,
How poor and weak they are!
But thou art gracious to me still,
Then hear my humble prayer.
 - 3 Let love upon my broken heart
Pour out its healing balm;
Bid all my trembling fears depart,—
My troubled spirit calm.
 - 4 And now my hope new courage takes,
My faith grows strong and sure;
The cloud from off my vision breaks,
Again my heart is pure.

THE NEW LIFE.

5 My soul mounts up on wings of light
And soars to climes above,
The regions where all things are bright
The home of Peace and Love.

6 There, soon I'll sing of love divine,
With all the ransomed throng,
There, Jesus shall be ever mine,
His love my endless song.

865

With all boldness.

O.

Phil. 1 : 20.

I'M not ashamed to own my Lord,
Nor to defend his cause,
Maintain the honors of his word,
The glory of his cross.

2 Jesus, my Lord, I know his name,
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands :
Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint for me a place.

866

Run with patience.

O.

Heb. 12 : 1.

A WAKE, my soul, stretch ev'ry ner-
And press with vigor on;
A heav'nly race demands your zeal,
And an immortal crown.

2 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thy aspiring eye.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 3 A cloud of witnesses around
Holds thee in full survey :
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 4 Blest Saviour, introduced by thee,
Have we our race begun !
And crown'd with vict'ry, at thy feet
We'll lay our honors down.

867

Mighty through God.

2 Cor. 10 : 4.

C. M.

- NAY, tell us not of dangers dire
That lie in duty's path ;
A warrior of the cross can feel
No fear of human wrath.
- 2 Where'er the prince of darkness holds
His earthly reign abhorred,
Sword of the Spirit, thee we draw,
And battle for the Lord.
- 3 We go! we go, to break the chains
That bind the erring mind,
And give the freedom that we feel
To all of human kind.
- 4 But, O, we wear no burnished steel,
And seek no gory field ;
Our weapon is the word of God,
His promise is our shield.
- 5 And still serene and fixed in faith,
We fear no earthly harm ;
We know it is our Father's work,
We rest upon his arm.

868

Return to me, and I will return to you. C. M.

Mal. 3 : 7.

HOW oft, alas! this wretched heart
Has wandered from the Lord!
How oft my roving thoughts depart—
Forgetful of his word!

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Yet sovereign mercy calls—"Return!
Dear Lord! and may I come?
My vile ingratitude I mourn;
O! take the wanderer home.
- 3 And canst thou—wilt thou yet forgive,
And bid my crimes remove!
And shall a pardoned rebel live
To speak thy wondrous love?
- 4 Almighty grace! thy healing power,
How glorious—how divine!
That can to life and bliss restore
A heart so vile as mine!
- 5 Thy pard'ning love—so free, so sweet,
Dear Saviour. I adore;
O! keep me at thy sacred feet,
And let me rove no more.

869 Help thou mine unbelief. C. M. D.
Mark 9 : 24.

FATHER, when o'er our trembling hearts
Doubt's shadows gathering brood,
When faith in thee almost departs,
And gloomiest fears intrude,
Forsake us not, O God of grace,
But send those fears relief;
Grant us again to see thy face;
Lord, help our unbelief.

- 1 When sorrow comes, and joys are flown,
And fondest hopes be dead,
And blessings, long esteemed our own,
Are now for ever fled,—
When the bright promise of our spring
Is but a withering leaf,—
Lord, to thy truth still let us cling,
Help thou our unbelief.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 1 And when the powers of nature fail
 Upon the couch of pain,
 Nor love, nor friendship can avail
 The spirit to detain;
 Then, Father, be our closing eyes
 Undimmed by tears of grief,
 And if a trembling doubt arise,
 Help thou our unbelief.

870

Watch and pray.

C. M.

Mark 13: 33.

- THE Saviour bids us watch and pray,
 Through life's brief, fleeting hour,
 And gives the Spirit's quickening ray
 To those who seek his power.
- 2 The Saviour bids us watch and pray,
 Maintain a warrior's strife;
 Help, Lord, to hear thy voice to-day;
 Obedience is our life.
- 3 The Saviour bids us watch and pray;
 For soon the hour will come
 That calls us from the earth away,
 To our eternal home.
- 4 O Saviour, we would watch and pray,
 And hear thy sacred voice,
 And walk, as thou hast marked the way,
 To heaven's eternal joys.

871 When shall I come and appear before God. O. V.

Psalm 42: 2.

- AS o'er the past my memory strays,
 Why heaves the secret sigh?
 'T is that I mourn departed days,
 Still unprepared to die.
- 2 The world and worldly things beloved
 My anxious thoughts employed;
 And time, unhallowed, unimproved,
 Presents a fearful void.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 Yet, Holy Father, wild despair
Chase from my laboring breast.
Thy grace it is which prompts the prayer,
That grace can do the rest.
- 4 My life's brief remnant all be thine;
And when thy sure decree
Bids me this fleeting breath resign,
O, speed my soul to thee.

872 Let me not wander from thy commandments. C. M.
Psalm 119: 10.

- A LAS, what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven, O, let me lift mine eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.
- 2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain,
And melt in flowing tears!
My weak resistance, ah, how vain!
How strong my foes and fears!
- 3 O gracious God! in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.
- 4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.
- 5 O, keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee!
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

873 Ever with the Lord. S. M.

1 Thess 4: 17.

"FOREVER with the Lord,"
Amen, so let it be;
Life from the dead is in that word.
'T is immortality.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 2 Here in the body pent,
Absent from him I roam,
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
- 3 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near
At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
Thy golden gates appear!
- 4 Ah, then my spirit faints,
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.
- 5 Yet doubts still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove, I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.
- 6 Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.

874 The fashion of this world, etc. C. M. peculiar.
1 Cor. 7 : 31.

THIS world is poor from shore to shore,
And, like a baseless vision,
Its lofty domes and brilliant ore,
Its gems and crowns are vain and poor;
There's nothing rich but heaven.

- 2 Empires decay, and nations die,
Our hopes to winds are given;
The vernal blooms in ruin lie,
Death reigns o'er all beneath the sky;
There's nothing sure but heaven.

THE NEW LIFE

- 3 Creation's mighty fabric all
Shall be to atoms riven—
The skies consume, the planets fall,
Convulsions rock this earthly ball;
There 's nothing firm but heaven.
- 4 A stranger, lonely here I roam,
From place to place am driven;
My friends are gone, and I 'm in gloom,
This earth is all a dismal tomb;
I have no home but heaven.
- 5 The clouds disperse—the light appears,
My sins are all forgiven;
Triumphant grace has quelled my fears;
Roll on, thou sun! fly swift, my years!
I 'm on my way to heaven.

875

Watch i

S. M.

- MY soul, be on thy guard;
Ten thousand foes arise;
The hosts of sin are pressing hard
To draw thee from the skies.
- 2 O, watch, and fight, and pray;
The battle ne'er give o'er;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
 - 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down:
Thy arduous work will not be done
Till thou obtain thy crown.
 - 4 Fight on, my soul, till death
Shall bring thee to thy God;
He 'll take thee, at thy parting breath,
To his divine abode.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

876

Occupy till I come.

Lu. 19 : 13.

S. M.

- A CHARGE to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.
- 2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill ;
O. may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.
- 3 Arm me with jealous care
As in thy sight to live ;
And O. thy servant, Lord. prepare
A strict account to give.
- 4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

877

To him that overcometh.

Rev. 2 : 7.

S. M.

- ARISE, ye saints, arise !
The Lord our Leader is ;
The foe before his banner flies,
For victory is his.
- 2 Lead on, almighty Lord,
Lead on to victory !
Encouraged by the bright reward,
With joy we'll follow thee.
- 3 We'll follow thee, our Guide,
Our Saviour and our King ;
We'll follow thee, through grace supplied
From heaven's eternal spring.
- 4 We hope to see the day
When all our toils shall cease :
When we shall cast our arms away,
And wash an endless race

51.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 5 This hope supports us here,
It makes our burdens light;
'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer,
Till faith shall end in sight;
- 6 Till, of the prize possessed,
We hear of war no more;
And O, sweet thought! for ever rest
On yonder peaceful shore!

878

Go forth to glorious war.

S. M

- HARK, how the watchmen cry!
Attend the trumpet's sound;
Stand to your arms: the foe is nigh—
The powers of hell surround.
- 2 Who bow to Christ's command,
Your arms and hearts prepare;
The day of battle is at hand—
Go forth to glorious war.
- 3 See on the mountain top
The standard of your God;
In Jesus' name 't is lifted up,
All stain'd with hallow'd blood.
- 4 His standard-bearers, now
To all the nations call:
To Jesus' cross, ye nations bow;
He bore the cross for all.
- 5 Go up with Christ, your Head;
Your Captain's footsteps see;
Follow your Captain, and be led
To certain victory.
- 6 All power to him is given;
He ever reigns the same;
Salvation, happiness, and heaven,
Are all in Jesus' name.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

879

Be strong in the Lord.

S. M.

Eph. 6: 10.

- SOLDIERS of Christ, arise!
 And put your armor on,
 Strong in the strength which God supplies
 Through his beloved Son.
- 2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
 And in his mighty power;
 Who in the strength of Jesus trusts.
 Is more than conqueror.
- 3 Stand, then, in his great might,
 With all his strength endued;
 But take, to arm you for the fight,
 The panoply of God.
- 4 Leave no unguarded place,
 No weakness of the soul;
 Take every virtue, every grace,
 And fortify the whole.
- 5 That having all things done,
 And all your conflicts past,
 You may o'ercome through Christ alone,
 And stand entire at last.

880

Therefore will not we fear.

S. M.

Psalm 46: 2.

- GIVE to the winds thy fears,
 Hope, and be undismay'd;
 God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears,
 God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves, through clouds and storms,
 He gently clears thy way;
 Wait thou his time; so shall this right
 Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Still heavy is thy heart!
 Still sink thy spirits down!
 Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
 Bid every care be gone.

THE NEW LIFE

- 1 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought,
That caused thy needless fear.
- 5 What, though thou rulest not!
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well!

881

Reaching forth.
Phil. 3: 13.

S. M.

MY soul, it is thy God
Who calls thee by his grace;
Now loose thee from each cumbering load,
And bend thee to the race.

- 2 Make thy salvation sure;
All sloth and slumber shun;
Nor dare a moment rest secure,
Till thou the goal hast won.
- 3 Thy crown of life hold fast;
Thy heart with courage stay;
Nor let one trembling glance be cast
Along the backward way.
- 4 Thy path ascends the skies,
With conquering footsteps bright;
And thou shalt win and wear the prize
In everlasting light.

882

If we confess our sins.
1 John 1: 9

7a.

GOD of mercy! God of love!
Hear our sad, repentant songs;
Listen to thy suppliant ones,
Thou, to whom all grace belongs!

- 2 Deep regret for follies past,
Talents wasted, time misspent;
Hearts debased by worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent;

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain;
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain;
- 4 These, and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame we own;
Humbled at thy feet we bow,
Seeking strength from thee alone.
- 5 God of mercy! God of love!
Hear our sad repentant songs;
O, restore thy suppliant ones,
Thou to whom all grace belongs!

883

That they go forward.

Ex. 14: 15.

7a

- OFT in sorrow, oft in wo,
Onward, Christian, onward go;
Fight the fight, maintain the strife,
Strengthened with the bread of life.
- 2 Onward, Christian, onward go;
Join the war, and face the foe;
Will you flee in danger's hour?
Know you not your Captain's power?
- 3 Let your drooping heart be glad;
March, in heavenly armor clad;
Fight, nor think the battle long;
Soon shall victory tune your song.
- 4 Let not sorrow dim your eye;
Soon shall every tear be dry:
Let not fears your course impede;
Great your strength, if great your need.
- 5 Onward, then, to battle move;
More than conqueror you shall prove;
Though opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldier, onward go.

- This is but thy battle-ground;
2 Up! and take thy shield and sword;
Up! it is the call of heaven:
Shrink not faithless from the Lord:
Nobly strive as he hath striven.
3 Break through all the force of ill;
Tread the might of passion down—
Struggling onward, onward still,
To the conqu'ring Saviour's crown
4 Through the midst of toil and pain,
Let this thought ne'er leave thy breast
Every triumph thou dost gain
Makes more sweet thy coming rest

885 Forgetting the things that are behind.

Phil. 3: 13

- ONWARD, Christian, though the
Where thou art be drear and lone
God hath set a guardian legion
Very near thee—press thou on!
2 Listen, Christian, their hosanna
Rolleth o'er thee—"God is love."
Write upon thy red-cross banner,
"Onward ever—heaven's above!"

THE NEW LIFE.

- 6 No, that stream has nothing frightful
To its bank my steps I bend;
There to plunge will be delightful,
Then my pilgrimage will end.

887 He leadeth me in the paths, etc. 8s &
Psalm 23: 3

HOLY Father, thou hast taught me
I should live to thee alone;
Year by year, thy hand hath brought me
On through dangers oft unknown;
When I wandered, thou hast found me,
When I doubted, sent me light;
Still thine arm has been around me,
All my paths were in thy sight.

- 2 In the world will foes assail me,
Craftier, stronger far than I;
And the strife may never fail me,
Well I know, before I die.
Therefore, Lord, I come, believing
Thou canst give the power I need;
Through the prayer of faith receiving,
Strength—the Spirit's strength, indeed

- 3 I would trust in thy protecting,
Wholly rest upon thine arm;
Follow wholly thy directing,
Thou, mine only guard from harm!
Keep me from mine own undoing,
Help me turn to thee when tried,
Still my footsteps. Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at thy side.

888 Beyond this vale of sorrow. 8s &

DARK and thorny is the desert
Thro' which pilgrims make their way
But beyond this vale of sorrow
Lie the realms of endless day.

EMPIATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

Young soldiers do not murmur
The troubles of the way;
The tempest—fight with courage—
Or faint, but often pray.

Whose thunder shakes creation;
That bids the planets roll;
Who rides upon the tempest,
Whose scepter sways the whole—
Jesus, will defend you;
In him and him alone;
Who shed his blood to save you,
Will bring you to his throne.

On flowery fields of pleasure,
The hills of endless rest,
And peace, and love, shall ever
In and triumph in your breast.
Ten thousand flaming seraphs
Across the heavenly plain;
They sing immortal praises!
Oh, glory is their theme.

Think, a sweeter concert
As the crystal arches ring,
Song is heard in Zion
Which the angels can not sing:
Can paint those sons of glory,
Somed souls that dwell on high,
With golden harps for ever
And redemption through the sky.

Oh heavenly host! in rapture
Ting on these shining bands;
Gazing at their costly garments,
With the laurels in their hands;
Upon the golden pavement,
The ransomed march along!
The splendid courts of glory
Joyfully echo with their song!

GLORY, HONOR, AND SALVATION,

Reign, sweet Shepherd, ever reign

889

Luke 14 : 27.

88

MUST Simon bear the cross alone
And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.
Yes, there's a cross on Calvary,
Through which by faith the crown
To me 't is pardon bringing;
O that's the cross for me!

2 How happy are the saints above,
Who once went mourning here!
But now they taste unmingled love
And joy without a tear.
For perfect love will dry the tear,
And cast out all tormenting fear,
Which round my heart is clinging
O that's the love for me!

3 We'll bear the consecrated cross,
Till from the cross we're free;
And then go home to wear the crown
For there's a crown for me.
Yes, there's a crown in heaven above

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

For there's a home in heaven prepared,
A house by saints and angels shared,
Where Christ is interceding;
O that's the home for me!

Hope thou in God 8s, 7s & 4.

Psalm 42: 6.

MY soul! what means this sadness?
Wherefore art thou thus cast down?
Let thy griefs be turned to gladness
Bids thy restless fears begone;
Look to Jesus,
And rejoice in his dear name.
That though Satan's strong temptations
Vex and grieve thee day by day,
And thy sinful inclinations
Often fill thee with dismay;
Thou shalt conquer,
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood.
Though ten thousand ills beset thee,
From without and from within,
Jesus saith he'll ne'er forget thee,
But will save from hell and sin.
He is faithful
To perform his gracious word.
Though distresses now attend thee,
And thou tread'st the thorny road;
His right hand shall still defend thee;
Soon he'll bring thee home to God.
Therefore praise him,
Praise the great Redeemer's name.
That I could now adore him
Like the heavenly host above,
Who for ever bow before him,
And unceasing sing his love.
Happy songsters!
When shall I your chorus join?

THE NEW LIFE.

891

Under Clouds.

8a, 7a & 4.

- HERE behold me, as I cast me
At thy throne, O glorious King!
Tears fast thronging, child-like longing,
Son of Man, to thee I bring.
Let me find thee—
Me, a poor and worthless thing.
- 2 Look upon me, Lord, I pray thee;
Let thy Spirit dwell in mine:
Thou hast sought me, thou hast bought me
Only thee to know I pine:
Let me find thee—
Take my heart and grant me thine.
- 3 Nought I ask for, nought I strive for,
But thy grace, so rich and free,
That thou givest whom thou lovest,
And who truly cleave to thee;
Let me find thee—
He hath all things who hath thee.
- 4 Earthly treasure, mirth and pleasure,
Glorious name or richest hoard
Are but weary, void, and dreary,
To the heart that longs for God:
Let me find thee—
I am ready, mighty Lord.

892

*You are not of the world. 7a, 6a & 8a.
John 15: 19.*

THE sun above us gleaming
Is not the sun for me;
Though joyful be his beaming,
And beautiful to see;
There is a Sun of Righteousness
Who cheers and saves me by his grace,
All copious on me streaming,
O that's the Sun for me.

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

- 2 The Kings and Lords of nations,
Are not the kings for me;
Too low their highest stations,
Too mean their dignity:
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
Almighty in his ways and words,
The word of his salvation,
O that's the King for me.
- 3 This house of death and mourning
Is not the house for me,
Where all to dust are turning,
In tears and agony;
But there's a house not made with hands,
It ever stood and ever stands,
Beyond the world's last burning;
O that's the house for me.
- 4 The wars the hero fights in
Are not the wars for me,
The war my heart delights in Shall end in victory;
'Tis not a war of flesh and blood;
I fight for heaven, I fight for God,
A kingdom with my rights in, —
O that's the war for me.
- 5 This land of sin and sorrow
Is not the land for me,
Where anguish oft I borrow
From dying company;
Th' immortal land is far away,
I'll enter it on some bright day,
That day may be to-morrow, —
O that's the land for me.

893 Whereas I was blind, now I see. 118
John 9: 25.

O Saviour whose mercy, severe in its kindness,
Hath chastened my wanderings, and guided my way.
Adore! be the power that hath pitied my blindness,
And weaned me from phantoms that smil'd to betray.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 Enchanted with all that was dazzling and fair,
I followed the rainbow—I caught at the toy;
And still in displeasure thy goodness was there,
Disappointing the hope, and defeating the joy.
- 3 The blossom blushed bright, but a worm was below;
The moonlight shone fair, there was blight in the beam;
Sweet whispered the breeze, but it whispered of woe:
And bitterness flowed in the soft, flowing stream.
- 4 So, cured of my folly, yet cured but in part,
I turned to the refuge thy pity displayed;
And still did this eager and credulous heart
Weave visions of promise, that bloomed but to fade.
- 5 I thought that the course of the pilgrim to heaven
Would be bright as the summer, and glad as the morn;
Thou show'dst me the path, it was dark and uneven,
All rugged with rock, and all tangled with thorn.
- 6 I dreamed of celestial rewards and renown,
I grasped at the triumph that blesses the brave;
I asked for the palm branch, the robe, and the crown,
I asked, and thou show'dst me a cross and a grave!
- 7 Subdued and instructed, at length to thy will,
My hopes, and my wishes, my all I resign;
O give me a heart that can wait and be still,
Nor know of a wish or a pleasure but thine.
- 8 There are mansions exempted from sin and from woe,
But they stand in a region by mortals untrod;
There are rivers of joy—but they roll not below;
There is rest—but it dwells in the presence of God.

894 He that shall endure unto the end. 11s & 10s.

Matt. 24: 13.

THE captive's oar may pause upon the galley,
The soldier sleep beneath his plumed crest,
And peace may fold her wing o'er hill and valley,
But thou, O Christian! must not take thy rest.

- 2 Wilt thou find rest of soul in thy returning
To that old path thou hast so vainly trod?
Hast thou forgotten all thy weary yearning
To walk among the children of thy God?
- 3 Canst thou forget thy Christian prescription—
Behold we count them happy which endure?
What treasure wouldst thou, in the land Egyptian,
Repass the stormy waters to secure?

TEMPTATIONS AND CONFLICTS.

And God will come in his own time and power,
To set his earnest-hearted children free;
Watch only through this dark and painful hour,
And the bright morning yet will break for thee!

15 Be thou faithful unto death. 10s & 11s.

Rev. 2: 10.

BREAST the wave, Christian, when it is strongest;
Watch for day, Christian, when night is longest;
Onward and upward still be thine endeavor;
The rest that remaineth endureth forever.

Fight the fight, Christian; Jesus is o'er thee;
Run the race, Christian; heaven is before thee;
He who hath promised faltereth never;
Trust in the love that endureth for ever.

Close the eye, Christian, just as it closeth;
Lose the heart, Christian, ere it reposeth;
Free from the love of Christ nothing shall sever:
Fount, when the work is done—praise God for ever!

16 Some great thing! 8s & 6.

2 Kings 5. 13.

SHALL we grow weary in our watch,
And murmur at the long delay,
Impatient of our Father's time
And his appointed way?

Soft a deeper test of faith
Than prison-cell, or martyr's stake,
The self-renouncing watchfulness
Of silent prayer may make.

We gird us bravely to rebuke
Our erring brother in the wrong;
And in the ear of pride and power
Our warning voice is strong.

Easier to smite with Peter's sword
Than watch one hour in humbling prayer;
Life's great things, like the Syrian lord,
Our hearts can do and dare:

THE NEW LIFE.

- 5 But, O, we shrink from Jordan's side,
From waters which alone can save;
And murmur for Abana's banks
And Pharpar's brighter wave.
- 6 O Thon, who in the garden's shade
Didst wake thy weary ones again,
Who slumbered at that fearful hour,
Forgetful of thy pain—
- 7 Bend o'er us now, as over them,
And set our sleep-bound spirits free,
Nor leave us slumbering in the watch
Our souls should keep with thee!

897

Psalm 91.

6s & 6s.

GOD of our salvation!
Unto thee we pray;
Hear our supplication,
Be our strength and stay.

2 Wretched and unworthy,
Poor, and sick, and blind,
Prostrate we adore thee,
Call thy grace to mind.

3 He that dwelleth near thee,
Safely shall abide;
Ever love and fear thee,
In thy strength confide.

4 Sure is thy protection,
Safe is thy defense,
While in deep affliction,
Wo, or pestilence.

5 God of our salvation!
Saviour, Prince of Peace
Boundless thy compassion,
Infinite thy grace.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

- 6 While with love unceasing,
Humbly we adore;
Grant us thy rich blessing,
And we ask no more.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

898

Submissiveness.

L. M.

- BE still, my heart! these anxious cares
To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares;
They cast dishonor on thy Lord.
And contradict his gracious word.
- 2 Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
How canst thou want if he provide,
Or lose thy way with such a guide?
- 3 Did ever trouble yet befall,
And he refuse to hear thy call?
And has he not his promise passed,
That thou shalt overcome at last?
- 4 He who has helped me hither to
Will help me all my journey through,
And give me daily cause to raise
New trophies to his endless praise

899

Whom have I in heaven but thee.

L. M.

Psalm 73 : 25.

- O LORD, thy counsels and thy care
My safety and my comfort are;
And thou shalt guide me all my days,
Till glory crown the work of grace.
- 2 In whom but thee, in heaven above,
Can I repose my trust, my love?
And shall an earthly object be
Loved in comparison with thee?

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 My flesh is hastening to decay ;
 Soon shall the world have passed away ;
 And what can mortal friends avail,
 When heart, and strength, and life shall fail?
- 4 But O ! my Saviour, be thou nigh,
 And I will triumph when I die ;
 My strength, my portion, is divine ;
 And Jesus is for ever mine !

900 Thy will be done. 3s & 4.

MY God, my Father, while I stray,
 Far from my home, on life's rough way,
 O, teach me from my heart to say,
 "Thy will be done !"

- 2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
 For friends beloved no longer nigh ;
 Submissive still would I reply,
 "Thy will be done !"
- 3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
 What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine ;
 I only yield thee what was thine :
 "Thy will be done !"
- 4 If but my fainting heart be blest
 With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
 My God, to thee I leave the rest :
 "Thy will be done !"

901 My grace is sufficient for thee. L. M. 6 lines.
 2 Cor. 12 : 6

TO weary hearts, to mourning homes,
 God's meekest angel gently comes ;
 No power hath he to banish pain,
 Or give us back our lost again,
 And yet, in tenderest love, our dear
 And Heavenly Father sends him here.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

2 Angel of patience! sent to calm
Our feverish brows with cooling balm,
To lay with hope the storms of fear,
And reconcile life's smile and tear,
The throbs of wounded pride to still,
And make our own our Father's will!

3 O thou, who mournest on thy way,
With longings for the close of day,
He walks with thee, that angel kind,
And gently whispers, "Be resign'd!
Bear up, bear on, the end shall tell,
The dear Lord ordereth all things well."

902 Thy footsteps are not known. L. M. 6 lines
Psalm 77 : 19.

O LET my trembling soul be still,
While darkness veils this mortal eye,
And wait thy wise, thy holy will,
Wrapped yet in fears and mystery;
I can not, Lord, thy purpose see;
Yet all is well, since ruled by thee.

2 So, trusting in thy love, I tread
The narrow path of duty on;
What though some cherished joys are fled?
What though some flattering dreams are
Yet purer, nobler joys remain, [gone?
And peace is won through conquered pain.

903 Deut. 33 : 25. L. M. 6 lines

WHEN adverse winds and waves arise,
And in my heart despondence sighs;
When life her throng of cares reveals,
And weakness o'er my spirit steals,
Grateful I hear the kind decree,
That "as my day, my strength shall be."

THE NEW LIFE.

2 When, with sad footsteps, memory moves
 'Mid smitten joys and buried loves,
 When sleep my tearful pillow flies,
 And dewy morning drinks my sighs,
 Still to thy promise, Lord! I flee,
 That "as my day, my strength shall be."

One trial more must yet be past:
 One pang—the keenest and the last;
 And when, with brow convulsed and pale,
 My feeble, quivering heart-strings fail,
 Redeemer! grant my soul to see
 That "as my day, my strength shall be."

904

Not as I will.

C. M

Mark 14: 36.

ALL as God wills! who wisely heeds
 To give or to withhold,
 And knoweth more of all my needs
 Than all my prayers have told.

2 Enough that blessings undeserved
 Have marked my erring track—
 That whereso'er my feet have swerved,
 His chastening turned me back,—

3 That more and more a Providence,
 Of love is understood,
 Making the springs of time and sense
 Sweet with eternal good,—

4 That death seems but a covered way
 Which opens into light,
 Wherein no blinded child can stray
 Beyond the Father's sight,—

5 That care and trial seem at last,
 Through memory's sunset air,
 Like mountain ranges overpast,
 In purple distance fair,—

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

6 That all the jarring notes of life
Seem blending in a psalm,
And all the angles of its strife
Slow rounding into calm.

7 And so the shadows fall apart,
And so the west winds play;
And all the windows of my heart
I open to the day.

105 I waited patiently for the Lord. C. M.
Psalm 40 : 1.

WE wait in faith, in prayer we wait,
Until the happy hour
When God shall ope the morning gate,
By his almighty power.

We wait in faith, and turn our face
To where the day-light springs;
Till he shall come, earth's gloom to chase,
With healing on his wings.

And even now, amid the gray,
The east is brightening fast,
And kindling to that perfect day
Which never shall be past.

We wait in faith, we wait in prayer,
Till that blest day shall shine,
When earth shall fruits of Eden bear,
And all. O God, be thine!

O guide us till our night is done!
Until from shore to shore,
Thou, Lord, our everlasting sun,
Art shining evermore!

106 The Lord gave and the Lord, etc. C. M.
Job 1 : 21.

IT is the Lord,—enthroned in light,
Whose claims are all divine,
Who has an undisputed right
To govern me and mine.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 It is the Lord—who gives me all,
My wealth, my friends, my ease
And of his bounties may recall
Whatever part he please.
- 3 It is the Lord—my covenant God,—
Thrice blessed be his name.—
Whose gracious promise, sealed with blood
Must ever be the same.
- 1 Can I, with hopes so firmly built,
Be faithless, or repine?
No: gracious God! take what thou wilt:
To thee I all resign.

907 Our souls are in the Saviour's hand. C. M

- (O)UR souls are in the Saviour's hand,
And he will keep them still,
And you and I shall surely stand
With him on Zion's hill.
- 2 Him eye to eye we there shall see,
Our face like his shall shine;
O! what a glorious company,
When saints and angels join!
- 3 O! what a joyful meeting there,
In robes of white array!
Palms in our hands we all shall bear,
And crowns, that ne'er decay!
- 4 When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise,
Than when we first begun!
- 5 Then let us hasten to the day
When all shall be brought home
Come, O Redeemer! come away!
O Jesus! quickly come!

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

908

Thy will be done.

C. M

- FATHER, I know thy ways are just,
 Although to me unknown;
 O, grant me grace thy love to trust,
 And cry, "Thy will be done."
- 2 If thou shouldst hedge with thorns my path,
 Should wealth and friends be gone,
 Still, with a firm and lively faith,
 I'll cry, "Thy will be done."
- 3 Although thy steps I can not trace,
 Thy sov'reign right I'll own;
 And, as instructed by thy grace,
 I'll cry, "Thy will be done."

909

Rev. 7 : 13, 17.

C. M

- HOW bright these glorious spirits shine!
 Whence all their bright array?
 How came they to the blissful seats
 Of everlasting day?
- 2 Lo! these are they from suff'rings great
 Who came to realms of light,
 And in the blood of Christ have wash'd
 Those robes which shine so bright.
- 3 Now with triumphant palms they stand
 Before the throne on high,
 And serve the God they love, amidst
 The glories of the sky.
- 4 His presence fills each heart with joy,
 Tunes ev'ry mouth to sing;
 By day, by night, the sacred courts
 With glad hosannas ring.
- 5 Hunger and thirst are felt no more,
 Nor sun with scorching ray;
 God is their sun, whose cheering beams
 Diffuse eternal day.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 6 The Lamb that sits upon the throne
 Shall o'er them still preside,
 Feed them with nourishment divine,
 And all their footsteps guide.
- 7 'Mong pastures green he'll lead his flock,
 Where living streams appear;
 And God the Lord from ev'ry eye
 Shall wipe off ev'ry tear.

910 It is good that I have been afflicted. C. M.
 Psalm 119: 71.

- IN trouble and in grief. O God,
 Thy smile hath cheered my way;
 And joy hath budded from each thorn
 That round my footsteps lay.
- 2 The hours of pain have yielded good
 Which prosperous days refused;
 As herbs, though scentless when entire,
 Spread fragrance when they're bruised.
- 3 The oak strikes deeper as its boughs
 By furious blasts are driven;
 So life's tempestuous storms the more
 Have fixed my heart in heaven.
- 4 All-gracious Lord, what'er my lot
 In other times may be,
 I'll welcome still the heaviest grief
 That brings me near to thee.

911 I will bless the Lord at all times. C. M.
 Psalm 34: 1

- THROUGH all the changing scenes of
 In trouble and in joy, life,
 The praises of my God shall still
 My heart and tongue employ.
- 2 Of his deliverance I will boast,
 Till all that are distressed,
 From my example comfort take;
 And charm their griefs to rest.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

3 O, magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name,
When in distress to him I called,
He to my rescue came.

4 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just ;
Deliverance he affords to all,
Who on his succor trust.

912 They looked to him and were lightened. C. H. M
Psalm 34 : 5.

I LOOK to thee in every need,
And never look in vain ;
I feel thy strong and tender love,
And all is well again :
The thought of thee is mightier far
Than sin and pain and sorrow are.

2 Discouraged in the work of life,
Disheartened by its load.
Shamed by its failures or its fears,
I sink beside the road ;
But let me only think of thee.
And then new heart springs up in me.

3 Thy calmness bends serene above,
My restlessness to still ;
Around me flows thy quickening life,
To nerve my faltering will ;
Thy presence fills my solitude ;
Thy providence turns all to good.

4 Embosomed in thy cov'nant love,
Held in thy law, I stand ;
Thy hand in all things I behold,
And all things in thy hand ;
Thou leadest me by unsought ways,
And turn'st my mourning into praise.

- 2 Smooth let it be, or rough,
It will be still the best;
Winding or straight, it matters not
It leads me to thy rest.
- 3 I dare not choose my lot,
I would not if I might;
But choose thou for me, O my God
So shall I walk aright.
- 4 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine; so let the way
That leads to it, O Lord! be thine
Else I must surely stray.
- 5 My portion thou! my cup
With joy or sorrow fill;
As ever best to thee may seem,
Choose thou my good and ill.
- 6 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my joys and cares for
My poverty or wealth.
- 7 Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small; [Stu
Be thou my Guide, my Guar
My Wisdom and my All

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

- 2 "My times are in thy hand,"
Whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.
- 3 "My times are in thy hand,"
Why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause
His child a needless tear.

115

Spiritual wants.

S. M. D

- MY God, my Strength, my Hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.
Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do—
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.
- 2 I want a Godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And bids the tempter fly;
A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.
- 3 I rest upon thy word;
The promise is for me;
My succor and salvation. Lord,
Shall surely come from thee:
But let me still abide,
Nor from my hope remove,
Till thou my patient spirit guide
Into thy perfect love.

- 2 C thou, our souls' chief hope!
We to thy mercy fly;
Where'er we are, thou canst protec
Whate'er we need, supply.
- 3 Whether we sleep or wake,
To thee we both resign;
By night we see, as well as day,
If thy light on us shine.
- 4 Whether we live or die,
Both we submit to thee;
In death we live, as well as life,
If thine in death we be.

917

Not far from home.

- YOUR harps, ye trembling saints!
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love divine,
Bid every string awake.
- 2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home,
And, nearer to our house above,
We every moment come.
- † His grace will, to the end.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

- 5 Blest is the man, O God!
That stays himself on thee:—
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord!
Shall thy salvation see.

118 Having all in having Christ. 7a.

- JESUS, take me for thine own;
To thy will my spirit frame;
Thou shalt reign, and thou alone,
Over all I have and am.
2 Making thus the Lord my choice,
I have nothing more to choose,
But to listen to thy voice.
And my will in thine to lose.
3 Then, whatever may befall,
I shall safe and happy be;
Still content and satisfied;—
Having all in having thee.

119 All things work together for good. 7a.
Psalm 31.

- SOVEREIGN Ruler of the skies,
Ever gracious, ever wise!
All my times are in thy hand;
All events at thy command.
2 Times of sickness, times of health,
Times of penury and wealth,—
All must come, and last, and end,
As shall please my heavenly Friend.
3 O thou gracious, wise and just!
In thy hands my life I trust;
Have I somewhat dearer still?—
I resign it to thy will.
4 Thee at all times will I bless;
Having thee, I all possess:
Ne'er can I bereaved be,
While I do not part with thee.

THE NEW LIFE.

920

As a weaned child.

Psalm 131 2.

7a.

QUIET, Lord, my froward heart,
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art,
Make me as a weaned child;
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to thy wisdom leave;
'T is enough that thou wilt care—
Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own;
Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
Fears to stir a step alone;
Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

921

As thou wilt.

Matt. 26 : 39.

6a

MY Jesus, as thou wilt!
O! may thy will be mine!
Into thy hand of love
I would my all resign.
Through sorrow, or through joy,
Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say.
My Lord, Thy will be done!

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
If needy here and poor,
Give me thy people's bread,
Their portion rich and sure.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

The manna of thy word
Let my soul feed upon;
And if all else should fail—
My Lord, Thy will be done!

- 3 My Jesus, as thou wilt;
If among thorns I go,
Still sometimes here and there,
Let a few roses blow.
But thou on earth, along
The thorny path hast gone;
Then lead me after thee;
My Lord, Thy will be done!
- 4 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear.
Since thou on earth hast wept
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
My Lord, Thy will be done!
- 5 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
If loved ones must depart,
Suffer not sorrow's flood
To overwhelm my heart;
For they are blest with thee,
Thy race and conflict won;
Let me but follow them;
My Lord, Thy will be done!
- 6 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
When death itself draws nigh,
To thy dear wounded side
I would for refuge fly.
Leaning on thee, to go
Where thou before hast gone;
The rest as thou shalt please,
My Lord, Thy will be done

THE NEW LIME.

7 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
All shall be well for me:
Each changing future scene,
I gladly trust with thee.
Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
My Lord, Thy will be done!

922 I have led thee in right paths. 8s & 7s.
Prov. 4: 11.

O HOW kindly hast thou led me,
Heavenly Father, day by day!
Found my dwelling, clothed and fed me,
Furnished friends to cheer my way!
Didst thou bless me, didst thou chasten,
With thy smile, or with thy rod.
'Twas that still my step might hasten
Homeward, heavenward, to my God.

2 O how slowly have I often
Followed where thy hand would draw!
How thy kindness failed to soften!
How thy chastening failed to awe!
Make me for thy rest more ready
As thy path is longer trod;
Keep me in thy friendship steady,
Till thou call me home, my God!

923 Jesus, I my cross have taken. 8s & 7s

JESUS.—I my cross have taken,
All to leave and follow thee;
I am poor, despised, forsaken,—
Thou henceforth my all shalt be:
Perish every fond ambition,—
All I've sought, or hoped, or known;
Yet how rich is my condition,—
God and heaven are still my own!

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

- 2 Let the world despise and leave me,
It has left my Saviour too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me,
Thou art not like them untrue:
Whilst thy graces shall adorn me,
God of wisdom, love, and might.—
Foes may hate, and friends may scorn me,
Show thy face and all is bright.
- 3 Go then,—earthly fame and treasure,
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain;
In thy service, pain is pleasure,—
With thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called thee, Abba Father!
I have set my heart on thee:
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All will work for good to me.
- 4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'T will but drive me to thy breast,
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O, 't is not in grief to harm me
While thy love is left to me;
O, 't were not in joy to harm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee!
- 5 Soul,—then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care,
Joy to find in every station,
Something still to do or bear;
Think what Spirit dwells with'n thee,
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to save thee:
Child of heaven, can'st thou repine?
- 6 Haste thee on from grace to glory.
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.

HALLELUJAH! best and sweetest
Of the hymns of praise above!
Hallelujah! thou repeatest,
Angel-host, these notes of love;
This ye utter,
While your golden harps ye move.

2 Hallelujah! Church victorious,
Join the concert of the sky:
Hallelujah! bright and glorious!
Lift, ye saints, this strain on high!
We, poor exiles,
Join not yet your melody.

3 Hallelujah! strains of gladness
Comfort not the faint and worn;
Hallelujah! sounds of sadness
Best become the heart forlorn;
Our offenses
We with bitter tears must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication,
Holy God! we raise to thee;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Make us all thy peace to see!
Hallelujah!
Ours at length this strain shall be.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

O God! be thou my stay,
In this dark hour;
Kindly each sorrow hear,
Hush every troubled fear,
Thee let me still revere,
Still own thy power.

In thee alone I trust,
Thou Holy One!
Humbly to thee I pray
That through each troubled day
Of life, I still may say,
"Thy will be done!"

Changed—from glory to glory.
2 Cor. 3: 18.

68.

[DID thee wrong, my God;
I wronged thy truth and love
fretted at the rod—
Against thy power I strove.

Come nearer, nearer still;
Let not thy light depart;
Send, break this stubborn will;
Dissolve this iron heart!

Less wayward let me be,
More pliable and mild;
In glad simplicity
More like a trustful child.

Less, less of self each day,
And more, my God of thee;
Keep me in the way,
However rough it be.

Less of the flesh each day,
Less of the world and sin.
More of thy Son, I pray,
More of thyself within.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 6 More molded to thy will,
Lord, let thy servant be;
Higher and higher still,
More, and still more, like Thee!

927

Worthy the Lamb.

6s & 4s

- COME, all ye saints of God,
Wide through the earth abroad,
Spread Jesus' fame:
Tell what his love hath done;
Trust in his name alone;
Shout to his lofty throne,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Swell the glad theme:
To Christ, our gracious King,
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour's love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned;
While all the heavens resound
"Worthy the Lamb!"

928

Nearer to thee.

6s & 4s.

- N EARER, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be—
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

- 2 Though like the wanderer
Daylight all gone,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God to thee—
Nearer to thee!
- 3 There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee!
Nearer to thee!
- 4 Then with my waking thoughts,
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs,
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee—
Nearer to thee!
- 5 Or, if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly;
Still all my song shall be—
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

) My God and my all. 12s & 11s

WHILE thou, O my God, art my help and defender
No cares can o'erwhelm me, no terrors appall;
The wiles and the snares of this world will but render
More lively my hope in my God and my all.

Thou art my refuge in sorrow and danger;
My strength when I suffer; my hope when I fall;
My comfort and joy in this land of the stranger;
My treasure, my glory, my God, and my all.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 To thee, dearest Lord, will I turn without ceasing,
Though grief may oppress me, or sorrow befall;
And love thee, till death, my blest spirit releasing,
Secures to me Jesus, my God and my all.
- 4 And when thou demandest the life thou hast given,
With joy will I answer thy merciful call;
And quit thee on earth, but to find thee in heaven;
My portion for ever, my God and my all.

930 A little while. 11s & 10s
John 14: 19.

- 0 FOR the peace that floweth as a river,
Making life's desert places bloom and smile;
O for that faith to grasp the glad Forever,
Amid the shadows of earth's Little While!
- 1 A little while for patient vigil keeping,
To face the storm, to wrestle with the strong:
A little while to sow the seed with weeping,
Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest-song
- 2 A little while to wear the vail of sadness,
To toil with weary step through miry ways,
Then to pour forth the fragrant oil of gladness,
And clasp the girdle round the robe of Praise!
- 4 A little while 'mid shadow and illusion,
To strive by faith love's mysteries to spell,
Then read each dark enigma's bright solution,
Then hail sight's verdict—He doth all things well.
- 5 And He who is himself the Gift and Giver,
The future glory and the present smile,
With the bright promise of the glad Forever
Will light the shadows of earth's Little While.

931 For yet a little while. 11s & 10s.
Heb. 10: 37.

- A LITTLE longer still—patience, beloved:
A little longer still, ere heaven unroll
The glory, and the brightness, and the wonder,
Eternal and divine, that waits thy soul.
- 2 A little longer ere life, true, immortal,
(Not this our shadowy life) will be thine own.
And thou shalt stand where winged archangels worship,
And trembling bow before the great white throne.
- 3 A little longer still, and heaven awaits thee,
And fills thy spirit with a great delight;
Then our pale joys will seem a dream forgotten,
Our sun a darkness, and our day a night.

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

Little longer, and thy heart, beloved,
Shall beat for ever with a love divine;
And joy so pure, so mighty, so eternal,
No mortal knows, and lives, shall then be thine.

Little longer yet, and angel voices
Shall sing in heavenly chant upon thine ear;
Angels and saints await thee, and God needs thee;
Beloved, can we bid thee linger here?

2 Sufferings and glory. 10s
Rom. 8 : 18.

THROUGH cross to crown! and though thy spirit's life
Trials untold assail with giant strength,
Good cheer! good cheer! Soon ends the bitter strife,
And thou shalt reign in peace with Christ at length.
Through woe to joy! and though at morn thou weep,
And though the midnight finds thee weeping still,
Good cheer! good cheer! The Shepherd loves his sheep;
Resign thee to the watchful Father's will.
Through death to life! and through this vale of tears,
And through this thistle-field of life, ascend
To the great supper in that world whose years
Of bliss unfading, cloudless, know no end.

3 After the toil. 10s.

AFTER the toil," when the morning breaks
On the bloom-crowned hills of the heavenly-land
After the toil," when each slumberer wakes,
'Neath the glorified touch of the Infinite Hand
After the toil," when the dim earth sinks,
Like a worn-out pebble in eternity's sea;
After the toil," when each thirsty soul drinks
Of the River that flows through Immensity.
After the toil," O shadowing cloud
Of time o'er the face of the Infinite
When thou shalt be dropped like a worn-out shield,
What a morning will dawn on us after the night!
After the toil" and the cross that we bear
Way-worn and weary through life's creeping years,
Angels will smile on the crown we shall wear,
And the songs of salvation will follow our tears.
After the toil," O! thou who art faint,
Rise from the shadows that darken thy way—
Use while thy faith's raptured pencil shall paint
All its glorified dream of the Infinite Day.

THE NEW LIFE.

934

The day is at hand.

9s & 8s.

Rom. 13 : 12

CHRISTIAN, the morn breaks sweetly o'er
And all the midnight shadows flee; thee,
Tinged are the distant skies with glory,
A beacon-light hung out for thee;
Arise, arise! the light breaks o'er thee.
Thy name is graven on the throne
Thy home is in the world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

2 Toss'd on time's rude, relentless surges,
Calmly, composed, and dauntless, stand:
For lo! beyond those scenes emerges
The hights that bound the promised land.
Behold! behold! the land is nearing,
Where the wild sea-storm's rage is o'er;
Hark! how the heavenly hosts are cheering;
See in what throngs they range the shore!

3 Cheer up! cheer up! the day breaks o'er thee,
Bright as the summer's noontide ray,
The star-gemm'd crowns and realms of glory
Invite thy happy soul away;
Away! away! leave all for glory,
Thy name is graven on the throne;
Thy home is in that world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

935

Whate'er my God ordains is right.

P. M.

WHATE'ER my God ordains is right
His will is ever just;
Howe'er he orders now my cause,
I will be still and trust.
He is my God;
Though dark my road,
He holds me that I shall not fall;
Wherefore to him I leave it all

SUBMISSION AND DELIVERANCE.

Whate'er my God ordains is right;

He never will deceive;

He leads me by the proper path,

And so to him I cleave,

And take content

What he hath sent;

His hand can turn my griefs away,

And patiently I wait his day.

Whate'er my God ordains is right;

Though I the cup must drink

That bitter seems to my faint heart,

I will not fear or shrink;

Tears pass away

With dawn of day;

Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart

And pain and sorrow all depart.

6 As Mount Zion, which can not be moved. H M

Psalm 125: 1.

THEIR hearts shall not be moved

Who in the Lord confide;

But, firm as Zion's hill,

They ever shall abide;

As mountains shield Jerusalem,

The Lord shall be a Shield to them.

His blessing on them rests,

Like freshening dew from heaven;

And succor from his throne

In all their need is given;

Omnipotence shall guard them well,

And peace remain on Israel.

One like the Son of God

Is walking at their side,

When by the fervid flame

And fiery furnace tried;

And 'tis enough that he is near,

To strengthen them in every fear.

THE NEW LIFE.

937

Psalm 121.

P. M

TO heaven I lift mine eye,
To heaven. Jehovah's throne,
For there my Saviour sits on high,
And thence shall strength and aid supply
To all he calls his own.

2 He will not faint nor fail,
Nor cause thy feet to stray :
For him no weary hours assail.
Nor evening darkness spreads her veil
O'er his eternal day.

3 Beneath that light divine
Securely shalt thou move ;
The sun with milder beams shall shine,
And eve's still queen her lamp incline

4 For he, thy God and Friend,
Shall keep thy soul from harm,
In each sad scene of doubt attend,
And guide thy life, and bless thine end,
With his almighty arm.

938

Lord, to whom shall we go.

12s & 8s

John 6 : 68.

WHEN our purest delights are nipt in the blossom,
When those we love best are laid low ;
When grief plants in secret her thorn in the bosom,
Deserted—"to whom shall we go?"

2 When, with error bewildered, our path becomes dreary,
And tears of despondency flow ;
When the whole head is sick, and the whole heart is weary.
Despairing—"to whom shall we go?"

3 Where the sad, thirsty soul turns away from the spring
Of pleasure this world can bestow,
And sighs for another, and flutters its wings,
Impatient—"to whom shall we go?"

4 O blest be that light which has parted the clouds,
And a path to the pilgrim can show ;
That pierces the veil which the future enshrouds,
And tells us to whom we shall go !

RELAPSE AND RECOVERY

RELAPSE AND RECOVERY.

9 Blot out my transgressions. L. M.

Psalm 51.

- (1) THOU that hear'st when sinners cry,
Though all my sins before thee lie,
Behold me not with angry look,
But blot their memory from thy book.
- ! Create my nature pure within,
And form my soul averse to sin;
Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
Nor hide thy presence from my heart.
- ! I can not live without thy light,
Cast out and banished from thy sight;
Thy holy joys, my God, restore,
And guard me that I fall no more.
- ! Though I have grieved thy Spirit, Lord,
His help and comfort still afford;
And let a sinner seek thy throne,
To plead the merits of the Son.

10 The returning wanderer. L. M. 6 lines

- WEARY of wandering from my God,
And now made willing to return,
I bear, and bow beneath the rod;
For thee, for thee alone, I mourn:
I have an Advocate above,
A Friend before the throne of love.
- ! O Jesus, full of truth and grace!
More full of grace than I of sin;
Yet once again I seek thy face,
Open thine arms and take me in;
And freely my backslidings heal,
And love the faithless sinner still.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 Thou know'st the way to bring me back,
 My fallen spirit to restore;
 O, for thy truth and mercy's sake,
 Forgive, and bid me sin no more!
 The ruins of my soul repair,
 And make my heart a house of prayer.

911

Deliverance.

L. M.

BEFORE thy throne with tearful eyes,
 My gracious Lord. I humbly fall;
 To thee my weary spirit flies,
 For thy forgiving love I call.

- 2 How free thy mercy overflows,
 When sinners on thy grace rely!
 Thy tender love no limit knows;
 O, save me—justly doomed to die!
- 3 Yes! thou wilt save; my soul is free!
 The gloom of sin is fled away;
 My tongue breaks forth in praise to thee,
 And all my powers thy word obey.
- 4 Hence, while I wrestle with my foes,—
 The world, the flesh, the hosts of hell,—
 Sustain thou me till conflicts close,
 Then endless songs my thanks shall tell

942

Turn thee unto me, etc.

C. M.

Psalm 25: 16.

O THOU, whose tender mercy hears
 Contrition's humble sigh;
 Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
 From sorrow's weeping eye;

- 2 See, Lord, before thy throne of grace,
 A wretched wanderer mourn:
 Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
 Hast thou not said—"Return?"

RELAPSE AND RECOVERY.

- 3 And shall my guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet?
O, let not this dear refuge fail,
This only safe retreat!
- 4 Absent from thee, my Guide! my Light!
Without one cheering ray,
Through dangers, fears, and gloomy night.
How desolate my way!
- 5 O, shine on this benighted heart,
With beams of mercy shine!
And let thy healing voice impart
A taste of joy divine.

43 O for a closer walk with God! C. M

- O FOR a closer walk with God!
A calm and heav'nly frame!
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!
- 2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?
- 3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.
- 4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.
- 5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 6 So shall my walk be close with God.
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

944 O, that I were as in months past. C. M.
Joh 23. 2.

SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shade prevailed,
His love was all my song.

- 3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.

- 4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.

- 5 Rise, Saviour! help me to prevail,
And make my soul thy care;
I know thy mercy can not fail;
Let me that mercy share.

945 Grieve not the Spirit. 8s & 6s.
Eph. 4: 30.

- () SAVIOUR, lend a listening ear,
And answer my request!
Forgive, and wipe the falling tear,
Now with thy love my spirit cheer,
And set my heart at rest.

RELAPSE AND RECOVERY.

- 2 I mourn the hidings of thy face;
The absence of that smile,
Which led me to a throne of grace,
And gave my soul a resting-place,
From earthly care and toil.
- 3 'Tis sin that separates from thee
This poor benighted soul:
My folly and my guilt I see,
And now upon the bended knee,
I yield to thy control.
- 4 Up to the place of thine abode
I lift my waiting eye;
To thee, O holy Lamb of God!
Whose blood for me so freely flow'd,
I raise my ardent cry.

946 He hath borne our griefs. 7s. 6 lines.

- WEEPING soul, no longer mourn,
Jesus all thy griefs hath borne;
View him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out his life for thee;
There thy every sin he bore,
Weeping soul, lament no more.
- 2 Cast thy guilty soul on him,
Find him mighty to redeem;
At his feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and fears away;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

947 Jesus, Saviour, pity me. 7s. 6 lines.

- PITY, Lord! this child of clay,
Who can only weep and pray—
Only on thy love depend:
Thou who art the sinner's Friend;
Thou the sinner's only plea—
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

THE NEW LIFE.

2 From thy flock, a straying lamb,
Tender Shepherd, though I am;
Now, upon the mountain cold,
Lost, I long to gain the fold,
And within thine arms to be :
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

3 O, where stillest streams are poured,
In green pastures lead me, Lord !
Bring me back, where angels sound
Joy to the poor wanderer found :
Evermore my Shepherd be :
Jesus, Saviour, pity me!

948

The prodigal invited.

7a.

BROTHER, hast thou wandered far
From thy Father's happy home,
With thyself and God at war?
Turn thee, brother; homeward come.

2 Hast thou wasted all the powers
God for noble uses gave?
Squandered life's most golden hours?
Turn thee, brother; God can save.

3 He can heal thy bitterest wound,
He thy gentlest prayer can hear :
Seek him, for he may be found ;
Call upon him; he is near.

949

Father take me.

8s & 7s.

TAKE me, O my Father ! take me—
Take me, save me, through thy Son;
That which thou would'st have me, make
Let thy will in me be done. [me;

2 Long from thee my footsteps straying,
Thorny proved the way I trod ;
Weary come I now, and praying—
Take me to thy love, my God!

RELAPSE AND RECOVERY.

- 3 Fruitless years with grief recalling
Humbly I confess my sin!
At thy feet, O Father, falling,
To thy household take me in.
- 4 Freely now to thee I proffer
This relenting heart of mine;
Freely, life and soul I offer,
Gift unworthy love like thine.
- 5 Once the world's Redeemer, dying,
Bore our sins upon the tree;
On that sacrifice relying,
Now I look in hope to thee.
- 6 Father, take me! all forgiving,
Fold me to thy loving breast;
In thy love for ever living,
I must be for ever blest.

950

Returning.

10a.

- A WEAK and weary dove with drooping wing,
And tir'd of wand'ring o'er this wat'ry waste,
Jesus, my ark! once more a worthless thing
To thee I fly, thy pard'ning love to taste.
- 2 For since I left thy sweet, secure retreat,
In search of pleasures fair, though false and vain,
My peace—my joy have flown; no rest my feet
Have found; and now I turn to thee again!
 - 3 I've sought for rest in friendship's hallow'd shrine,
But loved ones change, and earth's endearments end;
No love is true and lasting, Lord, but thine;
Henceforth, incarnate Love, be thou my friend.
 - 4 I've sought to find a place to rest my feet
In fame's alluring temple, bright and gay;
In health, and competence, and pleasures sweet,
But short and transient as the passing day.
 - 5 Yet all in vain; o'er all this dreary waste
Of sin and sorrow, toil and care, and pain,
No spot I've found my weary feet to rest;
And now, sweet ark, I fly to thee again.

THE NEW LIFE.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

951 Prayer for general peace. L. M

THY footsteps, Lord, with joy we trace,
And mark the conquests of thy grace;
Complete the work thou hast begun,
And let thy will on earth be done.

2 O, show thyself the Prince of Peace;
Command the din of war to cease:
O, bid contending nations rest,
And let thy love rule every breast!

3 Then peace returns with balmy wing;
Glad plenty laughs, the valleys sing;
Reviving commerce lifts her head,
And want and wo and hate have fled.

4 Thou good and wise, and righteous Lord,
All move subservient to thy word;
O, soon let every nation prove
The perfect joy of Christian love!

952 I pray—that thou shouldst keep, etc. L. M
John 17 : 12.

WHILE others pray for grace to die,
O Lord, I pray for grace to live;
For every hour a fresh supply;
O see my need and freely give.

2 I do not dread the hour of death,
If I am thine, no fears remain;
I know that with my parting breath
I yield forever mortal pain.

3 E'en if the darkness should appear
Too deep for faith as well as sight,
If I am thine thou wilt be near,
And take me to thy heavenly light.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

But O! my Lord, in life's highway
I crave the sunshine of thy face;
And every moment of the day
I need thy strong supporting grace.

I dare not—will not—Lord, deny
That heart and feet both go astray;
Therefore the more to thee I cry
To keep me in the chosen way.

The more my sin and unbelief
Keep me from walking near to thee,
The more, Lord Jesus, is my grief—
The more I long thy face to see.

153

I was a father to the poor.

Job 29: 16.

C. M.

BLEST is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain;

2 Whose breast expands with generous
A stranger's woes to feel; [warmth,
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind, supporting arms,
To every child of grief:
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow;
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

5 Peace from the bosom of his God
The Saviour's grace shall give;
And when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.

THE NEW LIFE.

I delivered the poor and the fatherless.
Job 59: 12.

C. M.

956

BRIGHT Source of everlasting love,
To thee our souls we raise;
And to thy sovereign bounty rear
A monument of praise.

1 Thy mercy gilds the path of life
With every cheering ray,
Kindly restrains the rising tear,
Or wipes that tear away.

3 To tents of wo, to beds of pain,
Our cheerful feet repair,
And with the gifts thy hand bestows,
Relieve the mourners there.

4 The widow's heart shall sing for joy;
The orphan shall be fed;
The hungering soul we'll gladly point
To Christ, the living Bread.

C. M.

955 Ye have the poor always with you.
Matt. 26: 11.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And, that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Small are the offerings we can make
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

3 A new commandment. C. M.

BENEATH the shadow of the cross,
As earthly hopes remove.
His new commandment Jesus gives,
His blessed word of love.

O, bond of union, strong and deep!
O, bond of perfect peace!
Not e'en the lifted cross can harm,
If we but hold to this.

Then, Jesus, be thy Spirit ours!
And swift our feet shall move
To deeds of pure self-sacrifice,
And the sweet tasks of love.

7 Scorn not the slightest word or deed. C. M.

SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
Here's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.

Whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
Look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.

No act falls fruitless, none can tell
How vast its power may be,
Or what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.

Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be,
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

3 Make channels for the streams of love. C. M.

MAKE channels for the streams of love,
Where they may broadly run;
And love has overflowing streams,
To fill them every one.

THE NEW LIFE.

But if at any time we cease
Such channels to provide,
The very founts of love for us
Will soon be parched and dried.

- 3 For we must share, if we would keep,
That blessing from above;
Ceasing to give, we cease to have:
Such is the law of love.

959

Blessed are ye that sow, etc.

Isaiah 32 : 20.

C. H. M.

- O, BE not faithless! with the morn
At noontide faint not thou forlorn,
At evening sow again!
Bléssed are they, whate'er betide,
Who thus all waters sow beside.
- 3 Thou knowest not which seed shall grow,
Or which may die, or live;
In faith, and hope, and patience, sow!
The increase God shall give,
According to his gracious will—
As best his purpose may fulfill.
- 3 O, could our inward eye but view,
Our hearts but feel aright,
What faith, and love, and hope can do,
By their celestial might,
We should not say, till these be dead,
The power that marvels wrought is fled.

960

John 12 : 3.

SHE loved her Saviour, and to him
Her costliest present brought;
To crown his head, or grace his name
No gift too rare she thought.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

- 2 So let the Saviour be adored,
And not the poor despised,
Give to the hungry from your hoard,
But all, give all to Christ.
- 3 Go, clothe the naked, lead the blind,
Give to the weary rest;
For sorrow's children comfort find,
And help for all distress'd;
- 4 But give to Christ alone thy heart,
Thy faith, thy love supreme;
Then for his sake thine alms impart,
And so give all to him.

961

1 Peter 2: 21—23.

C. M.

WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around thy steps below;
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe!

- 2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O give us hearts to love like thee!
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins than all
The wrongs that we receive.
- 5 One with thyself, may every eye,
In us, thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord! with thee.

962 In thee the fatherless findeth mercy. C. M.
Hos. 14: 3.

O GRACIOUS Lord, whose mercies rise
Above our utmost need,
Incline thine ear unto our cry,
And hear the orphan plead.

- 2 Bereft of all a mother's love,
And all a mother's care,
Lord, whither shall we flee for help?
To whom direct our prayer?
- 3 To thee we flee, to thee we pray;
Thou shalt our Father be:
More than the fondest parent's care
We find, O Lord, in thee.
- 4 Already thou hast heard our cry,
And wiped away our tears:
Thy mercy has a refuge found
To guard our helpless years.
- 5 O, let thy love descend on those
Who pity to us show;
Nor let their children ever taste
The orphan's cup of wo.

963 A father of the fatherless. C. M.
Psalm 68 : 5.

WHERE shall the child of sorrow find
A place for calm repose?
Thou! Father of the fatherless,
Pity the orphan's woes!

- 2 What friend have I in heaven or earth,
What friend to trust but thee?
My father's dead, my mother's dead,
My God! "remember me."
- 3 Thy gracious promise now fulfill,
And bid my troubles cease;
In thee the fatherless shall find
Pure mercy, grace, and peace.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

I've not a secret care or pain
But he that secret knows;
Thou Father of the fatherless,
Pity the orphan's woes.

164 Bear ye one another's burdens. S. M.
Gal. 6: 2.

HELP us. O Lord, thy yoke to wear,
Delighting in thy will;
Each other's burdens learn to bear,
The law of love fulfill.

2 He that hath pity on the poor
Doth lend unto the Lord;
And, lo! his recompense is sure;
For more shall be restored.

3 To thee our all devoted be,
In whom we move. and live;
Freely we have received from thee;
And freely may we give.

4 And while we thus obey thy word,
And every want relieve,
O may we find it, gracious Lord!
More blest than to receive.

165 Not hurt in all my holy mountain. S. M.
Isaiah 11: 9.

HUSH the loud cannon's roar.
The frantic warrior's call, [gore &
Why should the earth be drenched with
Are we not brother's all?

Want, from the wretch depart;
Chains, from the captive fall;
Sweet mercy, melt the oppressor's heart:
Sufferers are brothers all.

Churches and sects, strike down
Each mean partition wall;
Let love each harsher feeling drown:
Christians are brothers all. ●

THE NEW LIFE.

- 4 Let love and truth alone
Hold human hearts in thrall,
That heaven its work at length may own,
And men be brothers all.

966 Establish thou the work of our hands. S. D
Psalm 90 : 17

O PRAISE our God to-day,
His constant mercy bless,
Whose love hath helped us on our way,
And granted us success.

- 2 O happiest work below,
Earnest of joy above,
To sweeten many a cup of wo
By deeds of holy love!

- 3 Lord ! may it be our choice
This blessed rule to keep :
Rejoice with them that do rejoice,
And weep with them that weep.

967 In the morning sow thy seed. S.
Eccl. 11 : 6.

SOW in the morn thy seed ;
At eve hold not thy hand ;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed
Broadcast it o'er the land.

- 2 Thou know'st not which shall thrive
The late or early sown ;
Grace keeps the precious gerin alive
When and wherever strown.

- 3 The good, the fruitful ground
Expect not here nor there ;
On hillside and in dale 't is found ;
Go forth, then, everyw here !

- 4 And duly shall appear,
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the e
And the full corn at length.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

5 'Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain .
For garnerers in the sky.

6 Thence, when the glorious end,
The day of God, is come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven cry, Harvest-home.

968

The orphan's prayer.

P. M

WHAT though earthly friends may frown,
Why should I dejected be?
Father, let thy will be known,
Let me find my all in thee.
Never let my soul despair,
God will hear the orphan's prayer ;
God will hear,
God will hear the orphan's prayer.

2 Sorrow's child I long have been,
Often for unkindness mourn'd ;
Friendless orphan, poor and mean,
By the proud and wealthy scorn'd.
Still to God will I repair,
God will hear the orphan's prayer ;
God will hear,
God will hear the orphan's prayer.

3 Earthly comforts fade and die,
Sorrows oft our joys attend ;
But, if we on God rely,
He will prove a constant friend.
On him I'll cast ev'ry care,
He regards the orphan's prayer ;
He regards,
He regards the orphan's prayer.

THE NEW LIFE.

969

Psalm 126: 6.

8s & 7

- HE that goeth forth with weeping,
Bearing precious seed in love,
Never tiring, never sleeping,
Findeth mercy from above.
- 1 Soft descend the dews of heaven;
Bright the rays celestial shine;
Precious fruits will thus be given,
Through the influence all divine.
- 3 Sow thy seed; be never weary;
Let no fears thy soul annoy;
Be the prospect ne'er so dreary
Thou shalt reap the fruits of joy.
- 4 Lo! the scene of verdure brightening,
In the rising grain appear;
Look again; the fields are whitening,
For the harvest time is near.

970

Life's work.

8s & 7

- ALL around us, fair with flowers,
Fields of beauty sleeping lie;
All around us clarion voices
Call to duty stern and high.
- 2 Following every voice of mercy
With a trusting, loving heart;
Let us in life's earnest labor
Still be sure to do our part.
- 3 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,
Let us work with all our might,
Lest the wretched faint and perish
In the coming stormy night.
- 4 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,
Lest, before to-morrow's sun,
We too, mournfully departing,
Shall have left our work undone.

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

971 Freely you have received, etc. 8s, 7s & 4.
Math. 10: 8.

WITH my substance I will honor
My Redeemer and my Lord;
Were ten thousand worlds my manor.
All were nothing to his word:
Hallelujah!
Now we offer to the Lord.

2 While the heralds of salvation
His abounding grace proclaim,
Let his saints of ev'ry station
Gladly join to spread his fame:
Hallelujah!
Gifts we offer to his name.

3 May his kingdom be promoted;
May the world the Saviour know;
Be to him these gifts devoted,
For to him my all I owe:
Hallelujah!
Run, ye heralds to and fro.

4 Praise the Saviour, all ye nations;
Praise him, all ye hosts above;
Shout with joyful acclamations
His divine, victorious love:
Hallelujah!
By this gift our love we'll prove.

972 That he who loveth God, etc. 11s & 10s;
1 John 4: 21.

O HE whom Jesus loved has truly spoken!
The holier worship which God deigns to bless,
Restores the lost, and heals the spirit broken,
And feeds the widow and the fatherless.

Then, brother man, fold to thy heart thy brother!
For where love dwells, the peace of God is there,
No worship rightly is to love each other;
Each smile a hymn, each kindly deed a prayer.

THE NEW LIFE

3 Follow, with reverent steps, the great example
Of him whose holy work was doing good;
So shall the wide earth seem our Father's temple,
Each loving life a psalm of gratitude.
4 Thus shall all shackles fall; the stormy clangor
Of wild war-music o'er the earth shall cease;
Love shall tread out the baleful fires of anger,
And in its ashes plant the tree of peace.

973

I the Lord will hasten it, etc.

11s & 10s

Isaiah 160: 22.

DOWN the dark future, through long generations,
The sounds of war grow fainter, and then cease;
And like a bell with solemn, sweet vibrations,
I hear once more the voice of Christ say, "Peace!"

2 Peace! and no longer, from its bristling portals
The blast of war's great organ shakes the skies;
But beautiful as songs of the immortals,
The holy melodies of love arise.

974

Peace on earth.

11s & 10s

PEACE, peace on earth! the heart of man for ever
Through all these weary strife's foretells the day;
Blessed be God, the hope forsakes him never,
That war shall end, and swords be sheathed away.
3 Peace, peace on earth! for men shall love each other;
Hosts shall go forth to bless, and not destroy;
For man shall see in every man a brother,
And peace on earth fulfill the angels' joy.

975

Restore such a one in the spirit, etc.

Gal. 6: 1.

BREATHE thoughts of pity o'er a brother's fall,
But dwell not with stern anger on his fault;
The grace of God alone holds thee, holds all;
Were that withdrawn, thou too would'st swerve a
3 Send back the wanderer to the Saviour's fold—
That were an action worthy of a saint;
But not in malice let the crime be told,
Nor publish to the world the evil taint.
3 The Saviour suffers when his children slide;
Then is his holy name by men blasphemed;
And he afresh is mocked and crucified,
Even by those his bitter death redeemed.

578

SYMPATHIES AND ACTIVITIES.

- 4 Rebuke the sin, and yet in love rebuke
 Feel as one member in another's pain;
 Win back the soul that his fair path forsook,
 And mighty and eternal is thy gain.

976

Work on, hope on.

8s & 5s

EVERY day hath toil and trouble,
 Every heart hath care;
 Meekly bear thine own full measure,
 And thy brother's share.
 Fear not, shrink not, though the burden
 Heavy to thee prove;
 God shall fill thy mouth with gladness,
 And thy heart with love.

- 2 Patiently enduring, ever
 Let thy spirit be
 Bound, by links that can not sever,
 To humanity.
 Labor, wait! thy master labored
 Till his task was done;
 Count not lost thy fleeting moments—
 Life hath but begun.

- 3 Labor! wait! though midnight shadows
 Gather round thee here,
 And the storm above thee lowering
 Fill thy heart with fear—
 Wait in hope! the morning dawns
 When the night is gone,
 And a peaceful rest awaits thee
 When thy work is done.

THE NEW LIFE.

PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

977 Far from my thoughts vain world beyond L. M.

FAR from my thoughts, vain world! be
Let my religious hours alone:—gone,
Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see;
I wait a visit, Lord! from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire;
Come, my dear Jesus! from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour, what delicious fare—
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all-divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One.
That eyes have seen, or angels known!

978 Abide with us for it is toward evening. L. M.
Luke 24: 29.

SUN of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near:
O, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

2 When soft the dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought,—how sweet to re
For ever on my Saviour's breast!

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I can not live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

- 4 Be near to bless me when I wake,
Ere through the world my way I take;
Abide with me till in thy love
I lose myself in heaven above.

979

The fullness of God.

L. M.

Eph. 3: 19.

MY God, my heart with love inflame,
That I may in thy holy name
Aloud in songs of praise rejoice,
While I have breath to raise my voice.

- 2 No more let my ungrateful heart
One moment from thy praise depart;
But live and sing, in sweet accord,
The glories of my sov'reign Lord.
- 3 Jesus! thou hope of glory, come.
And make my heart thy constant home:
Through all the remnant of my days,
O let me speak and live thy praise!

980

In the night watches.

8s & 4.

Psalm 63: 6.

IN silence of the voiceless night, [flee,
When, chased by dreams, the slumbers
Whom, in the darkness, do I seek,
O God, but thee?

- 2 And if there weigh upon my breast,
Vague memories of the day forgot
Scarce knowing why, I fly to thee,
And lay them down.
- 3 Or, if it be the gloom that comes,
In token of impending ill,
My bosom heeds not what it is
Since 't is thy will.
- 4 For O! in spite of constant care,
Or aught beside, how joyfully
I pass that solitary hour,
My God, with thee!

THE NEW LIFE.

- 5 More rapt than the still night,
More peaceful than that voiceless hour,
Supremely blest, my bosom lies
Beneath thy power.
- 6 For what on earth can I desire,
Of all it hath to offer me?
Or whom in heaven do I seek,
O God, but thee?

981 In the world, but not of it. L. M.

- OH that I could for ever dwell,
Delighted at the Saviour's feet;
Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat!
- 2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss,
O! is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this?
- 3 This is the hidden life I prize—
A life of penitential love;
When I my follies most despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above;
- 4 When all I am I clearly see
And freely own with deepest shame;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathless flame.
- 5 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

982 Retirement and meditation. L.

Psalm 4: 4.

RETURN, my roving heart, return,
And chase these shadowy forms no more;
Seek out some solitude to mourn,
And thy forsaken God implore.

PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

- 2 O thou, great God, whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep recess;
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And with thy presence fill the place.
- 3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide
And still its radiant beams impart
Till all be searched and purified.
- 4 Then, with the visits of thy love,
Vouchsafe my inmost soul to cheer;
Till every grace shall join to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there.

983

The gate of Heaven.

L. M. D.

- OUR Father God! not face to face
May mortal sense commune with thee,
Nor lift the curtains of that place
Where dwells thy secret Majesty:
Yet whereso'er our spirits bend
In rev'rent faith and humble prayer,
Thy promised blessing will descend,
And we shall find thy Spirit there.
- 2 Lord! be the spot where now we meet
An open gateway into Heaven;
Here may we sit at Jesus' feet,
And feel our deepest sins forgiven.
Here may desponding care look up;
And sorrow lay its burden down.
Or learn of him, to drink the cup,
To bear the cross, and win the crown.
- 3 Here may the sick and wandering soul
To truth still blind, to sin a slave,
Find better than Bethesda's pool,
Or than Siloam's healing wave;

THE NEW LIFE.

And may we learn, while here apart
From the world's passion and its strife,
That thy true shrine 's a loving heart,
And thy best praise a holy life!

984

Joy unspeakable.

C. M.

1 Pet. 1: 8.

SWEET is the prayer whose holy stream
In earnest pleading flows;
Devotion dwells upon the theme,
And warm and warmer glows.

- 2 Faith grasps the blessing she desires,
Hope points the upward gaze;
And love, untrembling love, inspires
The eloquence of praise.
- 3 But sweeter far the still, small voice,
Heard by the human ear,
When God hath made the heart rejoice,
And dried the bitter tear.
- 4 Nor accents flow, nor words ascend;
All utterance falleth there;
But listening spirits comprehend,
And God accepts the prayer.

985

Communion with God in retirement.

C. M.

FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
From strife and tumult far;
From scenes where Satan wages still
His most successful war.

- 2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
With prayer and praise agree;
And seem by thy sweet bounty made
For those who follow thee.
- 3 There, if thy Spirit touch the soul
And grace her mean abode,
O, with what peace and joy, and love,
She then communes with God!

PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

- 4 There, like the nightingale she pours
Her solitary lays;
Nor asks a witness of her song,
Nor thirsts for human praise.
- 5 Author and Guardian of my life!
Sweet Source of light divine,
And all harmonious names in one—
My Saviour!—thou art mine!
- 6 What thanks I owe thee, and what love—
A boundless, endless store—
Shall echo through the realms above,
When time shall be no more.

Secret prayer.

C. M.

Matt. 6: 6.

- FATHER divine, thy piercing eye
Sees through the darkest night;
In deep retirement thou art nigh,
With heart-discerning sight.
- 2 There may that piercing eye survey
My duteous homage paid.
With every morning's dawning ray
And every evening's shade.
- 3 O let thy own celestial fire
The incense still inflame;
While my warm vows to thee aspire,
Through my Redeemer's name.
- 4 So shall the visits of thy love
My soul in secret bless;
So shalt thou deign in worlds above
Thy suppliant to confess.

987 Sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. C. M.

1 Pet. 3: 15.

O! COULD I find, from day to day,
A nearness to my God,
Then would my hours glide sweet away
While leaning on his word.

THE NEW LIFE.

Lord, I desire with thee to live
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.

3 Blest Jesus, come and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.

4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

I am still with thee.
Psalm 139 : 18.

STILL with thee, O my God,
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with thee;—
2 With thee, when dawn comes in,
And calls me back to care;
Each day returning to begin
With thee, my God, in prayer;
3 With thee, amid the crowd
That throngs the busy mart,
To hear thy voice, 'mid clamor
Speak softly to my heart;—
4 With thee, when day is done
And evening calms the air
The setting as the rising sun
With thee my heart would
5 With thee, when darkness
The signal of repose,
Calm in the shadow of Thy eyelids I would

2 Cor. 4: 18.

THY will be done! I will not fear
The fate provided by thy love;
Though clouds and darkness shroud me here,
I know that all is bright above.

1 The stars of heaven are shining on, [tears;
Though these frail eyes are dimmed with
The hopes of earth indeed are gone,
But are not ours the immortal years?

3 Father! forgive the heart that clings,
Thus trembling, to the things of time;
And bid my soul, on angel wings,
Ascend into a purer clime.

4 There shall no doubts disturb its trust,
No sorrows dim celestial love;
But these afflictions of the dust,
Like shadows of the night, remove.

5 E'en now, above, there's radiant day,
While clouds and darkness brood below;
Then, Father, joyful on my way
To drink the bitter cup I go.

994 Blessed are they that mourn. L. M.
Mat'h. 5: 4.

DEEM not that they are blest alone
Whose days a peaceful tenor keep;
The God who loves our race has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

3 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears,
And weary hours of wo and pain
Are earnest of serener years.

THE NEW LIFE.

), there are days of hope and rest
 For every dark and troubled night!
 And grief may bide an evening guest.
 But joy shall come with early light.
 And thou who o'er thy friend's low bier
 Dost shed the bitter drops like rain,
 Hope that a brighter, happier sphere
 Will give him to thy arms again.

5 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
 Though life its common gifts deny;
 Though with a pierced and broken heart,
 And spurned of men, he goes to die.

 And numbered every secret tear;
 And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
 For all his children suffer here.

Psalm 69 : 15.

L. M

GOD of my life, to thee I call;
 Afflicted, at thy feet I fall;
 When the great water-floods prevail,
 Leave not my trembling heart to fail.
 2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
 Where should I lodge my deep complaint
 Where—but with thee, whose open door
 Invites the helpless and the poor?
 3 He who has helped me hitherto
 Will help me all the journey through
 And give me daily cause to raise
 New trophies to his endless praise.

 It leads thee home, apace, to God;
 Then count thy present trials small
 For heaven will make amends for all

God only is my rock.

L. M

Psalm 124.

- MY spirit looks to God alone;
My rock and refuge is his throne;
 In all my fears, in all my straits,
 My soul for his salvation waits.
- 2 Trust him, ye saints, in all your ways;
 Pour out your hearts before his face;
 When helpers fail and foes invade,
 God is our all-sufficient aid.

Heb. 4: 15.

L. M. 6 lines

- AS soft, with worn and weary feet,
 We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
 The thought—how comforting and sweet!
 Christ took this very path before!
 Our wants and weaknesses he knows,
 From life's first dawning to its close.
- 2 Do sickness, feebleness, or pain,
 Or sorrow in our path appear?
 The recollection will remain,
 More deeply did he suffer here!
 His life, how truly sad and brief,
 Filled up with suffering and with grief!
- 3 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray,
 And whisper evil things within,
 So did he, in the desert way,
 Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin;
 When worn, and in a feeble hour,
 The tempter came with all his power.
- 4 Just such as I, this earth he trod,
 With every human ill but sin;
 And, though indeed the Son of God,
 As I am now, so he has been.
My God, my Saviour, look on me
 With pity, love, and sympathy.

The refiner's fire.

L. M.

Mal. 3: 3.

SAVIOUR! though my rebellious will
Has been, by thy blest power, renewed;
Yet in its secret workings still
How much remains to be subdued!

- 2 Oft I recall, with grief and shame,
How many years their course had run
Ere grace my murmuring heart o'ercame,
Ere I could say, "Thy will be done!"
- 3 At length thy patient, wondrous love,
Unchanging, tender, pitying, strong,
Availed that stony heart to move,
Which had rebelled, alas! so long.
- 4 Then was I taught by thee to say,
"Do with me what to thee seems best;
Give, take, whate'er thou wilt away,
Health, comfort, usefulness, or rest.
- 5 "Be my whole life in suffering spent,
But let me be in suffering thine;
Still, O my Lord, I am content,
Thou now hast made thy pleasure mine."

999 Touched with the feeling of &c. L. M. 6 lines.

Heb. 4: 15.

WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark and friends are few
On him I lean, who not in vain,
Experienced every human pain.
He sees my wants, allays my fears.
And counts and treasures up my tears.

- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the ill I would not do;
Still, he who felt temptation's power,
Will guard me in that dangerous hour.

AFFLICTIONS.

Which covers all that was a friend;
And from his hand, his voice, his smile,
Divides me for a little while—
My Saviour marks the tears I shed,
For "Jesus wept" o'er Lazarus dead.
- 4 And, O! when I have safely pass'd
Through every conflict but the last,
Still, Lord, unchanging, watch beside
My dying bed, for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

Psalm 116: 6.

I WILL extol thee, Lord on high:
At thy command diseases fly;
Who, but a God can speak and save
From the dark borders of the grave?

- 2 Thine anger but a moment stays,
Thy love is life and length of days:
Though grief and tears the night employ,
The morning star restores our joy.

Jer. 17: 14.

And trust thy glorious name:
Jehovah, powerful, wise, and kind,
Forever is the same.

THE NEW LIFE.
 Thy presence, Lord, can cheer my heart,
 When earthly comforts die;
 Thy voice can bid my pains depart,
 And raise my pleasures high.

Psalm 89. 9.
 TO Thee, my God, whose presence fills
 The earth, and seas, and skies,
 To thee, whose name, whose heart is Love,
 With all my powers I rise.
 2 Troubles in long succession roll;
 Wave rushes upon wave;
 Pity, O pity my distress!
 Thy child, thy suppliant, save!
 3 O bid the roaring tempest cease;
 Or give me strength to bear
 What'er thy holy will appoints,
 And save me from despair!
 4 To thee, my God, alone I look,
 On thee alone confide;
 Thou never hast deceived the soul
 That on thy grace relied.
 5 Though oft thy ways are wrap
 Mysterious and unknown,
 Truth, righteousness, and me
 The pillars of thy throne.

Acts 14: 22.
 CHRIST leads me through
 Than he went through
 He that into God's kingdom
 Must enter by this door

AFFLICTIONS.

Come, Lord, when grace hath made us meet
Thy blessed face to see;
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What must thy glory be?
Then I shall end my sad complaints,
And weary, sinful days,
And join with those triumphant saints
That sing Jehovah's praise.

004 When the waves arise, thou stillest them. C. M.
Psalm 89: 9.

AFFLICTION is a stormy deep,
Where wave resounds to wave;
Though o'er our heads the billows roll,
We know the Lord can save.
2 When darkness, and when sorrows rose,
And pressed on every side,
The Lord hath still sustained our steps,
And still hath been our guide.
3 Perhaps, before the morning dawn,
He will restore our peace;
For he who bade the tempest roar
Can bid the tempest cease.
4 Here will we rest, here build our hopes
Nor murmur at his rod;
He's more to us than all the world,
Our Health, our Life, our God.

005 Songs in the night. C. M.
Job 35: 10.

THOU who driest the mourner's tear,
How dark this world would be,
If, when deceived and wounded here,
We could not fly to thee.
2 But thou wilt heal the broken heart,
Which like the plants that throw
Their fragrance from the wounded part,
Breathes sweetness out of woe.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 When joy no longer soothes or cheers,
And e'en the hope that threw
A moment's sparkle o'er our tears
Is dimmed and vanished too;
- 4 O, who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom
Our peace-branch from above?
- 5 Then sorrow, touched by thee, grows
With more than rapture's ray; | bright
The darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

1006

God is my portion for ever.

C. M.

Psalm 73 : 26.

- MY times of sorrow and of joy,
Great God! are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
And go at thy command.
- 2 If thou should'st take them all away,
Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.
- 3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word,
Though all the world were gone,
But seek enduring happiness
In thee, and thee alone.

1007

God is the strength of my heart. C. M. 6 l.

Psalm 73 : 26.

- HAPPY are they who learn in thee,
Though patient suffering teach,
The secret of enduring strength,
And praise too deep for speech;
Peace that no pressure from without,
Nor strife within can reach.

AFFLICTIONS.

1. Safe in thy sanctifying grace,
 Almighty to restore,
 Borne onward—sin and death behind
 And love and life before—
 O let my soul abound in hope,
 And I raise thee evermore!

08 The Lord will strengthen him, etc. C. M.
Psalm li. 3.

WHEN languor and disease invade
 This trembling house of clay,
 'Tis sweet to look beyond my pains
 And long to fly away:
 Sweet to look inward, and attend
 The whispers of his love;
 Sweet to look upward to the place
 Where Jesus pleads above:
 Sweet to look back, and see my name
 In life's fair book set down;
 Sweet to look forward, and behold
 Eternal joys my own:
 Sweet to rejoice in lively hope,
 That when my change shall come,
 Angels shall hover round my bed,
 And waft my spirit home:
 Sweet in his faithfulness to rest,
 Whose love can never end;
 Sweet on his covenant of grace
 For all things to depend.
 If such the sweetness of the streams,
 What must the fountain be,
 Where saints and angels draw their bliss
 Immediately from thee!
 O may the unction of these truths
 For ever with me stay;
 Till, from her sin-worn cage dismiss'd,
 My spirit flies away.

THE NEW LIFE.

99 The sorrows of death compassed me. C. M.
Psalm 110: 2.

MY God, thy service well demands
Why was this fleeting breath renew'd,
But to renew thy praise?

1 Thine arms of everlasting love
Did this weak frame sustain;
When life was hov'ring o'er the grave,
And nature sunk with pain.

2 Thou, when the pains of death were felt,
Didst chase the fears of hell,
And teach my pale and quiv'ring lips
Thy matchless grace to tell.

4 Calmly I bow'd my fainting head
On thy dear, faithful breast;
Pleas'd to obey my Father's call
To his eternal rest.

5 Into thy hands, my Saviour God,
Did I my soul resign,
In firm dependence on that truth
Which made salvation mine.

6 Back from the borders of the grave,
At thy command I come,
Nor will I urge a speedier flight
To my celestial home.

Christ our Refuge.
Hab. c: 18.

My God, to thee I look;
So pants the hunted hart to find
And taste the cooling brook.
- 2 When shall I see thy courts of grace,
And meet my God again?
So long an absence from thy face
My heart endures with pain.
- 3 'Tis with a mournful pleasure now
I think on ancient days;
Then to thy house did numbers go,
And all our work was praise.
- 4 But why, my soul, sunk down so far,
Beneath this heavy load?
Why do my thoughts indulge despair,
And sin against my God?
- 5 Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand
Can all thy woes remove;
For I shall yet before him stand,
And sing restoring love.

1014 Thou hast loosed my bonds. J. M.
Psalm 116 : 16.

- NOW to thy heav'nly Father's praise,
My heart, thy tribute bring:
That goodness which prolongs my days
With grateful pleasure sing.
- 2 When'er he sends afflicting pains,
His mercy holds the rod;
His pow'rful word the heart sustains,
And speaks a faithful God.

It sweetly comforts me;
Makes me forget my every loss,
And find my all in thee.

5 Jesus, to whom I fly,
Doth all my wishes fill:
What though created streams are dry,
I have the fountain still.

6 Stripped of my earthly friends,
I find them all in One;
And peace and joy that never ends,
And heaven in Christ begun.

1021

One for evermore with thee.

PRINCE of Peace! control my will Bid this struggling heart be still
Bid my fears and doubtings cease
Hush my spirit into peace.

2 Thou hast bought me with thy blood
Opened wide the gate to God:
Peace I ask—but peace must be
Lord, in being one with thee.

AFFLICTIONS.

thy will, not mine, be done;
thy will and mine be one:
these doubtings from my heart;
thy perfect peace impart.
ur, at thy feet I fall;
my Life, my God, my All.
my happy servant be or evermore with thee.

Correct me, but with judgment.

Jer. 10: 24.

75.

ENTLY, gently lay thy rod
On my sinful head. O God!
thy wrath, in mercy stay,
I sink beneath its sway.
d me, for my flesh is weak;
d me, for thy grace I seek;
s my only plea I make—
d me for thy mercy's sake.
o, within the silent grave,
ll proclaim thy power to save?
d! my sinking soul reprieve;
nk, and I shall rise and live.
he comes—he heeds my plea;
he comes—the shadows flee;
ry round me dawns once more;
e, my spirit, and adore!

Affliction cometh not forth of the dust.

Job 1: 4

76.

IS my happiness below,
Not to live without the cross,
; the Saviour's power to know,
auctifying every loss.
als must and will befall;
ut with humble faith to see re inscribed upon them all—his is happiness to me.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 Did I meet no trials here,
No chastisement by the way;
Might I not, with reason, fear
I should prove a cast-away?
- 4 Trials make the promise sweet;
Trials give new life to prayer;
Trials bring me to his feet—
Lay me low, and keep me there.

1024 All thy waves and thy billows, etc. 8s & 7s.
Psalm 42: 7.

- FULL of trembling expectation,
Feeling much and fearing more,
Mighty God of my salvation!
I thy timely aid implore;
Suffering Son of Man, be near me,
All my sufferings to sustain;
By thy sorer griefs to cheer me,
By thy more than mortal pain.
- 2 Call to mind that unknown anguish,
In thy days of flesh below;
When thy troubled soul did languish
Under a whole world of wo;
When thou didst our curse inherit,
Groan beneath our gully load,
Burdened with a wounded spirit,
Bruised by all the wrath of God.
- 3 By thy most severe temptation,
In that dark, Satanic hour;
By thy last, mysterious passion,
Screen me from the adverse power
By thy fainting in the garden,
By thy bloody sweat, I pray,
Write upon my heart the pardon,
Take my sins and fears away.

AFFLICTIONS.

- 1 By the travail of thy spirit,
 By thine outery on the tree,
 By thine agonizing merit,
 In my pangs, remember me!
 By thy pangs of crucifixion,
 My weak, dying soul befriend;
 Make me patient in affliction,
 Keep me faithful to the end.

125

Afterward.

8s & 7s.

Heb. 12 : 11.

WHY should I, in vain repining,
 Mourn the clouds that cross my way;
 Since my Saviour's presence shining
 Turns my darkness into day?

- 2 Earthly honor, earthly treasure,
 All the warmest passions win,
 And the silken wings of pleasure
 Only waft us on to sin.

- 3 But, within the vale of sorrow,
 All with tempests overblown,
 Purer light and joy we borrow
 From the face of God alone.

- 4 Welcome, then, each darker token!
 Mercy sent it from above!
 So the heart, subdued, not broken,
 Bends in fear, and melts with love.

126 In the night his song shall be with me. 8s 7s & 4

Psalm 42 : 8.

IN the floods of tribulation,
 While the billows o'er me roll,
 Jesus whispers consolation.
 And supports my sinking soul;
 Sweet affliction!
 Bringing Jesus to my soul.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 2 In the darkest dispensations
Doth my faithful Lord appear
With his richest consolations,
To reanimate and cheer.
Sweet affliction !
Thus to bring my Saviour near
- 3 All I meet shall still befriend me
In my path to heavenly joy,
Where, though trials now attend me,
Trials never more annoy.
Sweet affliction !
Every promise gives me joy.
- 4 Wearing there a weight of glory,
Still the path I'll ne'er forget,
But exulting cry. It led me
To my blessed Saviour's seat.
Sweet affliction !
Which has brought me to his feet.

1027 Thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. 86
Psalm 41: 2.

- HOW vast is the tribute I owe
Of gratitude, homage and praise,
To the giver of all I possess,
The life and the length of my days !
- 2 When the sorrows I boded were come.
I pour'd out my sighs and my tears;
And to him, who alone can relieve,
My soul breath'd her vows and her pray'rs
- 3 When my heart throbb'd with pain and alarm
When paleness my cheek overspread.
When sickness pervaded my frame—
Then my soul on my Maker was stay'd.
- 4 When death's awful image was nigh.
And no mortal was able to save,
Thou didst brighten the valley of death.
And illumine the gloom of the grave.

AFFLICTIONS.

- 5 In mercy thy presence dispels
The shades of adversity's night,
And turns the sad scene of despair
To a morning of joy and delight.
- 6 Great source of my comforts restor'd,
Thou healer and balm of my woes!
Thou hope and desire of my soul!
On thy mercy I'll ever repose.
- 7 How boundless the gratitude due
To thee, O thou God of my praise!
The fountain of all I possess,
The life and the light of my days!

1028

When he hath tried me, etc.

Job 23: 10.

8a.

- O WHY this disconsolate frame!
Though earthly enjoyments decay,
My Jesus is ever the same—
My Sun in the gloomiest day.
- 2 Though molten awhile in the fire,
'Tis only the gold to refine;
And be this my simple desire,
Though suffering, not to repine.
 - 3 O what are the pleasures to me
Which earth in its fullness can boast?
Delusive, its vanities flee—
A flash of enjoyment at most.
 - 4 And if my Redeemer could part,
For me, with his throne in the skies,
O why is so dear to my heart
What he in his wisdom denies?
 - 5 Then let the rude tempest assail,
Let blasts of adversity blow,
The heavens, though distant, I hail,
Beyond this rough ocean of wo.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 6 When safe on that beautiful strand,
I'd smile on the billows that foam ;
Kind angels to hail me to land.
And Jesus to welcome me home.

1029 I was sick, and ye visited me. 7s & 6d
Math. 25: 36

- "T IS not a lonely night watch
Which by the couch I spend :
Jesus is close beside us,
Our Saviour and our Friend.
- 2 Often I strive all vainly,
To ease the aching head,
Then, silently and gently
Himself he makes thy bed.
- 3 Do we not hear him saying,
"Your guilt on me was laid,"
"Ye are my blood-bought jewels ;"
"Fear not, be not dismayed."
- 4 "I sit beside the furnace,"
"The gold will soon be pure,"
"And blessed are those servants,
Who to the end endure."
- 5 Amen. O blessed Saviour,
Dwell with us, in us here,
And let us welcome trials,
Till we thine image bear.

1030 I sought him whom my soul loveth. 11s & 6d
Canticles 3: 1.

- 0 THOU in whose presence my soul takes delight,
On whom in affliction I call ;
My comfort by day and my song in the night,
My hope, my salvation, my all !
- 2 Where dost thou at noontide resort with thy sheep
To feed on the pastures of love ?
For why in the valley of death should I weep,
Or alone in the wilderness rove ?

AFFLICTIONS.

- 3 O why should I wander an alien from thee,
And cry in the desert for bread ?
Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see,
And smile at the tears I have shed.
- 4 You daughters of Zion, declare have you seen
The star that on Israel shone ?
Say if in your tents my beloved has been,
And where with his flock he is gone ?
- 5 This is my beloved ; his form is divine,
His vestments shed odors around,
The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine
When autumn with plenty is crown'd.
- 6 The roses of Sharon, the lilies that grow
In the vales, on the banks of the streams,
On his cheeks in the beauty of excellence glow,
And his eyes are as quivers of beams.
- 7 His voice, as the sound of the dulcimer sweet,
Is heard through the shadows of death ;
The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
The air is perfum'd with his breath.
- 8 His lips as a fountain of righteousness flow
That water the garden of grace ;
From which their salvation the Gentiles shall know
And bask in the smiles of his face.
- 9 Love sits on his eyelids, and scatters delight
Through all the bright mansions on high ;
Their faces the cherubim veil in his sight,
And tremble with fullness of joy.
- 10 He looks, and ten thousands of angels rejoice,
And myriads wait for his word ;
He speaks, and eternity, fill'd with his voice,
Re-echoes the wail of her Lord.
- 1031 Sorrowful, yet always rejoicing. 11s & 10s.
2 Cor. 6 : 10.

- WE will not weep, for God is standing by us.
And tears will blind us to the blest sight ;
We will not doubt, if darkness still doth try us ;
Our souls have promise of sereneest light.
- 2 We will not faint, if heavy burdens bend us ;
They press us harder than our souls can bear,
The thorniest way is lying still behind us ;
We shall be braver for the past despair.

THE NEW LIFE.

- 3 O not in doubt shall be our journey's ending;
Sin with its fears shall leave us at the last;
All its best hopes in glad fulfilment blending,
Life shall be with us more when death is past.
- 4 Help us, O Father! when the world is pressing
On our frail hearts, that faint without their Friend;
Help us, O Father! let thy constant blessing
Strengthen our weakness, till the joyful end.

1032 All my springs are in thee. P. M.
 Psalm 87 : 7.

- A s down in the sunless retreats of the ocean,
Sweet flowers are springing no mortal can see,
So, deep in my heart, the still prayer of devotion,
Unheard by the world, rises silent to thee.
My God! silent to thee—
Pure, warm, silent to thee.
- 2 As still to the star of its worship, though clouded,
The needle points faithfully o'er the dim sea,
So, dark as I roam, through this wintry world shrouded,
The hope of my spirit turns trembling to thee,
My God! trembling to thee—
True, fond, trembling to thee.

1033 Canticles 4 : 16. 4s & 6s, or C. M

THE spring-tide hour
Brings leaf and flower
With songs of life and love;
And many a lay
Wears out the day
In many a leafy grove.
Bird, flower, and tree
Seem to agree
Their choicest gifts to bring;
But this poor heart
Bears not its part,
In it there is no spring.

LIFE AND DEATH.

- 2 Dews fall apace,
 The dews of grace,
Upon this soul of sin;
 And love divine
 Delights to shine
Upon the waste within :
 Yet, year by year,
 Fruits, flowers, appear.
And birds their praises sing ;
 But this poor heart
 Bears not its part,
Its winter has no spring.
- 3 Lord, let thy love,
 Fresh from above,
Soft as the south-wind blow :
 Call forth its bloom,
 Wake its perfume,
And bid its spices flow !
 And when thy voice
 Makes earth rejoice,
And the hills laugh and sing,
 Lord ! make this heart
 To bear its part,
And join the praise of spring !

LIFE AND DEATH.

034 Soon will the storm of life be o'er. I. M.

GENTLY, my Saviour, let me down,
To slumber in the arms of death ;
I rest my soul on thee alone,
E'en till my last, expiring breath.

- 2 Soon will the storm of life be o'er,
 And I shall enter endless rest ;
There I shall live to sin no more,
 And bless thy name, for ever blest.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 Bid me possess sweet peace within;
Let childlike patience keep my heart,
Then shall I feel my heaven begin,
Before my spirit hence depart.
- 4 O, speed thy chariot, God of love,
And take me from this world of wo;
I long to reach those joys above,
And bid farewell to all below.
- 5 There shall my raptured spirit raise
Still louder notes than angels sing,—
High glories to Immanuel's grace,
My God, my Saviour, and my King!

1035 The glory of man is as the flower, etc. L. M.
1 Pet. 1: 24.

- THE morning flow'rs display their sweets,
And gay their silken leaves unfold,
As careless of the noon-day heats
And fearless of the evening cold.
- 2 Nipt by the wind's untimely blast,
Parch'd by the sun's directer ray,
The momentary glories waste,
The short lived-beauties die away.
 - 3 So blooms the human face divine.
When youth its pride and beauty shows;
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.
 - 4 Or worn by slowly rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.
 - 5 Yet these, new-rising from the tomb,
With luster brighter far shall shine;
Revive with ever-during bloom.
Safe from diseases and decline.

LIFE AND DEATH

Let sickness blast, and death devour,
If heav'n must recompense our pains;
Perish the grass, and fade the flow'r,
If firm the word of God remains.

036

Death of parents.

L. M.

THE God of mercy will indulge
The flowing tear, the heaving sigh,
When honored parents fall around,
When friends beloved and kindred die.
Yet not one anxious, murmuring thought
Should with our mourning passion blend;
Nor should our bleeding hearts forget
Their mighty, ever-living Friend.
Parent, Protector, Guardian, Guide,
Thou art each tender name in one;
On thee we cast our every care,
And comfort seek from thee alone.
To thee, our Father, would we look,
Our Rock, our Portion, and our Friend,
And on thy covenant love and truth
With humble, steadfast hope depend.

037

They are not lost, but gone before.

L. M.

DEAR is the spot where Christians sleep,
And sweet the strains their spirits pour:
O, why should we in anguish weep?—
They are not lost, but gone before.
Secure from every mortal care,
By sin and sorrow vexed no more,
Eternal happiness they share
Who are not lost, but gone before.
To Zion's peaceful courts above
In faith triumphant may we soar,
Embracing, in the arms of love,
The friends not lost, but gone before.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 4 To Jordan's bank whene'er we come,
And hear the swelling waters roar;
Jesus! convey us safely home,
To friends not lost, but gone before.

1038 Them which sleep in Jesus. L. M.
1 Thess. 4. 14.

A SLEEP in Jesus! Blesséd sleep
From which none ever wakes to weep—
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

- 2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing,
That death has lost its venom'd sting.

- 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest:
No fear, no wo, shall dim the hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

- 4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be:
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

- 5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space
Affects this precious hiding-place:
On Indian plains or Lapland snows
Believers find the same repose

- 6 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be:
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep.

1039 Let me die the death of the righteous. L. M.
Num. 23: 11.

HOW blest the righteous w^hen he dies!
When sinks a weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves th' expiring breast!

LIFE AND DEATH.

- So fades a summer cloud away ;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er ;
So gently shuts the eye of day ;
So dies a wave along the shore.
- A holy quiet reigns around,
A calm which life nor death destroys ;
And nought disturbs that peace profound
Which his unfetter'd soul enjoys.
- Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heav'n and earth combine to say,
"How blest the righteous when he dies!"

1040 Death of an infant. L. M.

- AS the sweet flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day.—
Thus lovely seemed the infant's dawn ;
Thus swiftly fled his life away !
- Ere sin could blight, or sorrow fade,
Death timely came with friendly care ;
The opening bud to heaven conveyed,
And bade it bloom for ever there.
- He died to sin, and all its woes.
But for a moment felt the rod.—
On love's triumphant wing he rose,
To rest for ever with his God !

1041 Death of an infant. L. M.

- SO fades the lovely, blooming flower,
Fragrant, smiling solace of an hour ;
So soon our transient comforts fly,
And pleasure only blooms to die.
- Is there no kind, no healing art,
To soothe the anguish of the heart ?
Spirit of grace, be ever nigh ;
Thy comforts are not made to die.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 Let gentle patience smile on pain,
Till dying hope revives again;
Hope wipes the tear from sorrow's eye,
And faith points upward to the sky.

1042 The early dead. L. M.

- [[OW blest are they whose transient years
Pass like an evening meteor's flight!
Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears;
Whose course is short, unclouded, bright.
- 2 O, cheerless were our lengthened way;
But heaven's own light dispels the gloom,
Streams downward from eternal day,
And casts a glory round the tomb.
- 3 O, stay thy tears; the blest above
Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth,
And sung a song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on earth?

1043 Death is the gate of endless joy. L. M.

- WHY should we start and fear to die?
What tlim'rous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away,
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 O if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she pass'd!
- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

LIFE AND DEATH.

044 The small and great are there. L. M.
Job 3: 19.

THE glories of our birth and state
Are shadows, not substantial things;
There is no armor against fate;
Death lays his icy hand on kings.
Princes and magistrates must fall,
And in the dust be equal made;
The high and mighty with the small,
Scepter and crown with scythe and spade.
The laurel withers on our brow;
Then boast no more your mighty deeds:
Upon death's purple altar now
See where the victor victim bleeds!

045 That I may know how frail I am. L. M.
Psalm 39: 4.

ALMIGHTY Maker of my frame,
Teach me the measure of my days;
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to thy praise.
My days are shorter than a span;
A little point my life appears;
How frail at best is dying man!
How vain are all his hopes and fears!
Vain his ambition, noise, and show;
Vain are the cares which rack his mind
He heaps up treasures mixed with wo,
And dies, and leaves them all behind.
O, be a nobler portion mine;
My God, I bow before thy throne;
Earth's fleeting treasures I resign,
And x my hope on thee alone.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1046 Make me to know mine end. L. M.
Psalm 39 : 4.

O GOD, thy grace and blessing give
To us, who on thy name attend,
That we this mortal life may live
Regardful of our journey's end.

2 Teach us to know that Jesus died,
And rose again, our souls to save;
Teach us to take him as our Guide,
Our Help from childhood to the grave

3 Then shall not death with terror come,
But welcome as a bidden guest,
The herald of a better home,
The messenger of peace and rest.

4 And, when the awful signs appear
Of judgment, and the throne above,
Our hearts still fixed, we shall not fear,
God is our trust; and God is Love.

1047 I will fear no evil. L. M.
Psalm 23 : 4.

THOUGH I walk through the gloomy vale,
Where death and all its terrors are,
My heart and hope shall never fail,
For God my Shepherd 's with me there.

2 Amid the darkness and the deeps,
Thou art my comfort, thou my stay;
Thy staff supports my feeble steps,
Thy rod directs my doubtful way.

1048 On the death of an infant. L. M.

O MOURNER! who with tender love,
Hast wept beside some infant grave,
Hast thou not sought a Friend above,
Who died thy little one to save?

LIFE AND DEATH.

2 Then lift thy weary, weeping eye
 Above the waves that round thee dwell,
 Is not thy darling safe on high?
 Canst thou not whisper—It is well?

3 Yes, it is well—though never more
 His infant form to earth be given;
 He rests where sin and grief are o'er.
 And thou shalt meet thy child in heaven

1049 Blossom of being; seen and gone. P. M.

NO bitter tears for thee be shed.
 Blossom of being! seen and gone!
 With flowers alone we strew thy bed,
 O blest departed one!

Whose all of life, a rosy ray,
 Blushed into dawn, and passed away.

2 Yes! thou art fled, ere guilt had power
 To stain thy cherub-soul and form,
 Closed is the soft ephemeral flower
 That never felt a storm!
 The sunbeam's smile, the zephyr's breath,
 All that it knew from birth to death.

3 Oh! hadst thou still on earth remained,
 Vision of beauty! fair as brief!
 How soon thy brightness had been stained
 With passion or with grief!
 Now, not a sullying breath can rise,
 To dim thy glory in the skies.

1050 Unvail thy bosom, faithful tomb. L M.

UNVAIL thy bosom, faithful to me;
 Take this new treasure to thy trust,
 And give these sacred relics room
 To slumber in the silent dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
 Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
 Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
 While angels watch the soft repose.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son [be-Passed through the grave, and bless'd the Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne
The morning break, and pierce the shade.
4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn;
Attend, O earth, his sovereign word;
Restore thy trust; a glorious form
Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

1051 I am now ready to be offered. L. M
2 Tim. 4: 6.

- THE hour of my departure 's come;
I hear the voice that calls me home;
At last, O Lord! let trouble cease,
And let thy servant die in peace.
2 The race appointed I have run,
The combat 's o'er, the prize is won;
And now my witness is on high,
And now my record 's in the sky.
8 Not in mine innocence I trust;
I bow before thee in the dust;
And through my Saviour's blood alone
I look for mercy at thy throne.
4 I come, I come, at thy command;
I give my spirit to thy hand;
Stretch forth thine everlasting arms,
And shield me in the last alarms.

1052 As a tale that is told. C
Psalm 90: 9.

- HOW short and hasty is our life.
How vast our soul's affairs!
Yet foolish mortals vainly strive
To lavish out th' eir years.
2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
Without a moment's stay;
We, like a story, or a song,
Do pass our lives away.

LIFE AND DEATH.

- 3 God from on high invites us home;
But we march heedless on,
And ever hast'ning to the tomb,
Stoop downward as we run.
- 4 Draw us, O God, with thy rich grace,
And lift our thoughts on high,
That we may end this mortal race,
And see salvation nigh.

1053

A desire to depart.

Phil 1 : 23.

C. M.

- YE golden lamps of heaven, farewell,
With all your feeble light:
Farewell, thou ever-changing moon,
Pale empress of the night.
- 2 And thou, refulgent orb of day,
In brighter flames arrayed;
My soul, that springs beyond thy sphere,
No more demands thine aid.
- 3 Ye stars are but the shining dust
Of my divine abode,
The pavement of those heavenly courts
Where I shall reign with God.
- 4 The Father of eternal light
Shall there his beams display,
Nor shall one moment's darkness mix
With that unvaried day.
- 5 No more the drops of piercing grief
Shall swell into mine eyes;
Nor the meridian sun decline
Amid those brighter skies.
- 6 There all the millions of his saints
Shall in one song unite,
And each the bliss of all shall view
With infinite delight.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1054 And Moses went up to the top of Pisgah. C. M.
Deut. 34: 1.

DEATH can not make our souls afraid,
If God be with us there;
We may walk through its darkest shade,
And never yield to fear.

2 I could renounce my all below,
If my Redeemer bid;
And run, if I were call'd to go,
And die, as Moses did.

3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top,
And view the promis'd land,
My flesh itself would long to drop,
And welcome the command.

4 Clasp'd in my heav'nly Father's arms
I would forget my breath,
And lose my life among the charms
Of so divine a death.

1055 What is your life? C. M.

LIFE is a span—a fleeting hour:
How soon the vapor flies!
Man is a tender, transient flower,
That ev'n in blooming—dies.

2 The once loved form, now cold and dead,
Each mournful thought employs;
And nature weeps her comforts fled,
And withered all her joys.

3 Hope looks beyond the bounds of time,
When what we now deplore
Shall rise in full, immortal prime,
And bloom to fade no more.

4 Cease then, fond nature, cease thy tears
Religion points on high;
There everlasting spring appears,
And joys that can not die.

LIFE AND DEATH.

056

Weep not.

C. M.

DEAR as thou wast, and justly dear,
We would not weep for thee;
One thought shall check the starting tear;
It is—that thou art free.

- 2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain;
O, who that saw thy parting hour
Could wish thee here again!
- 3 Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
O, may such grace on us be shed
And make our end like thine!

057 Why do we mourn departing friends. C. M.

WHY do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.

- 2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the time more slow
To keep us from our Love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
'T was there the flesh of Jesus lay.
Amid its silent gloom.
- 4 The graves of all the saints he blest.
And soften'd ev'ry bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with their dying Head?
- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And show'd our feet the way;
Up to the Lord our souls shall fly,
At the great rising day.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise:
Awake, ye nations under ground;
Ye saints, ascend the skies.

1058 I will cause the sun to go down at noon. C. M.
Amos 8: 9.

- WHEN blooming youth is snatch'd
By death's resistless hand, [away
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay,
Which pity must demand.
2 While pity prompts the rising sigh,
O may this truth, impress'd
With awful pow'r, "I too must die,"
Sink deep in ev'ry breast.
3 Let this vain world engage no more:
Behold the op'ning tomb:
It bids us seize the present hour:
To-morrow death may come.
4 O let us fly—to Jesus fly,
Whose pow'rful arm can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.
5 Great God, thy sov'reign grace impart,
With cleansing, healing pow'r;
This only can prepare the heart
For death's approaching hour.

1059 Sorrows not. C. M.
1 Thess. 4: 13.

- NOT for the pious dead we weep;
Their sorrows now are o'er;
The sea is calm, the tempest past,
On that eternal shore.
2 Their peace is sealed, their rest is sure,
Within that better home;
Awhile we weep and linger here,
Then follow to the tomb.

- LET not your hearts with anxious
 Be troubled or dismay'd: [thoughts
 But trust in God your Father's care
 And trust my gracious aid.
- 2 I to my Father's house return;
 There num'rous mansions stand,
 And glory manifold abounds
 Through all the happy land.
- 3 I go your entrance to secure,
 And your abode prepare;
 Regions unknown are safe to you,
 When I, your Friend, am there.
- 4 Thence shall I come when ages close,
 To take you home with me;
 There shall we meet to part no more,
 Where sorrows ne'er shall be.
- 5 I am the Way, the Truth, the Life;
 No son of human race,
 But such as I conduct and guide,
 Shall see my Father's face.

- HOW happy is the pilgrim's lot!
 How free from every anxious thought,
 From worldly hope and fear!
 Confined to neither court nor cell,
 His soul disdains on earth to dwell—
 He only sojourns here.
- 2 This happiness in part is mine,
 Already saved from low design,
 From every creature-love;
 Blest with the scorn of finite good,
 My soul is lightened of its load,
 And seeks the things above.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 8 There is my house and portion fair;
My treasure and my heart are there,
And my abiding home;
For me my elder brethren stay,
And angels beckon me away,
And Jesus bids me come.
- 4 I come, thy servant, Lord, replies;
I come to meet thee in the skies,
And claim my heavenly rest!
Soon will the pilgrim's journey end;
Then, O my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
Receive me to thy breast!

1062

Death of a child.

C. M

- SHE was the music of our home,
A day that knew no night,
The fragrance of our garden bower,
A thing all smiles and light.
- 2 Above the couch we bent and prayed
In the half-lighted room,
As the bright hues of infant life
Sank slowly into gloom.
- 3 The form remained; but there was now
No soul our love to share;
Farewell, with weeping hearts we said,
Child of our love and care.
- 4 But years are moving quickly past,
And time will soon be o'er;
Death shall be swallowed up of life
On the immortal shore.

1063

Victory over death.

O. M

1 Cor. 15: 55.

- O FOR an overcoming faith
To cheer my dying hours,
To triumph o'er the monster death,
And all his frightful powers.

LIFE AND DEATH

- 2 Joyful with all the strength I have
 My quivering lips shall sing,
 Where is thy boasted victory, grave?
 And where the monster's sting?
- 3 If sin be pardon'd I'm secure,
 Death has no sting beside;
 The law gives sin its damning power,
 But Christ my ransom died.
- 4 Now to the God of victory
 Immortal thanks be paid,
 Who makes us conquerors while we die,
 Through Christ our living Head.

1064

Remember them, etc.

Heb. 13 : 7.

C. M.

- WHAT though the arm of conquering
 Does God's own house invade; [death
 What though our teacher and our friend
 Is numbered with the dead;—
- 2 Though earthly shepherds dwell in dust,
 The aged and the young;
 The watchful eye in darkness closed,
 And dumb th' instructive tongue?
- 3 Th' eternal Shepherd still survives,
 His teachings to impart:
 Lord, be our Leader and our Guide,
 And rule and keep our heart.
- 4 Yes, while the dear Redeemer lives,
 We have a boundless store,
 And shall be fed with what he gives,
 Who lives for evermore.

1065

Sighing for rest.

S. M.

- O WHERE shall rest be found—
 Rest for the weary soul?
 'T were vain the ocean-depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh :
'T is not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasur'd by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath :
O what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death !
- 5 Lord God of truth and grace,
Teach us that death to shun,
Lest we be banish'd from thy face,
And evermore undone.

1066 Whoso believeth in me shall never die. S.
John 11 : 26.

- IT is not death to die—
To leave this weary road,
And, 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
- 2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmied by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain—to breathe the
Of boundless liberty.
- 4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong, exulting wing,
To live among the just.

LIFE AND DEATH.

5 Jesus, thou Prince of life!
Thy chosen can not die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

067 Your fathers, where are they? S. M.
Zech. 1: 5.

() UR fathers ! where are they,
With all they call'd their own?
Their joys and griefs, their hopes and cares,
Their wealth and honor, gone!

But joy or grief succeeds
Beyond our mortal thought,
While still the remnant of their dust
Lies in the grave forgot.

God of our fathers, hear,
Thou everlasting Friend,
While we, as on life's utmost verge,
Our souls to thee commend.

068 Far from my heavenly home. S. M

FAR from my heavenly home,
Far from my Father's breast,
Fainting I cry, Blest Saviour! come,
And speed me to my rest.

2 My spirit homeward turns
And fain would thither flee;
My heart, O Zion! droops and yearns,
When I remember thee.

8 To thee, to thee, I press
A dark and toilsome road;
When shall I pass the wilderness
And reach the saints' abode.

4 God of my life! be near;
On thee my hopes I cast;
O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last!

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1069 Go to thy rest, fair child. S. 1

- GO to thy rest, fair child!
 GO to thy dreamless bed,
 While yet so gentle, undefiled
 With blessings on thy head.
- 2 Fresh roses in thy hand,
 Buds on thy pillow laid,
 Haste from this dark and fearful land
 Where flowers so quickly fade.
- 3 Before thy heart had learned
 In waywardness to stray;
 Before thy feet had ever turned
 The dark and downward way;
- 4 Ere sin had seared the breast,
 Or sorrow woke the tear;
 Rise to thy throne of changeless rest,
 In yon celestial sphere!
- 5 Because thy smile was fair,
 Thy lip and eye so bright,
 Because thy loving cradle care
 Was such a dear delight;
- 6 Shall love, with weak embrace,
 Thy upward wing detain?
 No! gentle angel, seek thy place
 Amid the cherub train.

1070 At midnight there was a cry made. S. 1
 Matt. 25: 1.

- SERVANT of God, well done!
 Rest from thy loved employ;
 The battle fought, the victory won,
 Enter thy Master's joy.
- 2 The voice at midnight came;
 He started up to hear;
 A mortal arrow pierced his frame,
 He fell, but felt no fear.

LIFE AND DEATH.

- 3 Tranquil amid alarms,
It found him on the field,
A veteran slumbering on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.
- 4 At midnight came the cry,
"To meet thy God, prepare!"
He woke—and caught his Captain's eye;
'Then, strong in faith and prayer,
- 5 His spirit, with a bound,
Left its encumbering clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground,
A darkened ruin lay.
- 6 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

071 The valley of the shadow of death. 7s double.
Psalm 23: 4.

THOUGH I walk the downward shade,
Deepening through the vale of death
Yet I will not be afraid,
But, with my departing breath,
I will glory in my God.
In my Saviour I will trust,
Strengthened by his staff and rod,
While this body falls to dust.

Soon on wings, on wings of love,
My transported soul shall rise,
Like the home-returning dove,
Vanishing through boundless skies:
Then, where death shall be no more,
Sin nor suffering e'er molest,
All my days of mourning o'er,
In his presence I shall rest.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1072 The spirit shall return to etc. 78. dou
Ecol. 12: 7.

DEATHLESS spirit, now arisel
Soar, thou native of the skies!
Pearl of price by Jesus bought,
To his glorious likeness wrought,
Go, to shine before his throne,
Deck his mediatorial crown;
Go, his triumph to adorn;
Made for God, to God return.

2 Lo, he beckons from on high!
Fearless to his presence fly;
Thine the merit of his blood,
Thine the righteousness of God!
Angels, joyful to attend,
Hovering round thy pillow bend,
Wait, to catch the signal given,
And escort thee quick to heaven.

3 Is thy earthly house distressed,
Willing to retain its guest?
'T is not thou, but it, must die—
Fly, celestial tenant fly!
Burst thy shackles, drop thy clay,
Sweetly breathe thyself away.
Singing, to thy crown remove,
Swift of wing, and fired with love.

1073 A soldier of renown. C. M.

FALLEN—on Zion's battle-field,
A soldier of renown,
Armed in the panoply of God,
In conflict cloven down!
His helmet on, his armor bright,
His cheek unblanched with fear—
While round his head there gleamed a light
His dying hour to cheer.

LIFE AND DEATH.

Fallen—while cheering with his voice
The sacramental host,
With banners floating on the air—
Death found him at his post;
In life's high prime the warfare closed,
But not ingloriously;
He fell beyond the outer wall,
And shouted victory!

3 Fallen—a holy man of God,
An Isællite indeed,
A standard bearer of the cross,
Mighty in word and deed—
A master spirit of the age,
A bright and burning light,
Whose beams across the firmament
Scattered the clouds of night.]

Fallen—as sets the sun at eve,
To rise in splendor where
His kindred luminaries shine,
Their heaven of bliss to share;
Beyond the stormy battle-field
He reigns in triumph now,
Sweeping a harp of wond'rous song
With glory on his brow!

074 Suffer little children to come unto me. 8s & 7s.
Math. 19: 14.

THEY are going—only going—
Jesus called them long ago,
All the wintry time they're passing
Softly as the falling snow.
When the violets in the spring-time
Catch the azure of the sky,
They are carried out to slumber
Sweetly where the violets lie.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 They are going—only going—
When with summer earth is dressed,
In their cold hands holding roses
Folded to each silent breast;
When the autumn hangs red banners
Out above the harvest sheaves,
They are going—ever going—
Thick and fast, like falling leaves.
- 3 All along the mighty ages,
All adown the solemn time,
They have taken up their homeward
March to that serener clime,
Where the watching, waiting angels
Lead them from the shadow dim,
To the brightness of his presence
Who has called them unto him.
- 4 They are going—only going—
Out of pain and into bliss—
Out of sad and sinful weakness
Into perfect holiness.
Snowy brows—no care shall shade them
Bright eyes—tears shall never dim;
Rosy lips—no time shall fade them:
Jesus called them unto him.
- 5 Little hearts for ever stainless—
Little hands as pure as they—
Little feet by angels guided
Never a forbidden way!
They are going—ever going—
Leaving many a lonely spot;
But 't is Jesus who has called them—
Suffer and forbid them not.

1075

Homeward.

8s

DRIPPING down the troubled river
To the tranquil, tranquil shore,
Where the sweet light shineth ever,
And the sun goes down no more.

LIFE AND DEATH.

Dropping down the winding river
To the wide and welcome sea,
Where no tempest wrecketh ever,
Where the sky is fair and free.

Dropping down the rapid river,
To the dear and deathless land,
Where the living live for ever
At the Father's own right hand.

076 Sister, thou wast mild and lovely. 8s & 7s.

SISTER, thou wast mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze,
Pleasant as the air of evening,
When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber—
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more wilt join our number;
Thou no more our songs shalt know.

Dearest sister, thou hast left us;
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 't is God that hath bereft us:
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

077 Blessed are the dead, &c. 8s & 7s

Rev. 14: 13.

HAPPY soul! thy days are ended
All thy mourning days below;
Go, by angel guards attended,
To the sight of Jesus go!
Waiting to receive thy spirit,
Lo! the Saviour stands above;
Shows the purchase of his merit,
Reaches out the crown of love.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 Struggling through thy latest passion
To thy dear Redeemer's breast,
To his uttermost salvation,
To his everlasting rest;
For the joy he sets before thee,
Bear thy transitory pain;
Die, to live a life of glory;
Suffer, with thy Lord to reign.

1078 What is our life? It is even a vapor. P. M.
Ja. 4:14.

WHAT is life? 't is but a vapor,
Soon it vanishes away.
Life is but a dying taper—
O, my soul, why wish to stay!
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy.

- 2 See that glory, how resplendent!
Brighter far than fancy paints;
There, in majesty transcendent,
Jesus reigns the King of saints.
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy.
- 3 Joyful crowds his throne surrounding,
Sing with rapture of his love;
Through the heavens his praise resounding,
Filling all the courts above.
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy.
- 4 Go, and share his people's glory,
'Midst the ransom'd crowd appear,
Thine a joyful, wondrous story
One that angels love to hear.
Why not spread thy wings and fly
Straight to yonder world of joy.

LIFE AND DEATH.

1079 Death of an aged pilgrim. 8s, 7s & 4

TOSSED no more on life's rough billow,
All the storms of sorrow fled,
Death hath found a quiet pillow
For the aged Christian's head,
Peaceful slumbers
Guarding now his lowly bed.

1 O, may we be reunited
To the spirits of the just,
Leaving all that sin has blighted
With corruption, in the dust :
Hear us, Jesus,
Thou our Lord, our Life, our Trust.

1080 Prayer for support in death. 7s & 4.

WHEN the vale of death appears,
Faint and cold this mortal clay,
Blest Redeemer, soothe my fears,
Light me through the gloomy way;
Break the shadows,
Usher in eternal day.

2 Upward from this dying state
Bid my waiting soul aspire;
Open thou the crystal gate;
To thy praise attune my lyre :
Then, triumphant,
I will join th' immortal choir.

1081 Time is winging us away. 7s & 6s.

TIME is winging us away
To our eternal home;
Life is but a winter's day—
A journey to the tomb;
Youth and vigor soon will flee :
Blooming beauty lose its charms
All that's mortal soon shall be
Inclosed in death's cold arms.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 Time is winging us away
To our eternal home;
Life is but a winter's day—
A journey to the tomb!
But the Christian shall enjoy
Health and beauty soon above,
Far beyond the world's alloy,
Secure in Jesus' love.

1082

His eye was not dim, etc.

10a.

Deut. 34 : 7.

- Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime,
In full activity of zeal and power;
A Christian can not die before his time :
The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.
- 2 Go to the grave : at noon from labor cease ;
Rest on thy sheaves ; the harvest-task is done ;
Come from the heat of battle, and in peace,
Soldier, go home ; with thee the fight is won.
- 3 Go to the grave ; for thee thy Saviour lay
In death's embrace, ere he arose on high ;
And all the ransomed, by that narrow way,
Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave—no ; take thy seat above ;
Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord,
Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love,
And open vision for the written word.

1083

Death of a missionary.

8a & 9a.

- WEEP not for the saint that ascends
To partake of the joys of the sky,
Weep not for the seraph that bends
With the worshiping chorus on high.
- 2 Weep not for the spirit now crowned
With the garland to martyrdom given,
O weep not for him ; he has found
His reward and his refuge in heaven.
- 3 But weep for their sorrows, who stand
And lament o'er the dead by his grave—
Who sigh when they muse on the land
Of their home, far away o'er the wave.

LIFE AND DEATH.

And weep for the nations that dwell
Where the light of the truth never shone,
Where anthems of praise never swell,
And the love of the Lamb is unknown.

Weep not for the saint that ascends
To partake of the joys of the sky;
Weep not for the seraph that bends
With the worshiping chorus on high;

But weep for the mourners who stand
By the grave of their brother, in tears,
And weep for the people whose land
Still must wait till the day-spring appears.

1 All is well. 8s & 3s.

WHAT'S this that steals upon my frame?
Is it death?

But soon will quench this vital flame?

Is it death?

Let this be death, I soon shall be
From every pain and sorrow free,
And shall my Lord in glory see—

All is well!

Weep not, my friends, weep not for me,

All is well;

For sins are pardoned, I am free;

All is well.

There's not a cloud that doth arise,

Hide my Saviour from my eyes;

Soon shall mount the upper skies—

All is well.

Now, tune your harps, ye saints in glory,

All is well;

Will rehearse the pleasing story,

All is well.

Light angels have from glory come,

They're round my bed, they're in my room,

They wait to waft my spirit home—

All is well.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 4 Hark, hark, my Lord and Master calls me,
All is well;
I soon shall see his face in glory,
All is well.
Farewell, dear friends, adieu, adieu,
I can no longer stay with you—
My glitt'ring crown appears in view;
All is well.
- 6 Hail, hail, all hail, ye blood-washed throng,
Saved by grace;
I've come to join your rapturous song,
Saved by grace.
All, all is peace and joy divine,
All heaven and glory now are mine;
O, hallelujah to the Lamb!
All is well.

1085

Present with the Lord.

P. M.

2 Cor. 5: 8.

- 0 THINK that, while you're weeping here,
His hand a golden harp is stringing;
And with a voice serene and clear,
His ransomed soul, without a tear,
His Saviour's praise is singing!
- 2 And think that all his pains are fled,
His toils and sorrows closed for ever;
While he, whose blood for man was shed,
Has placed upon his servant's head
A crown that fadeth never!
- 3 For thus, while round your lowly bier
Surviving friends are sadly bending,
Your souls, like his, to Jesus dear,
Shall wing their flight to yonder sphere,
Faith lightest pinions lending.

LIFE AND DEATH.

And thus, when to the silent tomb,
Your lifeless dust like his is given,
Like faith shall whisper, 'midst the gloom,
That yet again in faithful bloom,
That dust shall smile in heaven !

086

There remaineth a rest.

8s & 4.

Heb. 4 : 9.

THERE is a calm for those who weep,
A rest for weary pilgrims found ;
They softly lie, and sweetly sleep,
Low in the ground.

The storm that racks the wintry sky
No more disturbs their deep repose,
Than summer evening's latest sigh,
That shuts the rose.

Thou traveler in this vale of tears,
To realms of everlasting light,
Through time's dark wilderness of years,
Pursue thy flight.

Whate'er thy lot—whate'er thou be—
Confess thy folly—kiss the rod ;
And in thy chastening sorrows see
The hand of God.

Though long of winds and waves the sport,
Condemned in wretchedness to roam,
Thou soon shalt reach a sheltering port,
A quiet home.

087

Forsake me not, etc.

6s & 4s.

Psalm 71 : 2.

LOWLY and solemn be
Thy children's cry to thee,
Father divine ;
A hymn of suppliant breath,
Owing that life and death
Alike are thine.

- 1088 All the rivers run into the sea. 7s
Eccles. 1: 7.

2 As moons are ever waning,
As hastes the sun away,
As stormy winds complaining,
Bring on the wint'ry day;
So fast the night comes o'er us—
The darkness of the grave;
The death is just before us;
God takes the life he gave.

LIFE AND DEATH.

Say, hath thy heart its treasure
Laid up in worlds above?
And is it all thy pleasure
Thy God to praise and love?
Beware! lest death's dark river
Its billows o'er thee roll,
And thou lament for ever
The ruin of thy soul.

089 As a dream, when one awaketh. 8s & 4s
 Psalm 73: 20.

ALAS! how poor and little worth
Are all those glittering toys of earth
That lure us here!
Dreams of a sleep that death must break:
Alas! before it bids us wake,
They disappear.

Where is the strength that spurned decay,
The step that rolled so light and gay,
The heart's blithe tone?
The strength is gone, the step is slow,
And joy grows weariness and wo
When age comes on.

Our birth is but a starting-place;
Life is the running of the race,
And death the goal:
There all those glittering toys are brought;
That path alone, of all unsought,
Is found of all.

O, let the soul its slumbers break,
Arouse its senses, and awake
To see how soon
Life, like its glories, glides away,
And the stern footsteps of decay
Come stealing on.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1090 Friend after friend departs. S.P.M.

FRRIEND after friend departs;
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts,
That finds not here an end:
Were this frail world our only rest,
Living or dying, none were blest.

- 2 Beyond the flight of time,
Beyond this vale of death,
There surely is some blessed clime,
Where life is not a breath,
Nor life's affections transient fire,
Whose sparks fly upward to expire.
- 3 There is a world above,
Where parting is unknown;
A whole eternity of love,
Formed for the good alone:
And faith beholds the dying here
Translated to that happier sphere.
- 4 Thus star by star declines,
Till all are passed away,
As morning high and higher shines
To pure and perfect day;
Nor sink those stars in empty night;
They hide themselves in heaven's own light.

1091 Weep not for me. 8s & 4s.

WHEN the spark of life is waning,
Weep not for me;
When the languid eye is streaming,
Weep not for me;
When the feeble pulse is ceasing,
Start not at its swift decreasing;
'T is the fettered soul's releasing,
Weep not for me.

LIFE AND DEATH.

! When the pangs of death assail me,
Weep not for me;
Christ is mine, he can not fall me,
Weep not for me;
Yes, though sin and doubt enleavor,
From his love my soul to sever,
Jesus is my strength for ever;
Weep not for me.

092 Mortality swallowed up of life. 78 & 6a.
2 Cor. 5: 4.

NO, no, it is not dying
To go unto our God,
This gloomy earth forsaking,
Our journey homeward taking
Along the starry road.

2 No, no, it is not dying
Heaven's citizen to be,
A crown immortal wearing,
And rest unbroken sharing,
From care and conflict free.

3 No, no, it is not dying
The Shepherd's voice to know;
His sheep he ever leadeth,
His peaceful flock he feedeth,
Where living pastures grow.

4 No, no, it is not dying
To wear a heavenly crown,
Among God's people dwelling,
The glorious triumph swelling,
Of him whose sway we own.

5 O no, this is not dying,
Thou Saviour of mankind;
There, streams of love are flowing,
No hindrance ever knowing;
Here, only drops we find.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1093 The burial of the dead. 10s 6

THOU God of love! beneath thy sheltering wing
We leave our holy dead,
To rest in hope! From this world's sufferings
Their souls have fled!

2 O! when our souls are burdened with the weight
Of life, and all its woes,
Let us remember them, and calmly wait
For our life's close!

1094 Go to thy rest in peace. 6s

GO to thy rest in peace,
And soft be thy repose;
Thy toils are o'er, thy troubles cease;
From earthly cares, in sweet release,
Thine eyelids gently close.

2 Go to thy peaceful rest;
For thee we need not weep,
Since thou art now among the blest—
No more by sin and sorrow pressed,
But hushed in quiet sleep.

3 Go to thy rest; and while
Thy absence we deplore,
One thought our sorrow shall beguile;
For soon, with a celestial smile,
We meet to part no more.

1095 He died at his post.

AWAY from his home and the friends of his youth
He hasted, the herald of mercy and truth,
For the love of his Lord, and to seek for the lost;
Soon, alas! was his fall—but he died at his post.

2 The stranger's eye wept, that, in life's brightest day
One gifted so highly should sink to the tomb;
For in ardor he led in the van of the host,
And he fell like a soldier—he died at his post.

3 He wept not himself that his warfare was done—
The battle was fought, and the victory won;
But he whisper'd of those whom his heart clung to;
"Tell my brethren for me that I died at my post."

LIFE AND DEATH.

- 1 He ask'd not a stone to be sculptured with verse :
 He ask'd not that fame should his merits rehearse ;
 But he ask'd as a boon, when he gave up the ghost,
 That his brethren might know that he died at his post.
- 2 Victorious his fall—for he rose as he fell,
 With Jesus, his Master, in glory to dwell : [coast,
 He has pass'd o'er the stream, and has reach'd the bright
 For he fell like a martyr—he died at his post.
- 3 And can we the words of his exit forget ?
 O! no, they are fresh in our memory yet :
 An example so worthy shall never be lost,
 We will fall in the work—we will die at our post.

1096 Farewell to a friend departed. 12s & 11s.

THOU art gone to the grave ; but we will not deplore thee,
 Though sorrows and darkness encompass the tomb ;
 The Saviour has passed through its portals before thee.
 And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave ; we no longer behold thee,
 Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side ;
 But the wide arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
 And sinners may hope, since the Saviour has died.

Thou art gone to the grave : and its mansion forsaking,
 Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long ;
 But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,
 And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.

Thou art gone to the grave ; but we will not deplore thee ;
 Since God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian, thy Guide ;
 He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee ;
 And death has no sting, since the Saviour has died.

097 Heavenly prospect. P. M.

CHRISTIAN, the vision before thee is glorious,
 The earth shall allure thy tried spirit no more :
 Thou wast in the day of thy trial victorious,
 Secure now at last, thy temptations are o'er.

2 Hard was the strife, but the strong one in battle,
 Has been thy defender, and vanquished thy foes ;
 And heaven stood by thee to help thee in trouble,
 And joyed when the sound of thy triumph arose.

3 High was the anthem those raptures revealing,
 Ten thousand celestials the chorus prolong ;
 But louder the strains of the ransom'd are pealing,
 And glory is swelling the conqueror's song.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1098

Vanity of vanities.

1184

Eccles. 12: 8.

FAR, far o'er hill and dale, on the winds stealing,
List to the tolling bell, mournfully pealing,
Hark, hark, it seems to say, as melt those sounds—
So earthly joys decay, while new their feeling!

- 1 Now through the charmed air, on the winds stealing
List to the mourner's prayer, solemnly bending:
Hark, hark, it seems to say, turn from those joys
To those which ne'er decay, for life is ending.
- 2 So when our mortal ties death shall dis sever,
Lord, may we reach the skies where care comes nev
And in eternal day, joining the angels' lay,
To our Creator pay homage for ever.

SECOND ADVENT.

1099 Looking for the coming of the day of God.

2 Pet. 3: 12.

HOPE of our hearts, O Lord, appear,
Thou glorious star of day!
Shine forth, and chase the dreary night
With all our tears, away.

- 2 Strangers on earth, we wait for thee;
O leave the Father's throne;
Come with a shout of victory, Lord,
And claim us as thine own.
- 3 O bid the bright archangel now
The trump of God prepare,
To call thy saints—the quick, the dead
To meet thee in the air.
- 4 No resting-place we seek on earth,
No loveliness we see;
Our eye is on the royal crown,
Prepar'd for us and thee.

SECOND ADVENT.

- 5 But, dearest Lord, however bright
That crown of joy above,
What is it to the brighter hope
Of dwelling in thy love?
- 6 What to the joy, the deeper joy,
Unmingled, pure, and free,
Of union with our living Head,
Of fellowship with thee?
- 7 This joy e'en now on earth is ours,
But only, Lord, above
Our heart without a pang shall know
The fullness of thy love.
- 8 There, near thy heart, upon the throne,
Thy ransom'd Bride shall see,
What grace was in the bleeding Lamb,
Who died to make her free.

1100

Come, Lord Jesus.

S. M. D.

Rev. 22 : 20.

THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.
Age after age has gone,
Sun after sun has set,
And still in weeds of widowhood
She weeps a mourner yet.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

- 2 Saint after saint on earth
Has lived, and loved, and died;
And as they left us one by one,
We laid them side by side;
We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there,
Till the last glorious morn.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 The whole creation groans,
And waits to hear that voice
That shall restore her comeliness,
And make her wastes rejoice.
Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.
Come, then, Lord Jesus, come!

1101 When the Kings of kings comes. P. M

- WHEN the King of kings comes,
When the Lord of lords comes;
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
To see the nations broken down,
And kingdoms once of great renown,
And saints now suff'ring wear the crown
When the King of kings comes.
- 2 When the trump of God calls,
When the last of foes falls;
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of king comes:
To see the saints rais'd from the dead
And all together gather'd,
And made like to their glorious Head,
When the King of kings comes.
- 3 When the foe's distress comes,
When the church's rest comes;
We shall have a joyful day.
When the King of kings comes:
To see the New Jerusalem,
Its fullness and its matchless frame,
Surpassing all report and fame,
When the King of kings comes.

SECOND ADVENT.

When the world's course is run,
When the judgment is begun;
We shall have a joyful day,

When the King of kings comes:
To see the sons of God well known,
All spotless to their Father shown,
And Jesus all his brethren own,

When the King of kings comes.

When our Lord in clouds comes,
When he with great power comes;
We shall have a joyful day,

When the King of kings comes:
To see all things by him restor'd,
And God himself alone ador'd
By all the saints with one accord.

When the King of kings comes.

102

O come quickly.

8s 7s & 4.

SAVIOUR, haste: our souls are waiting
For the long expected day,
When, new heavens and earth creating
Thou shalt banish grief away;
All the sorrow
Caused by sin and Satan's sway.

Haste, O hasten thine appearing,
Take thy mourning people home;
'T is this hope our spirits cheering,
While we in the desert roam,
Makes thy people
Strangers here till thou dost come.

Lord how long shall the creation
Groan and travail sore in pain,
Waiting for its sure salvation
When thou shalt in glory reign,
And like Eden
This sad earth shall bloom again?

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 4 Reign, O reign, Almighty Saviour,
Heaven and earth in one unite;
Make it known, that in thy favor,
There alone is life and light;
When we see thee
We shall have supreme delight.

1103 The Lord cometh, etc. 8s, 7s & 1
Jude 14.

- L O! he cometh—countless trumpets
Wake to life the slumbering dead;
'Mid ten thousand saints and angels
See their great exalted Head.
Hallelujah!—
Welcome, welcome Son of God!
- 2 Full of joyful expectation.
Saints behold the Judge appear;
Truth and justice go before him—
Now the joyful sentence hear;
Hallelujah!—
Welcome, welcome, Judge divine!
- 3 "Come, ye bless'd of my Father!
Enter into life and joy;
Banish all your fears and sorrows;
Endless praise be your employ;"
Hallelujah!—
Welcome, welcome to the skies.

1104 Behold he cometh with clouds. 8s, 7s & 4
Rev. 1: 7.

- L O! he comes, with clouds descending,
Once for favor'd sinners slain.
Thousand thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train;
Hallelujah!
Jesus now shall ever reign!

SECOND ADVENT.

Thy eye shall now behold him,
Ob'd in dreadful majesty;
He who set at naught and sold him
Himself and nail'd him to the tree,
Deeply wailing.
Shall the true Messiah see.
'ry island, sea, and mountain,
Heav'n and earth shall flee away;
All who hate him must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day,
Come to judgment!
Come to judgment! come away!
How redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear!
All his saints by man rejected,
Now shall meet him in the air,
Hallelujah!
See the day of God appear!
Lord, thy bride says by thy Spirit,
Hasten thou the gen'ral doom!
Promis'd glory to inherit,
Take thy weary pilgrims home!
All creation
Travails, groans, and bids thee come.
Yes—Amen! Let all adore thee,
High on thy exalted throne;
Saviour, take the power and glory,
Claim the kingdoms for thy own!
O! come quickly!
Hallelujah, come, Lord, come!

105

That blessed hope.
Titus 2: 13.

P. M.

WE wait for thee, all-glorious One
We look for thine appearing;
We bear thy name, and on the throne
We see thy presence cheering.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- Faith even now
Uplifts its brow,
And sees the Lord descending,
And with him bliss unending.
- 2 We wait for thee, through days forlorn,
In patient self-denial;
We know that thou our grief hast borne
Upon thy cross of trial.
And well may we
Submit with thee
To bear the cross and love it,
Until thy hand remove it.
- 3 We wait for thee; already thou
Hast all our heart's submission;
And though the spirit sees thee now,
We long for open vision;
When ours shall be
Sweet rest with thee,
And pure unfading pleasure,
And life in endless measure.
- 4 We wait for thee in certain hope,—
The time will soon be over;
With child-like longing we look up,
The glory to discover.
O, bliss! to share
Thy triumph there,
When home with joy and singing,
The Lord his saints is bringing!

THE RESURRECTION.

1106 The day of the Lord will come. I.
2 Peter 3: 10.

THE Lord will come; the earth shall quake;
The hills their fixed seat forsake;
And withering, from the vault of night,
The stars withdraw their feeble light.

THE RESURRECTION.

2 The Lord will come, but not the same
As once in lowly form he came;
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.

3 The Lord will come—a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind.

4 While sinners in despair shall call,
"Rocks, hide us! mountains, on us fall!"
The saints, ascending from the tomb,
Shall joyful sing—"The Lord is come!"

1107 The great day of his wrath L. M.
Rev. 6: 17.

THAT day of wrath! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?

2 When shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll;
When, louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead;

3 O, on that day, that dreadful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay.
Be thou, O God, the sinner's stay.
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

1108 Because I live you shall live also. C. M.
John 14: 19.

WHEN, downward, to the darksome tomb
I thoughtful turn my eyes,
Frail nature trembles at the gloom,
And anxious fears arise.

2 Why shrinks my soul—in death's embrace
Once Jesus captive slept;
And angels hovering o'er the place,
His lowly pillow kept.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 Thus shall they guard my sleeping dust,
And, as the Saviour rose,
The grave again shall yield her trust,
And end my deep repose.
- 4 My Lord, before to glory gone,
Shall bid me come away;
And calm and bright shall break the dawn
Of heaven's eternal day.
- 5 Then let my faith each fear dispel,
And gild with light the grave;
To him my loftiest praises swell,
Who died from death to save.

1109 And to wait for his Son from heaven. S. M.
1 Thess. 1: 10.

- IN expectation sweet,
We wait, and sing, and pray,
Till Christ's triumphal car we meet,
And see an endless day.
- 2 He comes! the Conqueror comes!
Death falls beneath his sword;
The joyful prisoners burst their tombs,
And rise to meet their Lord.
- 3 The trumpet sounds—Awake!
Ye dead to judgment come!
The pillars of creation shake,
While hell receives her doom.
- 4 Thrice happy morn for those
Who love the ways of peace;
No night of sorrow e'er shall close
Upon its perfect bliss.

1110 Awake and sing, you that dwell in dust. S. M.
Isaiah 26: 10.

REST for the toiling hand,
Rest for the anxious brow,
Rest for the weary, way-worn feet,
Rest from all labor now;

THE RESURRECTION.

1 Soon shall the tramp of God
Give out the welcome sound
That shakes thy silent chamber-walls,
And breaks the turf-sealed ground.

2 Ye dwellers in the dust,
Awake! come forth and sing;
Sharp has your frost of winter been,
But bright shall be your spring.

3 'T was sown in weakness here;
'T will then be raised in power:
That which was sown an earthly seed
Shall rise a heavenly flower.

11

At the last trump.

11s.

1 Cor. 15: 52.

THE chariot! the chariot! its wheels roll in fire,
As the Lord cometh down in the pomp of his ire;
O! self-moving, it drives on its pathway of cloud;
And the heav'ns with the burden of Godhead are bow'd.

The glory! the glory! around him are pour'd
Lightly hosts of the angels that wait on the Lord;
And the glorified saints, and the martyrs are there,
And there, all who the palm-wreaths of victory wear!

The trumpet! the trumpet! the dead have all heard:
O! the depths of the stone-cover'd charnel are stirr'd!
From the sea, from the earth, from the south, from the north,
All the vast generations of men are come forth. [north,
The judgment! the judgment! the thrones are all set,
Where the lamb and the bright-crown'd elders are met!
Here all flesh is at once in the sight of the Lord,
And the doom of eternity hangs on his word.

12

He will swallow up death in victory. P. M.

Isaiah 25: 8.

L O! the seal of death is breaking;
Those who slept its sleep are waking;
Heaven opens its portals fair!
Hark! the harps of God are ringing;
Hark! the seraph's hymn is flinging
Music on immortal air.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 There, no more at eve declining,
Suns without a cloud are shining
O'er the land of life and love;
There the founts of life are flowing,
Flowers unknown to time, are blowing
In that radiant scene above.
- 3 There no sigh of memory swelleth;
There no tear of misery welleteth;
Hearts will bleed or break no more;
Past is all the cold world's scorning,
Gone the night, and broke the morning,
Over all the golden shore.

1113

For the trumpet shall sound.

P. M.

1 Cor. 15: 52.

THE last lovely morning,
All blooming and fair,
Is fast onward fleeting,
And soon will appear.

CHORUS.

While the mighty, mighty, mighty trumpet
Sounds, Come, come away.
O, let us be ready to hail the glad day.

- 2 And when that bright morning
In splendor shall dawn,
Our tears shall be ended,
Our sorrows all gone.
- 3 The Bridegroom from glory
To earth shall descend,
Ten thousand bright angels
Around him attend.
- 4 The grave shall be opened,
The dead shall arise,
And with the Redeemer
Mount up to the skies.

FINAL JUDGMENT.

5 The saints then immortal
In glory shall reign.
The Bride with the Bridegroom
For ever remain.

FINAL JUDGMENT.

1114 That he may find mercy, etc. C. P. M.
2 Tim. 1 : 16.

WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt
 To take thy ransomed people home, [come
 Shall I among them stand?
 Shall such a worthless worm as I,
 Who sometimes am afraid to die,
 Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet thy people now,
Before thy feet with them to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But—can I bear the piercing thought —
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace:
Be thou my only hiding-place,
In this, th' accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, O, let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 And when the final trump shall sound,
Among thy saints let me be found,
To bow before thy face;
Then in triumphant strains I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With praise of sovereign grace.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1115 Behold the day is come. 8.

- BEHOLD the day is come :
The righteous Judge is near ;
And sinners, trembling at their doom,
Shall soon their sentence hear.
- 2 Angels, in bright attire,
Conduct him through the skies ;
Darkness and tempest, smoke and fire,
Attend him as he flies.
- 3 How awful is the sight !
How loud the thunders roar !
The sun forbears to give his light,
And stars are seen no more.
- 4 The whole creation groans ;
But saints arise and sing :
They are the ransomed of the Lord,
And he their God and King.

1116 The voice of the archangel, etc. 8s 7s &
1 Thess. 4 : 16.

- HARK, ye mortals, hear the trumpet
Sounding loud, the mighty roar !
Hark ! the archangel's voice proclaiming
Thou, old Time, shalt be no more.
Rolling ages,
Now your solemn close appears.

1117 Every eye shall see him. 8s, 7s &
Rev. 1 : 7.

- DAY of judgment, day of wonders !
Hark ! the trumpet's awful sound,
Louder than a thousand thunders,
Shakes the vast creation round ;
How the summons
Will the sinner's heart confound !

FINAL JUDGMENT.

- 2 See the Judge our nature wearing,
Cloth'd in majesty divine!
You who long for his appearing,
Then shall say, "This Lord is mine!
Gracious Saviour,
Own me in that day for thine!
- 3 At his call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea:
All the powers of nature, shaken
By his looks, prepare to flee:
Careless sinner,
What will then become of thee?
- 4 Horrors past imagination
Will surprise your trembling heart,
When you hear your condemnation,
"Hence, accurs'd wretch, depart!
Hence with Satan
And his angels have your part."
- 5 But to those who have confess'd,
Lov'd and serv'd the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, you bless'd,
See the kingdom I bestow:
You for ever
Shall my love and glory know."
- 6 Under sorrows and reproaches,
May this thought our courage raise!
Swiftly God's great day approaches,
Sighs shall then be changed to praise:
May we triumph,
When the world is in a blaze!

1118 Where shall the ungodly, etc. 11s & 3.

1 Pet. 4 · 18.

A H, guilty sinner, ruined by transgression,
What shall thy doom be, when, array'd in terror,
God shall command : see, cover'd with pollution,
Up to the judgment?

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 1 Stop, thoughtless sinner, stop awhile and ponder,
Ere death arrest thee, and the Judge, in vengeance,
Hurl from his presence thy affrighted spirit,
Swift to perdition.
- 2 Oft has he called thee, but thou 'wouldst not hear him
Mercies and judgments have alike been slighted;
Yet he is gracious, and with arms unfolded,
Waits to embrace thee.
- 3 Come, then, poor sinner, come away this moment,
Just as you are, come, filthy and polluted,
Come to the fountain open for the guilty;
Jesus invites you.
- 4 But, if you trifle with his gracious message,
Oleave to the world and love its guilty pleasures,
Mercy, grown weary, shall in righteous judgment,
Leave you for ever.
- 5 O! guilty sinner, hear the voice of warning;
Fly to the Saviour, and embrace his pardon;
So shall your spirit meet with joy triumphant,
Death and the judgment.

HEAVEN.

1119 The former things are passed away. L.

Rev. 21: 4.

- THERE is a land mine eye hath seen,
In visions of enraptured thought,
So bright that all which spreads between
Is with its radiant glory fraught;
- 2 A land upon whose blissful shore
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no more
And those long parted meet again.
 - 3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
With varying hues of shade and light
It hath no need of suns to rise
To dissipate the gloom of night.
 - 4 There sweeps no desolating wind
Across that calm, serene abode;
The wanderer there a home may find,
Within the paradise of God.

HEAVEN.

Rev. 14: 1, 3.

L. M.

A glorious summit stood nts in countless myriads stand

ongue redeemed to God,
garments washed in blood.
ribulation great they came;
the cross, despised the shame;
oin all their labors rest,
ernal glory blest.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

3 They see the Saviour face to face;
They sing the triumph of his grace;
And day and night, with ceaseless praise,
To him their loud hosannas raise.

4 O, may we tread the sacred road
That holy saints and martyrs trod;
Wage to the end the glorious strife,
And win, like them, a crown of life.

1122 Return unto thy rest, O my soul. L. M.
Psalm 116: 7.

RETURN, my soul, and sweetly rest
On thy almighty Father's breast;
The bounties of his grace adore,
And count his wondrous mercies o'er.

2 Thy mercy, Lord, preserved my breath,
And snatched my fainting soul from death;
Removed my sorrows, dried my tears,
And saved me from surrounding snares.

3 What shall I render to the Lord?
Or how his wondrous grace record?
To him my grateful voice I'll raise,
With just thanksgiving to his praise.

4 O Zion! in thy sacred courts,
Where glory dwells, and joy resorts,
To notes divine I'll tune the song,
And praise shall flow from every tongue.

1123 In my Father's house, etc. L. M.
John 14: 2.

THY Father's house! thine own bright home
And thou hast there a place for me!
'Though yet an exile here I roam,
That distant home by faith I see.

2 I see its domes resplendent glow,
Where beams of God's own glory fall;
And trees of life immortal grow,
Whose fruits o'erhang the sapphire wall.

HEAVEN.

W that thou, who on the tree
deign our mortal guilt to bear, ing thine own to dwell with thee,
waitest to receive me there!
ove will there array my soul
ne own robe of spotless hue;
hall gaze while ages roll,
ee, with raptures ever new!
lcome day! when thou my feet
bring the shining threshold o'er;
r's warm embrace to meet,
dwell at home for evermore!

The heavenly mansion.

L. M

Y heavenly home is bright and fair
We'll be gathered home;
death nor sighing visit there,
We'll be gathered home:

CHORUS.

We'll wait till Jesus comes,
We'll wait till Jesus comes,
We'll wait till Jesus comes,
And we'll be gathered home.
glittering towers the sun outshine,
We'll be gathered home;
it heavenly mansion shall be mine,
We'll be gathered home.
Father's house is built on high,
We'll be gathered home;
ove the arched and starry sky,
We'll be gathered home.
en from this earthly prison free,
We'll be gathered home;
it heavenly mansion mine shall be,
We'll be gathered home.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 5 While here, a stranger far from home,
We'll be gathered home;
Affliction's waves may round me foam,
We'll be gathered home.
- 6 Let others seek a home below,
We'll be gathered home
Which flames devour or waves o'erthrow,
We'll be gathered home.
- 7 Be mine the happier lot to own,
We'll be gathered home;
A heavenly mansion near the throne,
We'll be gathered home.
- 8 Then, fail this earth, let stars decline,
We'll be gathered home;
And sun and moon refuse to shine,
We'll be gathered home.
- 9 All nature sink and cease to be,
We'll be gathered home;
That heavenly mansion stands for me,
We'll be gathered home.

1125

1 Pet. 1: 4.

L. M.

THERE is a region lovelier far
Than sages tell or poets sing;—
Brighter than summer's beauties are,
And softer than the tints of spring.

CHORUS.

I'm going home. I'm going home
I'm going home to die no more,
To die no more, to die no more,
I'm going home to die no more.

- 2 It is all holy and serene.
The land of glory and repose;
No cloud obscures the radiant scene;
There not a tear of sorrow flows.

HEAVEN.

1126 They that sow in tears, shall reap in joy. C. M.
Psalm 126: 5.

THERE is an hour of hallow'd peace
For those with care oppress'd,
When sighs and sorrowing tears shall cease,
And all be hush'd to rest.

2 'Tis then the soul is freed from fears
And doubts which here annoy;
Then they that oft had sown in tears
Shall reap again in joy.

3 There is a home of sweet repose,
Where storms assail no more;
The stream of endless pleasure flows
On that celestial shore.

4 There purity with love appears,
And bliss without alloy;
There they that oft had sown in tears
Shall reap again in joy.

1127 There's music in the upper heaven. C. M. D.

THERE's music in the upper heaven—
The choral notes that swell,
Are sweeter, fuller, richer far,
Than human lips can tell;
When rings the gush of golden harps,
And heavenly lutes are swept,
To tell the quenchless love of him
Who o'er a lost world wept.

2 The gliding rush of courtless wings,
Borne on the swelling breeze,
That wafts the rustling music by,
Amid embowered trees;
The echo of the myriad feet
That fall on pavements fair
Of glittering, dazzling gold that gleams
In untold brightness there.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 The music of the pearly gates,
When back by angels flung,
Admitting there a ransomed soul,
Their sinless bands among:
The silvery sound that's swelling up,
When flows the stream of life;
The rustle of the emerald leaf,
With healing virtues rife:
- 4 And then the tide of melody,
That swells and bursts, when rings
The new song in that far-off world,
That thrilling rapture brings:
But, awed, we may not note its power
Its depths we may not sound;
Unfathomed, fathomless it rolls
In glorious might around.

1128

Earnestly desiring.

2 Cor. 5: 2.

- O COULD our thoughts and wishes rise
Above these gloomy shades,
To those bright worlds beyond the sky
Which sorrow ne'er invades!
- 2 There joys, unseen by mortal eyes,
Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospect rise,
Unconscious of decay:
- 3 Lord, send a beam of light divine,
To guide our upward aim!
With one reviving touch of thine,
Our languid hearts inflame.
- 4 Then shall, on faith's sublimest wing,
Our ardent wishes rise [spr
To those bright scenes where pleas
Immortal to the skies.

HEAVEN

1129 There is a land, a happy land. C M.

- THERE is a land, a happy land,
Where tears are wiped away
From ev'ry eye, by God's own hand,
And night is turned to day.
- 2 There is a home, a happy home,
Where way-worn travelers rest,
Where toil and languor never come,
And every mourner's blest.
- 3 There is a port, a peaceful port,
A safe and quiet shore,
Where weary mariners resort,
And fear the storms no more.
- 4 There is a crown, a dazzling crown,
Bedecked with jewels fair;
And priests and kings of high renown,
That crown of glory wear.
- 5 That land be mine, that calm retreat,
That crown of glory bright;
Then I'll esteem each bitter sweet,
And every burden light.

1130 The hope—laid up for you in heaven. P. M.
Col. 1: 5.

- THERE is an hour of peaceful rest,
To mourning wand'ers given;
There is a tear for souls distress'd.
A balm for ev'ry wounded breast—
'Tis found above—in heav'n.
- 2 There is a home for weary souls,
By sins and sorrows driven;
When toss'd on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise and ocean rolls,
And all is drear—but heav'n.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 3 There faith lifts up the tearless eye,
The heart with anguish riven;
It views the tempest passing by,
Sees ev'ning shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heav'n.
- 4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the dark and narrow tomb
Appears the dawn—of heav'n.

1131

Rev. 15 : 2, 3.

C. M

- HARK! hark! the voice of ceaseless praise
Around Jehovah's throne;
Songs of celestial joy they raise,
To mortal lips unknown.
- 2 Upon the sea of glass they stand
In shining robes of light;
The harps of God are in their hand,
They rest not day or night.
- 3 O! for an angel's perfect love,
A seraph's soaring wing,
To sing with thousand saints above,
The triumphs of our King.
- 4 On earth our feeble voice we try,
In weakness and in shame,
We bless, we laud, we magnify,
We conquer in his name.
- 5 But O! with pure and sinless heart,
His mercies to adore,
My God, to know thee as thou art,
Nor grieve thy Spirit more!
- 6 O! blessed hope! a "little while,"
And we, amidst that throng,
Shall live in our Redeemer's smile,
And swell the immortal song.

HEAVEN.

132 Far up the everlasting hills. C. M.

THERE is a fold where none can stray,
And pastures ever green,
Where sultry sun, or stormy day,
Or night is never seen.

2 Far up the everlasting hills,
In God's own light it lies;
His smile its vast dominion fills
With joy that never dies.

3 One narrow vale, one darksome wave
Divides that land from this;
I have a Shepherd pledged to save,
And bear me home to bliss.

4 Soon at his feet my soul shall lie.
In life's last struggling breath;
But I shall only seem to die,
I shall not taste of death.

5 Far from this guilty world to be Exempt from toil and strife;
To spend eternity with thee,—
My Saviour, this is life!

133 Inheritance of the saints in light. S. M.
Col. 1: 12.

AND is there, Lord, a rest
For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
Or sorrow entrance find?

2 Is there a blissful home,
Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat?

3 Are there bright, happy fields,
Where nought that blooms shall die;
Where each new scene fresh pleasure
And healthful breezes sigh? [yields,

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 4 Are there celestial streams,
Where living waters glide,
With murmurs sweet as angel dreams,
And flowery banks beside?
- 5 For ever blessed they,
Whose joyful feet shall stand,
While endless ages waste away,
Amid that glorious land!
- 6 My soul would thither tend
While toilsome years are given;
Then let me, gracious Lord, ascend
To sweet repose in heaven!

1134 I love to think of heaven. 8

I LOVE to think of heaven,
Where white-robed angels are,
Where many a friend is gathered safe
From fear, and toil, and care.

CHORUS.

There will be no more parting
There will be no more parting
In heaven above where all is love
There will be no more parting

- 2 I love to think of heaven,
Where my Redeemer reigns,
Where rapturous songs of triumph
In endless, joyous strains.
- 3 I love to think of heaven,
The saints' eternal home,
Where palms, and robes, and crowns
And all our joys are one.
- 4 I love to think of heaven,
The greetings there we'll meet
The harps—the songs for ever,
The walks—the golden street

HEAVEN.

- 5 I love to think of heaven.
That promised land so far,
O how my raptured spirit longs
To be for ever there.

135 Come, sing to me of heaven. S. M

COME, sing to me of heaven,
When I'm about to die;
Sing songs of holy ecstasy,
To waft my soul on high.

CHORUS.

There'll be no sorrow there,
There'll be no sorrow there,
In heaven above, where all is love,
There'll be no sorrow there.

- 2 When the last moment comes,
O, watch my dying face,
To catch the bright seraphic glow,
Which on each feature plays.
- 3 Then to my raptured ear
Let one sweet song be given;
Let music charm me last on earth,
And greet me first in heaven!

1136 Hebrews 11 : 16. C's & 4s.

KNOW ye that better land,
Where care's unknown?
Know ye that blessed band
Around the throne?
There, there is happiness,
There streams of purest bliss;
There, there are rest and peace---
There, there alone.

- 2 Yes, yes, we know that place,
We know it well;
Eye hath not seen his face,
Tongue can not tell;

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

There are the angels bright,
There saints enrob'd in white,
All, all are cloth'd in light—
There, there they dwell.

3 O! we are weary here,
A little band,
Yet soon in glory there
We hope to stand;
Then let us haste away,
Speed o'er this world's dark way,
Unto that land of day—
That better land.

4 Come! hasten that sweet day,
Let time begone,
Come! Lord, make no delay,
On thy white throne;
Thy face we wish to see
To dwell and reign with thee,
And, thine for ever be—
Thine, thine alone.

1137 Who are these—and whence came they?
Rev. 7: 13.

WHO are these in bright array,
This exulting, happy throng,
Round the altar night and day,
Hymning one triumphant song?
“Worthy is the Lamb, once slain,
Blessing, honor, glory, power,
Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
New dominion every hour.”

2 These through fiery trials trod;
These from great affliction came;
Now, before the throne of God,
Sealed with his almighty name:

HEAVEN.

Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their great Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.

Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed ;
Them the Lamb, amidst the throne
Shall to living fountains lead :
Joy and gladness banish sighs ;
Perfect love dispels all fears ;
And for ever from their eyes
God shall wipe away their tears.

138

They rest from their labors.

7s. d.

Rev. 14 : 13.

HIGH in yonder realms of light,
Dwell the raptured saints above ;
Far beyond our feeble sight,
Happy in Immanuel's love :
Once they knew, like us below,
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
Torturing pain and heavy wo,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears.

2 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
Hark, their songs melodious rise,
Songs of praise to Jesus' love !
Happy spirits, ye are fled
Where no grief can entrance find
Lulled to rest the aching head,
Soothed the anguish of the mind.

3 All is tranquil and serene,
Calm and undisturbed repose ;
There no cloud can intervene,
There no angry tempest blows ;

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

Every tear is wiped away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast,
Night is lost in endless day,
Sorrow—in eternal rest.

1139 Good night till then. 7s 6s 4.

I JOURNEY forth rejoicing,
From this dark vale of tears,
To heavenly joy and freedom,
From earthly bonds and fears;
Where Christ our Lord shall gather
All his redeem'd again,
His kingdom to inherit;—
Good night till then!

2 Go to thy quiet resting,
Poor tenement of clay!
From all thy pain and weakness
I gladly haste away;
But still in faith confiding
To find thee yet again,
All glorious and immortal;
Good night till then!

3 Why thus so sadly weeping,
Belov'd one of my heart?
The Lord is good and gracious,
Tho' now he bids us part.
Oft have we met in gladness,
And we shall meet again,
All sorrows left behind us;—
Good night till then!

4 I go to see his glory,
Whom we have lov'd below;
I go the blessed angels,
The holy saints, to know
Our lovely ones departed,
I go to find again,
And wait for you to join us;—
Good night till then!

HEAVEN.

- 5 I hear the Saviour calling;
The joyful hour has come:
The angel-guards are ready
To guide me to our home;
Where Christ our Lord shall gather
All his redeem'd again.
His kingdom to inherit;—
Good night till then!

1140

Rev. 7 : 13-17.

79.

- PALMS of glory, raiment bright,
Crowns that never fade away,
Gird and deck the saints in light;
Priest, and kings, and conquerors they.
- 2 Yet the conquerors bring their palms
To the Lamb amidst the throne,
And proclaim in joyful psalms
Victory through his cross alone.
- 3 Kings for harps their crowns resign,
Crying, as they strike the chords,
"Take the kingdom, it is thine,
King of kings, and Lord of lords!"
- 4 Round the altar saints confess.
If their robes are white as snow,
'T was the Saviour's wondrous grace,
And his blood, that made them so.
- 5 Who were these? on earth they dwelt
Sinners once, of Adam's race;
Guilt, and fear, and suffering felt;
But were saved by sovereign grace.
- 6 They were mortal, too, like us:
Ah! when we, like them, must die,
May our souls, translated thus,
Triumph, reign and shine on high!

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1141 He hath prepared for them a city. 7s & 6s.
Heb. 11 : 16.

WE are on our journey home,
Where Christ our Lord is gone;
We shall meet around His throne,
When he makes his people one
In the new Jerusalem.

2 We can see that distant home,
Though clouds rise dark between;
Faith views the radiant dome,
And a luster flashes keen
From the new Jerusalem.

3 O glory shining far
From the never-setting Sun!
O trembling morning star!
Our journey's almost done
To the new Jerusalem.

4 O holy ! heavenly home!
O, rest eternal there !
When shall the exiles come,
Where they cease from earthly care,
In the new Jerusalem.

5 Our hearts are breaking now
Those mansions fair to see
O Lord ! thy heavens bow,
And raise us up with thee
To the new Jerusalem.

1142 Arise and depart, etc. 8s & 7s.
Micah 2 : 10.

THIS is not my place of resting,
Mine a city yet to come;
Onward to it I am hasting—
On to my eternal home.

HEAVEN.

- 2 In it all is light and glory,
O'er it shines a nightless day:
Every trace of sin's sad story,
All the curse has passed away.
- 3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us,
By the streams of life along;
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.
- 4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
Soon we bid farewell to pain;
Never more be sad or weary,
Never, never sin again.

1143

Rev. 21. 25.

S. M. D.

- THERE is no night in heaven :
In that blest world above
Work never can bring weariness,
For work itself is love.
There is no night in heaven :
Yet nightly round the bed
Of every Christian wanderer
Faith has an angel tread.
- 2 There is no grief in heaven :
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.
There is no grief in heaven :
Yet angels from on high,
On golden pinions earthward glide,
The Christian's tears to dry
 - 3 There is no want in heaven :
The Lamb of God supplies
Life's tree of twelvefold fruitage still,
Life's spring which never dries.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

There is no want in heaven :
Yet in a desert land
The fainting prophet was sustained
And fed by angel's hand.

- 4 There is no sin in heaven :
Behold that blessed throng ;
All holy in their spotless robes,
All holy is their song.

There is no sin in heaven :
Here who from sin is free ?
Yet angels aid us in our strife
For Christ's true liberty.

- 5 There is no death in heaven :
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.
There is no death in heaven :
But, when the Christian dies,
The angels wait his parting soul,
And waft it to the skies.

1144

Reunion in heaven.

7a & 6

NO seas again shall sever,
No desert intervene,
No deep sad-flowing river
Shall roll its tide between.

- 2 Love and unsevered union
Of soul with those we love,
Nearness and glad communion,
Shall be our joy above.

- 3 No dread of wasting sickness,
No thought of ache or pain,
No fretting hours of weakness,
Shall mar our peace again.

HEAVEN.

- 4 No death our homes o'ershadowing
Shall e'er our harps unstring
For all is life unfading
In presence of our King.

145 The beautiful of lands. 7s & 6s.

- THERE is a land immortal,
The beautiful of lands;
Beside its ancient portal
A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it,
And open wide the door;
And mortals who pass through it,
Are mortals nevermore.
- 2 Though dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace comes with the message,
To souls that watch and wait;
And at the time appointed
A messenger comes down,
And leads the Lord's anointed
From cross to glory's crown.
- 3 Their sighs are lost in singing,
They're blessed in their tears;
Their journey heavenward winging.
They leave on earth their fears:
Death like an angel seemeth;
"We welcome thee," they cry;
Their face with glory beameth—
'T is life for them to die!

146 Heaven is my home. 6s & 4s.

- I'M but a stranger here;
Heaven is my home;
Earth is a desert drear;
Heaven is my home.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

Danger and sorrow stand
Round me on every hand,
Heaven is my fatherland—
Heaven is my home.

2 What though the tempests rage,
Heaven is my home;
Short is my pilgrimage;
Heaven is my home.
And Time's wild wintry blast
Soon will be overpast,
I shall reach home at last;
Heaven is my home.

3 There at my Saviour's side,
Heaven is my home;
I shall be glorified;
Heaven is my home.
There, with the good and blest,
Those I loved most and best,
I shall for ever rest;
Heaven is my home.

4 Therefore I'll murmur not;
Heaven is my home;
Whate'er my earthly lot,
Heaven is my home.
For I shall surely stand,
There at my Lord's right hand,
Heaven is my fatherland—
Heaven is my home.

1147

The region above.

6a &

THERE'S a region above,
Free from sin and temptation,
And a mansion of love,
For each heir of salvation.
Then dismiss all thy fears,
Weary pilgrim of sorrow;
Though thy sun set in tears,
'T will rise brighter to-morrow.

HEAVEN.

- 2 There our toils will be done,
And free grace be our story,
God himself be our Sun,
And our unsetting glory.
In that world of delight
Spring shall never be ended,
Nor shall shadows nor night,
With its brightness be blended.
- 3 There shall friends no more part,
Nor shall farewells be spoken,
There'll be balm for the heart,
That with anguish was broker.
From affliction set free,
And from God ne'er to sever,
We his glory shall see,
And enjoy him for ever.

1148

Rev. 22: 5.

5s & 4s.

NO shadows yonder!
All light and song!
Each day I wonder,
And say, How long
Shall time me sunder
From that dear throng?

- 2 No weeping yonder—
All fled away!
While here I wander
Each weary day,
And sigh as I ponder
My long, long stay.

- 3 No partings yonder—
Time and space never Again shall sunder—
Hearts can not sever—
Dearer and fonder
Hands clasped for ever.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 4 None wanting yonder—
Bought by the Lamb,
All gathered under
The evergreen palm.—
Loud as night's thunder
Ascends the glad psalm.

1149

Rest for the weary.

8s 11

IN the Christian's home in glory,
There remains a land of rest,
There my Saviour's gone before me,
To fulfill my soul's request.

CHORUS.

There is rest for the weary,
There is rest for you—
On the other side of Jordan,
In the sweet fields of Eden,
Where the tree of life is blooming,
There is rest for you.

- 2 He is fitting up my mansion,
Which eternally shall stand,
For my stay shall not be transient,
In that holy, happy land.
- 3 Pain nor sickness ne'er shall enter,
Grief nor wo my lot shall share,
But in that celestial center,
I a crown of life shall wear.
- 4 Death itself shall then be vanquished;
And his sting shall be withdrawn;
Shout for gladness, O ye ransomed!
Hail with joy the rising morn.
- 5 Sing, O sing, ye heirs of glory;
Shout your triumph as you go;
Zion's gates will open for you,
You shall find an entrance through.

HEAVEN.

1150

What must it be to be there?

8s.

WE speak of the realms of the blest,
That country so bright and so fair,
And oft are its glories confessed,
But what must it be to be there?

2 We speak of its pathways of gold,
Of its walls decked with jewels so rare,
Of its wonders and pleasures untold,
But what must it be to be there?

3 We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,
From trials without and within,
But what must it be to be there?

4 We speak of its service of love,
The robes which the glorified wear,
The Church of the First-born above,
But what must it be to be there?

5 O Lord, in this valley of wo,
Our spirits for heaven prepare,
Then shortly we also shall know
And feel what it is to be there.

1151

Shall we know each other there?

8s & 7s.

WHEN we hear the music ringing
In the bright celestial dome.
When sweet angel voices singing.
Gladly bid us welcome home
To the land of ancient story,
Where the spirit knows no care,
In that land of light and glory,
Shall we know each other there?

2 When the holy angels meet us,
As we go to join their band,
Shall we know the friends that greet us
In the glorious spirit land?

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

Shall we see the same eyes shining
On us as in days of yore?
Shall we feel their dear arms twining,
Fondly round us as before?

3 Yes, my earth-worn soul rejoices,
And my weary heart grows light,
For the sweet and cheerful voices,
And the forms so pure and bright,
That shall welcome us in heaven,
Are the loved of long ago;
And to them 't is kindly given.
Thus their mortal friends to know.

4 O, ye weary, sad, and tossed ones,
Droop not, faint not by the way;
Ye shall join the loved and just ones
In the land of perfect day.
Harp-strings, touched by angel fingers,
Murmured, in my raptured ear—
Evermore their sweet song lingers—
We shall know each other there.

1152

Happy home.

8s & 7i

IN that world of ancient story,
Where no storms can ever come,
Where the Saviour dwells in glory,
There remains for us a home.

CHORUS.

Happy home, happy home,
Jesus bids his foll'wers come,
To that land of bliss and glory,
Our happy, happy home.

2 There within the heavenly mansions,
Where life's river flows so clear,
We shall see our blessed Saviour,
If we love and serve him here.

HEAVEN.

- 3 There with holy angels dwelling,
Where the ransomed wander free,
Jesus' praises ever telling,
Sing we through eternity.
- 4 There amid the shining numbers,
All our toils and labors o'er,
Where the Guardian never slumbers,
We shall dwell for evermore.

153

Almost home.

6s. & 4s.

- Is it a long way off?
O, no! a few more years,
A few more bitter tears,—
We shall be there.
Sometimes the way seems long,
Our comforters all go,
Wo follows after wo,
Care after care.
- 2 O! brethren dear, how weak,
How faint and weak we are!
Yet Jesus leads us far
Through tangled ways
Into the very heart
Of this dark wilderness,
Where dangers thickest press,
And Satan strays.
- 3 But he is strong and wise,
And we, his children blind,
Must trust his thoughtful mind
And tender care.
So gentle is his love,
We may be sure that sight
Would show us all is right,
And answer'd prayer.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE

- 4 'Tis no uncertain way
We tread, for Jesus still Leads with unerring skill
Where'er we roam ;
And from the desert wild
Soon shall our path emerge,
And land us on the verge
Of our dear home.

154

I'm going home.

Gs 3 4

- I AM a stranger here ;
No home, no rest I see ;
Not all earth counts most dear
Can win a sigh from me.
I'm going home.
- 2 Jesus, thy home is mine,
And I thy Father's child,
With hopes and joys divine,
The world's a dreary wild.
I'm going home.
- 3 Home ! O ! how soft and sweet,
It thrills upon the heart !
Home ! where the brethren meet
And never, never part.
I'm going home.
- 4 Home ! where the Bridegroom takes
The purchase of his love :
Home ! where the Father waits
To welcome saints above.
I'm going home.
- 5 Yes ! when the world looks cold,
Which did my Lord revile,
A lamb within the fold,
I can look up and smile.
I'm going home.

HEAVEN.

- 6 When earth's delusive charms
Would snare my pilgrim feet,
I fly to Jesus' arms,
And yet again repeat,
I'm going home.
- 7 When breaks each mortal tie
That holds me from the goal,
This, this can satisfy
The cravings of my soul,—
I'm going home.
- 8 Ah! gently, gently lead,
Along the painful way,
Bid every word and deed,
And every look to say,
I'm going home.

155

Strangers and pilgrims.

7s & 6s.

Heb. 11: 13.

- WE have no home but heaven;—
A pilgrim's garb we wear;
Our path is marked by changes,
And strewn with many a care;
Surrounded with temptation;
By varied ills oppress'd;
Each day's experience warns us
That this is not our rest.
- 2 We have no home but heaven;—
Then wherefore seek one here?
Why murmur at privation,
Or grieve when trouble's near?
It is but for a season
That we as strangers roam,
And strangers must not look for
The comforts of a home.
- 3 We have no home but heaven;—
We want no home beside;
O God, our Friend and Father,
Our footsteps thither guide,

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

Unfold to us its glory,
Prepare us for its joy,
Its pure and perfect friendship,
Its angel-like employ.

- 4 We have a home in heaven ;—
How cheering is the thought !
How bright the expectations
Which God's own word has taught !
With eager hearts we hasten
The promised bliss to share ;
We have no home but heaven ;—
O would that we were there !

1156 Shall we e'er forget the story ? 8s & 7s

WHEN we reach a quiet dwelling,
On the strong eternal hills,
And our praise to him is swelling,
Who the vast creation fills ;
When the paths of pray'r and duty,
And affliction all are trod,
And we wake to see the beauty,
Of our Saviour and our God :

- 2 With the light of resurrection,
When our chang'd bodies glow
And we gain the full perfection,
Of the bliss begun below ;
When the life that flesh obscureth
In each radiant form shall shine,
And the joy that aye endureth,
Flashes forth in beams divine :
- 3 While we wave the palms of glory
Through the long eternal years,
Shall we e'er forget the story
Of our mortal griefs and fears ?

HEAVEN.

Shall we e'er forget the sadness,
And the clouds that hung so dim,
When our hearts are filled with gladness,
And our tears are dried by him?

- 4 Shall the memory be banished
Of his kindness and his care,
When the wants and woes are vanished,
Which he loved to soothe and share?
All the way by which he led us,
All the grievings which he bore,
All the patient love he taught us,
Shall we think of them no more?

- 5 Yes! we surely shall remember
How he quickened us from death,
How he fanned the dying ember
With his Spirit's glowing breath.
We shall read the tender meaning
Of the sorrows and alarms,
As we trod the desert, leaning
On his everlasting arms.

- 6 And his rest will be the dearer,
When we think of weary ways,
And his light will seem the clearer,
As we muse on cloudy days.
O 't will be a glorious morrow
To a dark and stormy day!
We shall recollect our sorrow,
As the streams that pass away.

157

Beautiful Zion.

8s, 6 lines

Psalm 50. 2.

BEAUTIFUL Zion, built above,
Beautiful city, that I love,
Beautiful gates of pearly white.
Beautiful temple,—God its light!
He who was slain on Calvary
Opens those pearly gates to me

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- 2 Beautiful heaven, where all is light,
Beautiful angels, clothed in white,
Beautiful strains that never tire,
Beautiful harps through all the choir;
There shall I join the chorus sweet,
Worshiping at the Saviour's feet.
- 3 Beautiful crowns on every brow,
Beautiful palms the conquerors show,
Beautiful robes the ransomed wear,
Beautiful all who enter there!
Thither I press with eager feet;
There shall my rest be long and sweet.
- 4 Beautiful throne for Christ our King,
Beautiful songs the angels sing,
Beautiful rest, all wanderings cease
Beautiful home of perfect peace!
There shall my eyes the Saviour see:
Haste to this heavenly home with me!

1158

The better land.

P. M

I HEAR thee speak of the better land,
Thou callest its children a happy band,
Mother! O! where is that radiant shore,
Shall we not seek it, and weep no more?
Is it where the flower of the orange blow!
And the fire-flies dance in the myrt
Not there! not there! boug

2 Is it where the feathery palm trees rise
And the date grows ripe under sunny sky
Or 'midst the green islands of glittering seas
Where fragrant forests perfume the breeze
And strange bright birds on their starry
Bear the rich hues of all glorious things
Not there! not there!

HEAVEN.

3 Is it far away in some region old,
Where the rivers wander o'er sands of gold,
And the burning rays of the rubies shine,
And the diamond lights up the secret mine?
And the pearl glows forth from the coral strand.
Is it there, sweet mother, that better land?
Not there! not there!

4 Eye hath not seen it, my gentle boy,
Ear hath not heard its sweet song of joy!
Dreams can not picture a world so fair,
Sorrow and death may not enter there,
Time may not breathe on its fadeless bloom,
Far beyond the clouds and beyond the tomb!
'Tis there! 'tis there!

The Father-land.

9s & 8s.

THERE is a place where my hopes are stay'd.
My heart and my treasure are there;
Where verdure and blossoms never fade,
And fields are eternally fair.

CHORUS.

That blissful place is my father-land;
By faith its delights I explore;
Come, favor my flight, angelic band,
And waft me in peace to the shore.

2 There is a place where the angels dwell,
A pure and peaceful abode;
The joys of that place no tongue can tell;
For there is the palace of God!

3 There is a place where my friends are gone
Who suffer'd and worship'd with me;
Exalted with Christ, high on his throne.
The King in his beauty they see.

4 There is a place where I hope to live
When life and its labors are o'er,
A place which the Lord to me will give,
And then I shall sorrow no more.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1160 The former things are passed away. 4 & 10a.
Rev. 21: 4;

- N^o sickness there,
 No weary wasting of the frame away,
 No fearful shrinking from the midnight air,
 No dread of summer's bright and fervid ray.
- 2 No hidden grief,
 No wild and cheerless vision of despair,
 No vain petition for a swift relief,
 No tearful eye, no broken hearts are there.
- 3 Care has no home
 Within that realm of ceaseless praise and song;
 Its tossing billows break and melt in foam,
 Far from the mansions of the spirit-throng.
- 4 No parted friends
 O'er mournful recollections have to weep!
 No bed of death enduring love attends,
 To watch the coming of a pulseless sleep.
- 5 No blasted flower
 Or withered bud celestial gardens grow!
 No scorching blast or fierce descending shower
 Scatters destruction like a ruthless foe!
- 6 No battle-word
 Startles the sacred host with fear and dread!
 The song of peace, Creation's morning heard,
 Is sung wherever angel-minstrels tread!
- 7 Let us depart
 If scenes like these await the weary soul!
 Look up, thou stricken one! Thy wounded heart
 Shall bleed no more at sorrow's stern control!
- 8 With faith our guide,
 White-rob'd and innocent, to lead the way,
 Why fear to plunge in Jordan's rolling tide,
 And find the ocean of eternal day!

1161 That beautiful world! P. M.

WE'RE going home, we've had visions bright
 Of that holy land, that world of light,
 Where the long, dark night of time is past,
 And the morn of eternity dawns at last;
 Where the weary saint no more shall roam,
 But dwell in a happy peaceful home:
 Where the brow with sparkling gems is crowned,
 And the waves of bliss are flowing round.
 O, that beautiful world! O, that beautiful world!

HEAVEN.

When going home, we soon shall be
When the sky is clear, and all are free;
When the victor's song floats o'er the plains,
When the seraph's anthems blend with its strains;
When the sun rolls down its brilliant flood,
Beams on a world that is fair and good;
When stars, once dimmed at nature's doom,
Ever shine o'er the new earth's bloom.
O that beautiful world! O, that beautiful world!

When the ransomed throng, 'mid the seas of bliss,
The holy city's gorgeousness;
When the verdant plains, 'mid angels' cheer,
The saints that round the throne appear;
When the conqueror's song as it sounds afar,
Floods on the ambrosial air;
When, in endless years we then shall prove,
The worth of a Saviour's matchless love.
O that beautiful world! O, that beautiful world!

The sun-bright clime.

P. M.

When you heard, have you heard of that sun-bright clime,
Dimm'd by sorrow, unhurt by time;
When age hath no power o'er the fadeless frame—
When the eye is fire, and the heart is flame—
Have you heard of that sun-bright clime?

When of water gushes there,
Fountains of beauty strangely fair,
Thousands wings are hovering o'er,
The zing wave and the golden shore,
Are seen in that sun-bright clime.

When of forms, all clothed in white,
Fountains of beauty, clear and bright,
Well in their own immortal bowers,
The endless hues of countless flowers,
Are bloom in that sun-bright clime.

When not heard, and eye hath not seen,
The telling songs, and their changeless sheen;
When signs are waving, their banners unfurl,
Over walls and gates of pearl,
Are fixed in that sun-bright clime.

When far away is that sinless clime,
When dimmed by sorrow, unhurt by time;
When 'mid all things bright and fair, is given,
The name of the just, and its name is heaven—
Is the name of that sun-bright clime.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

1163

We'll be there in a little while.

P. M.

WE have heard of that bright, that holy land,
We have heard and our hearts are glad.
For we are a lonely pilgrim band:
We are weary, and worn, and sad.
They tell us that pilgrims are dwelling there,
No more are they homeless ones.
And they say that the goodly land is fair,
Where the fountain of life ever runs.

CHORUS.

We'll be there, we'll be there in a little while,
And we'll join with the pure and the blest,
We'll all have the palms, the robes, the crowns,
And we'll be for ever at rest.
2 We have heard of the palms, the robes, the
Of that silvery band in white, [crowns,
All radiant with heavenly light.
We have heard of the angels there, and saints
With their golden harps, how they sing,
And the mount, with the fruitful tree of life,
And the leaves that healing bring.
3 There are beautiful birds in the bower
Their songs are blythe and sweet, [greer
Their warbling gushing ever new,
The angel harpers greet.
We'll be there, we'll be there in a little whi
And we'll join with the pure and blest;
We'll all have the palms, the robes, the crow
And we'll be for ever at rest.

Shall we sing in heaven?

P.

SHALL we sing in heaven for ever,
Shall we sing?
Shall we sing in heaven for ever,
In that happy land?

HEAVEN.

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
They that meet shall sing for ever,
Far beyond the rolling river,
Meet and sing, and love for ever,
In that happy land.

2 Shall we know each other ever,
In that land?

Shall we know each other ever,
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
They that meet shall know each other,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

3 Shall we sing with holy angels
In that land?

Shall we sing with holy angels
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
Saints and angels sing for ever,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

4 Shall we rest from care and sorrow,
In that land?

Shall we rest from care and sorrow,
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
They that meet shall rest for ever,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

5 Shall we meet our dear, lost children,
In that land?

Shall we meet our dear, lost children,
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
Children meet and sing for ever,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

6 Shall we meet our Christian parents
In that land?

Shall we meet our Christian parents,
In that happy land?

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
Parents and children meet together,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

7 Shall we meet our faithful teachers
In that lan l?

Shall we meet our faithful teachers
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land
Teachers and scholars meet together,
Far beyond the rolling river, etc.

8 Shall we know our blessed Saviour
In that land?

Shall we know our blessed Saviour
In that happy land?

Yes! O, yes! in that land, that happy land,
We shall know our blessed Saviour
Far beyond the rolling river,
Love and serve him there for ever,
In that happy land.

1165

Behold I make all things new.

P.M.

Rev. 21 : 5.

THAT clime is not like this dull clime of ours;
All, all is brightness there;
A sweeter influence breathes around its flowers,
And a benigner air.

No calm below is like that calm above,
No region here is like that realm of love;
Earth's softest spring ne'er shed so soft a light,
Earth's brightest summer never shone so bright.

2 That sky is not like this sad sky of ours,
Tinged with earth's change and care;
No shadow dims it, and no rain-cloud lowers;
No broken sunshine there:

One everlasting stretch of azure pours
Its stainless splendor o'er those sinless shores:
For there Jehovah shines with heavenly ray,
And Jesus reigns dispensing endless day.

3 The dwellers there are not like those of earth,
No mortal stain they bear;
And yet they seem of kindred blood and birth;
Whence and how came they there?

HEAVEN.

Earth was their native soil; from sin and shame,
Through tribulation, they to glory came;
Bond-slaves delivered from sin's crushing load,
Brands plucked from burning by the hand of God.

- 4 Yon robes of theirs are not like those below;
No angel's half so bright:
Whence came that beauty, whence that living glow,
And whence that radiant white?
Washed in the blood of the atoning Lamb,
Fair as the light these robes of theirs became;
And now, all tears wiped off from every eye,
They wander where the freshest pastures lie.

1166

The home of the soul.

118 & 5

- OH where can the soul find relief from its foes?
A shelter of safety, a home of repose?
Can earth's highest summit, or deepest hid vale,
Give a refuge, nor sorrow, nor sin can assail?
No, no! there's no home!
There's no home on earth—the soul has no home.
- 2 Shall it leave the low earth, and soar to the sky,
And seek for a home in the mansions on high?
In the bright realms of bliss with a dwelling be given,
And the soul find a home in the glory of heaven?
Yes, yes! there's a home!
There's a home in high heaven—the soul has a home.
- 3 O! holy and sweet its rest shall be there!
Free for ever from sin, and from sorrow and care;
And the loud hallelujahs of angels shall rise,
To welcome the soul to its home in the skies!
Home, home! home of the soul!
The bosom of God is the home of the soul!

1167

Ever-green mountains.

P. M.

THERE'S a land far away 'mid the stars, we are told,
Where they know not the sorrows of time,
Where the pure waters wander through valleys of gold,
And where life is a treasure sublime;
'T is the land of our God—'t is the home of the soul,
Where the ages of splendor eternally roll;
Where the way-weary traveler reaches his goal,
On the ever-green mountains of life.

THE PRESENT AND THE FUTURE.

- Here our gaze can not soar to that beautiful land,
 But our visions have told of its bliss,
 And our souls by the gale from its gardens are fanned,
 When we saluted in the deserts of this;
 And we sometimes have longed for its holy repose,
 When our spirits were torn with temptation and woe,
 And we've drank from the tide of the river that flows
 From the ever-green mountains of life.
- 3 O the stars never tread the blue heavens by night,
 But we think where the ransomed have trod,
 And the day never smiles from his palace of light,
 But we feel the bright smiles of our God.
 We are traveling homeward through changes and gloom,
 To a kingdom where pleasures unchangingly bloom;
 And our guide is the glory that shines through the tomb
 From the ever-green mountains of life.

1168

Within the veil.

P. M.

Heb. 6: 19.

- UPON the frontier of this shadowy land
 We, pilgrims of eternal sorrow, stand:
 What realm lies forward, with its happier store
 Of forests green and deep,
 Of valleys hushed in sleep,
 And lakes most peaceful? 'Tis the land of Evermore.
- 2 Very far off its marble cities seem—
 Very far off—beyond our sensual dream—
 Its woods, unruffled by the wild winds' roar:
 Yet does the turbulent surge
 Howl on its very verge.
 One moment—and we breathe within the Evermore
- 3 They whom we loved and lost so long ago,
 Dwell in those cities, far from mortal woe—
 Haunt those fresh woodlands, whence sweet ^{[soar.} arclings
 Eternal peace have they:
 God wipes their tears away:
 They drink that river of life which flows for Evermore.
- 4 Thither we hasten through these regions dim,
 But lo! the wide wings of the seraphim
 Shine in the sunset! On that joyous shore
 Our lightened hearts shall know
 The life of long ago:
 The sorrow-burdened path shall fade for Evermore.

THE FAMILY.

No night in heaven.

10s.

It shall be in heaven! no gathering gloom
O'er that glorious landscape ever come;
It shall fall in sadness o'er those flowers
As the their fragrance through celestial bowers.

It shall be in heaven! no dreadful hour
Of darkness, of the tempter's power—
These skies no envious clouds shall roll,
The sunlight of the raptured soul.

It shall be in heaven. Forbid to sleep,
As no more their mournful vigils keep,
The stains dried—their tears all wiped away—
No undazzled on eternal day.

It shall be in heaven—no sorrow's reign;
No anguish, no corporeal pain;
No ring limbs, no burning fever there;
No eclipse, no winter of despair.

It shall be in heaven, but endless noon—
No declining sun, no waning moon:
As the Lamb shall yield perpetual light,
The fountains green, and waters ever bright.

THE FAMILY.

I will make there an altar unto God. L. M
Gen. 35 : 3.

O sovereign Lord of earth and skies
Premely good, supremely wise;
Thou the place of our abode;
May we still live near to God.

O'er our dwelling shall be found,
Thill thy throne of grace surround;
Far to thy name will raise,
Sacrifice of prayer and praise.

With faith and with devotion, Lord!
Lead us each day to hear thy word:
Lead us thy light to learn thy will,
Strengthen our duties to fulfill.

HOME.

1. Our circles with thy presence bless;
Keep out each root of bitterness;
And may, to each, the last remorse
Be to the mansions of thy love.

The happy home.

1171

HAPPY the home, when God is there,
And love fills every breast;
Where one their wish, and one their joy
And one their heavenly rest.

2 Happy the home where Jesus' name
Is sweet to every ear;
Where children early learn his name,
And parents hold him dear.

3 Happy the home where prayer is heard,
And praise is wont to rise;
Where parents love the sacred word,
And live but for the skies.

4 Lord! let us in our homes agree,
This blessed peace to gain;
Unite our hearts in love to thee,
And love to all will reign.

My mother's Bible.

1172

THIS book is all that's left me,
Tears will unbidden start,
With falt'ring heart and throbbing
I press it to my heart.
For many generations past,
Here is our family tree;
My mother's hand this Bible held,
She dying gave it me.

2 Ah! well do I remember those Whose name these records hold,
Who round the hearth-stone sat,
After the evening prayer.

THE FAMILY.

And tell of what those pages said,
In terms my heart would thrill!
Though they are with the silent dead,
Here are they living still.

My father read this holy book
To brothers, sisters dear;
How calm was my poor mother's look,
Who leaned God's word to hear.
Her angel face—I see it yet!
What thronging memories come!
Again that little group is met,
Within the walls of home.

Thou truest friend man ever knew,
Thy constancy I've tried;
Where all were false, I found thee true—
My counselor and guide.
The mines of earth no treasures give,
That could this volume buy;
In teaching me the way to live,
It taught me how to die.

73 As for me and my house, etc. S. M.
Joah. 24 : 15.

IN all my ways, O God!
I would acknowledge thee;
And seek to keep my heart and house
From all pollution free.

! Where'er I have a tent,
An altar will I raise;
And thither my oblations bring
Of humble pray'r and praise.

! Could I my wish obtain,
My household, Lord, should be Devoted to thyself alone
A nursery for thee.

A birth-day hymn.

H M.

GOD of my life, to thee
My cheerful soul I raise,
Thy goodness bade me be.
And still prolongs my days;
I see my natal hour return,
And bless the day that I was born.

2 Though but a child of earth,
I glorify thy name.
From whom alone my birth,
And all my blessing came;
Creating and preserving grace
Let all that is within me praise.

3 My soul, and all its pow'rs,
Thine, wholly thine shall be,
All, all my happy hours
I consecrate to thee;
Whate'er I have, whate'er I am,
Shall magnify my Maker's name.

4 Long as I live beneath,
To thee O let me live.
To thee my ev'ry breath
In thanks and blessings give;
Me to thine image, Lord, restore,
And I shall praisethee evermore.

1175 For thy name's sake lead me, etc. 8b & 7s
Psalm 31 : 3.

GENTLY, Lord, O gently lead us
Through this gloomy vale of tears,
Through the changes thou 'st decreed us
Till our last great change appears.
O! refresh us with thy blessing,
O! refresh us with thy grace,
May thy mercies, never ceasing,
Fit us for thy dwelling place.

MORNING HYMNS.

When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devious paths we stray,
Thy goodness never fail us,
Lead us in thy perfect way.

O! refresh us with thy blessing, etc.

In the hour of pain and anguish,
In the hour when death draws near,
Per not our hearts to languish,
Suffer not our souls to fear.

O! refresh us with thy blessing, etc.

When this mortal life is ended,
Bid us in thine arms to rest,
By angel bands attended.
We awake among the blest.

O! refresh us with thy blessing, etc.

Now, O! crown us with thy blessing,
Through the triumphs of thy grace,
We shall praises never ceasing,
Echo through thy dwelling place.

O! refresh us with thy blessing, etc.

MORNING HYMNS.

They are new every morning.

L. M.

Lam. 3: 23.

NEW every morning is the love
Our wakening and uprising prove :
Through sleep and darkness safely brought,
Restored to life, and power, and thought.

New mercies, each returning day,
Ever around us while we pray ;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

HOME

- 3 Old friends, old scenes will lovelier be
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and peace
Shall dawn on every cross and tree.
- 4 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above,
And keep us this, and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

1177 Be thou their arm every morning,
Isaiah 58: 7

- LORD of eternal truth and life
Ruler of nature's changings
Who dost bring forth the morn
And temper noon's effulgent
- 2 Quench thou in us the flames
And bid the heat of passion
From perils guard our feeble
And keep our souls in peace

1178 I have set the Lord always before
Psa

- FORTH in thy name, O Lord
My daily labors to pursue
Thee, only thee, resolved to be
In all I think or speak or do
- 2 Thee will I set at my right
Whose eyes mine inmost see
And labor on at thy command
And offer all my works to thee
- 3 For thee delightfully employ
Whate'er thy bounteous hand
And run my course with gladness
And closely walk with thee

MORNING HYMNS.

1179 Be thou in the fear of the Lord, etc. L. M.
PRV. 23: 17.

GOD of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies!

2 O, like the sun may I fulfill
The appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind, and active will,
March on and keep my heavenly way.

1180 Burn there in sweet incense every morning. L. M.
EX. 30: 7.

I PRAISE thy name, O God of Light,
For rest and safety through the night;
Beneath thy wing, securely kept,
I closed my eyes and sweetly slept.

2 Redeemed from weariness, I rise
To greet the light with cheerful eyes;
And with the birds on joyful wing,
My soul would rise, and sweetly sing.

3 I thank thee, Lord, for all thy care,
For all the blessings that I share--
Life, reason, health, and home, and friends,
And every gift thy goodness sends.

4 O let me never, never cease
To cherish trust and thankfulness:
From thee, thou Maker of my frame,
Each undeservéd blessing came.

5 As numberless as stars of heaven
Are the rich bounties thou hast given,
And fresh as dews, and sweet as flowers,
The love that smiles on all my hours.

6 O let me to thy altar bring
A pure and grateful offering;
And let my thanks, as incense rise
In Christ, a pleasing sacrifice.

A morning invocation.

A WAKE, my soul! and with the sun
Thy daily course of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart!
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who, all night long, unwearied sing
Glory to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me, while I slept:
Grant, Lord! when I from death shall
I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning-dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and
And with thyself my spirit fill.

1182

He giveth his beloved sleep.

Psalm 127: 2.

LORD of my life! O may thy praise
Employ my noblest powers,
Whose goodness lengthens out my day
And fills the circling hours.

2 While many spent the night in sigh
And restless pains and woe,
In gentle sleep I closed my eyes,
And undisturbed repose.

3 O let the same Almighty care
My waking hours attend;
From every danger, every snare,
My heedless steps defend.

4 Smile on my minutes as they roll,
And guide my future days;
And let thy goodness fill my soul
With gratitude and praise.

MORNING HYMNS.

1183

In the morning, etc.

C. M.

Psalm 5: 3.

- TO thee let my first off'rings rise,
 Whose sun creates the day;
 Swift as his glad'ning influence flies,
 And spotless as his ray.
- 2 This day thy fi v'ring hand be nigh,
 So oft vouchsaf'd before:
 Still may it lead, protect, supply,
 And I that hand adore.
- 3 If bliss thy providence impart,
 For which, resign'd, I pray;
 Give me to feel the grateful heart,
 And thus thy love repay.
- 4 Afflictions should thy love intend,
 As vice or folly's cure,
 Patient to gain that glorious end,
 May I the means endure!
- 5 Be this and ev'ry future day
 Still wiser than the past,
 And when I all my life survey,
 May grace sustain at last.

A morning without clouds.

S. M.

2 Sam. 23: 4.

- SEE how the rising sun
 Pursues his shining way;
 And wide proclaims his Maker's praise,
 With ev'ry bright'ning ray
- 2 Thus would my rising soul
 Its heav'nly parent sing;
 And to its great Original
 An humble tribute bring.
- 3 O may I grateful use
 The blessings I receive;
 And ne'er in thought, in word, or deed,
 His holy Spirit grieve

HOME.

- 4 May all my days and pow'rs
Be sacred, Lord, to thee;
And in thy presence may I spend
A blest eternity!

1185 I will sing of thy mercy in the morning. S. M.
Psalm 59: 16.

THE morning light returns,
The sun begins to shine;
Now let our souls in haste arise,
To run the race divine.

- 2 We praise the Father's love.
Who kept us through the night;
O may his kindness be our song,
His pleasure our delight.

- 3 While passing through this day,
Lord, we implore thy care,
To guide us on the heav'nly way,
And guard from ev'ry snare.

- 4 And when our life shall close,
O may it be in peace;
May we lie down in sweet repose,
And wake in endless bliss.

1186 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning. 7a.
Psalm 5: 3.

NOW the shades of night are gone;
Now the morn'g light is come;
Lord, may I be thine to-day—
Drive the shades of sin away.

- 2 Fill my soul with heav'nly light,
Banish doubt, and cleanse my sight;
In thy service, Lord, to-day.
Help me labor, help me pray.

- 3 Keep my haughty passions bound—
Save me from my foes around;
Going out and coming in,
Keep me safe from ev'ry sin.

MORNING HYMNS.

- 4 When my work of life is past,
O! receive me then at last!
When I reach the heavenly shore,
Night of sin will be no more.

187 Psalm: 3: 5. 7s.

THOU that dost my life prolong
Kindly aid my morning song;
Thankful let my offerings rise
To the God that rules the skies.

- 2 Gently, with the dawning ray,
On my soul thy beams display;
Sweeter than the smiling morn,
Let thy cheering light return.

188 The Lord God is a Sun. 7s & 3.
Psalm 84: 11.

JESUS, Sun of Righteousness,
Brightest beam of love divine,
With the early morning rays
Do thou on our darkness shine,
And dispel with purest light
All our night!

- 2 Like the sun's reviving ray,
May thy love, with tender glow
All our coldness melt away,
Warm and cheer us forth to go,
Gladly serve thee and obey
All the day!

- 3 Thou our only Life and Guide!
Never leave us nor forsake:
In thy light may we abide
Till th' eternal morning break
Moving on to Zion's hill
Homeward still!

EVENING HYMNS.

1189 Hide me under the shadow of thy wings. L. M.
Psalm 17 : 3.

GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
G For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, O keep me, King of kings,
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at thy judgment-day.

4 O let my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep, which shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

5 Be thou my guardian, while I sleep,
Thy watchful station near me keep;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from th' approach of ill.

6 Lord, let my soul for ever share
The bliss of thy paternal care:
'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above,
To see thy face, and sing thy love!

1190 I will lay me down in peace. L. M.
Psalm 4 : 8.

THUS far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolong my days;
And every evening shall make known,
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

But O how few returns of love
Hath my Creator found !

*4 Lord, with this guilty heart of mine
To thy dear cross I flee ;
And to thy grace my soul resign,
To be renewed by thee.

The day goeth away.

C. M.

Jer. 6 : 4.

HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day !
Begone, disturbing care
And look, my soul, from earth away,
To him who heareth prayer.

2 How sweet the tear of penitence,
Before his throne of grace,
While, to the contrite spirit's sense,
He shows his smiling face.

3 How sweet, through long remembered
His mercies to recall ; [years,
And, pressed with wants, and griefs, and
To trust his love for all. [fears,

4 How sweet to look, in thoughtful hope,
Beyond this fading sky,
And hear him call his children up
To his fair home on high.

5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west ;
So let my soul, in life's last even,
Retire to glorious rest.

The shadows of the evening, etc.

C. M. D.

Jer. 6 : 4.

THE shadows of the evening hours
Fall from the darkening sky ;
Upon the fragrance of the flowers
The dews of evening lie :

EVENING HYMNS.

Before thy throne, O Lord of heaven,
We kneel at close of day;
Look on thy children from on high,
And hear us while we pray.

2 The sorrows of thy servants, Lord,
O, do not thou despise;
But let the incense of our prayers
Before thy mercy rise;
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls:
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade;
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart:
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine;—
Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord, thy peace, O God,
Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils, thou
Our trembling hearts defend;
Give us a respite from our toil,
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long day we suffer, Lord,
O, give us now repose!

New is our salvation nearer, etc

S. M.

Rom. 13 : 1

A SWEETLY solemn thought,
Comes to me o'er and o'er,
To-day, I'm nearer to my home
Than e'er I've been before.

HOME.

- 2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be,
And nearer to the great white throne,
Nearer the crystal sea ;
- 3 Nearer the bound of life,
Where falls my burden down ;
Nearer to where I leave my cross,
And where I gain my crown.
- 4 Saviour, confirm my trust,
Complete my faith in thee ;
And let me feel as if I stood
Close on eternity ;
- 5 Feel as if now my feet
Were slipping o'er the brink ;
For I may now be nearer home,
Much nearer than I think.

1196 He that keepeth Israel shall not sleep. S. 1
Psalm 121: 4.

A NOTHER day is past,
The hours forever fled ;
And time is bearing me away,
To mingle with the dead.

- 2 My mind in perfect peace
My Father's care shall keep ;
I yield to gentle slumber now,
For thou canst never sleep.
- 3 How blessed, Lord, are they,
On thee securely stayed !
Nor shall they be in life alarmed,
Nor be in death dismayed.

1197 The day is past and gone. S. 1

THE day is past and gone,
The ev'ning shades appear ;
O may we all remember well
The night of death draws near.

- 1198 The evening sacrifice. 7s. 6 lines.
 Psalm 141 : 2.

2 For the blessings of this day,
For the mercies of this hour,
For the gospel's cheering ray,
For the Spirit's quickening power,
Grateful notes to thee I raise;
Lord! accept my song of praise.

- SOFTLY, now, the light of day
Fades upon my sight away;
Free from care, from labor free.
Lord! I would commune with thee.

SONG.

2 Soon, for me, the light of day
Shall for ever pass away;
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take me, Lord! to dwell with thee

1200 Twilight.

THE mellow eve is gliding
Serenely down the west;
So, every care subsiding,
My soul would sink to rest.

2 The woodland hum is ringing
The daylight's gentle close;
May angels round me, singing,
Thus hymn my last repose.

3 The evening star has lighted
Her crystal lamp on high;
So, when in death benighted,
May hope illumine the sky.

4 In golden splendor dawning,
The morrow's light shall break;
O, on the last bright morning
May I in glory wake!

1201 Evening aspiration.

GOD that madest earth and heaven
Darkness and light!
Who the day for toil hast given,
For rest the night!
May thine angel guards defend us,
Slumber sweet thy mercy send us,
Holy dreams and hopes attend us,
This livelong night!

1202 Saviour! breathe an evening blessing.

SAVIOUR! breathe an evening blessing,
Ere repose our eyelids seal;
Sin and want we come confessing;
Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.

EVENING HYMNS.

- 2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel-guards from thee surround us—
We are safe if thou art nigh.
- 3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from thee :
Thou art he who, never weary,
Watcheth where thy people be.
- 4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

1203

Abide with us.

8s & 7st.

- TARRY with me, O my Saviour,
For the day is passing by ;
See, the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.
- 2 Many friends were gathered round me—
In the bright days of the past ;
But the grave has closed above them,
And I linger here at last.
- 3 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows ;
Paler now the glowing west ;
Swift the night of death advances ;
Shall it be the night of rest ?
- 4 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on thee ;
Tarry with me through the darkness !
While I sleep, still watch by me.
- 5 Tarry with me, O my Saviour !
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning ; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest !

While I was weeping.

8s & 7a

Psalm 39 ; 3.

- SILENTLY the shades of evening
Gather round my lowly door;
Silently they bring before me
Faces I shall see no more.
- 2 O! the lost, the unforgotten,
Though the world be oft forgot;
O! the shrouded and the lonely—
In our hearts they perish not.
- 3 Living in the silent hours,
Where our spirits only blend,
They, unlinked with earthly trouble
We, still hoping for its end.
- 4 How such holy memories cluster,
Like the stars when storms are past;
Pointing up to that far heaven
We may hope to gain at last.

1205

Fleeting moments.

8s & 7a

- FAINTLY flow thou falling river,
Like a dream that dies away;
Down to ocean gliding ever,
Keep thy calm unruffled way:
Time with such a silent motion.
Floats along on wings of air,
To eternity's dark ocean,
Burying all its treasure there.
- 2 Roses bloom, and then they wither,
Cheeks are bright, then fade and die;
Shapes of light are wafted hither,
Then like visions hurry by:
Quick as clouds at evening driven
O'er the many-colored west,
Years are bearing us to heaven,
Home of happiness and rest.

EVENING HYMNS.

1206 Sweet it is to trust in thee. P M

THROUGH the day thy love hath sustained us,
Wearied, we lie down to rest;
Through the silent watches guard us,
Let no foe our peace molest.
Father! thou our guardian be;
Sweet it is to trust in thee.

2 Wandering in the land of strangers,
Dwelling in the midst of foes,
Us and ours preserve from dangers:
In thy love we all repose.
Father! thou our guardian be;
Sweet it is to trust in thee.

1207 A child's prayer. 8s & 7s.

JESUS, tender Shepherd, hear me;
Bless thy little lamb to-night:
Through the darkness be thou near me;
Keep me safe till morning light.

2 All this day thy hand has led me,
And I thank thee for thy care;
Thou hast clothed me, warmed me, fed me,
Listen to my evening prayer!

3 May my sins be all forgiven;
Bless the friends I love so well
Take me, when I die, to heaven,
Happy there with thee to dwell.

1208 At peace with all the world, etc. 10s & 6.

THE day is ended. Ere I sink to sleep,
My weary spirit seeks repose in thine;
Father! forgive my trespasses, and keep
This little life of mine.

2 With loving kindness curtain thou my bed,
And cool in rest my burning pilgrim feet;
Thy pardon be the pillow for my head—
So shall my sleep be sweet.

HOME.

- 3 At peace with all the world, dear Lord, and thee,
No fears my soul's unwavering faith can shake!
All's well, whichever side the grave for me
The morning light may break!

1209 I will sing of the mercies, etc. 10s & 4s.

FATHER supreme! thou high and holy One!
To thee we bow;
Now, when the burden of the day is gone,
Devoutly, now.

2 From age to age unchanging, still the same
All-good thou art;
Hallowed for ever be thy reverend name
In every heart!

3 When the glad morn upon the hills was
Thy smile was there; [spread,
Now, as the darkness gathers overhead,
We feel thy care.

4 Night spreads her shade upon another day
For ever past;
So o'er our faults, thy love, we humbly pray,
A vail may cast.

5 Silence and calm, o'er hearts by earth dis-
Now sweetly steal; [trest,
So every fear that struggles in the breast
Shall faith conceal.

6 Thou, through the dark, wilt watch above
With eye of love; [our sleep
And thou wilt wake us, when the sunbeams
The hills above. [leap

7 O, may each heart its gratitude express
As life expands,
And find the triumph of its happiness
In thy commands!

YOUTH AND AGE.

1210

Fading, still fading.

P. M.

FADING, still fading, the last beam is fading;
 Father in heaven! the day is declining;
 Safety and innocence flee with the light,
 Temptation and danger walk forth with the night;
 From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime,
 Shield us from danger and keep us from crime!
 Father! have mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen!

- 2 Father in heaven! O, hear when we call,
 Hear for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all!
 Feeble and fainting, we trust in thy night;
 In doubting and darkness thy love be our light!
 Let us sleep on thy breast while the night taper burns,
 Wake in thy arms when morning returns.
 Father! have mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen!

YOUTH AND AGE.

1211

By cool Siloam's shady rill.

C. M.

By cool Siloam's shady rill
 How fair the lily grows!
 How sweet the breath, beneath the hill,
 Of Sharon's dewy rose!

- 2 Lo! such the child, whose early feet
 The paths of peace have trod,
 Whose secret heart, with influence sweet
 Is upward drawn to God.
- 3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
 The lily must decay;
 The rose that blooms beneath the hill,
 Must shortly fade away.
- 4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
 Of man's maturer age
 Will shake the soul with sorrow's power
 And stormy passions rage.
- 5 O, thou, who givest life and breath,
 We seek thy grace alone,
 In childhood, manhood, age and death,
 To keep us sti'l thine own.

A child's prayer.

C. M.

DEAR Jesus! ever at my side,
How loving must thou be
To leave thy home in heaven to guard
A little child like me.

- 2 Thy beautiful and shining face
I see not, though so near;
The sweetness of thy soft low voice
I am too deaf to hear.
- 3 I can not feel thee touch my hand
With pressure light and mild,
To check me, as my mother did
When I was but a child.
- 4 But I have felt thee in my thoughts,
Fighting with sin for me;
And when my heart loves God, I know
The sweetness is from thee.
- 5 And when, dear Saviour! I kneel down
Morning and night to prayer,
Something there is within my heart
Which tells me thou art there.
- 6 Yes! when I pray, thou prayest too—
Thy prayer is all for me;
But when I sleep, thou sleepest not,
But watchest patiently.

Out of the mouth of babes.

C. M.

Psalms 9:2.

COME, let us join the hosts above
Now in our youngest days,
Remember our Creator's love,
And hsp our Father's praise.

- 2 His Majesty will not despise
The day of feeble things;
Grateful the songs of children rise,
And please the King of kings:

YOUTH AND AGE.

- 3 He loves to be remember'd thus,
 And honor'd for his grace;
 Out of the mouth of babes like us,
 His wisdom perfects praise.
- 4 Glory to God, and praise, and pow'r,
 Honor and thanks be giv'n!
 Children and cherubim adore
 The Lord of earth and heav'n.

1214 Lead us not into temptation. C. M.
Matt. 6: 13.

- WHILE in the slippery paths of youth,
 I run secure and free!
 O let thy bless'd word of truth,
 My guide and counsel be.
- 2 If near the tempter's wily snare
 In heedlessness I tread;
 O be thy kind, protecting care,
 To save me overspread.
- 3 Thus o'er my life let mercy move,
 And guide my feet the way
 That leads me to thy throne above—
 To everlasting day.

1215 Remember thy Creator, etc. C. M. D.
Ecc. 12: 1.

- YE joyous ones, upon whose brow
 The light of youth is shed,
 O'er whose glad path life's early flowers
 In glowing beauty spread;
 Forget not him whose love hath poured
 Around that golden light,
 And tinged those opening buds of hope
 With hues so softly bright.
- 2 Thou tempted one, just entering
 Upon enchanted ground.
 Ten thousand snares are spread for thee,
 Ten thousand foes surround:

To whom the hours of bitterness
Must come in coming years;
Teach early thy confiding eye
To pierce the cloudy screen,
To look above the storms, where a
Is holy and serene.

1216 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom
Prov. 8

- (O) HAPPY is the man who hears
Instruction's warning voice;
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice.
- 2 For she has treasure greater far
Than east or west unfold,
And her reward is more secure
Than all the gain of gold.
- 3 In her right hand she holds to vie
A length of happy years;
And in her left the prize of fame
And honor bright appears.
- 4 She guides our youth with innocence

The Child Jesus.

S. M.

Lu. 2: 27.

HAIL, gracious, heav'nly Prince!
To thee let children fly:
And on thy kindest providence
O may we all rely.

2 Jesus will take the young
Beneath his special care;
And he will keep their youthful days
From ev'ry wo and snare.

3 He knows their tender frame,
Nor will their youth condemn;
For he a little child became,
To love and pity them.

4 Nor does he now forget
His youthful days on earth:
Nor would we ever cease our praise
For the Redeemer's birth.

1218

From my youth up.

8s & 7s

Matt. 19: 20.

LORD, a little band, and lowly,
We are come to sing to thee;
Thou art great, and high, and holy,
O how solemn should we be!

2 Fill our hearts with thoughts of Jesus,
And of heaven where he is gone;
And let nothing ever please us
He would grieve to look upon.

3 For we know the Lord of glory
Always sees what children do.
And is writing now the story
Of our thoughts and actions too.

4 Let our sins be all forgiven;
Make us fear whatever is wrong,
Lead us on our way to heaven,
There to sing a nobler song.

HOME.

1219

Give me thy heart.

8s &

TAKE my heart, O Father, mold it
In obedience to thy will;
And as ripening years unfold it,
Keep it true and childlike still.

2 Father, keep it pure and lowly,
Strong and brave, yet free from strife,
Turning from the paths unholy
Of a vain or sinful life.

3 Ever let thy might surround it;
Strengthen it with power divine;
Till thy cords of love have bound it,
Father, wholly unto thine.

1220 I think when I read that sweet story, etc. P

I THINK when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How he called little children as lambs to his fold,
I should like to have been with them then.
I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
That his arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen his kind look when he
"Let the little ones come unto me."

2 Yet still to his footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in his love;
And if I thus earnestly seek him below,
I shall see him and hear him above;
In that beautiful place he is gone to prepare
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

3 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
Never heard of that heavenly home;
I should like them to know there is room for them
And that Jesus has bid them to come;
I long for the joy of that glorious time,
The sweetest, and brightest, and best,
When the dear little children of every clime
Shall crowd to his arms and be blessed.

YOUTH AND AGE.

1221 Thy sun shall no more go down. L. M. 6 line
Isaiah 60 : 20.

AT evening time, when day is done,
Life's little day is near its close,
And all the glare and heat are gone,
And gentle dews foretell repose—
To crown my faith before the night,
At evening time let there be light.

2 At evening time when labor's past,
Though storms and toils have marred it
Mercy has tempered every blast. [da
And love and hope have cheered the way;
Now let the parting hour be bright;
At evening time let there be light.

3 God doth send light at evening time,
And bid the fears, the doubtings, flee.
I trust his promises subl'me;
His glory now is risen on me;
His full salvation is in sight;
At evening time there now is light.

1222 At evening there shall be light. C. M. 7.
Zech. 14. 7.

OUR pathway oft is wet with tears,
Our sky with clouds o'ercast,
And worldly cares and worldly fears
Go with us to the last;—
Not to the last! God's word hath said,
Could we but read aright:
O pilgrim! lift in hope thy head,
At eve it shall be light!

2 Though earth-born shadows now may shroud
Our toilsome path awhile,
God's blessed word can part each cloud,
And bid the sunshine smile.

HOME.

If we but trust in living faith,
His love and power divine,
Then, though our sun may set in death,
His light shall round us shine.

- 3 When tempest-clouds are dark or high,
His bow of love and peace
Shines beauteous in the vaulted sky,
A pledge that storms shall cease.
Then keep we on, with hope unchilled,
By faith and not by sight,
And we shall own his word fulfilled—
At eve it shall be light.

1223 When I am old—forsake me not. C. J.
Psalms 71 : 18.

- GOD of my childhood and my youth,
G The Guide of all my days,
I have declared thy heavenly truth,
And told thy wondrous ways.
2 Wilt thou forsake my hoary hairs,
And leave my fainting heart?
Who shall sustain my sinking years,
If God, my strength, depart?
3 Let me thy power and truth proclaim
To the surviving age,
And leave a savor of thy name
When I shall quit the stage.
4 The land of silence and of death
Attends my next remove;
O, may these poor rema'ns of breath
Teach the wide world thy love.

1224 Watch and pray. C. H. J.

- G O watch and pray; thou canst not tell
G How near thine hour may be;
Thou canst not know how soon the bell
May toll its notes for thee:

YOUTH AND AGE.

Death's countless snares beset thy way;
Frail child of dust, go watch and pray.

- 2 Fond youth, while free from blighting care,
Does thy firm pulse beat high?
Do hope's glad visions, bright and fair,
Dilate before thine eye?
Soon these must change, must pass away;
Frail child of dust, go watch and pray.
- 3 Thou aged man, life's wintry storm
Hath seared thy vernal bloom;
With trembling limbs, and wasting form,
Thou'rt bending o'er thy tomb:
And can vain hope lead thee astray?
Go, weary pilgrim, watch and pray.
- 4 Ambition, stop thy panting breath:
Pride, sink thy lifted eye!
Behold the caverns, dark with death,
Before you open lie:
The heavenly warning now obey;
Ye sons of pride, go watch and pray.

1225 Thou art my trust from my youth. C. P. M
Psalm 71 : 5.

THY mercy heard my infant prayer,
Thy love, with all a mother's care,
Sustained my childish days:
Thy goodness watched my ripening youth,
And formed my heart to love thy truth,
And filled my lips with praise.

- 2 Then e'en in age and grief, thy name
Shall still my languid heart inflame,
And bow my faltering knee:
O! yet this bosom feels the fire,
This trembling hand and drooping lyre
Have yet a strain for thee!

HOME.

- 3 Yes! broken, tuneless, still. O Lord,
This voice transported shall record
Thy goodness, tried so long;
Till, sinking slow, with calm decay,
Its feeble murmurs melt away
Into a seraph's song.

1226

Only waiting.

8s & 7s

- ONLY waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is flown;
Till the night of earth is faded
From the heart once full of day;
Till the stars of heaven are breaking
Through the twilight soft and gray.
- 2 Only waiting till the reapers
Have the last sheaf gathered home;
For the summer time is faded,
And the autumn winds have come.
Quickly, reapers, gather quickly
The last ripe hours of my heart,
For the bloom of life is withered,
And I hasten to depart.
- 3 Only waiting till the shadows
Are a little longer grown;
Only waiting till the glimmer
Of the day's last beam is flown;
Then, from out the gathered darkness,
Holy, deathless stars shall rise,
By whose light my soul shall gladly
Tread its pathway to the skies.

1227

Abide with me.

10s

ABIDE with me! fast falls the eve-tide;
The darkness thickens; Lord! with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless! O abide with me!

YOUTH AND AGE.

- 2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day :
 Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away ;
 Change and decay in all around I see ;
 O thou who changest not ! abide with me.
- 3 I need thy presence every passing hour ;
 What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?
 Who like thyself my guide and stay can be ?
 Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me !
- 4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes ;
 Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies
 Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee ;
 In life, in death, O Lord ! abide with me.

1228

Come unto me.

11s & 10s.

- COME unto me, when shadows darkly gather,
 When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
 Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,
 Come unto me, and I will give you rest !
- 2 Ye who have mourned when the spring flowers were taken
 When the ripe fruit fell richly to the ground,
 When the loved slept, in brighter homes to waken,
 Where their pale brows with spirit-wreaths are crowned
- 3 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
 Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim ;
 Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
 Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.
- 4 There, like an Eden blossoming in gladness,
 Bloom the fair flowers the earth too rudely pressed ;
 Come unto me, all ye who droop in sadness,
 Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

1229

For old age.

8s & 7s

- GRACIOUS Source of every blessing !
 Guard our breast from anxious fears
 Let us each thy care possessing,
 Sink into the vale of years.
- 2 All our hopes on thee reclining,
 Peace companion of our way,
 May our sun, in smiles declining
 Rise in everlasting day.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

SEED-TIME AND HARVEST.

1230 Seed-time and harvest. L. M.

ETERNAL Source of every joy,
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appeal.
Whose goodness crowns the circling year.

- 1 The flowery spring at thy command
Embalms the air and paints the land;
The sunnier rays with vigor shine.
To raise the corn, and cheer the vine.
- 2 Thy hand in autumn richly pours
Through all our coasts redundant stores,
And winters, softened by thy care,
No more a face of horror wear.
- 3 Seasons and months and weeks and days
Demand successive songs of praise;
Still be the cheerful homage paid
With opening light and evening shade!
- 4 O! may our more harmonious tongues
In worlds unknown pursue the songs;
And in those brighter courts adore,
Where days and years revolve no more!

1231 Psaln 147. G. M.

WITH songs and honors sounding low,
Address the Lord on high;
Over the heavens he spreads his cloud,
And waters veil the sky.

- 1 He sends his showers of blessings down
To cheer the plains below;
He makes the grass the mountains crown,
And corn in valleys grow.

SEED-TIME AND HARVEST.

- 3 His steady counsels change the face
Of the declining year;
He bids the sun cut short his race,
And wint'ry days appear.
- 4 His hoary frost, his fleecy snow,
Descend and clothe the ground;
The liquid streams forbear to flow,
In icy fetters bound.
- 5 He sends his word, and melts the snow,
The fields no longer mourn;
He calls the warmer gales to blow,
And bids the spring return.
- 6 The changing wind, the flying cloud,
Obey his mighty word;
With songs and honors sounding loud,
Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

1232 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness. C. M.
Psalm 65: 11.

FOUNTAIN of life, and God of love!
How rich thy bounties are!
The rolling seasons, as they move,
Proclaim thy constant care.

- 2 When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hid the grain,
Thy goodness marked its secret birth,
And sent the early rain.
- 3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord, was
Its mild-refreshing showers; [thine,
Thou gav'st the ripening suns to shine,
And summer's golden hours.
- 4 Thy quickening life, for ever near,
Matured the swelling grain;—
The bounteous harvest crowns the year
And plenty fills the plain.

THE harvest dawn is near,
The year delays not long;
And he who sows with many a
Shall reap with many a song.

2 Sad to his toil he goes,
His seed with weeping leaves
But he shall come, at twilight's
And bring his golden sheaves

1234

The God of harvest praise.

THE God of harvest praise;
In loud thanksgiving raise
Hand, heart, and voice;
The valleys smile and sing,
Forests and mountains ring,
The plains their tribute bring,
The streams rejoice.

2 Yea, bless his holy name,
And purest thanks proclaim,
Through all the earth;
To glory in your lot
Is duty.—but be not
God's benefits forgot,
Amidst your mirth.

SEED-TIME AND HARVEST.

235 The little hills rejoice on every side. 7s 6s l.

Psalm 65: 12.

PRAISE and thanks and cheerful love
Rise from everything below,
To the mighty One above,
Who his wondrous love doth show:
Praise him, each created thing!
God, your Maker; God of spring!

2 Praise him, trees so lately bare;
Praise him, fresh and new-born flowers;
All ye creatures of the air;
All ye soft-descending showers!
Praise, with each awakening thing,
God, your Maker; God of spring!

3 Praise him, man!—thy fiftful heart
Let this balmy season move
To employ its noblest part.
Gentlest mercy, sweetest love;
Blessing, with each living thing,
God, your Father; God of spring!

236 Harvest-home. 7s. double

COME, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-home.
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter-storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-home!

2 We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown:

TIMES AND SEASONS:

First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear :
Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home !
From his field shall purge away
All that doth offend, that day ;
Give his angels charge at last
In the fires the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church triumphant, come,
Raise the song of Harvest-home !
All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin ;
There for ever, purified,
In God's garner to abide :
Come, ten thousand angels, come,
Raise the glorious Harvest-home !

Psalm 65 : 11.

LORD of the harvest! thee we hail ;
Thine ancient promise doth not fail ;
The varying seasons haste their round,
With goodness all our years are crowned ;
Our thanks we pay
This holy day ;
O let our hearts in tune be found !

2 If spring doth wake the song of mirth ;
If summer warms the fruitful earth ;
When winter sweeps the naked plain,
Or autumn yields its ripened grain ;
Still do we sing
To thee, our King ;
Through all their changes thou dost reign.

SEED-TIME AND HARVEST.

- 3 But chiefly when thy liberal hand
Scatters new plenty o'er the land,
When sounds of music fill the air,
As homeward all their treasures bear;
We too will raise
Our hymn of praise,
For we thy common bounties share.
- 4 Lord of the harvest! all is thine!
The rains that fall, the suns that shine,
The seed once hidden in the ground,
The skill that makes our fruits abound!
New, every year,
The gifts appear;
New praises from our lips shall sound!

1238

All thy works praise thee.

Psalms 145: 10.

WHEN spring unlocks the flowers to paint the laughing soil,
When summer's balmy showers refresh the mower's toil;
When winter binds in frosty chains the fallow and the flood,
In God the earth rejoiceth still, and owns his Maker good.

2 The birds that wake the morning, and those that love the shades;
The winds that sweep the mountain, or lull the drowsy glade;
The sun that from his amber-bower rejoiceth on his way,
The moon and stars their Maker's name in silent pomp display.

3 Shall man, the lord of nature, expectant of the sky—
Shall man, alone unthankful, his little praise deny!
No, let the year forsake his course, the seasons cease to be,
Thee, Father, must we always love—Creator! he nor thee.

4 The flowers of spring may wither, the hope of summer fade;
The autumn droop in winter, the bird forsake the shade;
The winds be lulled—the sun and moon forget their old decree;
But we in nature's latest hour, O Lord, will cling to thee!

TIMES AND SEASONS.

OLD AND NEW YEAR.

1239 The opening year. L. 1

GREAT God, we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year thy mercy shows;
Thy mercy crown it till it close!

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad
Still we are guarded by our God;
By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own,
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest:
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

1240 Psalm 90 : 12. C 1

AND now, my soul, another year
Of thy short life is past;
I can not long continue here,
And this may be my last.

2 Much of my hasty life is gone,
Nor will return again:
And swift my passing moments run,
The few that yet remain.

3 Awake, my soul; with utmost care
Thy true condition learn:
What are thy hopes? how sure? how fal?
What is thy great concern?

4 Behold, another year begins;
Set out afresh for heav'n;
Seek pardon for thy former sins,
In Christ so freely giv'n.

OLD AND NEW YEAR.

- Devoutly yield thyself to God,
And on his grace depend ;
With zeal pursue the heav'nly road,
Nor doubt a happy end.

41 Thou hast made my days, etc.. S. M.
Psalm 39 : 6

- MY few revolving years,
How swift they glide away !
How short the term of life appears.
When past—but as a day.
Lord, through another year,
If thou permit my stay.
With watchful care may I pursue
The true and living way.

42 Come let us anew. 5s & 12s

- COME let us anew
Our journey pursue—
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear ;
His adorable will
Let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve
the patience of hope, and the labor of love.
2 Our life is a dream ;
Our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay :
The arrow is flown ;
The moment is gone ;
The millennial year
ushes on to our view, and eternity's near
3 O that each, in the day
Of his coming, may say,
"I have fought my way through ; I do ;"
I have finish'd the work thou didst give me to

TIMES AND SEASONS.

O that each from his Lord,
May receive the glad word,
"Well and faithfully done;
Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne."

3 All below is but a dream. 7s. D.

WHILE with ceaseless course the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Never more to meet us here,
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below,
We a little longer wait.
But how little, none can know.

2 As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind—
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive,
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live,
With eternity in view;
Bless thy word to old and young,
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
When our life's short race is run,
May we dwell with thee above.

1244 The way of man is not in himself.

THANKSGIVING.

- 2 In our weakness and distress,
Rock of strength! be thou our stay!
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living way!
- 3 Who of us death's awful road
In the coming year shall tread?
With thy rod and staff, O God!
Comfort thou his dying head!
- 4 Keep us faithful, keep us pure.
Keep us evermore thine own!
Help, O help us to endure!
Fit us for the promised crown!
- 5 So, within thy palace gate,
We shall praise, on golden strings,
Thee, the only Potentate,
Lord of lords, and King of kings!

THANKSGIVING.

1245 Praise for national blessings. L. M.

- ALMIGHTY Sov'reign of the skies,
To thee let songs of gladness rise,
Each grateful heart its tribute bring,
And ev'ry voice thy goodness sing.
- 2 From thee our choicest blessings flow,
Life, health and strength thy hands bestow
The daily good thy creatures share,
Springs from thy providential care.
- 3 The rich profusion nature yields,
The harvest waving o'er the fields,
The cheering light, refreshing shower,
Are gifts from thy exhaustless store.
- 4 At thy command the vernal bloom
Revives the world from winter's gloom,
The summer's heat the fruit-matures,
And autumn all her treasures pours.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

From thee proceed domestic ties,
 Connubial bliss, parental joys;
 On thy support the nation stand,
 Obedient to thy high command,
 Let ev'ry pow'r of heart and tongue
 Unite to swell the grateful song:
 While age and youth in chorus join,
 And praise the majesty divine.

Offer unto God thanksgiving.
Psalm 50: 14.

THANKS be to him who built the hills;
 Thanks be to him the streams who fills;
 Thanks be to him who lights each star
 That sparkles in the blue afar.
 2 Thanks be to him who makes the morn,
 And bids it glow with beams new-born;
 Who draws the shadows of the night,
 Like curtains, o'er our wearied sight.
 ; Thanks be to him who sheds abroad,
 Within our hearts, the love of God—
 The Spirit of all truth and peace,
 Fountain of joy and holiness.

1247

Praise for deliverance and peace.

PEACE! the welcome sound proclaim;
 Dwell with rapture on the theme:
 Loud, still louder swell the strain;
 Peace on earth, good-will to men!
 2 Breezes! whisp'ring soft and low,
 Gently murmur as ye blow;
 Now, when war and discord cease,
 Praises to the God of peace.
 3 Ocean's billows, far and wide
 Rolling in majestic pride!
 Loud, still louder swell the strain:
 Peace on earth! good-will to men

1248 Magnify him with thanksgiving. P. M.
Psaln 69: 30.

- LET every heart rejoice and sing;
Let choral anthems rise:
Ye reverend men, and children, bring
To God your sacrifice;
For he is good—the Lord is good,
And kind are all his ways:
With songs and honors sounding loud,
The Lord Jehovah praise;
While the rocks and the rills,
While the vales and the hills,
A glorious anthem raise,
Let each prolong the grateful song,
And the God of our fathers praise.
- 2 He bids the sun to rise and set;
In heaven his power is known;
And earth, subdued to him, shall yet
Bow low before his throne;
For he is good—the Lord is good,
And kind are all his ways, etc.

1249 The memory of thy great goodness. 7a.
Psaln 145: 7.

PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

- 2 For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield;
For the vine's exalted juice,
For the generous olive's use :
- 3 Flocks that whiten all the plair ;
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain ;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews ;
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse :
- 4 All that Spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land ;
All that liberal Autumn pours
From her rich o'erflowing stores :
- 5 These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow ;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

1250 He shall bless thee in the land. 6s & 4s
Deut. 28 : 3.

GOD bless our native land !
Firm may she ever stand
Through storm and night ;
When the wild tempests rave,
Ruler of wind and wave,
Do thou our country save
By thy great night.

- 2 For her our prayer shall rise
To God, above the skies ;
On him we wait :
Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,
To thee aloud we cry,
God save the State !

1251 National Hymn. 6s & 4s

MY country ! 't is of thee
Sweet land of liberty,

THANKSGIVING.

Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died;
Land of the pilgrim's pride;
From every mountain-side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathes partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our father's God! to thee,
Author of liberty!
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King.

1252

Psalm 148.

8s & 7a.

Praise him, angels in the light;
Sun and moon, rejoice before him;
Praise him, all ye stars of light!

2 Praise the Lord—for he hath spoken; i.
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws which never shall be broken;
For their guidance he hath made.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

- 3 Praise the Lord—for he is glorious;
 Never shall his promise fail;
 God hath made his saints victorious,
 Sin and death shall not prevail.
- 4 Praise the God of our salvation,
 Hos : on high his power proclaim;
 Heaven and earth, and all creation,
 Laud and magnify his name!
 Hallelujah, Amen.

1253 Anniversary hymn. 8s & 7s

- GOD of mercy, do thou never
 From our offering turn away,
 But command a blessing ever
 On the memory of this day.
- 2 Light and peace do thou ordain it;
 O'er it be no shadow flung;
 Let no deadly darkness stain it,
 And no clouds be o'er it hung.
- 3 May the song this people raises,
 And its vows to thee addressed,
 Mingle with the prayers and praises
 That thou hearest from the blest.
- 4 When the lips are cold that sing thee,
 And the hearts that love thee dust,
 Father, then our souls shall bring thee
 Holier love and firmer trust.

 We view the terror of thy sword;
 Oh! whither shall the helpless fly;
 To whom but thee direct their cry?

FASTS.

- 2 The helpless sinner's cries and tears
Are grown familiar to thy ears;
Oft has thy mercy sent relief,
When all was fear and hopeless grief.
- 3 On thee, our guardian God, we call;
Before thy throne of grace we fall;
And is there no deliverance there;
And must we perish in despair?
- 4 See, we repent, we weep, we mourn,
To our forsaken God we turn;
O spare our guilty country, spare
The church which thou hast planted here.
- 5 We plead thy grace, indulgent God;
We plead thy Son's atoning blood;
We plead thy gracious promises,
And are they unavailing pleas?

Have brought ten thousand blessings down
On guilty lands in helpless wo;

TIMES AND SEASONS.

Psalm 46: 1.

GOD of love! O King of peace!
Make wars throughout the world to cease;
Thy wrath of sinful man restrain;
Give peace, O God! give peace again.
Remember, Lord! thy works of old,
The wonders that our fathers told,
Remember not our sins' dark stain;
Give peace, O God! give peace again.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

1259 He instructed ye judges of the earth. L. P. M.
Psalm 82: 10.

JUDGES, who rule the world by laws,
 Will ye despise the righteous cause,
 When the oppressed before you stand?
 Dare ye condemn the righteous poor,
 And let rich sinners go secure,
 While gold and greatness bribe your hands?

Have ye forgot, or never knew,
 That God will judge the judges, too?
 High in the heavens his justice reigns;
 Yet you invade the rights of God,
 And send your bold decrees abroad,
 To bind the conscience in your chains!

3 Th' Almighty thunders from the sky—
 Their grandeur melts, their titles die—
 They perish like dissolving frost;
 As empty chaff, when whirlwinds rise,
 Before the sweeping tempest flies,
 So shall their hopes and names be lost.

4 Thus shall the vengeance of the Lord
 Safety and joy to saints afford;
 And all that hear shall join and say—
 "Sure there 's a God that rules on high,
 A God that hears his children cry,
 And will their sufferings well repay."

3 With hearts and lips unfeigned,
We bless thee for thy word;
We praise thee for the joyful news,
Which our glad ears have heard.

8 O, may we treasure well
The counsels that we hear,
Till righteousness and holy joy
In all our hearts appear.

4 Water the sacred seed.
And give it large increase;
May neither fowls, nor rocks, nor thorns,
Prevent the fruits of peace.

6 And though we sow in tears,
Our souls at last shall come.
And gather in our sheaves with joy,
At heaven's great harvest-home.

Rise, gracious God, and shine.

S. M

RISE, gracious God, and shine
In all thy saving might;
Now prosper ev'ry good design
To spread thy glorious light.

2 O bring the nations near
That they may sing thy praise;
Thy word let all the heathen hear,
And learn thy holy ways.

4 Send forth thy glorious pow'r;
All nations then shall see.
And earth present her grateful store,
In converts born to thee.

Love of God, all love exceeding.

8s 7d.

LOVE of God, all love excell'g!
How can I its wonders tell!
Now, my troubled spirit quelling,
Now, it breaks the powers of hell:
O what mercies
Start beneath its magic spell!

2 Love of God, all love embracing
In its wide extended arms;
All our doubts and fears displacing,
Saves our souls from death's alarms;
O what sweetness,
Dwells within its blissful charms!

3 Love of God, all love possessing!
Filling all our souls with joy;
Pouring on each heart a blessing,
Which no time can e'er destroy.
Now may praises
All our hearts and tongues employ.

4 Love of God, all love extending
Far o'er sea and ocean strands;
Thou art on the breezes sending
Joyful news to distant lands:
May thy triumphs
Bind the world within thy bands.

Onward!

ONWARD, onward, men of heaven
Bear the gospel banner high;
Rest not till its light is given—
Star of ev'ry pagan sky:
Send it where the pilgrim stranger
Faints beneath the torrid ray;
Bid the hearty forest ranger
Hail it ere he fades away.

Where the tropics fiercely glow,
Broadly spread its page of wonders,
Brightly bid its radiance flow;
India marks its luster stealing;
Shiv'ring Greenland loves its rays,
Afric, 'mid her deserts kneeling,
Lifts the untaught strain of praise.

Dark in spirit, though they be,
Show that light to ev'ry creature—
Prince or vassal, bond or free;
Lo! they haste to ev'ry nation;
Host on host the ranks supply:
Onward! Christ is your salvation,
And your death is victory.

1276 Shout the tidings of salvation. 8s & 7s.

SHOOT the tidings of salvation,
To the aged and the young;
Till the precious invitation
Waken every heart and tongue.

CHORUS.

- Send the sound
The earth around,
From the rising to the setting of the sun,
Till each gathering crowd
Shall proclaim aloud,
The glorious work is done.
- 1 Shout the tidings of salvation,
O'er the prairies or the west;

8a & 7a

We are living, we are dwelling
In a grand and awful time
An age on ages telling:
To be living is sublime.

ark! the onset! will ye fold your Faith-clad arms in lazy lock?
O! O, up! thou drowsy soldier;
Worlds are charging to the shock.

Worlds are charging, heaven beholding;
Thou hast but an hour to fight;
Now, the blazoned cross unfolding,
On! right onward for the right.

On! let all the soul within you
For the truth's sake go abroad:
Strike! let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages—tell for God.

God speed the right!

NOW to heaven our prayer ascending,
God speed the right!
In a noble cause extending,
God speed the right!
Be their zeal in heaven recorded,
With success on earth rewarded?
God speed the right!

God speed the right!

God speed the right!

279 Blessed is the people that know, etc. C. M.
Psalm 89 : 15.

HOW sweet the gospel trumpet sounds!
Its notes are grace and love;
Its echo through the world resounds
From Jesus' throne above.

CHORUS.

It is the sound, the joyful sound,
Of mercy rich and free;
Pardon it offers, peace proclaims,
Sinner! It speaks to thee.

It tells the weary soul of rest,
The poor of heavenly wealth,
Of joy to heal the mourning breast;
It brings the sin-sick health.

Its words announce a heavenly feast
Of water, milk, and wine,
And manna in the wilderness,
Provisions all divine.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

It speaks of boundless grace by which
The vilest are forgiven;
To Christians it proclaims a rich
Inheritance in heaven.

5 To men of high and low degree,
Its message is address'd;
The Jew and Gentile, bond and free
Are with its blessings bless'd.

1280 All the kindreds of the nations. 8s, 7s & 4.
Psalm 22: 27.

O'ER the gloomy hills of darkness,
Look, my soul, be still and gaze;
All the promises do travail
With a glorious day of grace:
Blessed jubilee.

Let thy glorious morning dawn.
2 Let the Indian, let the negro,
Let the rude barbarian see,
That divine and glorious conquest
Once obtain'd on Calvary:
Let the gospel
Loud resound from pole to pole.

3 Kingdoms wide that sit in darkness,
Grant them, Lord, the glorious light
And from eastern coast to western,
May the morning chase the night!
And redemption,
Freely purchas'd, win the day.

4 Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel!
Win and conquer! never cease:
May thy lasting wide dominion
Multiply and still increase!
Sway thy scepter,
Saviour, all the world around.

Th' missionary's farewell. 8s, 7s & 4.

ES, my native land, I love thee;
All thy scenes, I love them well:
Thy friends, and happy country
In I bid you all farewell?

Can I leave you,
Or in heathen lands to dwell?

Years of sacred peace and pleasure,
Holy days and Sabbath bell,
Rest, brightest, sweetest treasure,
In I—can I say, farewell?

Can I leave you,
Or in heathen lands to dwell?

I hasten from you gladly:
The strangers let me tell
He died—the blessed Saviour—
To redeem a world from hell:

Let me hasten
Or in heathen lands to dwell.

Remember me on, thou restless ocean,
From the scenes I love so well:
Thou gives my heart with warm emotion,
While I go far hence to dwell:

Glad I bid thee,
Native land, farewell, farewell!

My name shall be great, etc. 8s 7s & 4.

Mal. 1: 11.

BRIGHT of them that sit in darkness,
Rise and shine, thy blessings bring
To lighten all the Gentiles!
Come with healing on thy wing;

To thy brightness
Let all kings and nations come.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

Idol-gods of wood and stone,
Come, and, worshiping before him,
Serve the living God alone!

Speak the word: at thy command
Let thy truth and faithful heralds
Spread thy name: from land to land:
Lord, be with them
Always to the end of time.

Nor drop a tear of sadness;
As on we glide,
Be thou our guide,
And fill our hearts with gladness.
- 3 We go 'mid pagan gloom
To spread the truth victorious;
Thy blessing send,
Thy word attend,
And make its triumph glorious.
- 4 And when our toils are done,
Smooth thou the dying pillow:
O, bring us blest
To endless rest,
Safe o'er death's troubled billow!

The day of joy.

11s & 10s.

WAKE thee, O Zion! thy mourning is ended;
God—thine own God—hath regarded thy prayer:
Wake thee, and hail him in glory descended.

Thy darkness to scatter—thy wastes to repair.

Wake thee, O Zion! his spirit of power

To newness of life is awaking the dead;

Array thee in beauty, and greet the glad hour

That brings thee salvation, through Jesus who bled.

Saviour, we gladly, with voices resounding

Loud as the thunder, our chorus would swell;

Till from rock, wood and mountain, its echoes rebounding,

To all the wide world of salvation shall tell.

285

Missionary hymn.

7s & 6s.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,

From India's coral strand—

Where Afric's sunny fountains

Roll down their golden sand—

From many an ancient river,

From many a palmy plain,

They call us to deliver

Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes

Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle—

Though ev'ry prospect pleases,

And only man is vile;

In vain with lavish kindness

The gifts of God are strewn;

The heathen, in their blindness,

Bow down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we whose souls are lighted

By wisdom from on high—

Shall we, to man benighted,

The lamp of life deny?

Salvation! O salvation!

The joyful sound proclaim,

Till earth's remotest nation

Has learned Messiah's name.

TIMES AND SEASONS.

4 Waft—waft, you winds, his story,
And you, you waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;
Till, o'er our ransom'd nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Rev. 14 : 6.

7s & 5s.

ONWARD speed thy conq'ring flight,
Angel, onward speed!
Cast abroad thy radiant light,
Bid the shades recede;
Tread the idols in the dust,
Heathen fanes destroy;
Spread the gospel's love and trust,
Spread the gospel's joy.

2 Onward speed thy conq'ring flight;
Angel, onward haste;
Quickly on each mountain hight
Be thy standard plac'd;
Let thy blissful tidings float
Far o'er vale and hill,
Till the sweetly-echoing note
Every bosom thrill.

3 Onward speed thy conq'ring flight,
Angel, onward fly!
Long has been the reign of night;
Bring the morning nigh:
Unto thee earth's sufferers lift
Their imploring wail;
Bear them heaven's holy gift,
Ere their courage fall.

4 Onward speed thy conq'ring flight,
Angel, onward speed!
Morning bursts upon our sight,
Lo! the time decreed:

THE SEA.

Now the Lord his kingdom takes,
Thrones and empires fall;
Now the joyous song awakes,
"God is All in All!"

287 Roll on thou mighty ocean. 7s & 6s.

ROLL on, thou mighty ocean:
And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mercy
To ev'ry land below.

2 Arise, ye gales, and waft them
Safe to the destin'd shore,
That man may sit in darkness
And death's deep shade no more.

3 O thou eternal Ruler,
Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the ocean,
Protect them from all harm.

4 O be thy presence with them,
Wherever they may be;
Though far from us who love them,
O be they still with thee!

THE SEA.

288 They that go down, etc. L. M. 6 lines.
Psalm 107 : 23.

ETERNAL Father! strong to save,
Whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep;
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea!

O Christ! whose voice the waters heard,
And hushed their raging at thy word,
Who walk'dst on the foaming deep,
And calm amidst its rage didst sleep;

TIMES AND SEASONS.

O hear us when we cry to thee
 For those in peril on the sea!
 : O God of boundless love and power!
 Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
 From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
 Protect them wheresoe'er they go.
 Thus evermore shall rise to thee
 Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

1289 He raiseth the stormy wind. L. M.
 Psalm 107: 25.

GLORY to thee, whose powerful word
 Bids the tempestuous wind arise;
 Glory to thee, the sovereign Lord
 Of air and earth, and seas and skies.

- 2 Let air and earth and skies obey,
 And seas thy awful will perform;
 From them we learn to own thy sway,
 And shout to meet the gathering storm.
- 3 What though the floods lift up their voice
 Thou hearest, Lord, our silent cry;
 They can not damp thy children's joys,
 Or shake the soul, while God is nigh.
- 4 Roar on, ye waves! our souls defy
 Your roaring to disturb their rest;
 In vain to impair the calm ye try—
 The calm in a believer's breast.

1290 The Lord is mightier, etc. L. M.
 Psalm 93: 4.

THE floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
 The mighty floods lift up their roar;
 The floods in tumult loud rejoice,
 And climb in foam the sounding shore.

- 2 But mightier than the mighty sea,
 The Lord of glory reigns on high;
 Far o'er its waves we look to thee,
 And see their fury break and die.

THE SEA.

- 3 Thy word is true, thy promise sure,
That ancient promise sealed in love;
Here be thy temple ever pure,
As thy pure mansions shine above.

1291 Rocked in the cradle of the deep. L. M.

- ROCKED in the cradle of the deep,
I lay me down in peace to sleep;
Secure I rest upon the wave,
For thou, O Lord! hast power to save.
- 2 I know thou wilt not slight my call!
For thou dost mark the sparrow's fall!
And calm and peaceful is my sleep,
Rocked in the cradle of the deep.
- 3 And such the trust that still were mine,
Though stormy winds swept o'er the brine,
Or though the tempest's fiery breath
Roused me from sleep to wreck and death!
- 4 In ocean caves still safe with thee,
The germs of immortality;
And calm and peaceful is my sleep,
Rocked in the cradle of the deep.

1292 Let not the deep swallow me up. C. M.

Psalm 69: 1b.

- HOW are thy servants blest, O Lord!
How sure is their defense!
Eternal Wisdom is their guide,
Their help, Omnipotence.
- 2 In foreign realms, and lands remote,
Supported by thy care,
Through burning climes they pass unburnt,
And breathe in tainted air.
- 3 When by the dreadful tempest borne
High on the broken wave,
They know thou art not slow to hear,
Nor impotent to save.

And humbly hope for more. —

1293 Thy path in the great waters.
Psalm

THY way is in the deep, O Lord,
E'en there we'll go with thee;
We'll meet the tempest at thy word,
And walk upon the sea!

2 Poor tremblers at his rougher word,
Why do we doubt him so?—
Who gives the storm a path, we heard,
The way our feet shall go.

3 A moment may his hand be lost
Drear moment of delay!—
We cry, "Lord, help the tempest's host,
And safe we're borne away.

1294 Far, far at sea.

STAR of Peace, to wanderers
Bright the beams that smile
Cheer the pilot's vision dreary,
Far, far at sea.

2 Star of Hope, gleam on the bill
Bless the soul that sighs for thee

[REDACTED]

4 Star Divine! O, safely guide him—
Bring the wanderer home to thee;
Sore temptations long have tried him,
Far, far at sea.

1295 Thou rulest the raging of the sea.
Psalms 89: 9.

LORD! whom winds and seas obey,
Guide us through the watery way;
In the hollow of thy hand
Hide, and bring us safe to land.

2 Jesus! let our faithful mind
Rest, on thee alone reclined;
Every anxious thought repress:
Keep our souls in perfect peace.

3 Keep the souls whom now we leave;
Bid them to each other cleave;
Bid them walk on life's rough sea;
Bid them come by faith to thee.

4 Save, till all these tempests end,
All who on thy love depend ;
Waft our happy spirits o'er,
Land us on the heavenly shore.

1296 Lord, save, or we perish. 19

WHEN through the torn sail the wild tempest is streaming,
When o'er the dark wave the red lightning is gleaming,
Nor hope lends a ray, the poor seaman to cherish,
We fly to our Maker—Save, Lord, or we perish!

2 O Jesus, once rock'd on the breast of the billow,
Arm'd by the shriek of despair from thy pillow,
Now sent in glory, the mariner cherish,
Who cries, in his anguish—Save, Lord, or we perish!

3 And, O, when the whirlwind of passion is raging,
When sin in our hearts its sad warfare is waging,
Then send down thy grace, thy redeemed to cherish ;
Relieve the destroyer—Save, Lord, or we perish !

MARRIAGE HYMNS.

1297

John 2: 2.

C. M.

SINCE Jesus freely did appear
To grace a marriage feast;
O Lord, we ask thy presence here
To make a wedding guest.

2 Upon the bridal pair look down,
Who now have plighted hands;
Their union with thy favor crown,
And bless the nuptial bands.

3 With gifts of grace their hearts endow,
Of all rich dowries best;
Their substance bless, and peace bestow
To sweeten all the rest.

4 In purest love their souls unite,
That they, with Christian care,
May make domestic burdens light,
By taking mutual share.

1298

Not good for man to be alone.

C. M.

Gen. 2: 18.

NOT for the summer hour alone,
When skies resplendent shine,
And youth and pleasure fill the throne,
Our hearts and hands we join,—

2 But for those stern and wintry days
Of sorrow, pain, and fear,
When heaven's wise discipline doth make
Our earthly journey dear.

3 Not for this span of life alone,
Which like a blast doth fly,
And, as the transient flowers of grass,
Just blossom, droop, and die,—

DEDICATORY.

This vow of love we take:
Grant us, O Lord, one home at last,
For thy great mercy's sake.

Matt. 19: 5.

FATHER of the human race,
Sanction with thy heavenly grace
What on earth hath now been done,
That these twain be truly one.

- 2 One in sickness and in health,
One in poverty and wealth,
And as year rolls after year,
Each to other still more dear.
- 3 One in purpose, one in heart,
Till the mortal stroke shall part;
One in cheerful piety,
One for ever, Lord, with thee.

How much less this house.

I. M

1 Kings 8: 27.

THE perfect world, by Adam trod,
Was the first temple built to God;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars one by one.

- 2 He hung its starry roof on high—
The broad, illimitable sky;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,
And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood,
The sea—the sky—and “all was good;”
And when its first few praises rang
The “morning stars together sang.”

TIMES AND SEASONS.

- 4 Lord, 't is not ours to make the sea,
And earth, and sky, a house for thee;
But in thy sight our off'ring stands—
— An humbler temple, "made with hands."
- 5 We can not bid the morning star
To sing how bright thy glories are;
But, Lord, if thou wilt meet us here,
Thy praise shall be the Christian's tear.

1301

Peace be within thy walls.

H. M

Psalm 122: 7.

- IN sweet, exalted strains,
The King of glory praise;
O'er heaven and earth he reigns,
Through everlasting days;
Beneath this roof, O deign to show
How God can dwell with men below.
- 2 Here may thine ears attend
Our interceding cries;
And grateful praise ascend,
All fragrant, to the skies;
Here may thy word melodious sound,
And spread the joys of heaven around.
- 3 Here may th' attentive throng
Imbibe thy truth and love;
And converts join the song
Of seraphim above;
And willing crowds surround thy board,
With sacred joy and sweet accord.
- 4 Here may our unborn sons
And daughters sound thy praise,
And shine like polished stones
Through long-succeeding days;
Here, Lord! display thy saving power,
While temples stand, and men adore.

DEDICATORY.

2 He called the name of that place Beth-el. L. M.
Gen. 28: 19.

BOW thine ear, eternal One,
On thee our heart adoring calls;
Thee the followers of thy Son
Have raised, and now devote these walls
Let thy holy days be kept;
And be this place to worship given,
Be that bright spot where Jacob slept,
The house of God, the gate of heaven.
Here may thine honor dwell; and here,
As incense, let thy children's prayer,
On contrite hearts and lips sincere,
Rise on the still and holy air.
Here be thy praise devoutly sung;
Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
When, of old, thy Spirit hung,
In wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.
And when the lips, that with thy name
Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
Others may devotion's flame
Be kindled here, and purely burn!

3 In his temple we speak of his glory. C. M.
Psalm 29: 9.

THOU, whose own vast temple stands
Built over earth and sea,
Except the walls that human hands
Have raised to worship thee.
And from thine inmost glory send,
Within these courts to bide,
The peace that dwelleth, without end,
Evernely by thy side.
O ye erring minds, that worship here,
Be taught the better way;
And they who mourn, and they who fear,
Be strengthened as they pray.

- LORD of hosts, to thee we raise
Here a house of prayer and
Thou thy people's hearts prepare
Here to meet for praise and prayer
- 2 Let the living here be fed
With thy word, the heavenly bread
Here, in hope of glory blest,
May the dead be laid to rest.
- 3 Here to thee a temple stand,
While the sea shall gird the land
Here reveal thy mercy sure,
While the sun and moon endure
- 4 Hallelujah!—earth and sky
To the joyful sound reply;
Hallelujah!—hence ascend
Prayer and praise till time shall end

MISCELLANEOUS.

1305 Here have we no continuing city. L. M.
Heb. 13: 14.

“WE’VE no abiding city here;”
Sad truth, were this to be our home;
But let this thought our spirits cheer,
“We seek a city yet to come.”

2 "We've no abiding city here;"
We seek a city out of sight:
Zion its name—the Lord is there,
It shines with everlasting light.

3 O sweet abode of peace and love,
Where pilgrims freed from toil are blest !
Had I the pinions of the dove,
I'd fly to thee, and be at rest.

4 But hush, my soul! nor dare repine;
The time my God appoints is best:
While here, to do his will be mine,
And his to fix my time of rest.

1306 The mercies of God. L. M.
Rom. 12: 2.

MY God, how endless is thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies, from above,
Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours;
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

8 I yield my powers to thy command;
To thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1307 Lord, let thy goodness lead our land. L. M.

LORD, let thy goodness lead our land,
Still sav'd by thine almighty hand,
The tribute of its love to bring
To thee, our Saviour and our King.

2 Let ev'ry public temple raise
Triumphant songs of holy praise;
Let ev'ry peaceful, private home
A temple, Lord, to thee become.

3 Still be it our supreme delight
To walk as in thy glorious sight;
Still in thy precepts and thy fear,
Till life's last hour, to persevere.

1308 Submission. C. M.

TEACH us, in time of deep distress,
To own thy hand, O God,
And in submissive silence learn
The lessons of thy rod.

2 In ev'ry changing scene of life,
Whatever that scene may be,
Give us a meek and humble mind,
A mind at peace with thee.

3 Do thou direct our steps aright;
Help us thy name to fear;
And give us grace to watch and pray,
And strength to persevere.

4 Then may we close our eyes in death,
Without a fear or care;
For death is life, and labor rest,
If thou art with us there.

1309 Psaln 145 : 18. C. M.

DEAR Father, to thy mercy-seat
My soul for shelter flies;
'Tis here I find a safe retreat
When storms and tempests rise.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- 2 My cheerful hope can never die,
If thou, my God, art near;
Thy grace can raise my comforts high
And banish every fear.
- 3 My great Protector, and my Lord!
Thy constant aid impart;
O! let thy kind, thy gracious word
Sustain my trembling heart.
- 4 O! never let my soul remove
From this divine retreat;
Still let me trust thy power and love,
And dwell beneath thy feet.

1310 The hour of prayer. C. M.

- THOU Lord of life! whose tender care
Hath led us on till now,
We in this quiet hour of prayer
Before thy presence bow.
- 2 Thou, blessed God! hast been our Guide
Through life our Guard and Friend;
O, still, on life's uncertain tide,
Preserve us to the end!
- 3 To thee our grateful praise we bring,
For mercies day by day:
Lord, teach our hearts thy love to sing,
Lord, teach us how to pray!

1311 Love of God. C. M.

- THOU Grace divine, encircling all,
A soundless, shoreless sea!
Wherein at last, our souls shall fall,
O Love of God most free!
- 2 When over dizzy steep we go,
One soft hand blinds our eyes,
The other leads us safe and slow
O Love of God most wise!

MISCELLANEOUS:

- 3 And though we turn us from thy face,
And wander wide and long,
Thou hold'st us still in thine embrace.
O Love of God most strong!
- 4 The saddened heart, the restless soul
The toilworn frame and mind,
Alike confess thy sweet control,
O Love of God most kind!
- 6 But not alone thy care we claim,
Our wayward steps to win:
We know thee by a dearer name,
O Love of God within!
- 6 And filled and quickened by thy breath,
Our souls are strong and free
To rise o'er sin, and fear, and death,
O Love of God, to thee!

1312 They that seek me early shall find me. C. M.
Prov. 8: 17.

- HAPPY the child whose tender years
Receive instruction well,
Who hates the sinner's path, and fears
The road that leads to hell.
- 2 'T will save us from a thousand snares
To mind religion young.
Grace will preserve our foll'wing years,
And make our virtues strong.
- 3 To thee, Almighty God, to thee
Our childhood we resign;
'T will please us to look back and see
That our whole lives were thine.
- 4 O let the work of pray'r and praise
Employ my youngest breath;
Thus I'm prepar'd for longer days,
Or fit for early death.

Vespers.

C. M. 6 lines.

- O SHADOW in a sultry land
 We gather to thy breast,
 Whose love, unfolding like the night,
 Brings quietude and rest,
 Glimpse of the fairer life to be,
 In foretaste here possessed ;
- 2 From aimless wanderings we come,
 From drifting to and fro ;
 The wave of being mingles deep,
 Amid its ebb and flow ;
 The grander sweep of tides serene
 Our spirits yearn to know !
- 3 That which the garish day had lost
 The twilight vigil brings,
 While softer the vesper bell
 Its silver cadence rings.—
 The sense of an immortal trust,
 The brush of angel wings !
- 4 Drop down behind the solemn hills,
 O Day, with golden skies !
 Serene above its fading glow.
 Night, starry-crowned, arise !
 So beautiful may heaven be,
 When Life's last sunbeam dies !

1314

Christ the Day-Star.

S. M

- WE lift our hearts to thee,
 Thou Day-star from on high :
 The sun itself is but thy shade,
 Yet cheers both earth and sky.
- 2 O, let thy rising beams
 Dispel the shades of night ;
 And let the glories of thy love,
 Come like the morning light !

MISCELLANEOUS.

- 3 How beauteous nature now !
How dark and sad before !—
With joy we view the pleasing change,
And nature's God adore.
- 4 May we this life improve,
To mourn for errors past ;
And live this short, revolving day
As if it were our last.

1315

Evening.

C. M.

- O LORD! another day is flown,
And we, a feeble band,
Are met once more before thy throne,
To bless thy fostering hand.
- 2 Thy heavenly grace to each impart;
All evil far remove;
And shed abroad in every heart
Thine everlasting love.
- 3 Our souls, obedient to thy sway,
In Christian bonds unite;
Let peace and love conclude the day.
And hail the morning light.
- 4 Thus, cleansed from sin, and wholly thine,
A flock by Jesus led,
The Sun of Righteousness shall shine
In glory on our head.
- 5 O still restore our wandering feet,
And still direct our way,
Till worlds shall fall, and faith shall greet
The dawn of endless day.

1316

Flee as a bird.

P. M

- FLEE as a bird to your mountain,
Thou who art weary of sin ;
Go to the clear flowing fountain.
Where you may wash and be clean.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Fly for th' avenger is near thee;
 Call and the Saviour will hear thee,
 He, on his bosom will bear thee,
 Thou who art weary of sin,
 O thou who art weary of sin."

- 2 He will protect thee for ever,
 Wipe every falling tear;—
 He will forsake thee, O never,
 Sheltered so tenderly there;
 Haste, then, the hours are flying,
 Spend not the moments in sighing,
 Cease from your sorrow and crying,
 The Saviour will wipe ev'ry tear,
 The Saviour will wipe ev'ry tear.

317 Evening prayer. P. M.

I COME to thee to-night,
 In my lone closet, where no eye can see,
 And dare to crave an interview with thee,
 Father of love and light.

2 Softly the moonbeams shine
 On the still branches of the shadowy trees,
 While all sweet sounds of evening on the
 Steal through the slumbering vine. [breeze

3 Thou gav'st the calm repose
 That rests on all; the air, the birds, the flower,
 The human spirit in its weary hour,
 Now at the bright day's close.

4 Father! my soul would be
 Pure as the drops of eve's unsullied dew—
 And as the stars whose nightly course is true—
 So would I be to thee.

5 Not for myself alone
 Would I the blessings of thy love implore;
 But for each penitent the wide earth o'er
 Whom thou hast called thine own.

MISCELLANEOUS.

6 And for my heart's best friends,
Whose steadfast kindness o'er my painful years
Has watched, to soothe affliction's griefs and
My warmest prayer ascends. [tears,

7 And now, O Father, take
The heart I cast with humble faith on thee,
And cleanse its depths from each impurity,
For my Redeemer's sake.

1318

Calvary.

6s & 4s.

WHENE'ER I think of thee,
O! sacred Calvary,
Love fills my breast.
Flow, then, the joyous tears;
Flee, all my guilty fears;
Saviour! thy cross appears,
And I find rest.

2 When from thy bleeding side,
I see the crimson tide
Streaming for me;
Faith in thy flowing blood,
O! spotless Lamb of God,
Points me from earth's dark clod,
Upward to thee.

3 When death's unsparing dart
Pierces my fainting heart,
Sweetly I'll sing:
Grave! thou no terror hast;
All fearful gloom is past;
Victor through Christ at last
Death has no sting!

1319

Invitation.

8s & 7s

COME to Calv'ry's holy mountain,
Sinners, ruined by the fall!
Here a pure and healing fountain,
Flows to cleanse the guilty soul;

MISCELLANEOUS.

In a full, perpetual tide,
Open'd when the Saviour died.

2 Come in sorrow and contrition,
Wounded, impotent, and blind;
Here the guilty find remission,
Here the lost a refuge find;
Health this fountain will restore;
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

3 Come, ye dying, live for ever,
'T is a soul-reviving flood:
God is faithful—he will never
Break the cov'nant, sealed in blood;
Signed, when our Redeemer died,
Sealed, when he was crucified.

1320 Glory to our King. 7s 6 lines.

GLORY, glory to our King!
G Crowns unfading wreath his head;
Jesus is the name we sing—
Jesus risen from the dead;
Jesus, Victor of the grave;
Jesus, mighty now to save.

2 Now behold him high enthron'd
Glory beaming from his face,
By adoring angels own'd
God of holiness and grace:
O for hearts and tongues to sing,
Glory, glory to our King!

3 Jesus, on thy people shine;
Warm our hearts and tune our tongues,
That with angels we may join.—
Share their bliss, and swell their songs:
Glory, honor, praise, and power,
Lord, be thine for evermore.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1321

Night.

8s & 7s

HEAR my prayer, O Heavenly Father,
Ere I lay me down to sleep:
Bid thy angels pure and holy
Round my bed their vigil keep.

1 Great my sins are, but thy mercy
Far outweighs them every one;
Down before thy cross I cast them,
'Trusting in thy help alone.

2 Keep me through this night of peril,
Underneath its boundless shade;
Take me to thy rest, I pray thee,
When my pilgrimage is made!

3 None shall measure out thy patience
By the span of human thought;
None shall bound the tender mercies
Which thy holy Son hath wrought.

4 Pardon all my past transgressions;
Give me strength for days to come;
Guide and guard me with thy blessing
Till thine angels bid me home!

1322

Our Mediator.

8s & 7s.

JESUS, hail! enthron'd in glory,
There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly host adore thee,
Seated at thy Father's side.

1 There for sinners thou art pleading;
There thou dost our place prepare;
Ever for us interceding,
Till in glory we appear.

2 Worship, honor, pow'r, and blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- 4 Help, ye bright, angelic spirits;
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

323 Adoration. 8s. 7s & 4s

- [ET us sing the King Messiah,
King of Righteousness and Peace:
Hail him, all his happy subjects,
Never let his praises cease!
Ever hail him,
Let his honors still increase!
- 2 How transcendent are thy glories!
Fairer than the sons of men,
While thy blessed mediation
Brings us back to God again!
Bless'd Redeemer,
How we triumph in thy reign!
- 3 Gird thy sword on, Mighty Hero,
Make thy word of truth thy car,
Prosper in thy course triumphant,
All success attend thy war!
Gracious Victor,
Let mankind before thee bow!
- 4 Blessed are all that touch thy scepter,
Blessed are all that own thy reign!
Freed from sin, that worst of tyrants,
Rescued from his galling chain!
Saints and angels,
All who know thee bless thy name!

324 Excellency of Christ. H. M

- () YOU immortal throng
Of angels round the throne,
Join with our feeble song
To make the Saviour known:
On earth you knew his wondrous grace:
In heaven you view his beauteous face.

MISCELLANEOUS.

- 2 You saw the heavenly child
In human flesh arrayed,
All innocent and mild,
While in a manger laid ;
And praise to God, and peace on earth,
Proclaimed aloud, for such a birth.
- 3 You in the wilderness
Beheld the tempter spoiled,
Well known in ev'ry dress,
In every combat foiled :
And joyed to crown the Victor's head,
Before his frown when Satan fled.
- 4 Around the bloody tree
You pressed with strong desire,
That wondrous sight to see—
The Lord of life expire !
And could your eyes have known a tear,
In sad surprise had dropped it there.
- 5 Around his sacred tomb
A willing watch you keep,
Till the blest moment come
To rouse him from his sleep ;
Then rolled the stone, and all adored
With joy unknown, our rising Lord.
- 6 When, all arrayed in light,
The shining Conqueror rode,
You hailed his rapturous flight
Up to the throne of God ;
Your golden wings you waved around,
And struck your strings of sweetest sound
- 7 The warbling notes pursue,
And louder anthems raise,
While mortals sing with you
Their own Redeemer's praise.
And you, my heart, with equal flame,
Perform your part with joy the same.
